COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal

Session 1939. 133d of the General Assembly.

Vol. 23. HARRISBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 29, 1939. No. 66.

SENATE

MONDAY, May 29, 1939.

The Senate met at 9:00 o'clock a. m., E. S. T.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. BURLEIGH A. PETERS, offered the following prayer:

With the resumption of an additional day's labors, Our Father, weary and worn though we be, we recognize more clearly the absolute need of the strength and guidance which alone proceeds from Thee and for these we humbly pray.

While the necessity of yet further legislation seems apparent, it is well that we approach Thee e'er we begin its enactment, that the vital issues yet before this Assembly may be clearly seen and analyzed in the light of truth. Thou art truth and in Thy light may we walk this day that truth may prevail.

As the saying is recorded at the very entrance to our Capitol grounds—"Freedom can exist only in the society of knowledge", we turn to Thee, the very fountain-head of knowledge, that that which we do here today may vouchsafe continued freedom unto our people and fellow-citizens.

Let us labor honestly that our motives may not be impugned, our utterances assailed nor our legislation be motivated by any other desire than to assure the greatest possible good to the greatest possible number.

Propelled by the desire to complete our task aright we continue now in the light of truth. We pray in the name of Thy Christ. Amen

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. OWLETT and Mr. WOODWARD, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia. Mr. Woodward, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am in favor of having the Senate prayed for regularly, and I do not want to deny the Chaplain his per diem for that fine prayer, but I submit this is not a legislative day, and therefore we are not entitled to a prayer.

The PRESIDENT. For the information of the Senator from Philadelphia, this is a new legislative day, the Senate having adjourned from Saturday, May 27th, to Monday May 29th, at 9:00 o'clock a. m., E. S. T.

Mr. WOODWARD. I apologize, Mr. President.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege for three or four minutes.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, back in the City of Butler is a very reputable and high class family, descendants of the Pennsylvania Germans, descendants of the Mennonites, a very high class Republican family that owns and operates the only daily newspaper in Butler County, namely, the Butler Eagle, a newspaper of 15,000 circulation.

Mr. President, my relations with this family have always been of the most intimate kind. When I came to Butler in 1907 from my native county of Armstrong to read law, and not knowing anybody in the city of Butler, the father of this family, now deceased, a very brilliant and capable lawyer, then president of the Butler County Law Examining Board, took me, a stranger, into his office—a poor stranger who at that time had less than five dollars to his name. I registered with him as a student of law, studying in the night time and working in the Standard Steel Car Plant near Butler, in the day time to make a few dollars to keep body and soul together.

Mr. President, the friendship then formed with the father of this family and with his sons has grown the stronger through the passing years. notwithstanding the fact that they are stalwart Republicans and I am a Democrat.

Mr. President, I would believe anything any member of that reputable family would tell me; I ask no questions when they make statements to me.

Mr. President, on Friday I had a telephone conversation with the now head of that family since the able lawyer, my friend, sank into his grave in 1924; and that conversation coming over the wire from him was to this effect: he said to me when the story came back to Butler that the Butler Tuberculosis Sanatorium was built in a swamp, knowing that such story is ridiculous, but wanting to have something official to quote about it he got in touch with the United States engineer whose duty it is to inspect all grounds in which the government of the United States puts money. So, he said to me he, with the engineer went diligently over every foot, practically, of the grounds on which these wonderful buildings are located and the engineer said to him he never heard of a more absurd and ridiculous statement than the statement these fine buildings are erected in a swamp.

He said the engineer told him all grounds upon which big buildings are built need some grading after the buildings are up; that is a matter of common knowledge; but that all the grading of the ground upon which this institution rests, all the grading necessary to divert the surface water that comes from the surface during rains, all that grading will mean an expense of possibly not more than $5,000 and probably as low as $3,000. And he asked me, the editor and owner of that newspaper, my personal friend over many years, to convey that side of the case to the Senate of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I know that in my zeal for humanity, my zeal for the opening of this institution as soon as it is completed, I have made a good many short speeches on the floor of this Senate; I know those speeches have given annoyance to some of my colleagues in the Senate; I know all of that.

I want to say, further, a couple of weeks ago our friend Joe Miller, of the Philadelphia Inquirer, served notice upon me it would be vain for me to make any more speeches for the Butler Sanatorium's opening; he said, there would be no publicity given to them.

Well, I want to say to the members of this Senate and our little friend Miller that I am not talking to Joe Miller, I am talking to the Pennsylvania Senate. I formed the conclusion, Mr. President, soon after this session convened, that Joe Miller was not running the Senate of Pennsylvania; and, Mr. President, I still am under that same impression; I still have the conclusion Joe Miller is not running the Senate of Pennsylvania, even in these closing hours. I have made diligent search through the books, and I find nothing in the books to disturb the conclusion I have at present, that Joe is not running the Senate of Pennsylvania.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Coleman, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, Pennsylvania has been fortunate in that over a long period of years she has had as her presiding officer in the State Senate some of the outstanding citizens of the Commonwealth, and I believe this session now rapidly drawing to a close is no exception.

I feel, Mr. President, that to let this Senate adjourn without giving expression to my feeling I would be false to my deepest emotion.

I have always believed, and my belief is shared by many others, that the presiding officer in a State Senate can, by his presence and his personality, by his impartial treatment of the gentlemen of the Senate, weld a State Senate into an instrument attuned not to a legislative funeral march but rather to an anthem of legislative achievement, and to that high ideal I think the presiding officer of this Senate dedicated himself in this particular session.

I could not possibly let this Session adjourn without saying to him, and I know I am expressing the honest sentiment rooted deeply in the hearts of the Democratic members of this Senate that we think you have done a swell job; we believe your handling of this session, your fair treatment of us, has won the love, compelled the respect, and challenged the admiration of all the people of the Commonwealth; and I can not, as I said before, let this session adjourn without saying to you we think you have done a swell job and we are grateful to you for it.

The PRESIDENT. I want you to know, Senator Coleman, I appreciate those words. When I took the gavel, you will recall, I said I was going to endeavor to preside over this Senate impartially, and that is what I have tried to do. Naturally, I was here during trying times but I have never lost track of the fact that what I was trying to carry out, as President, as the presiding officer should, was to be impartial and that is the way I am going to continue as log as I occupy the chair.

I know all of you do not agree with me in my political belief, but I believe the only time I mentioned politics was in my address, short as it was, when I was inducted into office, when I said if I was required to vote, my only interest would be in trying to carry out the pledges of the platform on which I was elected, and the platform from which the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, quotes so frequently, from his little red, white, and blue book.

I do appreciate those words coming from one on the Democratic side.

HOUSE MESSAGES

URGING PENNSYLVANIA SENATORS AND REPRESENTATIVES IN CONGRESS TO PROTECT PENNSYLVANIA TERRITORY IN RAILROAD TRANSPORTATION AND FREIGHT RATES

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced informed the Senate that the House has concurred in Resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, April 5, 1939.

Whereas, It is harmful to labor, agriculture and industry in Pennsylvania to compel by legislative action the establishment and maintenance of freight rates from one rate territory to another on the rate per mile that applies within the destination territory which in turn would provide a substantially higher rate in one direction than in another over the same rails and between the same points; and

Whereas, The United States has been naturally divided into several rate territories because of differing costs of transportation caused primarily from the fact of differing volumes of tonnage produced and available for transportation in the various sections of the country; and

Whereas, Pennsylvania is located in what is designated Official Territory and being that territory lying east of the Mississippi River and north of the Ohio and Potomac Rivers, and recognized as one of the greatest industrial sections, not only of the United States but of the entire world, and because of this fact it provides the greatest number of tons per mile of transportation and consequently the lowest cost of operation for the railroads in that territory of any territory in the United States; and

Whereas, Legislative action of this character would require the Interstate Commerce Commission, regardless of the facts, evidence, equity, their better judgment or otherwise, to disregard differing costs which form the basis for these different rate territories, and arbitrarily make from Official Territory to all other territories rates which would be materially higher than would be charged shippers in these other territories from shipping the same or similar articles, the same or similar distances into Pennsylvania, to the serious disadvantage of, and discrimination against Pennsylvania; and

Whereas, Such a prejudice to Pennsylvania and preference of these other territories would not only seriously restrict the marketing and consequently the production of articles of commerce in Pennsylvania to the substantial and grave loss to its labor, agriculture and industry, but, even more seriously, would induce substantial removal of manufacturing operations from Pennsylvania to these more favored localities to the disadvantage of all its citizens; therefore be it

Resolved, By the Senate of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, The House of Representatives Concurring, that Pennsylvania Senators and Representatives in the Congress of the United States be earnestly requested and urged to use their efforts to convince their colleagues in both houses of Congress of the unfairness and impropriety of such legislative action; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of this resolution be forwarded to each member of the Seventy-sixth Congress from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

COMMENDING MAJOR-GENERAL ROBERT McKUNE VAIL, RETIRED FOR HIS ACTIVE MILITARY SERVICE TO THE STATE AND TO THE NATION

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in Resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, April 27, 1939.

General Order No. 7 emanating from the office of the Adjutant General's office of the Department of Military Affairs on April 2d, announced the retirement of Brigadier General Robert McKune Vail, Commanding the 53d Field Artillery Brigade, and his promotion in the Retired List to the rank of Major General.

General Vail served with the Pennsylvania National Guard since 1894 and practically all of his service was with the 109th Infantry.

He entered the Federal service with his regiment in the Spanish War, saw service in the Philippine insurrection, on the Mexican Border and in the World War.

He has served as Commander of the Department of Pennsylvania of the American Legion and as United States Marshall for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

General Vail was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross with the following citation:

"During the crossing of the Vesle River, Major Vail expedited the construction of bridges by his advice and assistance. He personally cut a passageway through enemy barbed wire along the river, and then led his troops through this opening. When the officers of a supporting Infantry company had been killed and the men were falling back in confusion, Major Vail kept his forces intact 1,200 yards in front of any Infantry support, holding the position until reinforced by an Infantry unit."

He was awarded the French Legion d'Honneur (chevalier) with the following citation:

"At the crossing of the Vesle on September 5, 1918, with admirable ardor he personally prepared for the passage of his battalion by having foot bridges constructed under a violent machine-gun fire, thus permitting the forward movement of an entire regiment of infantry."

He was also awarded the French Croix de Guerre, with Palm, by orders of the French Armies of the East, under date of April 13, 1919.

Although now retired, the experience and ability and courage of General Vail gained during forty-five years of honorable service are still subject to call from his country; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania congratulates General Vail upon the enviable record of outstanding service performed for the Commonwealth and for the Nation, and extends to him its full measure of gratitude for that service and for the part he has so conspicuously and courageously played in the military annals of the Commonwealth; and be it further

Resolved, That as a lasting testimonal of that gratitude and a fitting tribute to that record, the Secretary of the Senate and the Chief Clerk of the House are hereby instructed to forward a copy of this resolution to General Robert McKune Vail.

JOSEPH SAXTON MEMORIAL

He also informed the Senate that the House has concurred in Resolution from the Senate as follows:

In the Senate, May 10, 1939.

Joseph Saxton, a former resident of Huntingdon, was one of the world's most outstanding inventors.

Joseph Saxton, without benefit of higher education, was nevertheless a prolific inventor. His scientific skill and mechanical ingenuity won him recognition on two continents. As one of the fifty charter members of the National Academy of Sciences he did much to foster the early development of American industry.

Among his most famous inventions are the first magneto-electric machine (forerunner of the modern electric generator) and the metallic cartridge which revolutionized the world's weapons. Scores of other inventions were the product of his fertile imagination.

A native of Huntingdon, Pennsylvania, a citizen of Philadelphia, and in later years a resident of Washington, D. C., he contributed in no small measure to the advancement of his state and his nation. Never did he invent for pecuniary gain. He gave liberally of his labors apparently without thought of reward. His work elecited comments from the eminent scientists of his day, such as Michael Faraday and the British engineers, Telford and Brunel, with all of whom he was intimately acquainted.

These achievements reflect great honor upon the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and are worthy of being commemorated in some fitting manner by the Commonwealth.

The fitting commemoration of outstanding achievements performed by native Pennsylvania acts as an incentive to others to perform meritorious service; therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur) That the Pennsylvania Historical Commission is hereby authorized to obtain or prepare a suitable memorial to commemorate the noteworthy achievements of the said Joseph Saxton, a former Pennsylvanian, and erect or place the same at a suitable place in the Capitol Building at Harrisburg.

SENATE BILL No. 129 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 129, entitled:

An Act regulating marriages and the issuance of licenses to marry; imposing duties upon the clerks of the orphans' courts and persons who perform marriage ceremonies; providing for the annulment of marriage for certain violations of this act; and fixing other penalties.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 518, (House Bill No. 1414), entitled:

An Act to further amend section one, and a part of section two of the act approved the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (P. L. 119), entitled "An act for the promotion of medical science by the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies for scientific purposes through a board created for that purpose and to prevent unauthorized uses and traffic in human bodies," changing the membership of the board and the functions of the Secretary of Health with reference thereto; requiring audits by the Auditor General and reports of the activities of the board; and providing for the burial of unclaimed bodies unfit for anatomical purposes.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill in which concurrence of the Senate has been asked indicates to my mind what can occur in the closing hours of a session when we agree to matters of this kind hurriedly.

The bill we are talking about is the Chapman bill, dealing with anatomical bodies.

On the Calendar today we have two bills. Both of those bills provide, as amended, instead of unclaimed bodies being disposed of by the coroner of Philadelphia, as they are today, as with all other bodies in cities of the first class—that is changed and it puts back the burial of these bodies under the County Commissioners, who do not have the facilities, because they have not been doing it for years, and there seems to be a quarrel as to who will bury the bodies.

We have two bills on the Calendar today and both provide exactly the same thing, taking out the provision that in cities of the first class bodies shall be buried by the coroner.

The Senate amendments increased the fee from fifty dollars to seventy-five dollars, but I raised an objection and it went back to fifty dollars, and now it comes back with the same provision.

There are two bills on the Calendar today, Senate Bill No. 734 and Senate Bill No. 1053. Both bills provide exactly the same thing. This bill comes back from the House with that kind of amendment, and we are asked to concur on it.

I say it points out very definitely that we have got to watch all of these amendments as they come over, and I certainly do not think the members of this Senate want to be parties to a matter of this kind, to take this burial of bodies away from the coroner, where it belongs, and shift it back again. After all, we have more important subjects before us in these last hours of this session; and I ask that this not be done.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to concur with my colleague, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, and I think it is too bad we should have three bills using up the printer's time and our time on this very small subject, as to who shall get the care of a small number of dead bodies. As the Senator has said, the county commissioners are not in the business, it is a part time job with them and it is a full time job with the coroner.

I am ready to sign up in a league against all three of the bills, and I will vote with my Democratic colleague

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, under the law as it is at the present time, or as it was changed in 1937, the only county as I understand it, in the state in which the commissioners do not bury those bodies is within the confines of Philadelphia county, where it was changed to the coroner. In every other county the commissioners handle it. I did not know it had been changed in this bill, and I quite agree it is not an important matter at all. Nevertheless it is putting the law back, making it uniform in all counties.

As far as I am concerned, I am tired of trying to fix up Philadelphia different from any other county in the State of Pennsylvania, just because one organization or the other happens to want it that way.

This bill, as I understand it, makes that uniform for the whole State of Pennsylvania. We have not yet come to the bills on the Calendar but when we do this can be discussed; and I certainly think we should not have a conference committee on an anatomical bill.

I move that we concur in the amendments.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to point out to the gentleman from Tioga there is a specific reason why it must be different in Philadelphia than in other counties. Philadelphia is the only county co-extensive with the city. County commissioners are different creatures in Philadelphia than anywhere else. In other counties the county commissioners would have to do that, because maybe there would be three of four cities where the question might arise and there would be a conflict.

The reason the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, agrees with me is that the commissioners of Philadelphia County are not in a position to dispose of these bodies. Mr. Witkin, one of the Commissioners himself raised the question and said they were not in a position to dispose of the bodies, and the coroner was given the job. He has the facilities and it saves money for the county. The reason it was put back is because somebody in Philadelphia, without the knowledge of the Republican floor leader, has some axe to grind. Those are the facts and that is all there is to it. I do not think we should go along with that.

I want to point out that on many occasions Senators on the other side became annoyed when we wanted to see what amendments were when they came over.

The bill Mr. Chapman introduced has a good purpose and there is a specific reason for it. We went over it and finally came to an agreement, and now it comes back with something else in it. If we had taken the easy way and said, "Oh, let it go", this is what we would have here.

SENATE BILL No. 518 LAID ON THE TABLE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask that this bill be laid on the table for the present.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE BILL No. 584 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 584, entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act, approved the first day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-seven (3 Smith's Laws 294), entitled "An act to regulate the manner of selling loaf bread, and to repeal certain existing laws respecting the same," by changing the manner of selling bread.

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 584, (House Bill No. 1545), entitled:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I would like to make an inquiry about these telephones. I do not use the telephone very often, but several times within the last few days I have gone back there to make a call and there were people using the booths I know now do not belong to this State Senate, and I think that should be investigated somewhat by the proper authorities.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair quite agrees with the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed. They are not only using telephones but they are using other facilities which are for the Senate, occupying chairs, lounges and every other thing. We try to be courteous; but from now on every one not entitled to the use of the rooms to the rear will stay out. Those facilities are for the use of the Senators and Senate employes. The Chair thanks the Senator for calling that to the attention.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to add a postscript as to the stenographers' room.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair thinks the Senator is right; more protection is needed there.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I wish to give my wholehearted approval to what my colleague the Senator from Washington, Mr. Reed, said. I have seen persons use those phones that I am sure are not Senators. I have used the phones very little; I have used the telegraph a couple of times. I went in this morning with a telegram to be o k.'d, and I was solemnly informed by our friend Scotty that there would likely be a kick against sending a telegram of that length—it was not a very long one. I asked Scotty to lead me to the kicker. He did not lead me. Probably it would be Joe Miller who would make the kick.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I listened to the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward asking that these provisions be extended to the stenographers' room. I might say had the Senator been a younger member of this body it might raise a reasonable doubt in our minds.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I had not in mind any issue of the attractiveness of the stenographers, although I admire them all very much. My appeal is directed entirely at the abuse f dictation to the stenographers by outside people, who go in there and dictate to the stenographers who are supposed to be for the use of the Senators only.

The PRESIDENT. That is an abuse of the privilege. That service is for the exclusive use of the Senators and that practice will be discontinued.

SENATE BILL No. 152 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 152, entitled:

An Act to create a uniform and exclusive system for the administration of parole in this Commonwealth; establishing the Pennsylvania Board of Parole; conferring and defining its jurisdiction, duties, powers and functions; providing for the method of appointment of its members; regulating the appointment, removal and discharge of its officers clerks and employes; dividing the Commonwealth into administrative districts for purposes of parole; fixing the salaries of members of the Board and of certain other officers and employes thereof; making violations of certain provisions of this act misdemeanors and providing penalties therefor; and for the other cognate purposes.

with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

SENATE BILL No. 929 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS

He also returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 929, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one thousand two hundred one one thousand two hundred five of the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" by defining professional employes substitutes and temporary employes and further regulating the employment dismissal suspension demotion and retirement of such employes with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 929, (House Bill No. 1548), entitled:

An Act to further amend sections one thousand two hundred one, one thousand two hundred five of the act, approved the eighteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred eleven (P. L. 309), entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof; providing revenue to establish and maintain the same, and the method of collecting such revenue; and repealing all laws, general, special, or local, or any parts thereof. that are or may be inconsistent therewith," by defining professional employes, substitutes and temporary employes and further regulating the employment dismissal suspension, demotion and retirement of such employes.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this is the Teacher's Tenure Bill.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, there have been very serious amendments to this bill made by the House, and I am going to ask my colleagues to vote against concurrence.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I have considered the amendments made in the House with great care with my friend, the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, and my friend the Senator from Berks, Mr. Ruth, and we found no objection whatever.

What they have done is to strike out certain subsidiary classes of school employes that were put in the Senate bill—attendance officers and certain classes of school secretaries and others, but they are not professional employes.

In addition to that, some superintendents who had a large number of teachers under their supervision complained that they could not make two ratings a year. That has been stricken out, as far as requiring two ratings a year is concerned.

The provision requiring that rating cards must be kept has been retained in the bill, and the establishing of the system of rating provided is now reported as a reasonable system that can be carried out in the various districts of the state.

In view of the fact these amendments are technical and are intended to carry out the original purpose of the Senate bill, it seems to me we can well afford to concur in the amendments the House has made, and I ask my colleagues to vot "aye".

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. EDMONDS. With pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President in case a grade teacher wishes to appeal from a decision of the Superintendent of Public Instruction the court of what county has jurisdiction over that appeal?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, the court of her own county, the Court of Common Pleas of her own county. Previously there was a provision that that appeal should be taken to the county court, but that was changed to tre Court of Common Pleas, which I think is a proper amendment.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, the change in the system of rating a teacher, in my opinion, may not affect the Senator from Philadelphia or any Senator from a larger district, but it certainly does open up in my county and neighboring counties the possibility that a politically active head of a school may discriminate, because it gives him permission to rate a girl over a period of a year without any knowledge on her part of that provision. I say to you unless a girl is notified periodically of the fact she is not coming up to standard it is not fair to the teacher to go on until the end of the year.

So far as I am concerned, and my district is concerned, that provision absolutely destroys any protection the teacher may have under any tenure act.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, may I just say on page 10 the bill provides "copies of all ratings for the year shall be transmitted to the teacher upon his or her request—" so ratings are made available to the teachers if they do desire.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in my opinion that provision violates the agreement which was reached in a discussion at one time and I want to have the atmosphere cleared on this thing. No teacher is going to demand any copy of a report if she is going to get in trouble with the superintendent or whoever is in charge. That was discussed in the meeting, which prompted everybody to agree they must not only furnish her with a copy but that a copy be on file of every periodical rating.

That file can be changed if she does not get a copy, If she always gets a copy it could not be changed. If she has to go and demand a copy she is going to be blackmarked by the person in charge.

I want to say one thing in connection with the whole school code. I was amazed to find, in a discussion of the proposition, that there is so much politics in the school directors' set-up outside of Philadelphia. I am frank to confess I went along believeing all over the state school directors were appointed the same as they are in Philadelphia, but I have met school directors in these conferences who are directly in politics.

I have heard stories of Dr. Mundy's own district which, if I had any hair on my head, would make it stand up. It is hard to believe things that occur under the present system in other school districts really exist.

I was told a story of a judge trying a case against a school director, and he found the school director could not read; and in amazement he asked how this man got on the board and the gentleman told him that he, the judge, had appointed him.

It seems to me these teachers ought not to be compelled to go to persons of that type and demand—that is what it will be—demand that they be given a copy; that destroys any reason for the rating system, because, unless that system is tied down to a system which can not be interfered with by the directors you might just as well eliminate the rating system.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, in passing, I would like to remark that I would rather talk to a hundred bootleg miners than to one school teacher. My experience has been that the lobby of the school teachers—well they threatened me with loss of my office, and I had a conversation with the bootleg miners and they were extremely polite and reasonable in every way.

I would say, if I were the rating officer, when it came to the item of deportment I would give the school teachers a good round fat zero.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I might suggest to the good doctor from Philadelphia that the teachers, in creating a lobby, have followed a mighty lot of precedent. Let us not criticize the teachers too much for lobbying in their interest, when we all know the big interests have been lobbying here for years, even occupying, as we were told this morning, the telephone booths and sending wires back to their employers at the expense of the citizens of the State of Pennsylvania.

I want to say I agree with my colleague from Luzerne, Senator Mundy, and my colleague from Philadelphia, Senator Shapiro, that this provision in the bill as it now stands, making it obligatory upon the teacher to get her rating standard, making it obligatory upon the teacher to ask, is sufficient in my mind to ruin the whole bill, ruin the purpose of it. A teacher will be mighty slow to ask for her rating status if she has any grounds at all to believe the person who gives the rating is prejudiced against her. She would think it would simply raise his ire.

I know a little about school teaching; I know something of the problems of the teacher; I have taught a great many days in school from the common country school up to principal of a high school, and I would say, as I have said before, it ought to be obligatory in the law that the rating gentleman should send out his ratings without the teacher having to knuckle and bow and scrape and ask for it. I intend to vote against concurrence in these amendments.

Mr. EDMONDS. The great gain in this bill is as to the rating system. There are other gains through the amendments, but the great gain is the rating system. That will be found to be the chief one. There is a provision in the bill which states that no teacher shall be dismissed under this act unless such rating record has been kept on file by the board of directors. I believe myself the establishment of a system of rating for the teachers will be regarded as a great constructive advance in 1939, if this bill is passed.

I ask my colleagues to give it their support.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher.

The PRESIDENT Will the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CHAPMAN. Mr. President, is my understanding correct that no part of Senate Bill No. 930 was incorporated in Senate Bill No. 929 now under discussion?

Mr. HOMSHER. That is right, Mr. President, no part of Senate Bill No. 930 has been incorporated in Senate Bill No. 929.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I just want to state I would agree with the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, if he struck out the words "where no differences in ratings are found"?

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—28

Bartlett,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Snowden,

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL No. 771 RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented for concurrence bill of the House of Representatives, as follows:

House Bill No. 771, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and two of the act approved the second day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 6) entitled "An act to enable persons associations partnerships and corporations engaged in farming and raising breeding fattening and marketing livestock to borrow money and secure the repayment thereof by the execution and recordation of chattel mortgages on livestock farm machinery farm equipment and crops and designating the operation and effect of the lien and such mortgages" as amended further changing fees and agencies from whom borrowings may be made

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the votes had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

Agreeably toorder,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 768, (House Bill No. 771), entitled:

An Act to amend sections one two three four and five of the act approved the second day of March one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 6) entitled "An act to enable persons associations partnerships and corporations engaged in farming and raising breeding fattening and marketing livestock to borrow money and secure the repayment thereof by the execution and recordation of chattel mortgages on livestock farm machinery farm equipment and crops and designating the operation and effect of the lien of such mortgages" as amended further changing fees and agencies from whom borrowing may be made and by adding thereto provisions preserving the lien of chattel mortgages against bailment leases and conditional sale agreements under certain conditions and providing for the filing indexing and docketing of such chattel mortgages in lieu of recordation and providing additional methods for foreclosure of such chattel mortgages.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senate, the amendments made by the House to this bill are to strike out certain provisions. As the bill went to the Governor it read, "such mortgage shall be a lien upon the chattels and crops thereby conveyed, and shall upon the filing thereof, as hereinafter directed, be good and available in law against any bailors or conditional vendors ...." They have crossed out the words "bailors or," so that it reads "against any conditional vendors, either prior or subsequent in time to the chattel mortgage"; and they have stricken out "retaining title, livestock, farm machinery, or farm equipment not in their possession under any bailment lease or conditional sale ...." it reads now, "against any conditional vendors, either prior or subsequent in time to the chattel mortgage, unless prior to the time such chattel mortgage is filed, such lease or agreement ...." and they have stricken out "lease or", so that it reads now, "and against any conditional vendors either prior or subsequent in time to the chattel mortgage unless prior to the time such chattel mortgage is filed such agreement shall have been properly filed in the prothonotary's office ...."

I think those are the only changes.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

SENATE BILL No. 311 RETURNED FROM THE HOUSE WITH AMENDMENTS

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I now call up at this time, Senate Bill No. 311, (House Bill No. 1574), the Mallery Bill, which was laid on the table, returned from the House with amendments.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, will the clerk please announce the last Printer's number of Senate Bill No. 311?

The PRESIDENT. The last Printer's number is 380.

Mr. OWLETT. I understand, Mr. President, the department has gone over this and also the Attorney General, and the amendments have been inserted at the request of the Attorney General and were not supposed to change the purpose of the bill.

The Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, told me the amendments are satisfactory.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate bill No. 311, (House Bill No. 1574), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and eleven (P. L. 309) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" as amended by further regulating the incurring funding and refunding of indebtedness temporary and permanent the issuing of bonds by school districts the retirement of indebtedness and the borrowing in anticipation of current revenues.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—35

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Kilgallen,	Scarlett,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Letzler,	Snowden,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL No. 256 RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

He also presented for concurrence bill of the House of Representatives, as follows:

House Bill No. 256, entitled:

An Act to amend clause four of subsection (b) of section nine hundred thirteen of the act, approved the third day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1333), entitled "Pennsylvania Election Code" by changing the filing fee for certain nomination petitions.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendment, the votes had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended in which amendments the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

SUSPENSION ON RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Represenatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 438, (House Bill No. 256), entitled:

An Act to amend subsections (b) and (c) of section four hundred twelve clauses three and four of subsection (b) of section nine hundred thirteen and section one thousand two hundred seven of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1333) entitled "An act concerning elections including general municipal special and primary elections the nomination of candidates primary and election expenses and election contests creating and defining membership of county boards of elections imposing duties upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth courts county boards of elections county commissioners imposing penalties for violations of the act and codifying revising and consolidating the laws relating thereto and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to elections" by changing the filing fee for certain nomination petitions and making further provisions for the compensation of judges inspectors clerks and machine inspectors at primaries and elections.

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to place on the record my objection to this bill. It started out and is entitled a bill to change fees for the filing of nomination petitions, and in addition it is a bill which deals with compensation of inspectors and election officers.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the amendments?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to change my vote from "no" to "aye."

I want also to correct my remarks. The portion I referred to is out of the bill. In fairness, Mr. President, I want to say I have examined this bill again as it was reported from the House, and I find the part to which I objected has been taken out, and therefore I want to change my vote from "no" to "aye"; and I want the members of the Senate who voted on the strength of the statement I made to understand that.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, not having heard my name called—probably due to my negligence—I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "aye."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

AMENDMENT TO HOUSE BILL No. 1257, RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR.

He also presented for concurrence bill of the House of Representatives, as follows:

House Bill No. 1257, entitled:

An Act to amend the title, Section 1, as amended, and Sections 5, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, 17, 18, 20, 21, and 22 of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen, (P. L. 587), entitled "Meat and Meat Food Products Law," by transferring administration of the act to the Department of Agriculture; defining "Department;" and changing penalties.

Said bill having been recalled from the Governor for amendments, the votes had on final passage and third reading were reconsidered in the House and the bill amended, in which amendments the concurrenc of the Senate is requested.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. MILLER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL ON CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS RECALLED FROM THE GOVERNOR

Agreeably to order,

The Senate resumed the consideration of Senate Bill No. 865, (House Bill No. 1257), entitled:

An Act to amend the title, Section 1 as amended and Sections 5, 11, 12, 13, 14, 16, 17, 18, 20 21 and 22 of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifteen (P. SENATE BILL No. 761 RETURNED FROM THE HOUSE WITH AMENDMENTS AND LAID ON TABLE

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I call up at this time, Senate Bill No. 761, which was returned from the House with amendments, and laid on table.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by he House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO NON-CONCUR IN AMENDMENTS TO SENATE BILL No. 761.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that the Senate non-concur in this bill. That bill came back to us with about four or five other bills incorporated in this bill which we have already defeated, putting certain judges on the retirement fund.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, on page 5 of this bill there is a House amendment which read "or who receive no fixed annual or monthly salary, but are paid only upon a per diem basis during legislative session and subsequent thereto."

Now, I do not care how often these things come up, but I want to call attention to the fact there is already on the statutes a law—the state employes retirement fund.

The state employes retirement fund was enacted in 1923 upon a sound basis, and at every session something like this turns up. One of the cornerstones of the act is not to admit any per diem men. I remember when the former Senator from Bucks, Mr. Buckman, tried his best to get the members of the Legislature themselves in this retirement fund and it was defeated; and here is—I would not like to say an undercover—but an attempt to put per diem men in his retirement fund. The Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, will tell you this fund is entirely too big, and everybody wants to get in on it.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, there was a resolution adopted by which the retirement fund is to give us a report at the next session covering its actuarial liability. The fact is that in four years, from 1934 to 1938, May 31st being the date, the number of members in this fund grew from 24,000 to 51,000, the amount that is being paid having increased from $480,000 to $1,100,000; in both cases the increase being more than one hundred per cent. The investment return, however, has shown an increase of about forty per cent and it looks to me as if the fund is becoming overloaded and we should be careful in adding any more burden on that fund.

We have the faculty of the Pennsylvania State College and also the case of the Delaware River Joint Commission, where we took in the Bridge Commission but not the Joint Commission north of Trenton—those two cases I think were reported favorably. Now they come along with a lot more groups to be added to it and it seems to me we are straining the fund much beyond what it is going to be able to carry.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the motion is that is that we non-concur.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is right. I move that we non-concur.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. SIPE. Probably it would be a good idea to put the farmers in too, because they are certainly working for the state for practically no return.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, if we vote "aye" it means we non-concur?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate non-concur in the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—45

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Lanius,	Scarlett,

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1232

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to House Bill No. 1232, entitled:

An Act regulating the appointment promotions suspension reduction and reinstatement of employees (except superintendent of police and assistant superintendent of police) in bureaus of police detectives signal operators assistant signal operators police telephone operators police radio operators and assistant radio operators police women and police matrons in cities of the second class defining the powers and duties of civil service commissions for such purpose in said cities and repealing inconsistent legislation

MOTION TO CONCUR IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1232.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House to House Bill No. 1232.

The PRESIDENT. For the information of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, the message from the House states that the House insists upon its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, my recollection is that we have already acted on this bill a few days ago, to non-concur and on a vote of 25 to something the bill was lost—that is, we voted that the Senate non-concur.

MOTION TO CONCUR IN HOUSE AMENDMENTS

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate recede from its former action, and concur in the amendments made in the House.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, the Senate refused to concur in these amendments last Saturday, and I think the Chair then announced the bill would be sent to the House with the appropriate information. May I now inquire if the bill is in the possession of the Senate?

The PRESIDENT. It is. It had just been returned.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Then, Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. On the 27th it was taken from the table and the Senate non-concurred in the House amendments, and the House was notified, and they return it now and insist on their amendments.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I assume they also said they had appointed a committee of conference.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair does not so understand.

Mr. SHAPIRO. If they did not, the only thing left for us to do is to appoint a committee of conference or recede.

Mr. OWLETT. Or recede, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, you can reconsider the vote by which we did not agree. We have already refused to recede once; now the only thing to be done is to reconsider that vote.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, as I understand the practice in connection with these matters, the House has made amendments to a Senate bill and it was sent to us for concurrence. We voted to non-concur, and the House was accordingly notified, and the bill was sent over. Then the House insisted on its amendments and sent it back to us. We can recede from our non-concurrence.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, we have already had our opportunity to recede. We do not recede from non-concurrence.

The PRESIDENT. The question before the Senate is on the motion on the part of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, to recede from its former position, which was to non-concur.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think the motion should be to recede and concur. If that motion is made then we will know how we are voting—a vote "aye" means a recession and concurrence in that amendment.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, just a very short time ago the question was asked on this side of the House, what is wrong with this bill?

For that reason I wish to make a few remarks.

First of all, Mr. President, this bill is purely a local bill, affecting the City of Pittsburgh. It has come to my knowledge that some of our members have been confused because certain lobbyists working in behalf of this bill have called it a civil service bill. This bill is not in reality a civil service bill for the reason that out in the City of Pittsburgh we have a very good civil service law affecting the bureau of police.

Over the weekend I have had transmitted to me many complaints from members of the bureau of police in the City of Pittsburgh. Many of them are opposed to this bill. They have informed me it does not have the approval of the State Federation of Police, which confirms the fact again that it is a purely local bill.

There are many objectional features contained in this bill. For instance, the promotional feature of this bill is very bad. On page 4 it reads, "No person" and so on "shall be eligible for promotion from a lower grade to a higher grade until such person shall have completed at least two year's service in said lower grade."

When this bill passed, prior to its recall from the Governor, that clause was seven years and now it is cut to two years. That two year period is very unfair to many of our good policemen in the City of Pittsburgh. For instance, we have many employes in the bureau of police who have been in service for five, ten, or fifteen years. Under this bill, as policemen they must be appointed as a sergeant; and serve two years as a sergeant before they are eligible for promotion to the next rank of lieutenant. Then they must serve two years as lieutenant before they can become inspector. That particular feature is very unfair to the policemen in Pittsburgh.

On page 9 it relates to decisions of the trial board, and where the civil service commission sustains the decision of the trial board then the bill provides that "Any employe so charged who shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the Court of Common Pleas shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania."

Now, mark this, gentlemen, "Neither the city, the removing officer, nor any person other than the employe so charged shall have any right to appeal either to the Court of Common Pleas, or to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania." It shuts the door to the authorities of the city.

Mr. President, I say this is a very bad bill, affecting the safety of the City of Pittsburgh, and any person who visits the City of Pittsburgh; and I ask that we non-concur, and vote "no" on this motion.

Mr. President, answering a question of the gentleman from Washington, for the benefit of the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, it does not affect the farmer, nor do I think it will interfere with his safety when he is within the confines of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am always embarrassed to discuss affairs which relate only to cities of the second class, because I come from such a little tiny town; but very unfortunately for me, Mr. President—and rather fortunately in some respects—I have four wards in the City of Pittsburgh in my Senatorial District and therefore I am directly interested in House Bill No. 1232.

Mr. President, I would not for a moment profess to be as deeply familiar with the police situation in the City of Pittsburgh as my revered colleague from Allegheny County, Mr. Frey; but I would like to say, for the information of the Senator, I have been advised House Bill No. 1232 gives the police in the City of Pittsburgh the same opportunities and the same protection as House House Bill No. 480 gives our city fire department. The city policemen want this bill. The city policemen feel it would be a progressive step forward in police regulation.

It is obvious from the remarks already made by the Senators from Allegheny County that there is a divergence of opinion as to the desirability of this bill, but I do not see any harm in the bill. I am not betraying any secret when I state the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, when he was disucssing these amendments, never mentioned once whether this bill would interfere with the police of the City of Pittsburgh.

In answer to the gentleman from Armstrong, which is after all a grand county, because Armstrong County gave to this Senate Senator Sipe and Senator Walker, I state this bill would help the farmers because they would be better protected when they come to visit the City of Pittsburgh. The police force of the City of Pittsburgh is one of the finest in the nation and not only the farmers but also the city residents get protection in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I wish to correct the revered and adored Senator from Allegheny, formerly from Armstrong, in his statement that I asked a question. I was not the Senator who asked the question as to how the bill might affect the farmers.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, this bill is quite unlike the firemen's bill we passed some two weeks ago. The firemen's bill does not give civil service protection to the heads of bureaus. This bill does. This bill gives civil service protection to the police inspectors of the City of Pittsburgh. More than that, when those inspectors are charged with some offense they try themselves. This bill will perpetuate in office the police inspectors of the City of Pittsburgh, no matter what their offense may be.

The bill states when a fireman is charged with some offense, he shall be tried by a panel which is selected in the following way: the director of the department drops twelve names of firemen into a receptacle; the fireman charged with the offense drops thirteen names in the receptacle and then out of that receptacle are drawn seven names, and then by way of challenges on each side we get a jury or board of inquiry of three.

When an inspector is charged with an offense the panel is selected exclusively from inspectors, so we get down to this proposition: a panel of inspectors will hear the charges and make a decision when one of their fellow inspectors is up before them. The thing is nonsense.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I had not intended to rise a second time on this bill, but in view of some of the remarks of distinguished colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, I wish to say just a few more words.

Like the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, I too feel we have one of the finest police departments in the country, and I want to see that preserved.

This bill will destroy the efficiency, to some great extent, of that department. The trial board system of which the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen spoke, is being changed in this bill. Under the present act, which this bill will repeal, drunkenness among the policemen of the City of Pittsburgh was materially reduced; and if this bill is enacted we go back to the old days prior to the present act, when conditions were not satisfactory for the welfare of the citizens of our great city.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I shall be very happy, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to know whether the statement made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, that this bill deals only with the police set-up in the City of Pittsburgh is true or not.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in answer to the gentleman's question, I understand it is limited to cities of the second class, and it is my impression that would be limited to the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does this bill give the policemen of the City of Pittsburgh a right or privilege that is not given to the police of other cities of this Commonwealth?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am unable to answer that question.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I thank the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker.

Mr. President, I understand this bill will affect only the City of Pittsburgh; it gives the policeman—certain members of the police force of the City of Pittsburgh—certain rights and privileges not conferred upon the police of other cities in this Commonwealth. For that reason I think it is an ill-advised piece of legislation, and I intend to vote against concurrence in the House amendments.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I think the real objection to this bill has not yet been spoken of by the other side. It has been the custom that when a particular district of the city does not go the way the administration wants it to go politically, then a change is made in the inspectors—until the district is lined up. This provision in this bill will have a tendency to offset that political manipulation, and I think that is the real objection to the bill in its present form, and not the other things which have been spoken of, since it has a tendency to put the inspectors on a basis where they can do their duty without political interference.

I think it is a good bill and should be passed, so that the police department can thereby be improved in Allegheny County and the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, state whether or not in his opinion inspectors of police in the City of Pittsburgh were under civil service?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I thought the inspectors of police were under civil service, but even if they were not I think they should be.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, may I further interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, will the gentleman please state at what time inspectors of police were under civil service?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I did not hear the question.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, when were the inspectors under civil service?

Mr. GELTZ. When, Mr. President?

Mr. FREY. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I do not know that.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, please state whether or not inspectors of police have been under civil service heretofore in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. KILGALLEN. No, Mr. President.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I am a native son of the City of Pittsburgh, and I have no recollection of inspectors of police ever having been under civil service. I think this a particularly bad feature of the bill, for the reason that it will make outocrats out of inspectors, particularly when they try themselves; and also when they have greater authority and control over the patrolmen. That, in my opinion, is a feature of this bill which should be eliminated.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FREY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to ask my colleague from Allegheny County, Mr. Frey, if it is not true inspectors of police in the City of Pittsburgh were under civil service from about 1903 to 1914.

Mr. FREY. I have no such knowledge, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I now desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, if it is not true inspectors of police in the City of Pittsburgh were under civil service from approximately 1903 to 1914.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, sincerely and to the best of my knowledge, no.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire also to interrogate my colleague from Allegheny, Senator Geltz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to ask my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, if it is not true police inspectors in the City of Pittsburgh were under civil service from approximately 1903 to 1914.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I so understand, and I further understand in 1914 they were taken from civil service for the very reason I spoke of before, so the administration could have more control over inspectors in the particular districts.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I now desire to further interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. FREY. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to ask my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, if it is not a matter of fact that following every election, regardless of which party happens to win or loose the election, there is a sudden shifting of inspectors in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, in answer to my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, that does not always happen. However it has been the custom, from time to time, to transfer inspectors to different districts for the good of the service, and those tranfers have been proven to be of merit.

We in Pittsburgh know, without going into details, that those transfers are necessary from time to time, but under the present administration I recall no sudden transfers of inspectors, as a general rule. That may change a few of them from time to time, and over in my section of the city I think they should be changed from time to time.

As a matter of fact, at the present time I do not even know the inspector of police in the district wherein I reside; I would not know the gentleman if he came in here now but it has always been the rule to transfer inspectors or captains—in the days of captains—lieutenants, sergeants, or patrolmen from one district to another for the good of the service, and it is a very good move to make those changes, and I hope they continue to make those changes for various good and sufficient reasons.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. FREY. Surely, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to ask my colleague if he knows how many inspectors have been transfered, since November 8, 1938 in the city of Pittsburgh.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, off hand I do not know; I know there were some transferred.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in further interrogation of my colleague from Allegheny, I desire to ask him if he knows how many inspectors have been transferred within the last few weeks in the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. FREY. Did the Senator say inspectors, Mr. President?

Mr. WALKER. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I think there were some changes made recently; and in that connection, at the present time the director of public safety follows the policy of making changes quite frequently, solely for the good of the service.

Mr. President, at this time I desire to call the Chair's attention to the fact that just five seconds ago a man who is here lobbying for this bill was at the rail and in conversation with one of the members of this Senate; and I ask that those men be removed. There are two of them who have been lobbying around here for months, and I think that is unfair.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, May I—

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I think I still have the floor, and I should like to interrogate further the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, has the floor and asks permission to further interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey. When the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, has completed his interrogation the Chair will recognize any Senator who addresses the Chair.

Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, permit himself to be further interrogated?

Mr. FREY. With pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, if he knows as a matter of fact that the eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth and fourteenth wards of the City of Pittsburgh are in the 44th Senatorial District.

Mr. FREY. I think they are, Mr. President.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate my colleague and ask him if he knows whether or not any of the police inspectors transferred since November 8th were stationed in or resided in the eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth or fourteenth wards of the City of Pittsburgh, which are in the 44th Senatorial District?

Mr. FREY Mr. President, how can I be expected to know that?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, for the benefit of those who are clamoring for the floor may I express my thanks to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, and also to say that I have concluded my interrogations.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, has injected into this question the political angle, and therefore I think it is fair for me to make this comment.

We have been in session now for five months, twenty weeks. During every one of those weeks there has been a policemen's lobby here in the Senate. Just a moment ago a member of that lobby was talking to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker. There would be very little discussion about this bill if it were not for this lobby. They were here every day last week and they were here with the consent of the Democratic administration of Pittsburgh. Surely that ought to make clear and quite evident to every member of this Senate that the police of the City of Pittsburgh are not under a hostile administration; when day after day these Republicans can appear here in the Senate of Pennsylvania lobbying for this bill, then I can say very frankly and sincerely any Senator on this floor can understand the Mayor of Pittsburgh and his administration do not have this police force under any duress.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I would like to inquire of the Chair whether or not Senator McGinnis is a representative of Allegheny County.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of information

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his question of information.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, in answer to the suggestion from one of my colleagues from Allegheny County, as to conversations I have held within the Senate chambers, I am of the opinion it is my privilege to speak to anybody I so desire, any time I am on the Senate floor. I do not care whether they are miners, teachers, vested interests, milk dealers or producers, or the cows themselves. They have a right to come in here for anything they feel is just, and they have been coming up to that rail ever since I have been here, asking me everything under the sun, and if they want to come up to this rail, hazardous as it may be, I have stood it for six months and I can stand it for a couple more hours.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I have no objections to the inspectors of Pittsburgh being under civil service I have no objection to the policemen of Pittsburgh lobbying here. Every other interest in Pennsylvania I know of has always done it, and I do not see why the policemen do not have the same right.

However, when it comes to placing inspectors of a great city like Pittsburgh—I believe there are seven of them—under civil service and then making them the trial board of their own derelictions, that is a very, very serious proposition.

These inspectors really run the police department in the City of Pittsburgh, and every admisistration that has tried to do an honest job has found it necessary sometimes to fire those inspectors, remove them, or move or shift them around frequently; and I say to you the more they are shifted around the cleaner the city will be. If you leave an inspector in the same district a long while in any city the size of Pittsburgh you will find there will be an alliance with the underworld, unless he is a superhuman man; but if he is shifted around and thrown into a district where, like Senator Frey, he does not know the inspector, that makes for good government, this shifting around of these men. Why, if you leave these men in under civil service, with themselves as a jury of their own faults or crimes or hook-up with the underworld, you will have a system you can not change. I say the people have a right to elect a new administration, and if those inspectors are not doing their duty—and very often they do not—that administration, whether a reform administration or what not, ought to have the right to fire those inspectors.

I believe in civil service up to a certain point, but I say if you turn the administration of affairs, especially the police, over to them—with no control over them—God pity the city.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, my colleague from Allegheny, Mr. Frey, said these transfers were for the good of the service. For the benefit and information of the other Senators here, I thought I had better give them the definition, back there in Pittsburgh, of "good of the service." It means, back there, the wrong people are running the joints.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I do not know much about Pittsburgh and their police, but I am interested in the debate, and I would like to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GELTZ. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, do I understand the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, to state that these inspectors are being shifted because of political purposes?

Mr. GELTZ. Do I understand what, Mr. President?

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I asked whether I was correct in my understanding the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, said inspectors in the City of Pittsburgh are being shifted around because of political purposes.

Mr. GELTZ. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, will the Senator tell me whether or not members of the motor patrol are being shifted around for the same purpose.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I do not know anything about the motor patrol.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, is the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, aware of the fact they are also being shifted?

Mr. GELTZ. I am not aware of that, Mr. President.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I thought this was a private battle and we were not supposed to get in it, but I just want to say in answer to the Senator from Cambria, Mr. HALUSKA, it has awlays been the policy of the highway patrol to move the patrolmen from sections of the state to other sections, so they would be familiar with all sections of the state. That has been done under all administrations.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I notice by this act, section 5, page 9, there is a right of appeal given from the Civil Service Commission to the Court of Common Pleas. The act then provides that "The Court of Common Pleas shall have the pwer to affirm or reverse the order of the Civil Service Commission or in its discretion to modify the same. Any employe so charged who shall be dissatisfied with the decision of the Court of Common Pleas shall have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania." It further provides that any employe so charged shall have the right to appeal, but neither the city, nor the removing officer shall have the right to appeal. Why is that right restricted to the employe and not given to the employer.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, the thought back of that, if I may draw a parallel—and this is purely my own personal observation of this type of legislation—when you have a defendant in a criminal court and he is found not guilty, the Commonwealth, as I understand the law—and if I am incorrect some of these lawyers will correct me—the Commonwealth has no right of appeal where there is a verdict of not guilty, and in a trial where a charge is made against a police officer when he appears before the police board he is more or less in the role of a defendant, and if a majority of the commissioners are in his favor he is somewhat in the same role as a defendant in criminal court.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, does the Senator know of any other case where the reciprocal right of appeal is not given?

Mr. WALKER. I have just cited one. Just off-hand I can not recall any others.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is now a public fight; the Senator from Susquehanna got in it. I am not interested in particular communities, but I want to suggest to the gentleman from Bucks, Mr. James, that the reason for taking away the right of appeal is this: It would be very bad if it were not for the fact that in this case the people who try the inspectors are the inspectors themselves; and therefore, in order to perpetuate that system and see to it when they render decisions in favor of themselves nothing can be done about it—the city does not have any right to appeal—it is necessary to perpetuate that system as I see it. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, said maybe some lawyer could explain it. I am not explaining it as a lawyer, but looking at it as an ordinary person. It is a good plan for the inspector who appears before a board composed of a number of inspectors who decide that the charge brought against him is not proper, and dismiss the charge against him. Surely he does not want to upset that because if he does that he might just as well have a fair trial board, and since he does not want a fair trial board he must perpetuate that trial board by saying, "After we have taken care of ourselves we must see that nobody can upset us."

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I do not want to prolong this argument and if this were a private Allegheny County discussion, I do not see why the rest of the Senate did not adjourn and give us a chance to fight this out quietly; but may I observe to the gentleman from Philadelphia, for whose knowledge and ability I have the deepest respect, I can not answer as to how the inspectors in the City of Philadelphia would react, but I know in Pittsburgh anybody being tried before a board of police inspectors would get a fair and impartial trial.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, in voting on this bill, I am going to follow an old equity practice—where you believe both sides are in the wrong, then give neither any relief.

The PRESIDENT. This discussion has been so prolonged it is difficult to remember the motion. The motion before the Senate is whether the Senate shall recede from its previous action, and concur in the House amendments.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

During the calling of the roll.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I desire to be recorded as voting "present".

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

The PRESIDENT. The question has been raised whether a majority of twenty-six votes is required.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, rule 18 of the Senate and the Constitution both provide that concurrence in Senate and House amendments requires twenty-six votes.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair believes twenty-six votes are required and therefore, having failed to receive the required number of votes the motion falls.

The Senate non-concurs in amendments made by the House and the House will be advised accordingly.

SENATE RECEDES FROM ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 585 (HOUSE BILL No. 1487)

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I call up Senate Bill No. 585, from the table. This is the Dent bill, which was nonconcurred in on May 27th.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate no now recede from its non-concurrence in amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 585, (House Bill No. 1487), entitled:

An Act to amend clause three of section seven hundred and two of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 103) entitled "An act concerning townships of the second class and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" authorizing townships to provide water systems fire hydrants and hose to pay for and maintain the same by tax levy.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

SENATE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 585.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I now move that the Senate concur in the amendments made by the House to the foregoing bill. I understand this is agreeable to the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, and every one concerned.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the same?

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order,

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there was never any nonconcurrence on this bill. At my request, on Friday or Saturday, we laid this bill on the table awaiting the pleasure of the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent.

The PRESIDENT. The Secretary informs the Chair that there was a vote taken, of 36-0.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Well, Mr. President, that is not what was intended.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 673.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 673, entitled:

An Act to amend subsection (7) of section two of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of May, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1053), entitled "Public Utility Law" by enlarging the definition of the phrase "Contract Carrier by Motor Vehicle" to include persons or corporations who furnish transportation of school children exclusively.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1581.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1581, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain homes.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1335.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1335, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to The General State Authority to defray the costs and expenses of the said Authority in connections with the organization, administration, and operation thereof.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1076.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1076, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the first day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven, (P. L. 1168, entitled "Pennsylvania Labor Relations Act" broadening the definition of "labor dispute;" further defining the rights of employes; further defining and limiting unfair labor practices; making further provision for designation and selection of representatives for the purpose of collective bargaining; changing the practice before the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board and limiting its powers in certain cases; and requiring investigations of labor disputes and issuance of subpoenas on the application of either party to a controversy.

HOUSE CONCURS IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 418.

He also presented communication from the House of Representatives informing the Senate that the House has concurred in amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 418, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare, to pay for the care, treatment, removal, and maintenance of the indigent insane in The Dixmont Hospital, at Dixmont, Allegheny County.

CONGRESS MEMORIALIZED TO OPPOSE TAXATION OF STATE AND MUNICIPAL SECURITIES BY THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.

He also presented an extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read; considered and agreed to:

In the House of Representatives, May 25, 1939.

Whereas, The Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs has petitioned this General Assembly to memorialize the Congress of the United States in opposition to the taxation of State and Municipal securities by the Federal Government, and

Whereas, The said Borough Association has expressed its objections to such taxation of municipal securities on the ground that it is vicious in principle and contrary to the fundamental principals of American Democracy which distinguishes Federal, State and Local Governments, maintaining the principle that the power to tax is the power to destroy; and on the further ground that there can be no reciprocal taxation of Federal securities because the municipalities of Pennsylvania have no power to tax personal property, and

Whereas, What effects the municipalities of the Commonwealth effects also the Government of the Commonwealth, therefore be it Resolved, (if the Senate concur), By the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that Federal taxation of State and municipal bonds is inimical to the best interests of this State and its municipalities, and that a copy of this resolution be forwarded by the Secretary of the Senate to the State's representatives on the Ways and Means Committee of the House of Representatives at Washington, the Honorable Patrick J. Boland and he Honorable Benjamin Jarrett.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

ATTORNEY GENERAL, SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE AND SECRETARY OF HEALTH TO MAKE A THOROUGH STUDY CONCERNING THE REGULATION OF MILK AS AFFECTING THE PRODUCER

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read as follows,

In the House of Representatives, May 23, 1939.

Whereas, The Milk Industry touches so intimately the lives of so many people, and affects the livelihood of so many more, that the problems of production and distribution have become of Statewide importance; and

Whereas, The interests of the producer, the distributor and the consumer, all are vitally affected by laws and regulations governing the milk industry, and

Wheeras, The prosperity of the farmer and a proper profit to the distributor are requisite to a constant and sufficient milk supply; and

Whereas, The problems presented are so complex and controversial that a thorough study of the industry as a whole, together with its many ramifications, has become essential to the welfare of all concerned; now, therefore be it

Resolved, (If the Senate concur) That the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Secretary of Health shall constitute a special commission acting for the General Assembly, and are hereby authorized and requested to immediately undertake a thorough study and investigation of all the problems entering into the regulation of milk as affecting the producer, the distributor and the consumer, and make a report to the next regular or special session of the General Assembly of the results of such study and investigation, which report shall be accompanied by drafts of any legislation they deem necessary and proper to be enacted in order to properly regulate said milk industry, and properly protect the consumer.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Resolution?

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 81 LAID ON THE TABLE.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that House Resolution No. 81 be laid on the table until after recess.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

MOTION TO SUPPLY COPIES OF RESOLUTION TO SENATORS

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I move that the Sergeant-at-Arms be instructed to procure copies of this resolution during the recess and place them on the desks of the Senators.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

RECESS

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for thirty minutes.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

NOMINATIONS BY THE GOVERNOR

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I desire to make the following report from the Committee on Executive Nominations. These reports consist of nominations of a number of persons to correct errors, to fill vacancies, and to the employment board. If any Senator has any objection to any of these names as they are read, I wish he would so announce.

Mr. EALY from the Committee on Executive Nominations reported with a favorable recommendation the following nominations, made by His Excellency, the Governor, of the Commonwealth:

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 25, 1939.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following:

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF MONROE COUNTY BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

Mrs. Lou W. Rhoads, Tobyhanna, Monroe County, for appointment as a member of the Monroe County Board of Assistance, until December 31, 1939 and until her successor is duly appointed and qualified Mrs. Rhoads was recently nominated and confirmed under the name of Mrs. Cornelia Rhodes, due to a clerical error, and her commission has therefore been revoked, thereby creating a vacancy in the membership of this board.

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF VENANGO COUNTY BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

Mrs. Hanna L. Hollister, Franklin, Venango County, for appointment as a member of the Venango County Board of Assistance, until Dcember 31, 1940 and until her successor is duly appointed and qualified. Recently Mr. Francis B. Hollister was nominated and confirmed, due to a clerical error, and his commission has therefore been revoked, thereby creating a vacancy in the membership of this Board.

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBER OF BRADFORD COUNTY BOARD OF ASSISTANCE

Mrs. Marion N. Newman, Canton, Bradford County, for appointment as a member of the Bradford County Board of Assistance, until December 31, 1940, and until her successor is duly appointed and qualified. Moyer, recently nominated and confirmed by the Senate.

ARTHUR H. JAMES

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman on Executive Nominations.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Somerset state why the County Board of Assistance of Fayette County has not been reported out?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I understood the Senator from Fayette had objections to confirmation of this board. I therefore did not hold any meeting of the Executive Nominations Committee to discuss the matter, which is our Senatorial rule.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I wish to state for the record I at no time lodged any complaint with the Committee on Executive Nominations. I do have objections but they are objections I desire to make on the floor of this Senate, and although I have asked the gentleman from Somerset to report the nominations out, so that I might have that opportunity, I have been denied that courtesy—if a courtesy that might be. I therefore demand that those nominations be brought on to the floor of this Senate.

Mr. EALY reported also from Executive Nominations the following:

APPOINTMENT AS MEMBERS OF EMPLOYMENT BOARD

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, March 15, 1939.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor to nominate for the advice and consent of the Senate the following persons for appointment as members of the Employment Board, until the third Tuesday of January, 1943, and until their successors shall have been appointed and qualified:

Charles Denby, Jr., Pittsburgh, Allegheny County, vice Calvin J. Friedberg.

Mrs. Ruth Pennell, Mifflintown, Juniata County, vice Miss Julia M. Kernan.

W. Potter Wear, Penllyn, Montgomery County, vice Walter Pytko.

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of nominations for appointment as Notaries Public, sent to the Senate, May 29, 1939 by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, together with the nominations just reported from Committee.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The nminations were read as follows:

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, May 29, 1939.

To the Honorable, the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

In conformity with law, I have the honor hereby to nominate for the alvice and consent of the Senate Clyde L. Scharf, Jr., 512 Broadway, McKees Rocks, Allegheny County, for appointment as a Notary Public, for the term of four years to compute from the date of confirmation.

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

EXECUTIVE SESSION

By unanimous consent,

A motion was made by Mr. EDMONDS and Mr. EALY

That Rule 38 which requires nominations made by the Governor be referred to an appropriate committee be dispensed with, and the Senate do now resolve itself into Executive Session, for the purpose of acting on the foregoing nominations.

Which was agreed to.

Whereupon,

A motion was made by Mr. EDMONDS and Mr. EALY

That the Senate do advise and consent to said nominations.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

NAYS—0

Two-thirds of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Governor be informed accordingly.

Mr. EDWARDS. Mr. President, I move that the Executive Session do now rise.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question on personal privilege

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, some days ago we passed a resolution appointing a committee to investigate examinations in the Unemployment Compensation Bureau. At that time I objected and stated that the question which was impotrant would be politices and not whether or not the examinations were held as some people believed.

Since that time I am in receipt of a communication addressed to me by a gentleman whose name I will not mention for obvious reasons, but who has signed the letter. I inquired from the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, whether he knew this gentleman, and whether he was a reputable and reliable citizen. Having received an answer in the affirmative, I do now proceed to read the letter. The subject is:

"SUBJECT—

CIVIL SERVICE APPOINTMENT, CIVIL SERVICE RATING, AND PERSONAL EXPERIENCES RECENTLY HAD WITH INDIVIDUALS CONNECTED WITH REPUBLICAN ORGANIZATION IN DELAWARE CO., WITH RELATION TO STATE CIVIL SERVICE.

"IDENTIFICATION:

"Mr. James B. Miller—Chairman of County Republican Committee and also County Commissioner of Delaware Co.

"Mr. Harry Bierney—Officer of County Board of Tax Revision and also member of Executive Board Republican Committee and Supervisor over several Townships.

"Mr. Harry Tillman—Deputy Sheriff of Delaware County and Chairman of Republican Committee of Ashton Township.

"Mr. George Wilson—Republican Committeeman of 4th Ward and inspector for Tax Revision Board.

During my term of service in the Unemployment Compensation Division and Benefit Payment Section, I took altogether nine civil service Examinations. The first three were abolished as being impractical to the new setup. Out of the remaining six, I obtained a score placing me on the eligible lists as follows: No. 4 for assistant branch manager (class 3)—No. 11 for principal clerk (central office)—No. 17 for senior interviewer, employment service. On May 1, 1938, I was furloughed from service because my ratings had not yet come thru, and I was then holding a position for which a civil service appointment had been made. Sometime in November, 1938, I was notified of my position on the eligible lists.

On April 10, 1939, I received notice to appear for a hearing before the Board of Review for the purpose of clearing up matters regarding educational facts on my original applications. I appeared and satisfied the chairman, Mr. Robert Myers, by supplying the missing information. I was led to believe that my name would very likely be certified to Secretary Hines for appointment in the near future. This meant that my name would then be forwarded to the Delaware County Republican Committee for approval. Obviously, I desire to have favorable consideration in such a case and made efforts to see that I secured it. It was in this effort that I developed the true situation of things, and this situation has prompted me to place the facts in your hands for whatever value they may have.

"First I saw Mr. Wilson and Mr. Tillman—"

Mr. Tillman, by the way is a gentleman who I think was connected with one of the cases of indictment in the Federal Court for violation of the liquor laws, along with several other gentlemen in Delaware County. I continue to read from the letter.

"Assurances were given me by them that I would have their endorsement. I was not able to personally see Mr. Miller until May 17th, at which time an interview was had in his private offices at the County Court House. All data pertaining to our subject was examined by him. He assured me that I would have due consideration should my name come thru. He then added his willingness to intercede for me, since my case was one of long standing, provided I would secure a letter of endorsement from my township and ward committeeman and they in turn would secure the endorsement of Mr. Bierney."

Mr. Bierney is in the office of the County Board of Tax Revision and also a member of the Executive Board of the Republican Committee, and supervisor over several townships.

"Furthermore, I should not make any formal application upon certain forms used by the County Committee as that would lend too much political aspect to the situation, since I already hold civil service rating. The letter he desired would be sufficient to give him the 'go ahead' on the case.

"Upon again seeing Wilson and stating Mr. Miller's request, Wilson went to Bierney for the final O. K., and here is where the system in use came fully to light. Bierney had Wilson send for me immediately. I presented myself to Bierney and was taken into the hearing room of the commission. Bierney and I were the only ones present. He informed me very frankly and plainly that he would not endorse me.

"In the first place Miller had no right to say that the formal application would not be necessary. No appointment of any kind was made, civil service or otherwise, until such an application had been submitted to the executive board and approved by them; that so far as the board was concerned 'Civil Service did not amount to a dam' and unless the individual making the application had been registered 'right' at the last general election 'he would have no more chance than a snow-ball in hell.' Furthermore, these forms consisted of an original and three copies. The "white" one was the copy that went to Harrisburg. But before reaching its destination, and after passing the executive board, 'it is sent to the office of 'Senator' McClure for final approval and from there it goes to Harrisburg.' Since I had been a provisional employe under the Democratic Administration, I would not have the necessary and final approval.

"Civil Service, as I understand it, was adopted by the Democratic Administration to provide the state with more acceptable and more qualified persons, of a higher standard of efficiency because of predetermined qualifications and competitive examinations. If the question of party affiliations or the individual vote value of the eligible applicant determines his or her acceptability, then it should appear that Mr. Bierney has very properly defined the value of civil service.

"The fact remains that many, like myself, have taken the matter of civil service much more seriously. It is without doubt another fact that others may have also spent many hours of study and effort with a determination to capture and retain all the information possible, so as to fit themselves for the delivery of a sound and valuable service to the division and the state. Many difficult and trying hours were spent in the early development of the U. C. Division. Holidays, weekends, nights were and are freely worked as the required daily hours. We had a job to do, and one that seemed to be unlimited in its capacity.

"Now it appears that all of this hard work, the many hours of extra time, the many hours of study and preparation are completely and definitely wasted. The wasted time of those in supervisory positions in the traniing of subordinates is another factor. These and many more can very evidently be summed up as Mr. Bierney has stated. Furthermore, must a man or woman who have at least an average of self respect be made to submit to the whims or fancies of a 'desposed Senator' whose national record for flaunting the decent formalities of Government are already too well known to mention.

"If any data concerning my working record is desired, I cheerfully refer you to either Mr. Ernest Kelly, Director; or his Associate Director, Mr. Allen Sulcowe under whose direct supervision I was working for several months.

"Signed and Dated at Chester Heights, Pa.
May 20th, 1939."

I do not have the request of this man to keep his name out of the record but I see no point in putting it in. My purpose in reading this letter is to suggest that this thing may break to be a state scandal. We have made appointments and confirmations to local boards and otherwise, and I think it would be well for the administration, if it does not want to be charged with responsibility for the continuance of this kind of a situation, to have the resolution introduced by the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden, amended so as to include the question of political appointment and dismissal in that department.

The PRESIDENT. The remarks of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, together with the letter he read will be incorporated in the Journal.

(7) In the years nineteen hundred twenty-seven and nineteen hundred thirty and in every fifth year thereafter the actuary of the retirement board shall make an actuarial investigation into the mortality and service experience of the contributors and beneficiaries as defined in this act and shall make a valuation of the various accounts created by this act and on the basis of such investigation and valuation the retirement board shall

(a) Adopt for the retirement system one or more mortality tables and such other tables as shall be deemed necessary

(b) Certify the rates of deduction from salary necessary to pay the annuities authorized under the provisions of this act and

(c) Certify biennially the amount of appropriation which shall be made by the Commonwealth and other agencies to the State Employes' Retirement Fund which amounts shall be based on estimates furnished by the actuary and shall be credited to the proper accounts created by this act

The General Fund of the Commonwealth shall not be held liable to appropriate the moneys required to build up the reserves necessary for the payment of the State annuities of contributors whose salary or compensation is payable from special operating funds or agreed to be paid by other agencies from moneys not in the State Treasury but the appropriations or payments necessary for such purposes shall be paid into the retirement fund only from moneys in such special operating funds or by such agencies In case any such special fund or agency shall fail to provide the moneys necessary for such purpose then for such period as moneys are not so provided the credits on which the State annuity of such contributors is based shall not be increased but the rights of such contributors in the retirement system shall nevertheless be continued and payroll deductions shall continue in the case of such contributors to be credited to their member's annuity savings accounts

(8) Immediately after the passage of this act the actuary of the retirement board shall make such investigation of the mortality service and salary experience of the State employes as he shall recommend and the retirement board shall authorize for the purpose of determining upon the proper tables to be prepared and submitted to the retirement board for adoption On the basis of such investigation and recommendation the retirement board shall adopt such tables and certify such rates as are required in subsections (a) (b) and (c) of paragraph seven immediately preceding On the basis of such tables the actuary of the retirement board shall immediately after the first day of January nineteen hundred twenty-four make a valuation of the various accounts created by this act

(9) The retirement board shall prepare and have published annually a financial statement showing the condition of the fund and the various accounts created by this act and setting forth such other facts recommendations and data as may be of use in the advancement of knowledge concerning State employes' pensions and annuities and said retirement board shall submit said financial statement to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and shall file copies in the offices of the Secretary of the Commonwealth of the State Insurance Department and of the head of each department for use of the State employes and the public

(10) Each member of the retirement board shall take an oath of office that he or she will so far as it develops upon him diligently and honestly administer the affairs of said retirement board and that he or she will not knowingly violate or wilfully permit to be violated any of the provisions of law applicable to this act. Such oath shall be subscribed by the member making it and certified by the officer before whom it is taken and shall be immediately filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth

(11) The retirement board shall keep a record of all its proceedings which shall be open to inspection by the public

(12) The retirement board shall perform such other functions as are required for the execution of the provisions of this act

Section 2 Section twenty-two of the said act as amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws six hundred eighty-three) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 22 The retirement board created by this act and transferred to the Department of State from the Treasury Deparment shall be and be deemed a departmental administrative board within the Department of State and shall be subject in all respects to the laws of this Commonwealth limiting the powers of departmental administrative boards with regard to the expenditure of money and prescribing the duties of departmental administrative boards with reference to the making of financial reports the furnishing of financial and budgetary information to the department with which it is connected and the making of biennial reports

Section 3 The members officers and employes of the State Employes' Retirement Board which is transferred by this Act from the Treasury Department to the Department of State shall continue to be the members officers and employes of such board and to perform their usual duties upon the same terms and conditions as heretofore until removed or appointed to other positions Provided however That on and after the effective date of this act the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall be the chairman of the board in lieu of the State Treasurer

Section 4 The unexpended balances existing on the effective date of this act in any appropriations whatsoever made to the Treasury Department for salaries wages or other compensation of the secretary and other employes and for the general expenses of the State Employes' Retirement Board or for the payment of any moneys into the State Employes' Retirement Fund are hereby transferred and appropriated to the Department of State for the same purposes as expressed in any acts making such appropriations and any such unexpended balances in such appropriations also are hereby appropriated to the Department of State for the payment of any bills or encumbrances incurred by the Treasury Department or the State Employes' Retirement Board prior to and remaining unpaid on the effective date of this act

Section 5 Any acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

Section 6 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill, Senate Bill No. 447, (House Bill No. 276), is already incorporated in one of the other bills on the Calendar. Is there any purpose in passing this bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, for the information of the Senator from Philadelphia, this bill transfers the State Employes' Retirement Fund from the Treasury Department to the Department of State, where it was prior to 1937.

House Bill No. 445, which is on the Calendar today, amends among other things the administrative code to comply with the provisions of this act. Both acts are necessary to accomplish the transfer.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is the bill which was defeated in the Senate and reconsidered?

Mr. OWLETT. It is, Mr. President, and now is on final passage.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask my colleagues to vote "no" on this bill. This bill upsets the Administrative Code developed by Mr. Schnader after years of study and places the State Employes' Retirement Fund in the office of the Secretary of State, where it does not belong.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, as the Senator said, I think this bill was very thoroughly discussed at the time it was up before. I do want to point out, however, that this whole Employes' Retirement Fund is a matter which should be under the control of the administration. It is the fund that the employes of the state pay into to take care of their retirement; and it is essential that this transfer be effected as provided for under this act.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll.)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Schuylkill Mr. Dando, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando, state whether he was in the room when his name was called?

Mr. DANDO. I was not, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Then, Mr. President, I object to adding the additional name of the gentleman from Schuylkill to the roll since he was not in the room.

The PRESIDENT. That has been done repeatedly. The objection of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is not well taken.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I do not know about that, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The name of the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando, will be called by the clerk.

Mr. DANDO. I vote "aye", Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I am only asking for a ruling, Mr. President.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the record now show that the gentleman from Schuylkill has answered, in answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia's question, that he was not in the room when his name was called?

The PRESIDENT. The record shows that he voted when the roll was called.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Then, Mr. President, I object.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want the record clear. I asked the privilege of interrogating the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando, and I think he answered my interrogation, that he was not in the room at the time his name was called and I ask that the record shall disclose that fact. The Chair has ruled and that settles the matter.

The PRESIDENT. The name of the Senator from Schuylkill, Mr. Dando, was called subsequently, as was also the name of the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett. They were both out of the room.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I suggest also the record should show that before the roll was completed, I voted and the Senator from Schuylkill also voted.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 984, (House Bill No. 445), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws one hundred seventy-seven) entitled "An act providing for and reorganizing the conduct of the executive and administrative work of the Commonwealth by the Executive Department thereof and the administrative departments boards commissions and officers thereof including the boards of trustees of State Normal Schools or Teachers Colleges abolishing creating reorganizing or authorizing the reorganization of certain administrative departments boards and commissions defining the powers and duties of the Governor and other executive and administrative officers and of the several administrative departments boards commissions and officers fixing the salaries of the Governor Lieutenant Governor and certain other executive and administrative officers providing for the appointment of certain administrative officers and of all deputies and other assistants and employes in certain departments boards and commissions and prescribing the manner in which the number and compensation of the deputies and all other assistants and employes of certain departments boards and commissions shall be determined" as amended by making a change in the time of submission of the State budget abolishing and transferring certain departmental and advisory administrative boards and commissions; creating a State Civil Service Commission increasing the membership of the Board of Finance and Revenue permitting the members of the Board of Public Grounds and Buildings to function through persons designated by them making further provision with respect to qualifications of the Adjutant General and Deputy Adjutants General and the appointment and work of such deputies and clarifying and conforming the act to existing law

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill has been changed in the process of its passage in the House from its original purpose. This bill is what I would call a triple ripper.

I remember we were accused by the gentlemen on the other side that we engaged in ripper legislation. I know we had a few bills termed ripper bills, but we never had a triple ripper bill; and I want to say this for ourselves—Mr. President, couldn't we suggest to the gentlemen in the hall we are really not interested in what they are saying?—this bill is different than ours; when we did any ripping we did it right out in the open, so plain anybody could see it.

This bill started out as a nice young lady with no objections, she was a pretty girl entitled "don't bother the Governor with the budget, he has just been elected." Now we have a bill which rips out the Department of Revenue and Finance from its present location and puts it into the Department of Revenue, so that the gentleman who has not yet taken his oath of office may have control; it takes the retirement fund out from the Department of the Treasury and gives it to the lady who has just been elected Secretary of State, and mixes it up with adjutant generals and a few other matters I have not been able to check.

In addition to that I contend that this bill is absolutely illegal in its present condition and I ask the members of the Senate to vote it down as a triple ripper.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, so that the Senate will not be voting under a misapprehension on this bill, it amends the Administrative Code set-up in the Department of the Treasury, as to the State Retirement Fund, in conformity with the bill we have just passed; it sets up a new State Civil Service Commission which is set up in accordance with the state law we just passed; and it makes a change with reference to the adjutant-general and the ranking officers of the Pennsylvania National Guard, to comply with the law as it was prior to the time the age was extended for certain reasons when Governor Earle assumed office, and is in conformity with the act we have already passed. It adds the Secretary of the Commonwealth as a sixth member of the Board of Finance and Revenue and makes the Secretary of the Commonwealth Chirman of that board. This act originally provided for the abolition of the Pennsylvania Securities Commission, transferring it to the Department to Banking, but that bill was killed over in the House, so the amendments we offered Saturday night amid so much debate took this out, so the Pennsylvania Securities Commission was left just as it was before.

I think, Mr. President, those are the only changes provided for by this act, and so I do not want the Senate to think the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, was correct when he called this bill a triple ripper. It is simply putting the Administrative Code in proper form to comply with the acts we have passed here.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, what the gentleman means is that you do not hear the ripping; it is just a quiet transfer, and you do not hear the ripping. For instance, he does not call it a ripper if you make the Secretary of State a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue and therefore give control to the Republicans on the question of refunds on taxes, so that instead of having one and one or two and two the Republican Party now has control over every refund. He does not call that a ripper. As I understood from the Senator, he does not contend that the Pennsylvania Securities Commission is ripped out. Is that correct?

Mr. OWLETT. That is correct, Mr. President; it is not ripped out.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Well, Mr. President, I am wondering what page 6 of this bill means, which puts the Pennsylvania Securities Commission in the Department of Banking.

Mr. OWLETT. That is where it always was, Mr. president.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I am not so sure of that, Mr. President; I thought it was a department by itself.

Mr. OWLETT. On page 6, Mr. President, the way the act was originally amended here, to be an act to amend various provisions of the code, the Pennsylvania Securities Commission was deleted from this set-up of various departments. Now we have in this last amendment taken out the brackets, which restores it to the list of commissions in the code, so the commission is not abolished now.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the roll call.)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to be advised how the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery, voted.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, was so recorded.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Miller,	Tallman,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1019, (House Bill No. 1203), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Justice for the purpose of defraying expenses heretofore or hereafter incurred by any county or the department in connection with or incidental to any grand jury investigation or trial of State officers or former State officers and others

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is a bill which appropriates the sum of $100,000 to the Department of Justice. I should like to interrogate the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. I shall be very glad to be interrogated, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, state what is the purpose of this $100,000; what is it to be used for, since the Grand Jury has recessed or folded up?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it is to pay the expenses of the Grand Jury investigation in Dauphin County, to relieve Dauphin County of the tremenduous expenses in connection with that investigation.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to further interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the gentleman state whether or not the expenses to be paid are those incurred by Dauphin County in the conduct of the Grand Jury investigation already incurred?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I can not say whether it is past or future or just the past, I really do not know: It is to defray expenses of the state in connection with the trial of state officers and former officers of the Commonwealth, growing out of these investigations.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, will the gentleman state how much money has been spent, or obligations incurred by Dauphin County that makes necessary this appropriation of $100,000?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I am unable to say. I assume it is approximately the amount asked for in this bill. If the amount appropriated exceeds the amount actually spent, of course it will not all be applied for Grand Jury investigation—if the expenses are not sufficient to consume the appropriation—

Mr. SHAPIRO. Which means, Mr. President, the money is appropriated for obligations already incurred by the Grand Jury?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, this bill was introduced on April 3rd, and that would mean, I take it, as the Grand Jury has adjourned, it would be to pay expenses which have been incurred heretofore.

The Senator from Dauphin, I believe, presented a bill but it was not included in this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, in one of the Republican newspapers, the Evening Public Ledger, on the day on which the Grand Jury made its final finding, there is an editorial headed as follows: "Graft Inquiry Ends." The articale is as follows:

"Upon its own request, the special Dauphin County Grand Jury which has been investigating the campaign charges of graft which were made against the Earle Administration, has been recessed indefinitely. This is looked upon as likely to be the end of the sensational charges which were heralded over the Nation last year, except for the outcome of the trials of twelve men who have been indicted. Their cases are expected to come up shortly, unless the Supreme Court dismisses indictments on the ground that the inquiry has been conducted 'illegally.'"

"Judge Schaeffer, who was presiding over the investigation upon orders of the Supreme Court, told the jurors to go home after they made a presentment in which they said: '...We have succeeded in completing the investigation of a substantial part of the matters which were submitted to us...The matters which bear further investigation do not warrant the Grand Jury to continue in active session pending the findings of the auditors and investigators and the return of fugitive witnesses. As to these incompleted matters, we believe it to be important that the Grand Jury defer further deliberations until such time as in the judgment of the court and the District Attorney it is desirable to recall us.'

"For six months the Grand Jury has been sifting the evidence upon which the bitter accusations hurled in the campaigns of last year were based. They were originally made by the Democrats against Democrats in the primary and then carried over into the general election. That they should have collapsed so completely, as is apparently the case, shows how little justification there usually is for campaign vilification."

Now, Mr. President, aside from that fact, this bill reads as of today, and therefore provides that any moneys heretofore expended by Dauphin County in connection with the Grand Jury prosecution shall be paid for by the state. Obviously there are two objections I have to this bill; first, this bill puts a stamp of approval upon the most amazing kind of conduct I have ever experienced in my public life. For months the district attorney of Dauphin County vilified the names of people who otherwise had respectable standing in the community.

I have in mind particularly the late or ex-governor of this Commonwealth; his name was dragged in, charges were made against him. There has not been a single bit of evidence produced to support any charge made. Charges were made that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania had been robbed of large sums of money, and the Grand Jury say they are sorry but they can not find that out.

The only thing developed has been that men have been indicted for doing a thing which has been done in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the whole nation year in and year out. Whether you agree or not, it has been recognized as part of the political party system to accept contributions; and when that charge was originally made in the first presentment to the Supreme Court they said there was no law which prevented either macing or acceptance of contributions, and that is why we passed an act in this legislature which is supposed to prevent macing. Viewed from its larger aspects and without political feeling in the matter, I think no one can seriously question the statement from which I read, that these charges have completely failed.

Now, I ask the members of this Senate to consider the second point: can any one in this room point to a provision in the Constitution which authorizes the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to pay the debt of a county? I challenge the ability of any one to find it in the Constitution, from one end to the other; but I do find this in Section 9 of Article 9 of the Constitution: "The Commonwealth shall not assume the debt, or any part thereof, of any city, county, borough, or township, unless such debt shall have been contracted to enable the state to repel invasion, suppressed domestic insurrection, defend itself in time of war, or to assist the state in the discharge of any portion of its present indebtedness."

That is an absolute prohibition against passage of this law. I have no doubt in my mind that any lawyer, any graduate of a law school will admit there can not be any difference of opinion on that; certainly to the extent to which this bill speaks of past debts; and now we are going to pass a law in violation of that Constitution authorizing the attorney general to turn over to the County of Dauphin $100,000.

This was not the attorney general's fight. The attorney general was not in this case. In fact, the attorney general was excluded from participation in this case when the Supreme Court turned down the petition of the attorney general to take over the prosecution; and it seems to me that passage of this law brands the whole Grand Jury proceedings as inspired by the Republican Party, because otherwise the Governor of the Commonwealth and this Legislature should keep forty miles away from paying for that proposition. That was a county proposition, conceived by a district attorney who felt he would ride over the bodies of some decent people into higher office; and I think this Senate ought to vote this down.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, may I inquire whether or not the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania paid a portion or all of the expenses of the Grand Jury proceedings in Philadelphia?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I anticipated that question, and make the distinction that in the Grand Jury proceedings in Philadelphia, the City of Philadelphia was interested as a party but deputies from the Attorney General's office took complete charge of the investigation, under authority given by a decision of the Supreme Court, that at any time an attorney general may step in and take charge of a prosecution in a county.

I may further inform the gentleman form Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, that the attorney general, when this matter came up, spent four weeks in going over the testimony, insisting that Mayor Wilson and the others originating the charges should bring in facts to prove them. As a result of this participation in the proceeding some thirty-five people have already been convicted of violation of the law and over a hundred people were under indictment but that was particularly an attorney general's matter, and deputy attorneys general were in charge of prosecution of the cases, not the district attorney of Philadelphia. As a matter of fact, he was removed from the cases.

Mr. EDMONDS. As a matter of fact, however, the attorney general was only included in the Dauphin County cases because of its personal interest; was he not?

Mr. SHAPIRO. He was excluded, because, first of all Mr. Justice Shaffer decided on the question of personal interest, there was no evidence that Mr. Shelly would not carry on the prosecution impartially. I think subsequent events prove that was not justified.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, may I interrogate the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Somerset State why this bill is necessary if the expense of that Grand Jury investigation was a liability of the Commonwealth?

Mr. EALY. I think, Mr. President, that this expense is in a little different class than ordinary expenditures of the government. However, certainly we could not expect the County of Dauphin to stand the expenses of this Grand Jury investigation which was initiated in the beginning partly through the attorney general's office and for the prosecution of former state officers. It just happens that Dauphin County is the county in which the seat of government is located; and it is the county fixed by Act of Assembly for the trial of state cases, and the state should pay the judges of that county a compensation in excess of that paid judges of other counties of like class for the handling of state cases and would seem entirely wrong that we should expect this county to bear all the expenses of this investigation which was not of local importance only, but was of state-wide import.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, does the gentleman from Somerset regard this appropriation as a contribution to Dauphin County?

Mr. EALY. No, Mr. Prsident, not in that light; not in the light prohibited by the Constitution. It seems to me it is rather in the nature of paying a state debt; but a case that does not rank with the ordinary expenditures of government, and it is proper to put in an appropriation in a special bill for this purpose.

If it is in excess of the amount actually used, of course the balance will be returned. Section 3 says, "in order for any county or counties to receive reimbursement for expenditures referred to in this act, the Board of County Commissioners of the proper county shall present itemized bills to the Attorney General together with a certification of the board that the charges incurred were solely for the purposes set forth in sections 1 or 2 of this act."

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I am intensly interested in this bill and the principle which it will establish if enacted into law. I think the minds of the members of this body are still fresh concerning those cases that were referred to in the press as the Monaghan cases, which took place in my county.

There a crime was committed and the Attorney General of this Commonwealth proceeded to the County of Fayette and of his own initiative presented a petition to the courts of our Fayette County asking control—first stating he had taken over control of the prosecution—over all prosecutions that might arise out of the killing of Frank Monaghan; and after that he asked the court for a special Grand Jury to convene to investigate; and that was given to him. Then, in addition to that, he petitioned the Supreme Court of this state for a change of venue, and that was granted, and some of the cases were tried in the county from which comes the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, and when that was not enough they dragged those trials into the County of Allegheny, until the trial of those cases initiated by the Attorney General of this Commonwealth had cost my county a little over $50,000, some part of which was paid to the County of Somerset and another part to the County of Allegheny. Mr. President, the Attorney General, in those cases, came into my county and displaced, absolutely superceded the district attorney of Fayette County; took complete control of the district attorney's office and the prosecutions of all cases; and yet we paid that bill of a little over $50,000 to the County of Somerset and to the County of Allegheny. In this particular case in Dauphin County the Grand Jury investigation was initiated by the district attorney himself, initiated and carried on in opposition to the then state administration, and the County of Dauphin here, according to this appropriation, has incurred an expense of $100,000.

Mr. President, I want you to compare the condition of Dauphin County with the conditions in Fayette County. Fayette County is an industrial county, where the main industry is bituminous coal. Our assessed valuation has diminished in the last ten years from $115,000,000 to $73,000,000 and the assessed valuation is sinking at the rate of about $4,000,000 every year, because the coal reserves are being taken away. Yet, here is the County of Dauphin, whose assessed valuation is not fluctuating, the assessed valuation of the County of Dauphin is stable; they do not have industries here that are diminishing; they do not have here assessed valuation based upon natural resources which are diminishing, like Fayette County has. Yet, Mr. President, when the entire staff of officials of my county came down to this capital to ask the Attorney General to ask the authorities here to give some consideration to Fayette County and to help us pay that enormous bill of a little over $50,000, we were told that could not be done and would not be done. And here now we find this bill to help a county that can well stand the expenses that its own elected district attorney has forced upon its shoulders.

I say this is a bad bill to pass. I did not intend to speak on this bill but I have been forced to do so because of the unfairness of the administration to my county, which is so hard pressed, and its liberality to a county like Dauphin, which contains the state capital with the thousands upon thousands of employes that come from all parts of the state and assemble here; that gets salaries and spend their salaries here for board and rooming and other things—the money stays here. Yet in the County of Fayette the coal is diminishing, the natural resources are gone, and yet the state required my county to pay its own bill notwithstanding the fact that bill was saddled upon our county by reason of the attorney general dragging the case all over the State of Pennsylvania, and I say this bill ought not to be passed unless you include in it some relief for a county like my county.

In addition, Mr. President, as to the constitutional provision mentioned by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, I want also to cite this other provision of the Constitution, because no matter how you look at this appropriation the liability it the liability of Dauphin County, and this $100,000 is merely a contribution, a charity granted by the State of Pennsylvania to the County of Dauphin. Section 18 of Article 3 says, "No appropriations shall be made for charitable, educational or benevolent purposes to any person or community nor to any denominational or sectarian institution, corporation or association . . ."

This appropriation is nothing but a charity or a contribution to the County of Dauphin to help defray the expenses its own district attorney has placed upon it.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I can stand for most anything during a campaign. I can well understand how an attorney-general who was aspiring to be a governor could get mad during c campaign and hurl violent charges against everybody; but I do feel, after that had gone on for months, and after a Committee in the House had called several hundred witnesses and sent the state police out into hundreds of other homes trying to dig up something, trying to find something somewhere during those four years on which they could indict or at least make a charge, after that hearing—and I heard a great deal of it, we were here at that time, read a great deal in the papers, and I have read since what has been happening down here in this grand jury investigation—and what has happened? Why, they have indicted some people for extortion or macing—not macing because it was not violation to mace—but they are charged with extorting money from payrollers, as contributions to the Democratic party; and let me say this: I do not think there is a responsible leader, of the Republican Party or of the Democratic Party, that whoever extorted a dollar out of the payrollers and I am here to say I do not think there is a leader in our party who ever has or ever will extort money from a payroller. Yet this grand jury down here has indicted, as the Senator from Philadelphia said, some respectable men, men who have lived their lives in this state and have risen to high positions, for extorting money from the payroll.

As Senator Ruth said the other day, he believes payrollers ought to contribute to a party. I believe they should. I do not believe in extortion, however, I am willing to stand here and say I do not believe a leader of the Republican Party, even in Penrose's day, ever extorted a dollar from a person on the payroll.

And lo and behold you, after these campaign charges, for several months after, a committee in the House investigated for weeks and weeks and discovered nothing; then lo and behold you this district attorney of Dauphin County starts out and rents an entire building—think of this, Mr. President, not in his regular duty—but rents an entire building down here and hires forty clerks.

I know this: if I were running for office in this county and wanted to build up a machine, and if I had the authority to rent a building—not a hall—rent a building and fill it with forty employes, making them a responsibility first on the taxpayers of Dauphin County, and if they gave a little bit, I would go to the state and say, let's make this big; we have been here six months; we have had a good time and we will collect a hundred thousand dollars from the state.

Another strange thing happened in this affair. They came to this legislature and asked to raise the pay of the grand jurors.

You know I have always heard that a gambler—even a gambler will not ask to have the rules changed in the midst of a game—but here they come to this Senate and the House, Mr. Shelly and others, to ask us to raise the pay of grand jurors if they serve for more than two weeks. Then, after they had been down there four or five months and had not found anything, they come to this legislature and said, "Now, let's see if we can extend the statute of limitations from two years to six, two years after those men leave office, and if we find out that during the previous six years any of them have done anything wrong, then we can indict.

Then they came here to our committees and they wanted the privilege of giving the foreman of the grand jury the right to swear witnesses whose names do not appear on the back of the indictments. In other words, if they can slip a presentment out and then draw an indictment and put a name or two on it, then the foreman of the grand jury or the attorney-general could call any witness he wants and take him before the Grand Jury.

The defendant in a case like that does not know his accusers. I sa yto you, trying to change the rules of the game in the midst of this thing, to me was not a creditable thing.

They did succeed in indicting our state chairman, David L. Lawrence, in the gravel case; and let me say this about the gravel case: the charges had been going on for a year or two, they had been investigated and re-investigated. The former head of the state police investigated and made a report. There is not even a charge now that the State of Pennsylvania was cheated out of a cent or a penny; but they say Mr. Lawrence conspired with a dead man. It strikes me that if Mr. Lawrence conspired to cheat this state he must have conspired with somebody in authority in the highway department; and if he is under indictment, with whom did he conspire? How could he do any cheating unless there was someone who would deal with him in the highway department? It is very apparent the man they wanted to indict was Mr. Bowser, but according to the testimony of the former head of the state police, what he told us before a committee down here, Mr. Bowser told him he had paid nobody, and made no contributions, not even a campaign contribution.

Now, of course, we can approve this thing or we can put our foot down on it. I want to say in passing I do not believe my friends on the other side encouraged this affair down here, or even approve it now; but I do say that after a crucification of decent, respectable men and their families for over a year, for any district attorney or any county to come to us and ask for a hundred thousand dollars—I believe that kind of a thing should be thrown aside, we should not approve any such conduct or any such way of conducting grand juries or county grand juries in this state.

Under this bill I see no objection, no obstacle, at least of any district attorney of any county starting anything he wants against a state official—go on and on in this county; and after he can not find anything, or if he does find something, he can come to this state and ask us to foot the bill.

The Senator from Philadelphia spoke about the grand jury down in Philadelphia. I just heard the other day mentioned in this Senate that they have been down there seventeen months. I am glad they did get some indictments but I believe, Mr. President, that this grand jury racket in this state is becoming too common. The Senator from Fayette told you how they went up there and ran up a bill. They go down in Philadelphia and stay seventeen months and, as I understand, they wanted to stay longer. Yet the grand jury up in Luzerne County, in less than thirty days, made an investigation, interviewed several hundred witnesses and made their indictments—I believe all within thirty days. Yet this grand jury in Dauphin County practically admit they have found nothing, but they hope to have the statute of limitations extended to six years in certain cases, if we foot the bill so they can continue.

I say to you, Mr. President, that kind of conduct in this county or any other county ought to be stopped, and we ought not to put our stamp of approval on it.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I preface my interrogation by saying I have no desire to influence the vote of any Senator on this bill by this interrogation. This, like the argument we had before recess, is once more one of these trivial matters. I might say, Mr. President, if it had not been for the grand jury investigation I would not be a member of this Senate; and I ask the Senator from Philadelphia—because I have a lot of respect for his agility and I have heard it stated he once was a Republican—whether he thinks that was one of the reasons for the change in sentiment.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the gentleman does not need to try to influence any votes; because I understand they have twenty-six votes, if he votes for the bill; so he need not waste any time trying to influence votes.

Secondly, I would suggest to the gentleman that I was elected to this Senate owing to the fact that the Republican party kicked me out. I prefer my way of getting elected to his.

Mr. KUNKEL. Mr. President, in the early days of this session I introduced a bill appropriating the sum of $50,000 to Dauphin County to pay the expenses of this grand jury probe. The motive back of the presentation of that bill was to save the taxpayers of Dauphin County. That will be the result of the passage of this bill.

However, I agree thoroughly with the statements and sentiments expressed by my colleagues here in opposition to this bill, and I would not want my vote in favor of this bill to be construed as an endorsement of this grand jury probe, which I regard as having been ill conceived and politically inspired.

Under those circumstances my position on this bill is unique, and I intend, Mr. President, to vote "present".

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EALY. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, did I understand the Senator from Somerset correctly when he said if this appropriation, made for this particular item, was in excess of the requirements of the expenses incurred in the investigation, that other counties might present a bill and be reimbursed out of the surplus funds?

Md. EALY. Mr. President, I did not so state.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, would there be any possibility or any provision for any other county being reimbursed under the provisions of this bill?

Mr. EALY. I do not so interpret it, Mr. President; unless the matter is such that the attorney general thinks it is of state concern, as distinguished from a local matter.

I have not studied the bill with the thought of seeing how far-reaching it is, but I regard it purely as a bill to repay Dauphin County for the expenses incurred in this grand jury investigation.

I may say I have sympathy with the viewpoint of the Senator from Fayette, and I notice that Governor James in his budget message stated he was asking for a deficiency appropriation to the Department of Justice of $75,000, which he said was "in addition to deficiency appropriations totalling $50,000 received at the Special Session last fall. This is the price of side trips into purely local county affairs by the department during the last administration."

While I can see a considerable difference between the matter here in Dauphin County and the matter in Fayette County, I also appreciate the fact that the investigation there, the additional expense, was forced on it in a measure by the attorney general.

I personally should like to see Fayette County reimbursed for that expense, especially as Somerset County might then be able to pay some of its debts.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, inasmuch as the gentleman from Somerset, who is chairman of the Appropriations Committee, has stated that where the state is involved in investigations in any county he feels there is a provision for reimbursement, may I suggest that Luzerne County be reimbursed for its investigations up there, inasmuch as I believe the state is involved, due to the fact that this investigation in Luzerne County was inspired to justify the Republican leadership up there and soothe the wounded feelings of the Governor of Pennsylvania for having lost his own county in the last election; so that would be connection enough between state affairs and county affairs.

Mr. President ,may I interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis?

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, may I preface my remarks by saying the investigation in Luzerne County, was within a period of thirty days; and what was due to the fact that Luzerne Countians are less resistent to the orderly process of the law and believe in early trials and early vindications.

I believe the Senator said the attorney general made some very careless statements prior to the last election. I want to ask the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, whether he inadvertently or otherwise forgot to mention the names of other gentlemen who made very, very careless statements in the last election.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I think I have forgotten them.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, it is not against the law to forget names.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, as one who suffered severely from certain inadvertent statements may I say that, after all, we inherited the attorney general from the Republican side, he was not ours by birth; but certain other gentlemen who made frank statements were ours by birth, and may I say in my opinion these other gentlemen have not taken on the odor of a geranium, and I quite agree with Mr. Pinchot when he said, in his last campaign, "I still believe we can not stand for Guffey."

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, it is always a pleasure to hear the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, speak; and I am sure everyone listens to his remarks, but the main exception I wish to take is to his definition of the word extortion. He used the word extortion; and I got out my unabridged dictionary and I find extortion means unjust exaction.

I have nothing to say about anything else in Luzerne County, but I can not help thinking about the unjust extortion of $600,000 in Luzerne County by the Highway Department, and that is why I introduced the statesmanlike Senate Bill No. 153, which is the very last bill on the very last Calendar in the House. It may survive to clip the wings of the Highway Department.

I do not want to say anything about aeronautics; I have said that before; but I think we should put a stop to the practice of paying $600,000 out of the Highway Department for putting people on the payroll; it was so apparent they did not have to work more than thirty days to find it out.

The Speaker of the House and the floor leader of the Senate are not very much in favor of my bill. I intended it to clip the wings of the Highway Department but they said they did not think very much of it.

Also, as a final remark, I might say I was traveling with our late Lieutenant Governor, Mr. Kennedy, on the train immediately after the election, and after so many people in Luzerne County were put on the payroll, and he confided to me he had now become convinced jobs would not win elections.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, during this session I think I have rarely risen more than twice to speak on any bill, but this bill is a particularly important bill and I think my county is interested in how this bill is acted upon.

Section 1 of this bill provides that $100,000 is appropriated to be expended in the discretion of the district attorney for the purpose of reimbursing any county or counties for any and all expenses that may be incurred by any county in connection with or incidental to any investigation by any grand jury of such county into offenses committed or alleged to have been committed by state officers or former state officers and others where such investigation in the opinion of the attorney general is a matter of grave public concern.

I wish to state that if the press of this Commonwealth is examined during the time the Monaghan case happened in my county, the Governor publicly announced the case was of such a nature that it did concern the entire state of Pennsylcania and the attorney general said the same thing. Mind you, Mr. President, the crime itself, the killing of Monaghan, was not done by a resident of my county, but Monaghan was killed by two state policemen who were state officers who at that time were under the command of Major Adams; and the district attorney of my county and the coroner and the county dectective and a few other responcible people were indicted, not because they had committed the killing but because the district attorney said they were present and did nothing to prevent the state police from killing Monaghan; and, after the murder was committed, that they tried to conceal the crime.

As I said, that expense placed upon my county was due to the fact that two state policemen, who were tried in Somerset County, were the ones that perpetrated the crime, that did the killing, and who were under the command at that time of Major Adams. They were state officers, and the County of Fayette stood the expense of that trial.

I am speaking very impassionately upon this bill probably because I think it is unjust, highly unjust, to come to the relief of the citizens of Dauphin County in this investigation, because you say the investigation was of state officers, when in my county the grand jury met in order to investigate and find out whether a crime had been committed and by whom; and they found it was committed by two state policemen, under the command of Major Adams at that time. I say, if there is any justice in giving Dauphin County $100,000, I say the people of Fayette County are justified in saying you should contribute some little to he big bill of $50,000 we incurred because of the investigation and prosecution of two state policemen who came to my county and perpetrated the crime.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, nobody in his room knows how much money the grand jury spent. The venerable gentleman from Somerset—I am closer to the proper use of that word than when it was used by some other members here—I think I can say the venerable gentleman from Somerset has grown old in the last six months, he has been worried every time an extra amount came into the appropriation committee; and yet he is obliged to blink his eyes and accept $100,000 as a proper sum, without any information, as he confessed, as to how much the grand jury has spent, and how much is for the future. Any portion of that, as to the past, in my opinion, is certainly unconstitutional and a violation of the Constitution.

As to the future I do not know just what they are going to investigate, unless they are going to hold this open in the coming election so that they can do it again. The only thing I know that is left to investigate—after the so-called whitewash hearings of the legislative committee, which has turned out to be a sensible report—the only thing I can think of that is left to investigate is a story which shows how silly and political this proposition was.

I hate to bore you but this is the first time I have had an opportunity to make an answer since I was thinking of it the other day.

During the course of these proceedings I had occasion to talk to the former attorney general, and on one occasion he said to me, in the office of the Mayor of Philadelphia, when I asked him whether he thought the Governor was really involved in this thing, he said, "No, but you are"—meaning me. I was curious to find out how I was involved, and I asked him what he meant.

He said, "Wasn't there a party of legislators on your farm?"

I said, "Yes".

He said, "Everybody on your farm was given a thousand dollar bill by Mr. McCloskey."

I looked at him and said, "Are you serious about that?"

He said, "Certainly."

I said, "That is a silly story, but after all our democracies are founded on the respect people have for law—enforcing bodies and law-making bodies; and if a man in your position goes around retailing a story like that, why, the people begin to believe it, because of your position and certainly they can have no respect for law-making bodies."

He said, "I am not saying you got a thousand dollars, but that is the story."

I made it my business to find out the basis of this story, and I imagine the grand jury conducting investigations will make more investigation about it and find, in spite of the fact I told him there was nothing to the story, he repeated it in my absence. Although I had been present three hours immediately I left the room he told the story and then I made inquiries and this is how the story originated. It is interesting to be given an example of the basis of such charges.

We did have a party at my farm, at which were present Democrats as well as Republicans. One gentleman happened to be present who had changed his party affiliation from Republican to Democratic; and one of the Democratic members of the House who has a keen sense of humor was impressed with the enjoyment the young man had on this occasion; he had been swimming and had played baseball; and this young man who had become a Democratic convert for the time being said, "Certainly you Democrats are treated fine; this is a great place."

"That is not all," said this jokester. He said, "You know, in the evening the Senator has a barbecue in the woods; he gives us fine broiled steaks and nice rye bread, and baked potatoes and corn, and we all have a swell time, and you get some drinks and that is great. But that is not all. After that is over Mat McCloskey comes around and hands a thousand dollar bill to you." In order to make his story good he said, "You can't get it"—because he was afraid the gentleman would find out that that thing would not happen—"that only goes to those who have been with the party at least two years, and since you have not been with the party two years you will get yours next year."

After six o'clock when we had the feed—he was deeply impressed and felt sure this was a fine party, the only party to belong to—but he was afraid he would be embarrassed and so he did not stay until the thousand dollar bills were paid; he went out early to avoid embarrassment.

Shortly afterward, when he changed his party back to Republican and heard the attorney general making charges, he went to the attorney general and told him the story. And, as the result of a practical joke, a number of investigations were held, to find out whether thousand dollar bills grew on my trees, or whether thousand dollar bills were handed out by McCloskey.

They could not have been handed out by McCloskey—that was set at ease by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. McCreesh, who said Mat McCloskey never gave anything away in his life.

So the grand jury never investigated that but there has been an investigation from the Forestry Department. I think it is the Department of Forests and Waters which sent several men down on my farm to find out whether there are any thousand dollar bills in the neighborhood of the trees. I think there is a last investigation which must be made.

We are now giving $100,000 or so much thereof as shall remain after paying for past investigation, and then we are going to delve into this matter to discover whether any thousand dollar bills grow on my trees. It is ridiculous.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, briefly, this bill seems to say to the people of Pennsylvania, one hundred thousand dollars for a politically inspired and a politically conducted investigation in Dauphin County, to reimburse the county for the same; but not one cent for the Butler Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I would like to suggest to the Senate that it make and extraordinary appropriation of several thousand dollars to pump the water out of the swamp of the Butler Sanatorium.

Mr. MUNDY. Mr. President, I do not want to delay this debate, but I can not leave go unchallenged the statement made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward. He said he presented a bill on the basis of some extortion charges—because of the charges presented in Luzerne County.

May I say to the Senator this charge, when first revealed was that the amount was $1,300,000; in a short while that shrank to a million; then it dropped to seven hundred thousand dollars. The Senator's figures are not the most recent—he stopped at six hundred thousand dollars, but when the grand jury finished they decided it was somewhere between one hundred fifty and one hundred seventy-five thousand dollars.

May I say this to the Senator: considering the fact that we know the rapidity with which justice acts in Luzerne County and that, as the Senator has confessed, his bill is on the bottom of the Calendar, and considering the time we took up in debate here on certain bills, might I say it might not be necessary for the Senator's bill to be considered by the time we arrive at it, for by that time the jury in Luzerne County will have produced the actual facts.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 199

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 199, Printer's No. 57, entitled:

An Act to confirm and validate past tax levies or assessments made by school districts of the first class and liens filed thereon.

be returned to the Governor without amendment.

RESOLUTION LAID ON TABLE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Resolution be laid on the table.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF LEGISLATIVE INQUIRY

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I rise to a question of legislative inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Coleman, will state his question of legislative inquiry.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I wish to inquire how I am recorded as voting on Senate Bill No. 1167, (House Bill No. 817), on page four of today's Calendar.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator is recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I call attention of the Chair to the fact that there were placed on our desks a number of incorrect Calendars, and on page four of those Calendars there was a bill occupying the same relative position, Senate Bill No. 1052, having to do with printing for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Apparently when I voted on this bill I assumed I was voting for the printing bill on which I desire to be recorded as voting "aye." I desire to know whether or not I am in order to ask unanimous consent to have my vote changed from "aye" to "no" on Senate Bill No. 1167, (House Bill No. 817).

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia will state his point of order.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I take it that can only be done in case the change of vote does not affect the passage of the bill.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I desire to call the attention of the Chair the fact that this will not affect the status of the bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is of the opinion—and if he is wrong he stands to be corrected—that there can be no change at all after a vote has been announced, and if it does not affect the result the Chair believes the matter is fully covered by the explanation made by the Senator from Lackawanna.

Mr. COLEMAN. Mr. President, I desire to have noted on the record that I have been consistent in my opposition to increases in salary, and had I been aware of the fact that the bill under discussion, at the time I voted under a misapprehension, was a bill increasing salaries of county commissioners in third class counties, I would have voted "no."

MOTION TO RECONSIDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1167, (House Bill No. 817), passed finally be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair advises the Senator from Tioga the bill is no olnger in the possession of the Senate.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask for a ruling on my point of order, which I think solves the problem.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules the point of order of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, is well taken. The Chair further believes the Senator from Lackawanna, Mr. Coleman, should be satisfied with the statement he has made and which is of record in the Journal.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I have been sitting here listening to all the arguments, taking them in, and have refrained from joining in the general debate and discussion because I understand the intent is to try to get out of here today, but if you are going to reconsider and reconsider we are going to be here tomorrow for the decorations.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1053, (House Bill No. 1449), entitled:

An Act to amend section two of the act, approved the thirteenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-three (P. L. 119), entitled "An act for the promotion of medical science by the distribution and use of unclaimed human bodies for scientific purposes through a board created for that purpose and to prevent unauthorized uses and traffic in human bodies," as amended, by providing for exceptions in certain cases and providing for burial of unclaimed bodies unfit for anatomical purposes and providing further for the burial of bodies by the County Commissioners in counties of the first class

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I heard my colleague from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, suggest this is a good bill. I want to remind my colleagues this is another one of those bills which has the same effect as the amendments we spoke about, it takes the disposal of bodies not fit for anatomical purposes from the coroner in Philadelphia and puts it in the hands of the county commissioners.

I do not think there are any members of the Senate who consider this as a political proposition, and I am going to ask my colleagues on both sides of the House to vote "no," because it is peculiarly best in Philadelphia that this matter be handled by the coroner.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do not know anything about the situation in Philadelphia but I want to point out that the act provided where such persons died and the body was deemed unfit for anatomical purposes the body shall be taken care of by the coroner, and this amendment strikes out the words: "except that in counties of the first class it shall be the coroner instead of the county commissioners." This puts it back in the same position in all counties. I do not know anything about the merits of the case.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I want to be fair to the gentleman from Tioga, because I told him this bill was all right.

Somewhere on the Calendar is another Van Allsburg bill that applies to the disposition of bodies of relief recipients, and this bill I understand, is the one that applies exclusively to Philadelphia County.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Fayette is misinformed. As I understand it this bill was amended to include that as well as the Philadelphia County situation. This covers the entire situation and I think the Senator refers to the bill on page five. I believe if this act is passed the O'Dare act does not need to be passed.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I do not want to mislead anybody. I thought this was the O'Dare act and I have marked it O. K.

Mr. OWLETT. The O'Dare act merely takes care of what the first part of this act takes care of, namely, the relief recipients. This act takes care of relief recipients and the Philadelphia situation.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I did not want to vote for this Van Allsburg act, but I did want to vote for the O'Dare act, which I notice now has gone over in its order; and I want to give the gentleman from Tioga that warning, because I want to be recorded as voting against the Van Allsburg bill, the bill now under consideration.

Having voted under a misapprehension, as I stated before, I therefore wish to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Letzler,	Snowden,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Stevenson,

DiSilvestro,	Kilgallen,	Reed,	Woodward,
Frey,	Kunkel,

Less than a constitutional majority of all Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1080, (House Bill No. 1368), entitled:

An Act to further amend a part of section three of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (Pamphlet Laws seventy-three) entitled "An act to provide for the incorporation and regulation of certain corporations" by not requiring the Governor to approve certain charters

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—34

Ordered, That the clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1125, (House Bill No. 1349), entitled:

An Act to amend article two section one thousand thirty-five as amended and sections two thousand four hundred sixty two thousand seven hundred twenty-two and three thousand one hundred one of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" providing for the creation of boroughs from townships of the first class upon petition to the court of quarter sessions and a referendum and prescribing the procedure therefor changing contents of auditors' statement further regulating the use of moneys collected on borough-owned water-works giving school districts power to acquire and maintain property jointly with other school districts boroughs cities or counties for certain purposes extending the jurisdiction within which and the manner fines penalties and costs may be collected and repealing existing law providing for the payment of compensation medical and hospital expenses and regulating sick leave periods of certain policemen and firemen

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, on behalf of the sponsor I ask unanimous consent to offer strike out amendments, which are to amend title, page 2, line 6, after the word "collected" strike out the words "and Repeal—" and all of lines 7, 8 and 9; amend Page 9 by striking out the whole of section 4 lines 16 to 27 inclusive; amend page 10 line 1, by striking out after the word "Section" and before the word "this" the figure 5 and inserting in lieu thereof the following S "4"

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

The Chair hears none.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. OWLETT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Kilgallen, explain whether these amendments take out the provision which removes certain officers from sick benefits?

Mr. KILGALLEN. That is right, Mr. President.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, what will be the effect as far as sick and death benefits are concerned.

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, as the act now reads borough police, who are injured in line of duty and also firemen receive compensation, and also have their hospital and medical expenses paid.

Now, through some inadvertance this repeal section was put in the law. This particular bill had nothing at all to do with that.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, are these simply strike-out amendments?

Mr. KILGALLEN. Mr. President, that is right.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

BILLS OVER IN ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1125, (House Bill No. 1349), go over in its order. There is another amendment we want to introduce.

The PRESIDENT. Does the Senator from Tioga move that this bill go over in its order, as amended?

Mr. OWLETT. Yes, Mr. President.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1150, (House Bill No. 309), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 414) entitled "An act to provide revenue for State purposes imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property providing for the assessment collection and lien of the same and the distribution of the proceeds thereof imposing duties on executors administrators registers of wills recorders of deeds prothonotaries and court clerks and on persons copartnerships associations banks national banks trust companies and other corporations receiving deposits of money and on certain corporations and limited partnerships conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments imposing penalties and making an appropriation" as re-enacted and amended excluding from the provisions of said act personal property transferred and assigned to or possessed by certain fiduciaries.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1156, (House Bill No. 1298), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the thirtieth day of March one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 115) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the first class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of election and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens parties bodies of electors registration commission commissioners registrars inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commission election officers municipal officers departments and bureaus police officers courts judges prothonotaries sheriffs county commissioners peace officers county treasurers county controllers registrars of vital statistics real estate brokers rental agents certain public service companies persons firms and corporations operating vehicles for moving furniture and household goods and boards of school directors and imposing penalties by changing the number and further regulating the appointment and the power to remove the members of the commission amplifying and changing their powers and duties further regulating the appointment of registrars and the powers and duties of registrars inspectors of registration and watchers further providing for and changing the provisions of said act relating to the time place and manner of registering electors and their enrollment as members of political parties the transfer of registrations the change of party enrollment appeals by and rehearings for rejected applicants appeals from the decisions of the commission the checking correction and cancellation of registration the reports to the commission required from certain public service companies the preparation and distribution of street lists and imposing additional penalties

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this bill amends the registration code, the permanent registration act in Philadelphia, in several respects. While I do not agree with the amendments and think they upset the law—some of them are purely political—I am not going to quarrel with them because that is not as serious as the other matter.

All of the registration acts throughout the state provide that registration commissioners may be dismissed for cause. This act provides registration commissioners may be dismissed with or without cause, and only relates to Philadelphia; and therefore I present the following amendments to the bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President these amendments are strike-out amendments, which merely strike out the words "without cause".

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I want to put this suggestion to the members of the Senate, to see how far we are to go in correcting Philadelphia. We passed a bill here, presented by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, at which time most of the Senators voted for the bill because it was stated it was not intended to be a ripper bill, and it was stated the registration commissioners would be reduced from five to three at the end of their terms, 1941.

The Governor of the Commonwealth, when he became Governor consulted the attorney general and wanted to know whether they could remove registration commissioners without cause. They found they could not. Now they have reduced the number to three. This act provides as their terms expire there shall be no reappointments until the number has reached three.

I have no objection to that, but just think of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania providing in an act that registration commissioners can be dismissed with or without cause. I challenge this Legislature to find another act in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania relating to the appointment of any commission or any body which has those words in it—with or without cause.

The Committee of Seventy, which investigated this commission, said there was no fault in the commission—there were faults in the work—and now the Governor wants to dismiss these people and we are going to put in a bill for the first time in the history of this Commonwealth that they can be dismissed with or without cause. I have tried to correct that condition by use of strike-out amendments and if the Senator from Tioga objects I think there should be enough of use here to vote against this bill to defeat it.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I do not question the integrity of the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania, but I do say by passing this bill we are putting in the hands of the Governor of Pennsylvania full control over the registration commission of Philadelphia. I feel that is tyranny, and in a free country that will not work.

The people of Philadelphia have a right to vote as they please, and to have men at the head of their registration commission who will not be victims of the caprices of the Governor of this state.

I say this is tyranny, because I feel we are making out of the rights of the people of Philadelphia a joke; and I say to you this is going to come back to haunt some of my friends on the right hand side of the room. I say this is going to come back with force and with such a boomerang you are going to be sorry you voted for a piece of legislation that is making a tyrant out of a man who may some day misuse his authority.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, in line with the remarks of Senator Shapiro I desire to say, after a study of rippers, and with quite an experience in them, this is a new kind of ripper, and I call it a phantom ripper.

For the word phantom, I suggest you look it up in Websters' dictionary, and not the ones we have in our desks, and when we come back to have a Special Session in the fall I suggest we have unabridged dictionaries.

There is a story told about a certain king who tried to whip the sea. By passing this legislation you are trying to whip the people of Philadelphia, but as it was impossible to turn the sea back, so is it impossinble to turn back the people of Philadelphia, take away this right from them. I will coin an expression: the Supreme Court put the zipper in the ripper and now the people of Philadelphia are going to put a stopper to the ripper.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, the Registration Commission has been in existence for quite some time and in all that time the Governor has appointed the registration commissioners. That seems to me to be entirely proper, because qualifications of voters are determined by the state, and the Governor is the executive arm of the state. The registration commission serving the past year has been inadequate. I think there has been more complaint over registrations in Philadelphia than anything else connected with our election machinery; and I see no objection to placing the responsibility upon the Governor, so he can remedy that condition of affairs. It is not fair when voters are legally registered and then disqualified, that they be denied redress when they appeal for that purpose; and therefore it seems to me this bill ought to pass.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, with pleasure.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the gentleman from Montgomery know how the removal of registration commissioners in his county works out under this act?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I have heard no complaints.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I am talking about removal, Mr. President, when an act does one thing in one case and not in another, does not that change the principle, Mr. President.

Mr. EDMONDS. That is right, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there is no such provision in the county in which the gentleman lives?

Mr. EDMONDS. As far as I know, Mr. President, there is not.

Mr. SHAPIRO. And, Mr. President, there is no such provision in any permanent registration act in any other county?

Mr. EDMONDS. That is entirely possible, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. And yet, Mr. President, the gentleman thinks because it is Philadelphia it should be done.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I do; if they have done a poor job, get rid of them; and by all means untie the Governor's hands.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Montgomery further, if he will permit.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. EDMONDS. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the gentleman think, as the act now reads, with the words "for cause" that the Governor could remove those who did not properly discharge their duties?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, they have countenanced delays in trials; and it seems to me in an administrative matter of this kind, which vitally affects every home, we ought not to allow the delays to continue.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, would the gentleman like to be a registration commissioner and be removed without any cause?

Mr. EDMONDS. Not under any circumstances, Mr. President, but if I were a registration commissioner I would do a better job than has been done in Philadelphia.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Admitting that to be true, Mr. President, I think this is an unheard of procedure, and I think not only the gentleman from Montgomery but also the other members of the Senate will have to find some sufficient reason to enable them to vote for this bill.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I hesitated to get up and say something on this bill, but I want to say to you we have the world's worst registration bureau in Philadelphia, and it should be knocked out.

I want to tell you gentleman something: forty thousand reputable people, registered and qualified according to law, went to the polls at the last election and were denied the right to vote and were told their cards were not in the index system. Two thousand of my neighbors were denied their vote.

Mr. President, they may say there may be some politics in this. The board is composed of Republicans and Democrats, and I would be the last man to get up here and talk if it were merely a matter of politics, but this board in Philadelphia is mighty lucky they are getting kicked out; they had to go and it might have been something worse.

Let me tell you what the Committee of Seventy had to say in yesterday's paper, and it is the truth.

The Committee of Seventy, a non-political organization, never takes a part in politics, and nobody knows it any better than the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro. They stand for decent, honest government, and this is what the Committee of Seventy has to say: The Committee of Seventy, a non-political organization, say they have canvassed ninety-three divisions out of thirteen hundred. Out of ninety-three divisions they show 8,425 qualified voters were denied the right to vote—twenty per cent; one hundred votes to a division.

They further go on to say—and this was in the paper and I have a copy here—The Committee of Seventy says the only proper way for the Governor to correct this outrageous condition is to kick the board out.

The clipping is as follows:

"OUST REGISTRARS, '70' ASKS JAMES

"More than 8,500 voters in the city's first 93 divisions are improperly registered, the Committee of Seventy informed

Governor James yesterday in a letter again requesting removal of the members of the Philadelphia Registration Commission.

"A check of the condition of cards in the Commission's office, the committee said, showed that of 45,908 names canvassed in 93 divisions of 16 wards, up to last Monday, 8,425 are of persons who have moved and are therefore improperly registered, and 303 are of persons who have died.

"The figure represents an improper registration of 19 per cent, the committee declared.

" 'In the interests of eliminating the inaccuracies which have caused so much inconvenience,' the committee concluded, 'we again call upon you to remove the present Registration Commissioners for cause, and appoint in their places intelligent and conscientious men who will devote their time to the duties of their office.' "

Mr. President, I have had very little to say on this floor, but when you deprive an American citizen of his right to vote it makes my blood run cold; and this was a case of not one but forty thousand—two thousand of them were my neighbors. What would you Senators say if that condition applied to your own county, or half a dozen counties? There would be an uprising.

This is a good bill and it should be supported by every member of this body who stands for an honest form of government.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, is it true the Committee of Seventy does the bidding of the Republican party?

Mr. FARREL. Mr. President, I never heard of such a thing.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Is it true, Mr. President, the Committee of Seventy takes orders from the Republican party?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I never knew any of them to take part in partisan politics.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, did the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, ever hear of the Committee of Seventy being in collusion and conspiring?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I never heard of such a thing.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, does the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, think it is right to put people out of the commission without cause?

Mr. FARRELL. If they neglect their duty, yes, Mr. President.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. How does the Senator from Philadelphia come to that result, Mr. President.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, in answer to that question, I have more respect for one person who has a right to vote and is deprived of that vote than I have for commissioners who neglect their duties; and I do not care how they vote.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, can the registration commissioners of today be removed for cause, without putting in this clause?

Mr. FARRELL. They can be removed for cause, Mr. President.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, why put in the clause?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, they can be removed for cause; but is was a big commission of five and it was hard to establish the blame.

Gentlemen, I never saw such an election in my life. I had two thousand neighbors—respectable, fine people; one family of seven, a manufacturer, and they all registered together. Five of them were denied the right to vote and two of them were permitted to vote. When the five went to the station house, before the Court of Common Pleas judges—the station house was nearly as large as this room and yet you could not move in it—they had to travel seven or eight miles, and they simply went home. They were deprived of the right to vote, and all the responsibility is put up to the registration commission which consists of both Republicans and Democrats.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, is it not true the registration commission system we just installed was new and there were some rough edges, and after all, there are mistakes made in anything that is new; is that correct?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, mistakes may happen, but not that many.

Mr. DiSILVETRO. Mr. President, is it a fact?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I want to say if such a thing happened in an upstate county there would be an uprising of the people.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, I would like to inquire of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, if such a thing has not happened in Philadelphia for the last forty years—registering tombstones, dead people, cats and dogs, and unknown people in some districts of Philadelphia, before this registration commission was installed?

I say the people upstate would lynch them or hang them to trees, and make an end to such an infamous system, if they had seen such conditions as existed in the City of Philadelphia under the misrule of Philadelphia under the Republican party.

If you give this power to the Governor of Pennsylvania you will find in the City of Philadelphia we will campaign on this ground and show the people we are not going to institute any dictators in Pennsylvania by giving them such power as to throw people out of office, for cause or without cause.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FARRELL. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, is it true the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, was the sponsor of the bill reducing the membership of the commission?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I was the sponsor of this bill.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, was the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, responsible for the bill reducing the number of commissioners from five to three; to take effect in 1941?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, that is correct.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, does that take the Senator back to 1941?

Mr. FARRELL. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. STIEFEL. Did the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, insert in that bill the provision that the Governor of Pennsylvania may remove any one of the commissioners without any cause?

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I was under the impression the Governor could remove them under my bill, and when I found out he could not remove them I never was so anxious to see a board or commission removed in my life. This is not my bill. If I had drawn another bill it would have been far more drastic.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, is the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, familiar with a special study of this matter made by a committee which included Professor Alcon of the University of Pennsylvania; a study of the Registration Commission of Philadelphia.

Mr. FARRELL. Mr. President, I am not so familiar with it.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, my colleague the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. DiSilvestro, enumerated certain violations of the registration act in Philadelphia. Senator Farrell, hails from a Senatorial district known as an independent district, which has no floating vote. In our district it used to be the practice to transport people from one part of the city to another part to vote; it was a disgrace to the Republican party.

There is no doubt there were certain shortcomings in the registration commission, as there will be shortcomings in any new thing; but a committee of disinterested persons, headed by Dr. Alcon of the University of Pennsylvania, examined the situation, the wrongs have been rectified; and now, after the situation is amended, you are throwing another bomb and you will wreck completely the registration system of Philadelphia.

For that reason, Mr. President, I believe this will be a step backward, and we will be returned to the dark ages of floating voters and constant fraud in the registration in Philadelphia.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I do not deny the charges of fraud and corruption, but I would like to answer the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell, by saying the trouble with Philadelphia has been that there was a condition such as the gentleman referred to, of fraudulent prevention of voters from exercising their right of franchise, and that was a deliberate act of the Republican Party which, before this permanent registration bill, not only prevented those who had a right to vote, but put on the list those who had no right to vote, and the gentleman from Philadelphia admitted the propriety of that statement.

This bill to which I refer was very unjust, it provided that no voter could remain in the polling place longer than three minutes, even if the booths were all occupied. That was just to revive the system that used to prevail.

In order to get rid of that condition the permanent registration act was passed, and you must not forget a commission of five, or eight, was appointed by the Governor of the Commonwealth. They made a report and they said there was a great deal of trouble and a great deal of right to criticize the results, but they said there was no wrong-doing on the part of the commissioners, the trouble was they were undermanned.

This was a Democratic controlled commission and they had to go to a Republican controlled council to get their appropriation in order to do their work, and the Republican controlled council, because it did not have a majority on that commission, cut down the allowance to those people. As a result there was a tremendous amount of persons who were prevented from voting because their cards were not changed.

That does not apply only to Republicans but to Republican and Democrats alike, whose registrations were not completed on the books. In order to help out the matter was brought to the attention of the court, and the court knew it was physically impossible to do those things, so they opened up courts in police stations all over the city and allowed these people to come in and register.

After the report of the committee, which exonerated the members of this commission, this purely political bill is produced in order that the Governor may remove the Democrats from the commission and put Republicans on.

If you will read this bill you will find it is drawn in anticipation of that, it changes the method of getting watchers certificates, it changes registrars, all done in anticipation that the Republicans are going to gain control of this commission; and then you will see the kind of fraud you will have.

This same organization has talked about depriving voters of their right to vote. The gentleman forgot to tell you Republicans alone where not deprived of the right to vote but Democrats were also. Look at the papers—if he is quoting papers—and see who is running the thing.

The same group in Philadelphia who owe thousands of dollars for back taxes, now drawing down thousands of dollars in pay, councilmen, members of boards, relatives of the man we appointed as Secretary of Revenue, receive thousands of dollars and do not pay their taxes.

One councilman owes $10,000 one of those gentlemen owes four or five thousand dollars. We have several hundred thousand dollars not collected by this Republican organization.

Now we are supposed to rip out the Democratic representation there, change the handling of Philadelphia only; in the rest of the state there must be cause. Now, if the gentleman is right, assuming he is right, that they did terrible things; if his argument is enough to convince you they should be removed why not convince the Governor he has the right to remove them for the cause he speaks of, but do not put this vicious thing in a bill which has never existed before in the history of legislation.

You may have twenty-six votes—I am not talking about that. I am talking about the justice of the situation and the precedent you are setting.

We had over a million people to register in a short time, with a commission which was hamstrung by council for money. We could not possibly do a good job, and I think this is a most outrageous thing, the manner by which we are giving the Governor of this Commonwealth authority to remove commissioners for political purposes.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I wish to inform my colleague from Philadelphia, Mr. DiSilvestro, something about the Committee of Seventy. This is not an interrogation; it is giving him information.

I have the honor to be one of the founders of the Committee of Seventy. Can you hear me?

I have the honor to be one of the founders of the Committee of Seventy. In that golden age there were no Democrats in Philadelphia, therefore there could be no Democrats on the Committee of Seventy at that time; but I would like to inform the Senator since that time there have sprung up some Democrats even in Philadelphia, and as they grew in intelligence and responsibility some of them have been admitted to the Committee of Seventy.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I want to say I do not know what the fate of the Democratic party may be in the future, but no one in this state can blame the Democratic party, if it does return to power, for doing exactly what the Republicans are doing with ripper legislation. I only want to say this is another piece of kindling on the bonfire.

Mr. DiSILVESTRO. Mr. President, even though the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Woodward, claims paternity for the Committee of Seventy I still wish to say he is a fine gentleman.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, I have no doubt Hitler or any other dictator would be very well pleased with a law which would enable him to remove men from public office without cause.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am constrained to say another word—

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, has already spoken twice on this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask this indulgence of the Chair. My statement would concern a statement made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I would like to have a ruling on my point of order.

The PRESIDENT. If the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, insists the Chair is sorry but he must rule the point of order is well taken.

PRIVILEGE TO SPEAK GRANTED

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent be granted the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, to speak again on the bill.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. If there is no objection the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, may proceed.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am going to confine myself to an answer to a statement made by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Farrell. The statement attributed to the Committee was made by a man named Butcher. He does not speak for the Committee of Seventy. I want to read a telegram which the registration commission sent to the Governor. The telegram is as follows:

"There has been published a statement purporting to have been made to Your Excellency by the Committee of Seventy.

"The published statement is false. Coming as it does from a committee, many of whose members are most reputable and responsible citizens, the Registration Commission of the City of Philadelphia cannot allow it to pass unchallenged.

"We are quite aware that the Committee of Seventy is blindly permitting their reputation for honesy and civic righteousness to be stultified by their secretary Harry K. Butcher. The Registration Commission is bending every effort to carry out honestly and fairly the provisions of the Permanent Registration Act under the handicaps and difficulties which are detailed in our report to Your Excellency.

"We deny any laxity or any failure on our part in the performance of our duties. We challenge Mr. Butcher to file strike-off petitions according to law against any person he claims is improperly registered. Further, we have sent the Committee of Seventy 2,000 strike-off petitions for their use, not one of which has been filed in our office for strike-off."

The telegram is signed by every member of the commission, and some of them are Republicans.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

It was agreed to.

On the question.

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I do not believe copies of Senate Bill No. 1160, are on our desks.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is informed copies have been placed on the desks of the Senators.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the printer's number is wrong on the bill.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is informed the printer's number is incorrect. The correct printer's number is No. 993.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1178, (House Bill No. 1584), on third reading, entitled:

An Act relating to the officers of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth creating the office of Secretary of the House of Representatives providing for the appointment of the first Secretary and his election hereafter fixing his compensation and duties and fixing the compensation of the Chief Clerk of the House of Representatives

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

BILLS DROPPED FROM CALENDAR

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1181, (House Bill No. 308), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the seventeenth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. 507), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State and county purposes, and, in cities coextensive with counties, for city and county purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment and collection of the same; providing for the duties and compensation of prothonotaries and recorders in connection therewith; and modifying existing legislation which provided for raising revenue for State purposes," as amended, by excluding from the provisions of said act personal property transferred and assigned to, or possessed by certain fiduciaries.

be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1150, (House Bill No. 309), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section three of the act, approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 414), entitled "An act to provide revenue for State purposes; imposing taxes upon certain classes of personal property; providing for the assessment, collection, and lien of the same, and the distribution of the proceeds thereof; imposing duties on executors, administrators, registers of wills, recorders of deeds, prothonotaries, and court clerks, and on persons, copartnerships, associations, banks, national banks, trust companies, and other corporations receiving deposits of money, and on certain corporations and limited partnerships, conferring powers and imposing duties on certain State officers and departments; imposing penalties; and making an appropriation," as re-enacted and amended, excluding from the provisions of said act personal property transferred and assigned to, or possessed by certain fiduciaries.

be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. FREY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 1184, (House Bill No. 981), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend article three, section five; and article five, sections one, two and six, of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and nineteen, (P. L. 581), entitled "An act for the better government of cities of the first class of this Commonwealth," to provide for commissioners to replace the director of public safety, for their number, qualifications, election compensation powers and terms of office, and for the appointment, terms of office and accession to office of temporary commissioners.

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

MOTION TO DROP SENATE BILL No. 1186 FROM THE CALENDAR

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1186, (House Bill No. 496), be dropped from the Calendar.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I object.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman who is going to handle the investigations and arguments on that side of the House on this bill, whoever he may be.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, is Chairman of the Committee.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, as I understand it this bill extends the hours of labor for females in industrial work from ten o'clock in the evening to midnight.

Mr. HEYBURN. That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Will the Senator from Delaware tell the Senate how long that has been the law in the State of Pennsylvania—that ten o'clock has been the limit.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, the reason for that change is that under the present law there has been a sixteen hour spread—

Mr. DENT. Pardon me, Mr. President, I asked the gentleman if he knew how long that has been the law in Pennsylvania, that ten o'clock is the limit.

Mr. HEYBURN. I do not know, Mr. President; several years, I think. There has been no limit on the starting, though.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it has been a law in Pennsylvania since the 25th day of July 1913, that females in industrial employment could not be employed after the hour of ten at night. I want to say there were a great many reactionary laws passed by the Republican administration prior to the year 1935, when the people of Pennsylvania became tired of forty years of that type of legislation and destroyed that party's power in Pennsylvania.

On the very comeback victory, their very first victory after the time they were destroyed by the will of the people, and they come into the State of Pennsylvania in power they try to put into effect an act that will change the hours of employment for females.

The PRESIDENT. We must have order in the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, it does not matter whether they listen, I know how they are going to vote, but for the record I want the people of Pennsylvania to know just what this bill does.

This bill is that type of legislation which will cause a great deal of trouble in the industrial areas. It has been the custom for years, because of this law, that females are only employed for what they call the first shift in a dual shift industry, and then they hire young boys who have graduated from high school, young men who come in on the second trick or second shift and work until midnight.

Now, we are not satisfied with that, there are not enough young boys out of employment, we are going to take them out, so that females can work up till midnight for eighteen cents an hour. This is another piece of wage-cutting legislation. They pay the girls at the rate of 8, 10, 15, or 20 cent an hour less in our little industries. Now you are saying under the present law you pay the young men a little more money, but we are going to change that for industry in Pennsylvania, we will allow you to hire women.

There is no use my talking; I understand perfectly the 26 votes are contracted for. I just want to say, Mr. President, this is another piece of kindling on the bonfire.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, in my district there are many glass bottle workers, and I wish to read and have placed on the record all the telegrams I got on this bill. The first reads as follows: "The Glass Bottle Blowers Association of the United States and Canada is against the proposed legislation to extend women working in industry until 12 o'clock midnight. This legislation if passed would replace 500 men with women in your respective districts. Would appreciate your sincere efforts in our behalf. Lee W. Minto Executive Officer."

The second telegram reads: "I am against Bill 496 for women working until midnight. Francis Gorby."

The third: "Bill No. 496 will increase unemployment drastically. Russel McGuier.

The fourth: "Let our men not women provide for Pennsylvania families. Opposed to Bill 496. Clyde Wise."

The fifth: "Hope that House Bill 496 slated for final passage tomorrow will be defeated. Lee W. Minton, Glass Bottle Blowers Association."

I would like to have these telegrams placed in the record.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, before this vote is taken I want to say it was our women's hour law, we understand, that kept a General Motor plant from coming into Pennsylvania, because of the fact that the hours of work for women under our act could not be fitted in with their program.

If we are going to have industrial expansion in Pennsylvania we have got to meet the practical situation. Our women's laws in this state have been in advance of other states for years and years, and they still will be with these amendments. We have been in the forefront for years in legislation protecting women and children in industry, and this is not a step backword, Mr. President, but a step to put our laws in line with the present practice of industry, to prevent such as occurred when an industry like General Motors, which two years ago looked for a site for a plant and settled in New Jersey rather than Pennsylvania. At that time Mr. Sloan said the reason was because of the women's hour law in this state and the requirement with reference to spread. If that is not sufficient reason to amend this act, I can not conceive of one.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, as I read this act it will, as stated by the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, put Pennsylvania in line with the states that employ feminine help in the south: but it will also, in my opinion, take a lot of work from the heads of families and give it to women.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the gentleman from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, is interested. I would like to give him an answer to the argument he just made; and that answer is this: if there is an industry that cannot come into Pennsylvania without keeping women in a factory from six to twelve o'clock, I think they should stay out.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I just want to say this act does not permit them to work from six in the morning until twelve o'clock at night, but it permits them to work the hours that they are already permitted during that period, that is all it does, so that they can put the work women are employed to do in line with their production schedule.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, just to make sure no one gets a bum steer on this legislation, this amends the act of 1913: it allows women to work in industry an additional two hours—from ten o'clock to midnight it takes away from young men the opportunity to work on the afternoon shift in our industry and puts women and young girls in there. That is exactly what it does. It is a step backward, and is another piece of kindling on the bonfire and do not deny it.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, the whole reason for this amendment is the fact, as the gentleman from Tioga stated, that it is impossible to work two shifts of women in industry in Pennslyvania if there is a sixteen hour spread; you can see there is no opportunity for lunch or a rest period. This will increase the spread to eighteen hours and reduce the maximum hours per week from forty-four to forty.

In 1913, when this law that the gentleman from Westmoreland referred to was passed, women could not even vote. Since then women have been given equal rights to vote, to work and to support themselves. It is just a question whether or not we want to put our industry in a position to compete with industry outside of the state.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the gentleman will admit that 1927, 1928, and 1929 were prosperous years for industry in Pennsylvania; is that right?

Mr. HEYBURN. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. And, Mr. President, the gentleman will admit that this law was passed in 1913 by a Republican administration. That is correct, is it not?

Mr. HEYBURN. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, how did industry get along in 1928 and 1929 with this terrible law which would not permit them to work women until twelve midnight?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, this situation did not become acute until after passage of the forty-four hours a week law for women.

Mr. SHAPIRO. How many hours a week are permitted under this bill, Mr. President?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, it is limited to forty; reduced from forty-four.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I mean before the amendment, Mr. President.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, forty-four.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Therefore, Mr. President, in 1913 the condition that the Senator speaks of did exist; women could not work beyond ten o'clock and yet industry prospered. Inspite of the fact it was affected by the limitation of forty-four hours you are making it forty hours, and the Senator says that corrects the condition.

Mr. HEYBURN. In answer to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, let me state that in 1913 night shifts were unknown in my part of the country, they only worked in the day time. This is a new era of mass production which I personally do not think much of, but that is the way industry is conducted.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HEYBURN. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, during the remarks of the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, he made the statement women have the right to vote, have suffrage now, and should be allowed to earn a living in exactly the same position as men. Would he suggest we put another amendment in this act to allow women to work after midnight, to work all night?

Mr. HEYBURN. No, Mr. President, I would not.

Mr. DENT. The Senator is discriminating, is he not, Mr. President?

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I think forty hours a week are enough.

Mr. DENT. Well, Mr. President, they could work forty hours after midnight just as well as before midnight.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, the gentlemon from Westmoreland knows all through this Commonwealth women are working in taprooms and doing strip tease dances and everything else. Does not the Senator from Westmoreland want to allow women to make a decent, honest living before twelve o'clock?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I do not know anything about strip teases of my own knowledge.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1186, (House Bill No. 496), entitled:

An Act to amend section four of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand twenty-four) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" by extending the night restrictions on employment in manufacturing establishments in certain cases

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—27

Bartlett,	Eroe,	Letzler,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Tallman,
Crowe,	Gelder,	Miller,	Thomas,
Dando,	Geltz,	Owlett,	Walker,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Pierson,	Wolfenden,
Ealy,	Homsher,	Scarlett,	Woodward,
Edmonds,	James,	Snowden,

NAYS—20

Dent,	Jacobs,	McCreesh,	Shapiro,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kilgallen,	Mundy,	Stiefel,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same without amendments.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1188, (House Bill No. 1202), entitled:

An Act to amend the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of April, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 417), entitled "An act relating to milk and the products thereof; creating a Milk Control Commission; establishing its jurisdiction, powers and duties; regulating the production, transportation, manufacturing, processing, storage, distribution, delivery and sale of milk and certain products thereof; providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees therefor; requiring milk dealers to file bonds to secure payment for milk to producers and certain milk dealers; authorizing the holding of hearings and the issuance of subpoenas by the commission; conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts and to prohibit violations of this act and of rules, regulations and orders of the commission; authorizing the commission to adopt rules, regulations and orders, and to enter into interstate and Federal compacts; requiring persons who weigh, measure, sample or test milk to procure permits or certificates, to take examinations, to pay fees therefor, to furnish certain notices, records and statements, and to use certain methods of weighing, measuring, sampling and testing; authorizing the commission to examine the business, papers and premises of milk dealers and producers, requiring the keeping of records and the filing of reports by milk dealers, and permitting, with limitations, the use of information obtained thereby; authorizing the commission to fix prices for milk and certain milk products subject to the approval of the Governor, and conferring certain powers upon the Governor with respect thereto; providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the commission, and for the burden of proof upon such appeals; prescribing penalties, fines and imprisonment for violations of this act and rules, regulations and orders of the commission; defining perjury defining remedies; repealing legislation supplied and superseded by this act, and saving rights, duties and proceedings thereunder and making appropriations" by encouraging cooperation and providing for certain marketing plans between producers and dealers under prescribed conditions subject to the approval of the commission eliminating the requirement for the approval by the Governor of certain orders enlarging certain powers and duties of the commission with respect thereto and with respect to disbursing proceeds of bonds and prescribing trade practices further defining or clarifying certain violations and changing certain procedure and practice on and the right of appeal

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer the following strikeout amendments, which are merely correctives, which are to amend section 1, page 12, line 13 by striking out at the end of the line, with boldface brackets, the word: S "[so]".

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object.

MOTION TO GO INTO COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now go into Committee of the Whole for the purpose of considering the special amendments just offered.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

During the roll call.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, may I interrupt the roll call to suggest, before the vote be taken, that the amendment should be read, for the reason adoption of the motion carries with it adoption of the amendment.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. DENT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—30

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Kunkel,	Snowden,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Letzler,	Stevenson,
Crowe,	Geltz,	Mallery,	Tallman,
Dando,	Gilson,	Miller,	Thomas,
Deitrick,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Walker,

Coleman,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Shapiro,
DiSilvestro,	Kilgallen,	Mundy,	Sipe,
Frey,	Lanius,	Reed,	Stiefel,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

EXECUTIVE SESSION RISES

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that the Committee of the Whole do now rise.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, this bill is what now remains of what originally was a rewrite of the Rogers-Allen act of New York, unceremoniously kicked out of the State of New York by the Federal District Court and then brought over to Pennsylvania in an attempt to ram it down the throats of the General Assembly of this state.

Mr. President, the bill in its present form is very hard to read, there are so many-strike outs and strike-ins and the like, but while a great deal has been stricken out there is one provision that has been put in, a provision which I am sure the farmers of Pennsylvania do not want. That is a provision that the Governor of the Commonwealth will be divorced from any obligation either to approve or disapprove price fixing orders of the Milk Control Commission.

Mr. President, I believe this provision should not be in the bill, for this reason; as I said before, it has been many moons, a generation at least, since Pennsylvania has had a governor that knows anything about the problems of the greatest industry of Pennsylvania, the farming industry. It seems to me to be logical that our governors should be tied up with some responsibility to the problems of the great farming industry, so that they will be, if you please, compelled to make some study of the problems of the farming industry or else take the consequences at the hands of the farmers of Pennsylvania.

This is made all the stronger when we contemplate that probably for another generation we will have no Governor of Pennsylvania who knows much about the problems of the farming industry at any time except in campaigns, when it has been the habit, the custom, of almost all candidates for Governor to make very rosy promises to the farmers of Pennsylvania during such campaigns, and then to forget about the problems of the farmer after they are inducted into office—in the meantime, I repeat giving considerable energy to the study of the problems of other major industries of Pennsylvania.

Now, this power, this obligation, this responsibility to the farmers should be maintained—at least this much of it, at least the veto power of the Governor of Pennsylvania over milk control orders which are patently and obviously unjust to the milk producing farmers in Pennsylvania.

We have at present this situation among the milk producing farmers of Pennsylvania, that the price they are paid when reduced to a quart basis, is less than three cents a quart, whereas at no place in the State is milk retailed for less than eleven cents per quart, and in many places twelve and thirteen cents per quart.

So I say it is obviously just to expect that a Governor should be tied up with the responsibility of vetoing such outrageous and unjust orders. Reduce that to a percentage basis and you find that the milk producing farmers of Pennsylvania are paid only about or receive only about twenty per cent of the consumer's dollar, whereas even in Hitler Germany the milk producing farmer gets more than twice as large a share out of the consumer's dollar.

So for those reasons I am tying up the Governors of Pennsylvania to some responsibility to the greatest industry in Pennsylvania.

There is another reason why this obligation, as it exists now, that the Governor should either approve or disapprove milk control orders, should remain I think it is plain as day, and I assure you the farmers of my part of the State think it is plain as day, that the reason why this provision has been incorporated into this bill, his divorcing of the Governor from any obligation to approve or disapprove milk orders—the reason it is being incorporated is to give the present Governor an opportunity to run out on the rosy promises he made to the farmers during his campaign.

Now, Mr. President, I want to speak unbiasedly, unprejudicedly—and I readily admit as a Democrat that when Governor Earle was running for office he too made rosy promises to the farmer which were not fulfilled, that during his administration the price to the farmer kept going down and the price to the consumer kept going up. I repeat that during his administration it was very obvious to the farmers that the milk trust got control over his Milk Control Board. So, I think I am convincing you I am not speaking as a prejudiced Democrat, I am speaking as a fair minded farmer and as a citizen; and so I take you from the promises of Governor Earle, unfulfilled, to the promises of Governor James, when he was running for office. He really outdid Candidate Earle in making rosy promises to the farmer; he promised them almost the earth.

Farmers who were at the milk investigation hearing from Cumberland County told me he even went so far as to tell them that within two weeks after he would be inducted into office he would see to it that the price to the milk producing farmer in Cumberland County would be increased forty cents a hundred—I am simply quoting them. Any of you know who listened to his speeches over the radio and his other speeches to the farmers, without any overstatement on my part, the many rosy promises made to the farmers. So I am telling you that the farmers —as a Democrat giving advise to Republicans—the farmers of Pennsylvania interpret the insertion of this provision to divorce the present Governor from any obligation of either approving or disapproving milk control price orders—they interpret it as I think any fair minded person would, as simply an attempt on the part of Governor James to run away from the promises he made during his campaign.

I do not want to take up the time of the Senate in discussing this bill any further; I want to say there are other Senators here who are also interested in the milk producing farmer of Pennsylvania, and I want them to have a chance to express their views.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, in view of the importance of the question involved in this bill, I desire to say a few words against the passage of it. I am convinced this problem is one of the most important problems in Pennsylvania. This was very evident from the number of people who attended the public hearings under the committee sponsored by Senator Heyburn some weeks ago. Farmers from all parts of the state assembled in the Senate caucus room and took a very keen interest in the subject of milk control in Pennsylvania. Those hearings went along nicely, Mr. President, until they were stopped by the failure of the House to continue the committee's authority. The resolution that would continue the investigation has been over in the House for some time, buried in committee.

That convinces me, Mr. President, that there is something wrong with the investigation that has been started under Senator Heyburn's committee with respect to certain groups in Pennsylvania. I know there are certain groups in Pennsylvania that wanted those hearings, or that investigation, terminated. I talked with quite a few people at the hearings we had, and I am convinced there are many who are in favor of a continuation of that investigation, I know, on the other hand, there were many others who were anxious that it be terminated.

This bill, House Bill No. 1202, as it came into the Senate originally, was a document of fifty-three pages; and to show how poorly drawn the bill was, it has now been deleted until it only contains one or two provisions. One of those provisions, as the Senator from Armstrong, discussed, has to do with relieving the Chief Executive from signing orders. I feel the Governor of this state should not be relieved at this time. My views and my reasons are different than those advanced by the Senator from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe. When the chief executive was campaigning for office he knew that if elected, under the basis law of Pennsylvania he would be compelled to execute those orders, and the people who elected him also knew it was necessary to have the chief executive to execute those orders.

I say, Mr. President, it would be unfair to the people who elected Governor James, and it would be likewise unfair to the Governor, to take this power from him at the present time. That is contrary to our basic and constitutional law. He was elected with that power in his hands, and this Legislature should not take that power from him now. If this Legislature wants to remove this power from the hands of the Governor, then it ought to be done so that at the termination of this chief executive's term that power would then be taken from the Governor that follows. The Legislative branch should be very careful in taking any power from the executive branch of our government; and I repeat, the Governor should not have this power taken from him at the present time.

That is one of the provisions contained in this emasculated bill. The other has to do with marketing plans, and that provision provides that if—you will find it on page 11, "..... whenever a marketing plan or plans between milk dealers and producers or incorporated cooperative associations or associations of producers authorized by written contract to market the milk of such producers shall be filed with the commission upon such form or forms as shall be prescribed or approved by the commission proposing a price for the milk of such producers delivering to such dealers fifty-one percentum (51%) or more of the milk in volume purchased by dealers operating in a marketing area the commission shall hold a public hearing for the consideration thereof and to fix prices for such area."

Now, Mr. President, that provision has within it a very great deal of power. If the marketing plan or plans between milk dealers and producers would stop at that point, on page 11, line 23, then it would not be so bad, because then the producer would be the man on the farm, the man who actually produces the milk; he would be in a very good position to make a contract with the dealer; but when you go further and include in this bill the co-operative association, which through other associations, are now controlled under contract, I say the producer will get no protection from that clause in this bill.

Mr. President, that is practically all that is left in the bill. I believe on account of the vital question here involved, after we have gone into an investigation of this problem, that we should not be hasty in passing a bill torn to pieces as this bill is, in the final days of the session.

This problem is too big, it is too important, to pass a bill of this nature at this time. I believe the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn and the Senator from Chester, Mr. Scarlett, will agree with what I have said on this basic question. I feel this Assembly should lay this bill aside and let this committee or some other committee carry on an extensive and thorough and careful investigation; and then, when we come back here at a special session, which I feel will not be long hence, then we can make a milk regulatory bill that will mean something to the people of Pennsylvania.

I will not vote for a bill of this nature, in the manner and in the form presented to this Assembly at this time. We had better pass no bill than to pass a bill like this, because if we pass this bill then it will be harder to pass a real regulatory bill later on; and I hope, for the good of the producers and the people of this state, that this bill will be defeated.

I have received many telegrams, as a member of the committee, calling upon me to use my influence and my power to destroy this bill on the floor of the Senate. I have given you my views and I intend to vote against passage of this bill.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

And the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the calling of the roll.)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to inquire how the Senator from Chester, Mr. Scarlett. voted.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Chester, Mr. Scarlett, is recorded as voting "aye."

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I desire to change my vote from "aye" to "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I want to announce for the benefit of the gentleman from Tioga, for the balance of this session I do not want him to complain about anybody on this side delaying anything.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, that did not take long.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—23

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Tallman,
Chapman,	Geltz,	Miller,	Thomas,

Less than a constitutional majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO DROP SENATE BILL No. 1188 FROM CALENDAR

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1188, (House Bill No. 1202), be dropped from the Calendar of the Senate.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask the Senate to vote down the motion.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. CAVALCANTE and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—21

Cavalcante,	Gilson,	Kunkel,	Reed.
Coleman,	Haluska,	Lanius,	Ruth,

So the question was determined in the negative.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the vote by which Senate Bill No. 1188, (House Bill No. 1202), failed of passage be reconsidered.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I voted "no".

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The PRESIDENT. How did the Senator vote?

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I voted "no".

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I shall be very glad to be interrogated.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the gentlemen only had 25 votes for this bill, what is the purpose of reconsidering?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, we might get twenty-six.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I would like to ask the gentlemen if he anticipates we will adjourn today.

Mr. OWLETT. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the gentleman feel he can get another vote, making a total of twenty-six.

Mr. OWLETT. I hope so. Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, since all the gentlemen on the other side voted in the affirmative, will the gentleman say whether or not he expects to get another vote on this side of the House?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, we still have faint hopes somebody on the Democratic side will see the light.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I ask the gentlemen on this side to see the light, but not through the color of milk.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25

Bartlett,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Geltz,	Miller,	Tallman,
Crowe,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Thomas,
Deitrick,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Walker,
Ealy,	James,	Scarlett,	Wolfenden,
Edmonds,	Letzler,	Snowden,	Woodward,
Farrell,

NAYS—22

Cavalcante,	Frey,	Kunkel,	Reed,
Coleman,	Gilson,	Lanius,	Ruth,
Dando,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Shapiro,
Dent,	Jacobs,	McGinnis	Sipe,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Mundy,	Stiefel,
Eroe,	Kilgallen,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, further.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated further?

Mr. OWLETT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, does the gentleman still think he has hopes of getting another vote from this side?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I do not know. The way the votes have been going this week I am awfully afraid we will not have anybody see the light.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, some further business having been conducted, I understand the bill is in order to be called up.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I understand a Senator on this side of the House wants to call this bill up for action at this time.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I was about to request that we take a recess for dinner.

HOUSE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL No. 1580, AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Th Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House insists upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1580, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals.

and has appointed Messrs. Norman Wood, Woodside, and Herbert B. Cohen, as a Committee of Conference to confer with a similar committee of the Senate (if the Senate shall appoint such committee) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

APPOINTMENT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE TO HOUSE BILL No. 1580

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a committee of the House of Representatives (already appointed) to consider the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The President, Pro Tempore orders that Messrs. Ealy, Owlett and Shapiro, be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

SENATE INSISTS UPON ITS NON-CONCURRENCE IN AMENDMENTS MADE BY THE HOUSE TO SENATE BILL No. 761, AND APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate insists upon its non-concurrence in amendments made by the House to Senate Bill No. 761, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause six of section one of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 858), entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes; defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," further defining State employes.

and that a Committee of Conference be appointed to confer with a committee of the House of Representatives (if the House shall appoint such a committee) to consider the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That Messrs. Tallman, Ruth and Geltz, be said committee on the part of the Senate, and that the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 1188, (House Bill No. 1202), page 11 of the Calendar, which went over in its order.

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1188, (House Bill No. 1202), entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 417) entitled "An act relating to milk and the production thereof creating a Milk Control Commission establishing its jurisdiction powers and duties regulating the production transportation manufacturing processing storage distribution delivery and sale of milk and certain products thereof providing for the licensing of milk dealers and the payment of fees therefor requiring milk dealers to file bonds to secure payment for milk to producers and certain milk dealers authorizing the holding of hearings and the issuance of subpoenas by the commission conferring jurisdiction upon courts to punish contempts and to prohibit violations of this act and of rules regulations and orders of the commission authorizing the commission to adopt rules regulations and orders and to enter into interstate and Federal compacts requiring persons who weigh measure sample or test milk to procure permits or certificaes to take examinations to pay fees therefor to furnish certain notices records and statements and to use certain methods of weighing measuring sampling and testing authorizing the commission to examine the business papers and premises of milk dealers and producers requiring the keeping of records and the filing of reports by milk dealers and permitting with limitations the use of information obtained thereby authorizing the commission to fix prices for milk and certain milk products subject to the approval of the Governor and conferring certain powers upon the Governor with respect thereto providing for appeals to the courts from decisions of the commission and for the burden of proof upon such appeals prescribing penalties fines and imprisonment for violations of this act and rules regulations and orders of the commission defining perjury defining remedies repealing legislation supplied and superseded by this act and saving rights duties and proceedings thereunder and making appropriations" by encouraging cooperation and providing for certain marketing plans between producers and dealers under prescribed conditions subject to the approval of the commission eliminating the requirement for the approval by the Governor of certain orders enlarging certain powers and duties of the commission with respect thereto and with respect to disbursing proceeds of bonds and prescribing trade practices further defining or clarifying certain violations and changing certain procedure and practice on and the right of appeal

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(During the Calling of the Roll.)

Mr. DANDO. Mr. President, from information I have had from some of the Senators on this side of the House I wish to explain my vote.

The information I have is that this is a bill which was written in New York, and is very similar to the anthracite coal bill, and for that reason I vote no.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, before you announce the vote, I desire to raise a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his point of order.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this Senate having found, under due and legal proceedings, that there was no Senator elected in the Second Senatorial District in Philaedlphia, by the adoption of the report on the Levin-Salus contest, I therefore raise the point of order that twenty-five votes is a constitutional majority of this Senate, there being only forty-nine Senators elected, and the Constitution providing that a majority of those elected shall govern.

Since the adoption by this Senate of the report on the Levin-Salus contest, holding that there was no one elected in that district, there were only forty-nine Senators elected; and therefore, twenty-five would constitute a majority, and therefore this bill passes.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair rules that is a constitutional question which he will not decide; it is a question which must be decided by the Senate themselves.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, since when does the Senate decide the Constitution?

The PRESIDENT. It is the judge of its own elections, and they will determine that.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, may I suggest to the Chair the Senate has already decided there was no election in that district.

I raise the point because I think this bill should be certified, that the action of the Senate was twenty-five ayes and so many noes; and it will be for the courts to say whether or not that is a constitutional majority—in view of the result of the Levin-Salus contest, in which no one was elected.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, if the Senator is consistent, he will have to open up all the votes cast in this Senate on any bills where a constitutional majority was necessary, and set them aside, and I think it is unfair that the burden be placed on the Chair.

We have taken a lot during this Session, and we can take it, but it looks to us like every time the Republicans lose they can not take it. For days I have sat here and listened to this go on, where bills have been defeated and then the gentleman from Tioga has had hopes he could get some more votes. Now his hopes have been shattered and he still can not get the votes, and he wants the Chair to change that which has been the law for years, that a constitutional majority consists of a majority of fifty Senators, and I suggest the Chair should not be placed in that position.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair will take anything; he has been taking it.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I just want to call the Chair's attention and the Senate's attention to the fact that this Levin-Salus decision was not made by the Senate until last week. It has not been necessary to raise this question because there has been no bill before that did not have at least twenty-six votes. Since the Levin-Salus decision every bill has been finally passed by twenty-six votes.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I deny that, because last week Senate Bill No. 447, which appears on our Calendar, was defeated by 25 votes.

Mr. OWLETT. That is correct, Mr. President, and it was reconsidered and adopted by twenty-six votes.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I mean a bill that come after the Salus-Levin report, and there have been several others. The labor relations bill was acted upon after the Salus-Levin report was filed, and all it received was twenty-five votes, but the Senator's persuasive powers were so great he was able to change the vote. Now when his powers are not sufficient he begins to rely on the Constitution by violating it.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I simply feel since the decision in the Salus-Levin case, that now twenty-five votes constitute a constitutional majority. Here is an act, and it would be very interesting to have that tested. I am surprised that the Senator from Philadelphia, good lawyer that he is, objects to having that question raised, but the bill is not of much consequence whether it does pass or does not.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, do I understand the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, to say the effects of this bill would be unimportant?

Mr. OWLETT. I do, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. I am glad the public will know that, Mr. President.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, this is a legal question, and perhaps the Department of Justice can handle it better than we can here.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I think it might be interesting for the Senate to know a conversation I overheard the other evening; it might throw a litle light on the subject. The reason I want to tell that story is because the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Reed, has made the observation that perhaps the proper place for this question is in the Department of Justice.

After the vote the other evening on the so-called coal control bill I heard a man interested in one of the large coal companies make the statement he thought perhaps the president of the Senate ought to vote on the question, because forty-nine Senators were all there were and twenty-five votes would be a constiutional majority, and a 24-24 vote is a tie and therefore the President could vote.

I understand the conversation, as I heard it, went this way: one gentleman in the conversation said "you could not do that; it is unconstitutional" and the other gentleman said, "We do not care much about that; we can get the attorney general to say anything we want him to say." I will name names if necessary.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Lawrence, Mr. Eroe, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, have Mr. Levin and Mr. Salus been served with notices of the decision of the Senate?

The PRESIDENT. That is not necessary.

Mr. EROE. I ask, Mr. President, is it not necessary?

The PRESIDENT. The Chair does not think it is necessary. The action was taken here and at the proper time provisions will be made to have a special election.

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I raised that question because I do not know whether a man has a right to appeal or whether he does not have a right to appeal until the Chair sends him notice.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair would say he does not have a right to appeal, for the reason that the Senate is the judge of the qualifications of its own members and so decided the other day.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, merely to be helpful to the Chair in that regard I want to read a decision of this Senate found in the Senate Journal of 1881, page 479 of the Pennsylvania Manual on Page 814, which reads as follows: "The President decided that the constitutional requirements relative to the final passage of a bill is intended to apply to the whole number of Senators provided for by the Constitution, which would be fifty, and that the number required to be recorded in favor of a bill upon its final passage is a majority of the whole number of Senators elected, which would be twenty-six."

The PRESIDENT. And that is in accord with the decision of the Chair.

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—25

Bartlett,	Gelder,	Mallery,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Geltz,	Miller,	Tallman,
Crowe,	Heyburn,	Owlett,	Thomas,
Deitrick,	Homsher,	Pierson,	Walker,
Ealy,	James,	Scarlett,	Wolfenden,
Edmonds,	Letzler,	Snowden,	Woodward.
Farrell,

NAYS—22

Cavalcante,	Frey,	Kunkel,	Reed,
Coleman,	Gilson,	Lanius,	Ruth,
Dando,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Shapiro,
Dent,	Jacobs,	McGinnis,	Sipe,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	Mundy,	Stiefel,
Eroe,	Kilgallen,

Less than a constitutional majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the negative.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, has the Chair announced the result of the vote; and if not will the Chair do so.

The PRESIDENT. On final passage of Senate Bill No. 1188, (House Bill No. 1202), the ayes were 25 and the nays were 22. Having failed to receive a constitutional majority the bill falls.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I would like to correct an impression. I know it was unintentional, but I do think it should be corrected on the record.

I know the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, did not desire to create the impression the attorney general's opinion could be procured anyway anybody so desired, because the attorney general of the Commonwealth is a reputable gentleman, a very reputable member of the bench and bar; and he give his opinion of the law as he sees it. I think that impression should be corrected.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I understand that.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

BILL SIGNED

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 1097, entitled:

An Act to amend sections one and two of the act, approved the fifth day of June, one thousand nine hundred and thirty-five (P. L. 266), entitled "An act to protect trade-mark owners, distributors, and the public against injuries and uneconomic practices in the distribution of articles of standard quality under a distinguished trademark, brand or name," by extending the provisions thereof to vending equipment used in distributing such articles, and further defining parties having a right of action for unfair competition.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S Lewis) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

RESOLUTION

FINAL ADJOURNMENT

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Mr. OWLETT, offered the following resolution which none.

In the Senate, May 29, 1939.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur). That this Regular Session of the General Assembly adjourn sine die, May 29, 1939, at 11.30 o'clock, P. M.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. HALUSKA. Mr. President, I would like briefly to make a few remarks before we adjourn sine die.

It has been a great pleasure on my part to have had the opportunity to serve on Capitol Hill the last five years. I have met many fine persons, and certainly I shall never forget their friendship and courtesies to me. I believe, as did the young lady who once said, "If you love me, tell me now, because I will not be able to read the words upon my tombstone." So tonight I wish to express my love and my appreciation to the employes and to my colleagues with whom I have served for a number of years. I cannot call upon all of them individually; they have all been kind and courteous to me; but I do wish to bring out a few names of the ones who have been very, very courteous to me.

I wish to pay my respects to my colleague, Dr. Deitrick, who on several occasions this session called upon me and helped me in time of illness. I might cite for the information of my colleagues an incident that happened about two months ago. I arrived in Harrisburg with a very, very bad cold and the good doctor called on me and was kind enough to go down the street and get me some pills, and they fixed my up.

He said, "Now, John, these brown pills you take first will make you feel bad; and the black ones will pep you up; take the brown ones first and go to bed.

The good Doctor, I am told, attended the Republican Caucus that night and told my colleague from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, "Well, there is one man we will not be bothered with tonight. I have taken care of him."

Mr. President, it so happened that night I went down to my hotel and for some reason I was mistaken in the pills and I took a black one first and was pepped up. Then I came back to the Senate and you recall that night I moved to discharge a certain committee on a certain bill in which I was interested.

Senator Owlett walked over to the doctor and said, "What in thunder did you give that fellow?"

However, Dr. Deitrick has been kind to me and I certainly appreciate his courtesy and kindness.

I cannot pass without paying my respects to Ralph Early, our good barber. I must say he has been all of a gentleman; he certainly has been kind, I think, to all of us, but to me he has been extraordinary kind, to me he has been very courteous. As I told my colleagues the other night, next year we are coming back with a Democratic majority, and Ralph will hold his job if I can help him; I am quite certain of that and I think my colleagues will uphold me.

I pay my respects to a friend of ours whom my colleague from Armstrong, Mr. Sipe, this morning censored the man we call Scotty. I must say he has been very, very kind to me; Mr. Banks, the page boys, the Senate stenographers, and many, many others.

It certainly has been a pleasure to serve with them, and you, Mr. President, have been very kind to me; I certainly admire you for your many, many courtesies, and I trust you will continue in the next two years in the same manner as you have this Session. You have been kind to me and to my colleagues, and I wish you and many, others of my friends the best of luck and the best of health.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair appreciates the kind words with reference to the presiding officer, and is glad the Senator from Cambria is satisfied for me to be here two years longer.

MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, this is a very varied world, and people have different philosophies. In approaching the problems of life some like the gentleman from Cambria, are very delicate and cautious in the methods they use in expressing their sympathies and love for other people.

There are other people in this world who sometimes pursue the policy that the rougher you treat them the better they love you. I probably fall in that category. The last two turbulent sessions I sat across the chamber in very close proximity to my good friend, whom I respect highly, the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Ealy; and I have lost no affection for him whatsoever, and I want to show my parting love and consideration of him by moving that the Committee on Executive Nominations, of which he is the Chairman, be now discharged from further consideration of the Governor's nominations to the county board of assistance in the County of Fayette.

Mr. HALUSKA. I second the motion, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, seconded by the Senator from Cambria, Mr. Haluska, presents the following resolution, which the Clerk will read.

In the Senate, May 29, 1939.

I move that the Committee on Executive Nominations be now discharged from further consideration of the Governor's nominations to the County Board of Assistance for the County of Fayette.

MOTION LAID ON THE TABLE

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, to show my deep appreciation of the feelings of the Senator from Fayette, I now move that his motion be laid on the table.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question.

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I object. We are going to adjourn at 11:30, and I know of no better way of the Senator getting rid of his activities than by being discharged from that committee. As a matter of fact, he may remember he has been chairman of that committee all session, and he has not been discharged once, and it seems to me he should not complain if he only is discharged from that committee this once, particularly since he will not have any more duties and then he can go home. One or two Republican Senators going home will not do a bit of harm tonight and maybe if one or two go home we can get the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, to go home.

I am waiting for him to second the motion of the Senator from Somerset.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I second the motion of the Senator from Somerset, Mr. Ealy.

CHANGE IN APPOINTMENT TO CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

The PRESIDENT. The Chair has been asked to announce that the President pro tempore substitutes the name of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, for that of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, on the Conference Committee on the part of the Senate on Senate Bill No. 445.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Just a minute, Mr. President, I have something to say about that.

I do not want to be discourteous to the President pro tempore of this Senate, nor to any other of my colleagues in this body, but I have got along well up to this very point without being on any conference committee, without engendering any further agitation that may have been between me and members of this body that are on this conference committee, and I would appreciate it very much if the President pro tempore would reconsider that and accept my declination from serving on that committee.

CONSIDERATION OF MOTION TO DISCHARGE COMMITTEE

Mr. President, we are now to act on my motion that I made to discharge the Committee on Executive Nominations, and also opon the motion of the Senator from Somerset.

The PRESIDENT. That is correct; the motion to lay upon the table the motion of the Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I want this body, in voting upon the motion to lay my motion upon the table, to listen to this communication I have received from a body of men who deserve to be recognized, the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

This letter was mailed from Uniontown, May 20, 1939, addressed to me at Harrisburg, and is as follows:

Dear Comrade Senator:

Knowing of your deep interest in Veteran's affairs we the undersigned write you with reference to the Fayette County Public Assistance Board.

We understand the Board appointed by local authority has not been approved by the Senate and Governor. We hope that it will not be until it includes a wide and worthy representation and certainly a veteran to represent over 7000 ex-service men and their families in the County,

We are a duly appointed committee of the Fayette County Council, the other member being District Commander A. B. Pickard who heartily concurs in this action. We have also addressed the same request to the Republican County Chairman, George Brown, with negative results.

We thank you for any action you may take in behalf of the ex-service man. We would appreciate knowing your reaction to this request.

Yours in Comradeship,
CAMERON RALSTON,
Commander, Post 747
W. E. FOYE,
Senior Vice Commander, Post 47

Mr. President, I would like to add these remarks to this communication: prior to the Governor's action in summarily dismissing the board of public assistance in my county, it contained the names of some very reputable people. The chairman of that board was Father Campbell, a retired United States Army Chaplain who had served his country in time of war, had seen active service over in France, had been a registered Republican voter all his life. He is now retired. He is a man trained in matters of charity and the propagation of Christian principles, who is familiar with the wants and the needs and the sufferings and the pains of people, and he is a very competent and capable man; yet without any just cause he was summarily dismissed.

I also want to add this remark to what I have already said: one Sunday afternoon I happened to be present at a public gathering in my county where there was assembled about five or six hundred people, and the Republican county chairman was a guest at that meeting and was called upon to say a few words and in his words he stated he was proud that the Governor of this Commonwealth had given him the honor of naming the public assistance board in Fayette County. and that no matter what the State Senator of the county thought about it that board was going to be confirmed.

I have taken a very decided stand against this, because I know the board was appointed purely through a political consideration, and without any just cause this man, Father Campbell, who had served his country in time of war, a reputable man who holds a citation conferred on him by the War Department of the United States of America, was summarily dismissed without any just cause.

The board named by the Governor and sent over to this Senate consists of four coal operators, the wife of a coal operator, and another lady who is the wife of a contractor, and that is the representation on that board, despite the fact that we have other people in that county that represent other interests; and that is what the Veterans of Foreign Wars in Fayette County are interested in—in a board that will have members on it that will represent a cross-section of the county and not only coal operators.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by the Senator from Fayette, Mr. CAVALCANTE. the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. SHAPIRO.

YEAS—24

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to take just a few minutes to straighten out something that has bothered me since this afternoon, relating to a conversation I heard. After a little study on the remarks I made, I feel it probably could be construed that I personally said something that might reflect upon the character and integrity of our present attorney general, whom I had the pleasure of meeting for the first time this afternoon, and whom, from all the reports I have heard concerning him, is a gentleman and a scholar.

I therefore want to state on the record that the conversation I overheard was merely a conversation and nothing I said should reflect on the honesty, integrity, or obedience to duty that I know full well the attorney general of the State of Pennsylvania always adheres to. I want him to understand I personally do not believe he would be coerced into any agreement by anybody; at least from his reputation.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General, the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Blair, Mr. Mallery, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MALLERY. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I know how busy the gentleman has been but I am curious to know whether his committee met on the resolution I introduced yesterday, that the Senate go into a committee of the whole for the purpose of considering a constitution revision or amendments, which was submitted to the Committee on Judiciary General. Has the Committee met on that?

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I have no knowledge that the resolution has been referred to my committee.

Mr. SHAPIRO. And the committee has not received the bill at all, Mr. President?

Mr. MALLERY. No, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. And the gentleman does not know of its whereabouts, Mr. President?

Mr. MALLERY. I do not, Mr. President.

Mr. SHAPIRO. May I inquire of the Chair whether the bill was referred to the Committee on Judiciary General and delivered to them, Mr. President?

The answer is "no." Where is the bill, Mr. President.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair is informed the Senator from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, has the resolution in his possession. The resolution has not been delivered. The Chair understands the Senator has been sitting on a conference committee all day.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I agree it is rather late in the session, and there is some reason for the resolution not receiving attention; but I should like to take advantage of this opportunity to say I am quite sure the time will come, very soon, when the Republican party will regret that it did not accept the opportunity to approach the problem of revision of taxation in a constructive way.

I have no complaints or make no criticism of the gentleman from Blair, Mr. Mallery, but I do say I have a right, in a very kindly way, to criticize the Senate of Pennsylvania—my Republican colleagues rather—when they have been confronted for some time with a problem which requires considerable thought; when they have been confronted with a promise they made to reduce taxes and to relieve industry from a heavy burden; and when they received the opportunity to consider a constructive plan—I think it is a constructive plan—they have not given it the slightest consideration.

Under the circumstances I should like to note for the record that the time will soon come when the importance of that resolution will appear.

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1191, (House Bill No. 1140), entitled:

An Act to amend section four of the act approved the second day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (P. L. 1198) entitled "An act relating to employes and organizations thereof defining labor disputes prescribing the procedure by which and the conditions under which injunctions may be granted in such disputes and the scope thereof declaring certain undertakings and promises between employers and employes contrary to public policy and void prescribing the nature of proof necessary in actions arising out of labor disputes against persons or associations prescribing the terms and conditions for bonds to be furnished prior to the issuance of injunctions prescribing the procedure in case of appeal from granting injunctions limiting the duration of temporary and permanent injunctions in case of labor disputes and providing for the payment of costs and repealing all acts or parts of acts inconsistent herewith" providing that the provisions of the act shall not apply in certain cases.

And said bill having been read at length the third time,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I know the hour is late, and I know we are all tired of hearing discussions on these bills which come before us. However, I can not let this particular bill slide past the voters of the State of Pennsylvania without calling attention to a few salient features.

First of all, let me say this is a bill known as the anti-injunction bill. I introduced this legislation in 1935; it passed the House of Representatives with only seven votes, I believe, against it. It was defeated in the Senate at that time, which was under the control of the now majority party, the Republican party.

I again introduced it to legislation in 1937—

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, may we have some order, on an important matter of this kind, in order that the Senator may be heard? This is of importance to the people of Pennsylvania.

The PRESIDENT. The Senate will be in order.

Mr. DENT. Thank you, Mr. President.

It passed the Senate and the House in 1937, and was signed by Governor George H. Earle.

This legislation was a piece of much needed legislation in the State of Pennsylvania. The history of our labor strifes and disputes, particularly in the coal fields, is one that tells a story of death and destruction, of sufferings. Since the passing of this particular legislation much of the injustice that always was attendant in labor disputes has been dissipated.

I feel deeply about this particular bill, having been born in a coal community of Western Pennsylvania, the son of a coal miner who has participated in labor disputes, one of a family of eleven, who have been dispossessed in a labor strike, related to a man who lost his life because of an injunction. I feel deeply, I say, because there is no need at this time for any party to sponsor legislation repudiating the anti-injunction act of the State of Pennsylvania.

We read with horror the accounts of the bombing of defenseless women and children in Spain and in China, and yet if we pass this legislation we are permitting the destruction of innocent non-combatants in labor strikes and disputes. The injunction is the worst weapon and the most unfair weapon ever used in a labor dispute.

This is the year 1939. We have advanced a long way in the relationships between employers and employes. This particular bill on the Calendar tonight takes us back at least thirty years and again brings to Pennsylvania the dark ages in labor troubles. In section 4 of this act we find amendments that would involve the courts in every labor dispute over existing labor agreements, no matter how long drawn out the case may be.

Sub-section B involves the question of whether or not a union is coercing an employer to compel him to prefer or require his employes to become members of one organization as against another, and if he does that is coercion.

I say we passed a labor relations bill in 1937. Recently that bill was reenacted by this particular legislature, and as I said on the floor of this Senate, we destroyed labor's Magna Charta. In this particular bill tonight we again reenact this labor relations bill that was passed the day before yesterday. On page 5 we specifically say that no protection must be given to any worker in the State of Pennsylvania who violates any of the provisions of the labor relations act.

In that labor relations act we have so made the conditions that any person interested in unionism, any person who is a union organizer—which is an honorable occupation—finds himself in a straightjacket. Tonight, with a straitjacket, we have applied the gag and the blindfold; we have stripped Pennsylvania's labor of all their rights under the Bill of Rights; we deny a working man, especially a union man, his civil rights in the courts; we completely nullify the Bill of Rights in its practical application in the interest of fair and just treatment for the working men of Pennsylvania.

I felt rather depressed when I first saw this particular piece of legislation drop into the hopper in the House of Representatives, and I selected a short poem by Oliver Wendell Holmes, which, I believe is very apropos, expressing my feelings in the matter:

"But when the days of golden dreams have perished,
And even despair was powerless to destroy,
Then did I learn how existence could be cherished,
Strengthened and fed without the aid of joy.
Then did I check the tears of useless passion,
Weaned my young soul from yearning after time,
Sternly denied its burning wish to hasten
Down to that tomb already more than mine."

After reading these lines I again took courage. I said to myself it can not be possible forty-eight honorable men in the Senate of Pennsylvania, who represent its millions of people, would sit in the Senate and vote to put this particular bill into law.

I felt that the citizens who had elected these men had not elected them to destroy labor, had not elected them to come down here to the Capital City and destroy the rights of labor.

To those of you who have never worked in a shop, to those of you who have never been members of an honorable labor union, to those of you who have never had an unfair employer, probably my words fall upon deaf ears; but to those of you who know the conditions that have existed in the past, and in some small measure exist today, you will harken to the words I give you tonight when I say to you Pennsylvania's employers do not demand this type of legislation, Pennsylvania's employers do not want this type of legislation; no one wants it except the man who would use it to destroy the people who work for him.

I say that fair minded employers would not take advantage of a black-list piece of legislation such as this. I know many employers in my district, whom it has been my pleasure to work with, who would never think of resorting to these protections, I would call them, given to unfair employers.

In reading through a book the other day I came across something written by Finley Peter Dunne, back around 1910. I believe that also is apropos to this situation. It is his treatise on what is called the open shop. It is a conversation between two Irishmen, and if you will forgive me I will take a little of your time to read it into the record:

"'What's all this that's in the papers about the open shop?' asked Mr. Hennessy.

"'Why don't ye know,' said Mr. Dooley. 'Really, I'm surprised at yer ignorance, Hinnissey. What is th' open shop. Sure, 'tis where they kape the doors open to accommodate th' constant stream ave min comin' in t'take jobs cheaper than th' min what has th' jobs. 'Tis like this, Hinnissey. Suppose wan ave these freeborn citizens is workin' in an open shop f'r th' princely wage av wan large iron dollar a day av tin hours. Along comes anither son-av-a-gun and he sez t' th' boss, Oi think oi could handle th' job nicely f'r ninety cints.'

"'Sure,' sez th' boss, and th' wan dollar man gets out into th' crool woroould t' exercise his inalienable roights as a freeborn American citizen an' scab on some other poor devil. An' so it goes on, Hinnissey. An' who gits th' benefit. Thrue, it saves th' boss money, but he don't care no more f'r money thin he does his right eye.'

"'It's all principle wid him. He hates t' see men robbed av their indipindence. They must have their indipindence, regardless av anything else.'

"'But,' said Mr. Hennessey, 'these open-shop min ye menshun say they are f'r unions if properly conducted.'

"'Shure,' said Mr. Dooley, 'if properly conducted. An' there we are; an' how would they have thim conducted? No strikes, no rules, no contracts, no scales, no leaders, hardly iny wages an' dam few members.'"

I listened to the good Senator from Germantown, Philadelphia, Dr. Woodward, when he said he believed in labor unions but he did not like their leaders; and so it is with a great many men who stand on the platforms in Pennsylvania during their campaigns and cry out to the high heavens about their fairness to labor—they too believe in labor unions—the same type of labor unions that Mr. Dooley described, the type that has no leaders, no rights and damn few members.

I want to say to the Senate of Pennsylvania that when this act is passed you will have done a good job, you members of the James Administration; you will have completely destroyed the liberal legislation we, the Democratic Party, wrote on to the books of the State of Pennsylvania; you will have completely kept your promise to that type of industry that desires the destruction of all liberal and humane legislation; but in keeping that promise you are forgetting a more grave promise, one you should have made to yourselves long ago—that in trying to help one class of people you would not destroy another class of people.

I want to say the charge has been made we went too far. If we went too far to the left, then the passage of this type of legislation and that labor relations act—we ought to be ashamed to call it by that name—is going too far to the right; and, just as the people resented some of the things the Democratic Party did when they were in power, so will they resent what you are doing here tonight.

I want to say, in all seriousness, that this bill should transcend party lines. I am going to make an appeal to the Republican members—I hope I do not have to make an appeal to the Democratic members—but I am going to make an appeal to you to vote against this piece of legislation, not on the grounds it is a Democratic piece of legislation, but on the grounds it is a humane piece of legislation; it is the type of law this state should have had for many, many years.

For two brief years we have said to labor, you are now men amongst men; you hold your head high in a crowd, for you are equal to all around you. But no, that can not be; we must destroy this great evil called organized labor. Why must we destroy it? Because, as Mr. Dooley said, we must have the open shop.

In this particular act you have before you tonight I venture to say ninety per cent of the members of this Senate have not read it; they are voting because somebody said it will help industry come into Pennsylvania if we let the bars down; just as this afternoon the weak excuse was used, when they were discussing the extension of hours for women in industry from ten to twelve at night, they said, why, the General Motors Corporation would have come into Pennsylvania if this law had been on the books.

I drive a General Motors car, and I want to say publicly that if I thought the General Motors Corporation depended upon cheap female labor in order to do business I would never drive another General Motors car as long as I live, for no production of any commodity is worth to me the privilege of having that commodity if it is done by the sweat of persons who work for less than a living wage. I want to say I do not believe any large corporation such as General Motors would refuse to come into this glorious state of ours just because they can not pay female help ten cents an hour less than male help—but they hang their hats on any limb when they are searching for some excuse.

I know I could I speak here until tomorrow morning and it probably would not change a vote; but just so we may keep the record clear, during this entire session I have called the attention of this Senate ot the many pieces of kindling that have gone on to the bonfire of the laws of 1937. I want to say Governor James has kept his promise, when he said out of the laws of 1937 there should be built a large bonfire; but he did not keep his promise in regard to that bonfire when it came to keeping his word, keeping his promise on lower taxes.

There has not been one piece of legislation in this entire session that has created any employment; there has not been one piece of legislation in this entire session that has lowered taxes.

The only type of legislation that has helped industry is the way the Republican Party wants to help industry, the repeal of the humane laws passed by a liberal Democratic Party in 1937, and if that is keeping his promises then I congratulate the Governor of Pennsylvania in that he had kept his promise to big business in an attempt to destroy the working men and their rights in Pennsylvania.

I have gone through the entire list of bills, there is no need to enumerate them tonight; it is enough to say that prior to now we have been just laying little pieces of kindling on that bonfire, but tonight we have, in the form of House Bill No. 1140, the entire bonfire of labor legislation.

Tonight we will leave, in a few hours, to go back to our homes and all that will be left will be the cold ashes I say, of what was once a group of liberal laws designed to help that class of our people who for many years have been driven under the heel of the tyrant in industry, the tyrant who has always felt that the greatest right was the property right, and second to that came human rights.

Thank the good Lord above for my own philosophy; I feel that anything that can be constructed by man should come second to the contractor—man himself.

In my philosophy of life I feel anything I do to give to man a greater liberty in this nation is in keeping with the principles laid down by the father of my party and the father of this great democracy, Thomas Jefferson.

The other evening, when I was sitting here looking around the halls, I noted an inscription beneath the picture of the Father of our County. The words are particularly significant. I do not know how many men have served in this Senate without reading the inscriptions on the walls; some, I believe, come in and never look, but I want to read what is written on this wall: "It was not the mere matter of separation of the colonies from the motherland but that sentiment in the Declaration of Independence which gave liberty not alone to this country but hope to all the world for all future time."

I believe whoever wrote those words also included in that thought and in that hope the rights of the men and women in this great state of ours who work for a living.

Mr. HEYBURN. Mr. President, I appreciate the thoughts of my colleague from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, and I think all right thinking Senators are here to relieve the unemployment problem and provide work and not relief for the workers of Pennsylvania.

Now, briefly speaking, the amendments to this act provide that where employes have broken and violated a contract with their employers and go out on strike, then that employer can go to the Court of Common Pleas and get an injunction. It also provides for injunctions against sit-down strikes.

It seems to me, Mr. President, if we can find some middle-of-the-road labor policy in America a great deal of our unemployment problem would be solved. I spoke the other night about the Tasty-Cake Baking Company of Philadelphia. There is a case where a firm employs about nine hundred men; they are all satisfied and want to work. However, the chief problem seems to be who gets the check-off and that plant has been tied up for some five months, Mr. President, because some labor union leader wants to get the check-off from the Tasty-Cake Baking Company employes. More than that, it has been extended to stores where Tasty-Cake baking products are sold.

I know of another case involving a small business in Philadelphia. The representative of the company appeared before the Committee on Labor and Industry, of which I happen to be chairman. This gentleman operates about six trucks in the City of Philadelphia; he is a poor man trying to get along, just the same as any working man in the Commonwealth tries to get along, I don't care whether he works in the mines or where he works.

This chap had been driving one of his own trucks. A few months ago he was told he would have to join a union or he could not drive his truck. They put on a strike and destroyed some of his property, and he joined the union.

A month ago, Mr. President, that man was told he could not belong to the union any longer because he was an owner and could not drive his own truck. The other day, after one of his drivers had forgotten to pick up a package, he started out and picked up the package, and for doing that a strike was called. That poor fellow, with six trucks heavily encumbered, can not conduct his business, and in the meantime payments must be met on the trucks, and he must also maintain his business property.

It seems to me, Mr. President, that certainly does not make for good business in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. There is a case where six truck drivers are out of work because the owner of the trucks and the business wanted to go out and pick up a package weighing twenty-five pounds when there was no truck driver on the property.

I believe this works no particular hardship at all. As I see it, four points are chiefly covered: one provides that a restraining order may be issued where valid contracts have been entered into by employer and employes; another provides that restraining orders may be issued where outside labor unions, fighting for control, come in and put a picket around a place of business when in that place of business there has already been held an election and the employes have decided which union they want to represent them; and as I said, another provision is that sit-down strikes are considered illegal, and when a sit-down strike is put into operation an employer can go to court and get a restraining order.

I am wondering how any of the gentlemen in this Senate would feel when they went home if they found the cook sitting in the kitchen, she would not budge, she would not cook or let your wife cook, and there she sat. What would you feel like doing? That seems to me, Mr. President, illegal and silly; and certainly I can not see where that is going to get the American laboring man any place.

However, we have tried the other side of the thing and unemployment has steadily increased; in fact, present unemployment in this Commonwealth is greater than in any other state in this nation. So I suggest, Mr. President, we try a middle of the road labor policy in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and I really think in due course of time we will find some business improvement.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, sitting here listening to our colleague the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, paint a picture which is black and dark, and attempting to set coming conditions up in a distasteful manner, it occurred to me something should be said to show there is also a bright side to this picture, one which is much more encouraging and optimistic than our colleagues on the other side of the Senate Chamber would have us see; and in doing so I ask you to bear with me for just a little in considering the progress which has been made in this, the greatest nation in the world.

Sitting here and looking at the panels brings to mind the time of our forefathers and the time of the Constitutional Convention, and we remember that the problem which most concerned the delegates to the Constitutional Convention was not the problem of bringing to the citizens of this country greater rights than they had before in their mother country, England, but the problem which most concerned them was the assurance to those citizens of those colonies the same rights which they had under the unwritten Constitution in England.

And so, with that thought in mind they gave to us, their descendants, a form of government which is without question the finest the world has ever known; and that form of government was so fine that under it this country progressed from what was at that time an agricultural community to the greatest nation in the world, and the greatest industrial nation the world had ever known. During that period of progress the working man in this country came to a position which far surpassed the condition of the working man in any other country in this world. The American working man reached a point where he was able to have things that even the middle class and moderately wealthy in other nations of this world could not have.

We knew a period when the American working man rode to work in his own automobile, when the American working man came to his own little home to conveniences which even the wealthy in most of the other countries of this world had had no experience with. All of those things, I say, came to the American working man before there ever came to the American working man that great defensive measure, so-called, which our colleague from Westmoreland, Senator Dent, talked about introducing and having passed in 1937.

In other words, all of those fine things which were possessed by working men in only this country, and in no other country in the world, came to the American working man before 1937 and before that so-called Bill of Rights for the working man. After that so-called Bill-of-Rights was granted, if you want to put it that way, to the American working man, what then came to him?

We all know, Mr. President, the dark picture which has existed for the past two years. We knew a condition in this country of the shut down of industry, of the sit-down strike, of interference with working men who wanted to do a day's honest toil and could not because of such interference. Why did it come about? It was a natural consequence, it was the natural result of unbridled liberty which was granted under the act which is now being amended; and we all know when liberty becomes unbridled it then assumes the form of free license and can not be tolerated by law-abiding people.

I feel certain, were it possible for us to canvass the honest, upright, hard-working men of this nation, we would find that the great majority of the real workers of this Commonwealth are in favor of the opportunity of being allowed again to work unmolested at good wages, so that they may once again have those conditions which working men in no other country in the world ever knew.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I do not think we need canvass the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in order to obtain the views of real, honest working men on this subject; it need only that a person understand what this bill contains in order to cause him to be cautious.

Mr. President, I know there are a few of them, in this body; here is my colleague from Schuylkill County, Mr. Dando, who has worked in the coal mines ;no doubt, like myself, he carries on his person the scars received in the bowels of the earth, digging out that natural resource. Personally, Mr. President, I have seen the day when, working in the bowels of the earth, digging out that black coal, I saw a school pal I had gone to school with when mere tots and came out of school together, and both of us went into the mines to work—I have seen the day when I saw his body mangled beneath the wheels of the coal cars; and after the coal cars had passed over his body and mangled it, then I took my dinner bucket and picked up his brains, so as to gather them up and bury them somewhere else.

I have seen the day when laboring men working in the coal mines of Pennsylvania were killed by the fall of slate, and I have seen the company bosses order the other laborers to carry the body to the surface of the mine and then place it on the bed of a horse-drawn wagon and then haul it to the home of the dead miner, and then throw the dead body out on the porch to the waiting widow and children, and then drive back to the mine again and leave the body there for the weeping widow and the children to dispose of as best they could.

No workmen's compensation law of any kind.

Mr. President, I have seen the day when the operator, through the superintendents and bosses, on election day made their tour of the coal mines and other places where men were working, with cards in their hands with the candidates the employer or the company wanted, and gave specific instructions, now, Tony, or Joe or John, this is what the company wants; remember if you do not vote this way you will have no job tomorrow.

Mr. President, I have seen the day in this Commonwealth when the working men in the coal mines received their notices from the superintendent that they were not buying enough groceries at the company stores the operator conducted, and if they did not see fit to buy more groceries from the company stores they would have no jobs.

Mr. President, I have seen the day in this Commonwealth when these poor working men sought to gather together to talk over their difficulties, with a view of improving their conditions, and under the machine guns and the riot clubs of the state police their heads were bashed in and they were prevented from assembling in order to discuss their grievances and seek means through which they could better their conditions.

Mr. President, I have seen the day in the County of Fayette when men standing on their own porch steps were shot down by the brutal guns of thugs in the employ of coal operators, and they lie buried—I can take the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Geltz, back to my county and I can take him to the graveyards and show him graves where men were buried because their heads were bashed in or their bodies pierced by bullets fired by guns in the hands of thugs hired and employed by the coal operators.

I have seen all these things and, Mr. President, it was not until the advent of this thing they call the New Deal that the laboring man was protected in his efforts to organize himself into unions in order to bargain, at arms length, with operators who used the money earned by the sweat and the lives and the blood of the working men to buy machine guns, to buy tear gas and to hire thugs to shoot down the very men who produced that wealth.

Mr. President, we have different philosophies of life. I want to tell the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Heyburn, truly he has the right to say how he is going to conduct the affairs of his home, because that home, Mr. President, was erected with human hands, and the human hands that erected that home have the right to say what the conditions in the home must be.

However, Mr. President, I want the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Delaware to understand that there are different forms of property in these United Staes of America and in this Commonwealth; that there is a source of wealth that was not created by the hands of man.

Beneath the soil we have deposits of wealth in the form of coal, oil, gas and iron, Mr. President, that were not put there by human hands, but they were put there by the hands of the Creator; and I want the gentleman from Allegheny and the gentleman from Delaware to understand that even though hundreds and thousands of people in this State of Pennsylvania do not own a single red cent of that natural resource, yet if a foreign army should lay foot upon the shores of America to seize that natural wealth, Mr. President, they would put a gun on my shoulder and on the shoulder of every able bodied man, whether he owns that coal or oil or gas, and send him out at the price of his life to defend that natural wealth.

Mr. President, upon what theory do we call upon the citizenry of the state and nation to go out and defend something that the gentleman from Delaware and the gentleman from Allegheny say we have no right in? The thing that is wrong with too many people in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is that they have forgotten the fundamental philosophy of government, have forgotten the reasons why people get together and form nations.

Mr. President, if I understand well the philosophy of government and why people gather together to form nations it is in order to obtain mutual protection and safeguards for all; and whenever we assemble together and form a nation and swear allegiance to this Commonwealth or this nation we have a right, Mr. President, those inalienable rights that the fathers of the revolution fought for, to earn an honorable, decent American living from the natural resources of this country. It was for that reason they put a gun on my shoulder and on the shoulder of every other person, to go out and defend those natural resources.

I do have a right to tell the gentleman from Delaware, and to tell Mr. Grundy, and to tell any other citizens in this Commonwealth or the United States of America, that owns the means of livelihood—I have the right to tell them to manage their business, to extract the wealth from the soil of this country in such a way that I have an opportunity to earn an honorable and decent living, and that we should not be abused and murdered and driven from our homes like we have been driven and abused and murdered in the years past under the philosophy so much loved by the gentleman from Delaware and the gentlemen on the other side, that when they own a natural resource, when they own a business, it is theirs to do as they will without any regard to the people who live on the soil but who are called upon to defend that natural resource in time of war or if a foreign army should invade this country to seize those resources.

Mr. President, I do wish the gentlemen on the other side would become a little more sensitive, a little more considerate of those fundamentals of government and why people assemble together to form nations; and I wish the gentlemen form the other side would give more consideration to those noble, fundamental principles of democracy, and they would come to a different conclusion than they have come to on many of these labor bills that have come before us—this social legislation.

Mr. President, I say it only needs for the gentlemen to understand the bills before them and then they might be able to talk with some degree of assurance. This bill before us right now started out to be an anti-injunction bill to protect the rights of labor; it is now, in its present form, an anti-labor bill to protect the rights of the employer and not the employe. This bill says it will be unlawful, this bill here excludes—"provided, however, that this act shall not apply in any case, (a) involving a labor dispute as defined herein which is a disregard, breach or violation of, agreements made under the labor relations act of this state or the national labor relations act," and when we look at the state labor relations act that you gentlemen were so eager to pass, and did pass, we find that the poor working man is prohibited from interfering with the orderly conduct of the business of any employer in case of dispute among employes, their representatives or labor organizers.

Mr. President, labor has been sold down the river by that party that had for its platform the following: "Labor. We will defend the right of labor to organize, unionize and to negotiate with employers regarding wages, hours and working conditions. The right to organize and bargain collectively is a natural right. We pledge our protection of that right."

Wherein are you protecting the right of labor in this bill or the labor relations law you scuttled just this week? Now, you answer.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

(During the roll call.)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to know how the gentleman from Chester, Mr. Scarlett, voted.

Mr. SCARLETT. Mr. President, I voted "aye."

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to know how the Senator from Erie, Mr. Gilson, voted.

Mr. GILSON. Mr. President, I voted "no."

And the question recurring.

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 1125, (House Bill No. 1349), on third reading, page 7 of the Calendar, which went over in its order. This is the bill which Senator Killgallen offered strike out amendments.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 1125, (House Bill No. 1349), entitled:

An Act to amend article two section one thousand thirty-five as amended and sections two thousand four hundred sixty two thousand seven hundred twenty-two and three thousand one hundred one of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (P. L. 519) entitled "An act concerning boroughs and revising amending and consolidating the law relating to boroughs" providing for the creation of boroughs from townships of the first class upon petition to the court of quarter sessions and a referendum and prescribing the procedure therefor changing contents of auditors' statement further regulating the use of moneys collected on borough-owned water-works giving school districts power to acquire and maintain property jointly with other school districts boroughs cities or counties for certain purposes extending the jurisdiction within which and the manner fines penalties and costs may be collected and repealing existing law providing for the payment of compensation medical and hospital expenses and regulating sick leave periods of certain policemen and firemen

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill?

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to amend page 1, line 12, of the title, by striking out after the word "statement" the words "further regu-"; and on page 2, strike out line 1, and the words "water-works" at the beginning of line 2; page 8, line 14, strike out the bracket at the beginning of the line preceding the word "or" and the bracket after the word "purpose" in line 15; page 8, line 15, beginning with the word "All" strike out the balance of the sentence and all of lines 16 to 20 inclusive, and the words "this section" at the beginning of line 21.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, as I followed the amendments, I think the gentleman has not completed his amendments. He has stricken out of the title the letters "regu" and left the remainder of the word on the second page in the title. I think the gentleman intended to strike out from the title "further regulating the use of moneys collected on borough-owned water-works." I did not hear the Clerk read, strike out, page 2, line one, amendment applying to page 2, line 1, to strike out the whole line.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments just offered to the foregoing bill.

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendment?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

RESOLUTION RETURNING TO THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 199 WITHOUT AMENDMENT

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I call up at this time resolution from the House sending back to the Governor without amendment House Bill No. 199 and move that the Senate concur in the resolution.

Mr. JASPAN. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 199, Printer's No. 57, entitled: "An Act to confirm and validate past tax levies or assessments made by school districts of the first class and liens filed thereon" be returned to the Governor, without amendments.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the Resolution?

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, in the City of Pittsburgh I think we have got the best school board in the United States; I think we have got the best school system in the United States; I think we have the best school buildings in the United States; but on the other hand we have taxpayers who are sorely pressed; we have home owners in the City of Pittsburgh whose homes have been swept from under their feet during the depression, as if an unseen hand had come along and swept them away over night. We have had taxpayers who have gone without the necessities of life to pay the school taxes and the city taxes in the City of Pittsburgh.

The school board in the City of Pittsburgh is now authorized to levy a tax of twelve and a quarter mills for this year, and they have done it, and they have collected perhaps seventy per cent of those taxes.

Senate Bill No. 415 allows them next year to levy eleven and three-quarter mills, in 1940, and in the following year, 1941, eleven and a half mills.

The taxpayers in the City of Pittsburgh, or a large portion of them have entered suit, complaining that the school board in the City of Pittsburgh has no right to collect more for this year than eleven and one-quarter mills, and that case is in the courts of Allegheny County right now. If that case is won, under the present bill the school board can levy twelve and a quarter mills—they have already levied it and collected up to say sixty-five or seventy per cent. If, however, they lose this case—it has not been decided—they might have to go back to eleven and a quarter. However, under the Homsher Bill they can borrow eight or nine hundred thousand dollars, which amounts to about a mill in the City of Pittsburgh, so that the school system will not need to worry.

I have said we have the best school board, a serious board, an honest board, but I do feel that in these distressing times, when taxpayers are losing their homes, it would not be tough, it would not be hard, it would not be difficult, it would not be distressing for this school board to wiggle along, inasmuch as they have collected sixty-five or seventy per cent of the taxes, they ought to worry along the rest of this year and let the court decide.

You know, we have two opposite opinions: we have the taxpayer who says we are paying too much, and we have the school board which would like to have a little more.

Now, I do not know—I am in the middle; but here is a case that is in the courts of Allegheny County, which will require testimony, and I am sure that if the school board can show there is need, and that it will expend properly money to equal twelve and a quarter mills, the courts will grant it.

On the other hand, after testimony that we can not take yet, but after the testimony is all in on both sides, I am willing to trust the courts of Allegheny County to decide whether eleven, and a quarter is right or whether twelve and a quarter is right, and in either event I am sure justice will be served. Therefore, Mr. President, I feel that the case should be left in that condition. I do not think it is our business here to butt in on a case that is being tried in Allegheny County, and take sides one way or the other.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, should have added another angle to this proposition because, much as I dislike to disagree with him, and much as I am moved by his persuasive argument, I must call attention to the fact that Philadelphia is also in the middle here; Philadelphia by law is hooked up with Pittsburgh as a first class school district, and if this act is not validated Philadelphia will lose the benefit of the increase authorized last year of one mill which amounts to two and a half million dollars, and then all the work we did here to straighten out the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia school districts will mean Philadelphia is in the middle for two and a half million dollars.

I want to say to my friend from Allegheny that the fault is really theirs. Last year when this question came up we tried to put Philadelphia and Allegheny on the same basis of eleven and a quarter mills, and the Allegheny school board came down and said they were satisfied, they did not require an increase; and then we began to have conferences in committees, and I think I called attention to the fact that the bill would have to be checked or there would be an unlimited right to increase taxes; and we agreed on eleven and a quarter for first class school districts.

Then the gentlemen from Allegheny came down and confessed they were not as well off financially as they thought, and they wanted their rate changed to twelve and a quarter and so we made it for Philadelphia eleven and a quarter and for Allegheny twelve and a quarter, and because of that very fact it is necessary to pass this enabling act, because the contention is being made, there being two rates for one district, it makes the act unconstitutional.

I would like very much to relieve my friend and his constituents in the City of Pittsburgh, but at the same time I find myself in the position of being obliged to protect the interests of the City of Philadelphia by voting for this bill. I want that understood, because I certainly would like to help the gentleman from Allegheny out of the muddle in which he finds himself.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate concur in the Resolution?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

RESOLUTION

PRINTING JOURNALS OF THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE

Mr. BARTLETT. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BARTETT, offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to.:

In the Senate, May 29, 1939.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Chief Clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives be directed to have the copy of Journals of the two Houses of this session prepared and placed in the hands of the Director of the Bureau of Publications after the close of the session, and the Director of the Bureau of Publications is hereby directed to have said Journals printed, bound and delivered to the Chief Clerks of the Senate and House of Representatives within ninety days after the receipt of the copy therefor.

HOUSE RESOLUTION No. 81 CALLED UP FROM THE TABLE

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I now call up from the table, House Resolution No. 81, as follows:

ATTORNEY-GENERAL, SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE AND SECRETARY OF HEALTH TO MAKE A THOROUGH STUDY CONCERNING THE REGULATION OF MILK AS AFFECTING THE PRODUCER

In the House of Representatives, May 23, 1939.

Whereas, The Milk Industry touches so intimately the lives of so many people, and affects the livelihood of so many more, that the problems of production and distribution have become of Statewide importance; and

Whereas, The interests of the producer, the distributor and the consumer, all are vitally affected by laws and regulations governing the milk industry, and

Whereas, The prosperity of the farmer and a proper profit to the distributor are requisite to a constant and sufficient milk supply: and

Whereas, The problems presented are so complex and controversial that a thorough study of the industry as a whole, together with its many ramifications, has become essential to the welfare of all concerned; now, therefore, be it

Resolved, (if the Senate concur), That the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture, and the Secretary of Health shall constitute a special commission acting for the General Assembly, and are hereby authorized and requested to immediately undertake a thorough study and investigation of all the problems entering into the regulation of milk as affecting the producer, the distributor and the consumer, and make a report to the next regular or special session of the General Assembly of the results of such study and investigation, which report shall be accompanied by drafts of any legislation they deem necessary and proper to be enacted in order to properly regulate said milk industry, and properly protect the consumer in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

On the question,

Will the Senate concur in the Resolution?

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, this is a resolution which imposes special work upon a special committee, and under the rules of this Senate, I take it, it requires a two-thirds vote.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I suggest that the gentleman's point is not well taken. This resolution requires only a majority of a quorum, as I understand. It is a concurrent resolution requesting officers of the Commonwealth to make an investigation of the milk industry and report to the next session, and requires only a majority of a quorum.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania said that the oil commission appointed by this body, being appointed by resolution, could not exist legally.

This reads, "Resolved, if the Senate concur, that the Attorney General, the Secretary of Agriculture and the Secretary of Health shall constitute a special commission acting for the General Assembly." That is what we did in the oil industry commission and that was declared unconstitutional.

The PRESIDENT. Did that not carry an appropriation?

Mr. SHAPIRO. The appropriation, Mr. President, was in a separate bill.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I suggest that this resolution carries with it no power of subpoena and no appropriation.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, that is correct and that is the reason I say, it being a resolution which imposes upon a special committee special duties, it requires a two-thirds vote. There is a ruling of the Senate here that a standing committee having imposed upon it special duties requires a two-thirds vote. I shall be glad to call it to the attention of the gentleman from Tioga.

I will quote paragraph 103, decisions of the Senate, page 813 of the Pennsylvania Manual:

"On the passage of a resolution authorizing the Committee on Mines and Mining, of the two Houses, to make certain investigations, the President pro tempore (Mr. Grady in the chair) decided that as all committees of the Senate were to be appointed by the President pro tempore, and as the resolution provided for the appointment or naming of a committee, it involved a suspension of the rule and required a two-thirds vote to pass the same; an appeal was taken from the said decision and the Chair sustained."

This is in effect appointing a new committee and imposing special duties.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this is not appointing a new committee at all; it is not the same as the case cited by the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, which was a case imposing special duties on a standing committee. That, of course, is an amendment to the rules. This is merely calling on the duly constituted officers of the Commonwealth to do something in conncetion with their regular duties, and it requires, in my judgment, only a majority of a quorum.

The PRESIDENT. On the point of order raised by the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, the Chair rules that the point of order is not well taken, for the reason that the resolution is only a request for officials to perform duties; it does not delegate any authority and carries no appropriation.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I am very glad that the Chair, in making his ruling, has made the statement he just made, because that explained my objection to the resolution on its merits. In other words, it does not give any right to subpoena; it does not give any right to these people and it is an inocuous resolution; and I should like to take advantage of this opportunity to say that it is just actions of this kind that have brought the Republican party—not only have brought the Republican party—but will bring any party into disrepute.

Here is a problem of far-reaching effect to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I do not know enough about the milk industry to discuss it, and I do not want to discuss the milk industry, but I do know this from what I have heard around here—the problem of the milk industry seems to be a very grave one, and it has not been solved.

I know there was a resolution introduced for the purpose of ascertaining some facts to help solve the problem of the milk industry, and what happened to that resolution? It is still over in the House. It was a resolution which gave the right to subpoena, it was a resolution which gave the right to call witnesses, it was a resolution enabling a fact finding body to ascertain important facts upon an important matter, and produce them to this Legislature so we could have some information. Instead of that, the resolution lies buried in the House.

We are presented with a bill, many pages long, which is said to be an eort, or a proposition, to solve a problem. It develops it is merely the idea of one person who has an interest. We have not solved the problem. We come here session after session, and now we say to the people who look forward to some solution to this problem. "We will give you an inocuous resolution; it gives no power of subpoena, imposes no obligation, imposes no responsibilities; it gives no opportunity for ascertaining facts;" and you hand this to the public as your gesture; your reply to the promises you made to them that you would look after their interests.

I can not get worked up over the proposition itself, the milk industry, but I can get worked up over the fact that here is a party that has acquired power, that criticized us when we were in power, and now you have frittered away the rights of the people and the opportunity you had to accept the responsibility which you assumed.

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, to add insult to injury to the farmers of Pennsylvania, they have picked three men to investigate the milk industry, one of whom is a judge who has spent most of his life in the study of law—the Attorney General; the second is the Secretary of Agriculture who, as far as I know has spent most of his life as Secretary of the Pennsylvania Grange, which has spent most of its time regulating the morals of the people and has done nothing for agriculture; the third is the Secretary of Health, who has spent most of his time, I hope, as a doctor, but he does not know anything about tuberculosis in Pennsylvania milk.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, as my colleague from Philadelphia has said, there was a commission appointed by the General Assembly to investigate the milk industry in Pennsylvania, and on that commission were several men who, like Senator Reed, Senator Scarlett, and Senator Heyburn, know something about the problems of the milk producing farmer, and from their environment have some sympathy for the milk producing farmer; but it looks to me that that commission, as soon as it got into its work, was destined to be dried up by this administration.

Then, a little later, there was a bill introduced by the Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, and myself, to set up a little appropriation for that commission, so that at the close of this session the testimony taken by it would not vanish into thin air but could be printed for the information of the General Assembly, for the information of the farmers and all others interested.

The same little bill provided that life should be breathed into this commission so that it would not die at the end of this session but could continue its existence, in order to report at the next meeting of the General Assembly.

Now, I am pretty reliably informed, and so I believe is my colleague from Delaware, Senator Heyburn, pretty reliably informed, that the Speaker of the House declared that he would see that that bill, after it got through the Senate, would have a death in the lower house.

In other words, it seems that the Speaker of the House was the great physician, was the great doctor, who gave this little bill a shot of morphine that caused it to lapse into the dreamy slumber that fetters down its eyelids still.

So we are in this situation, that the bill setting up the little appropriation to prevent the testimony taken at the hearings of the commission from vanishing into thin air and becoming useless, the bill extending the life of the commission beyond the close of this session, that that little bill's life might be continued—well it is dead.

Now, as a sort of tragic substitute we have this resolution which sets up—or imposes upon three cabinet officers —the duty of making an investigation into the milk producing industry, and further puts upon them some other duties that I wish to read. Here is what it tells these gentlemen to do: they are to immediately undertake a thorough study and investigation of all the problems entering into the regulation of milk, as affecting the producer and the distributor and the consumer, and make a report to the next regular or special session of the General Assembly of the results of such study and investigation, which report shall be accompanied by drafts of any legislation they deem necessary and proper to be enacted in order to properly regulate the said milk industry and properly protect the consumer—properly protect the consumer.

Now, there has from time to time been a great deal of indignation expressed in this Senate that certain department heads think that Senators should be nothing more than errand boys for the department heads, should be nothing more than cuspidor cleaners, if you please, for department heads; and here we, the Senate of Pennsylvania, if we adopt this resolution, are saying to these three department heads, you draft the legislation that you deem necessary and proper to be enacted in order to properly regulate the said milk industry and properly protect the consumer—seemingly they forgot all about the producers—so we are saying to them, we will be your errand boys; you gentlemen look into the subject and draft the legislation, and we, Senators elected by the people, supposed to be familiar with the problems of the people—or the districts that send us down here—we are not capable of drawing any legislation to meet and solve their problems—you do it for us.

Now, let us take a look at this trio who are imposed with these duties, without having any power of subpoena, as has been pointed out before. First there is the Attorney General. Well, I know nothing against the Attorney General; so far, however, as I have been able to learn, the Attorney General has not had any farming experience; so far as I have been able to learn he has made no particular study of the problems of the farmer; so far as I have been able to learn he was born and reared in Allentown or some suburb near it; and even though he is set up as one of the members of this commission, yet I have no doubt that if it is adopted he will do little of the work but will send one of his deputies.

Now, the second member—and the point I am trying to make is that this trio which is to perform this work knows little or nothing about the problems of the farmer and is not interested in the problems of the farmer—the second member is the Secretary of Agriculture. Well, I guess that in the far dim past, sometime within the dear dead days beyond, I recall, John Light did little farming; how successful it was I do not pretend to say, but if I am to take rumor it was not a howling success.

John Light has been prominent in the Grange of Pennsylvania, and in that sense he is a farmer; that is, about his only interest in the farmer has been farming The Grange for his political advancement. I know something about that, Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate. For many years I was a member of The Grange. I am a farmer, in addition to other interests, and for many years I was a member of The Grange, but I got so disgusted with John Light taking The Grange away from the problems of the farmer, taking it into excursions into the religious field and into the political field, taking it away from the problems of the farmer for his own political aggrandisement, that I left The Grange and I served notice upon The Grange if it ever could see the day when it got rid of the influence of John Light and got back to the problems of the farmer, then I would be willing to step in again, if it would be willing to take me.

So I repeat, John Light's interest in farmers is his interest in farming The Grange for his political advancement. We have had too many people high in official position here in Pennsylvania who have had no other interest in farming than this. Let us be fair about it. We have a chairman of the Milk Control Board who was never a real farmer except a dairy farmer and a bee farmer and a Grange farmer, farming The Grange for his political advancement; and no doubt it was on account of his Grange connections that the former Governor put him in a position in which he is making an utter failure so far as the farmers' viewpoint is concerned.

Then we have another in this trio and that is the political doctor from Phladelphia. What does political Dr. Shaw know about the problems of the farmer? What interest has he in the farmer? I say he has an anti-social attitude, and anyone who has an anti-social attitude does not have proper sympathy for the problems of the farmer, to do justice on a commission of this kind. I have had abundant proof of the anti-social attitude of Dr. Shaw, in his cold-blooded, hard-boiled attitude towards the Butler Tubercular Sanatorium; and just the other night I had additional evidence of his anti-social attitude when I saw him, when the intense debate was on here on the coal bill, lobbying here in this chamber for the passage of that coal bill.

So I say, God pity the farmer whose problems are to be investigated and solved by a political doctor from Philadelphia and a Grange farmer for his own political advancement; so the only thing to do, in my opinion, is to vote down this resolution. It is meaningless; it will be of no use at all to the farmer.

Probably it was not mere inadvertence that this resolution reads that they shall regulate such milk industry and properly protect the consumer, and not a word said about protecting the milk producing farmer who, as I have already pointed out on the floor of this Senate, is in twice as bad shape from the viewpoint of the amount of the consumer's dollar he receives—in twice as bad shape, I say, as the milk producing farmer under Chancellor Hitler.

On the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

(During the roll call.)

Mr. EROE. Mr. President, I wish to be recorded as voting "no."

The PRESIDENT. The Senator will be so recorded.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. Presidest, I submit a point of order.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, will state his point of order.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I submit the point of order that since this resolution changes the powers and duties imposed upon the Attorney General by section 704 of the administrative code, and since it also changes the powers and duties of the secretary of agriculture as found in section 1701 of the administrative code, and since it also adds to the powers and duties of the secretary of health, as shown by section 2101 of the administrative code, this resolution will require a constitutional majority.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair cannot sustain that point of order.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT, and were as follows, viz:

House Bill No. 1298, entitled:

An Act to amend section two, sub-sections (b), (c), and (d) of section three, sub-sections (a), (b), and (c) of section four, sub-sections (a), (e), and (h) of section five, section six, sub-section (b) of section eight, section eleven, section fourteen, sub-section (c) of section fifteen, sub-sections (a), (d) and (e) of section seventeen, sub-sections (a), (c), and (f) of section twenty, section twenty-one, section twenty-two, section twenty-three, section twenty-five, section twenty-eight, section twenty-nine, section thirty, subsection (c) of section thirty-one, section thirty-two, section thirty-four, section thirty-five, section thirty-six, subsections (a) and (d) of section thirty-eight, sub-section (d) of section thirty-nine, section forty, section forty-two, sub-section (c) of section forty-three and section forty-five of the act approved the thirtieth day of March, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws, one hundred fifteen), entitled "The First Class City Permanent Registration Act," by decreasing the number of commissioners, providing that vacancies in the commission shall remain unfiilled under certain circumstances, changing the terms of office of commissioners appointed during certain times to fill vacancies, extending the power of the commission to make regulations, changing the manner of notice required to be given city chairmen of political parties in certain cases, changing the time for appointment of registrars, the time for filing and hearing petitions for the appointment of registrars and the procedure relating thereto eliminating certain powers and duties of inspectors of registration, permitting the commission to establish additional offices for the registration of electors and their convenience, limiting the right of watchers to be present at registration places and the offices of the commission under certain circumstances, permitting the commission to fix the number of watchers of any party who may be present at the same time at any registration place or office of the commission, changing the days for and places of registration and the manner of giving public notice thereof, prescribing certain changes in the form of registration affidavits, requiring certain additional data from applicants for registration in certain cases, eliminating the provisions permitting the transfer of registration of electors who have removed from the districts where they were registered, permitting the filing of removal notices by electors in person at registration places and offices of the commission and substituting in such cases, an oath before the registrar, clerk, or commissioner for the requirement of two witnesses to the removal notice, requiring, with certain exceptions, all electors to reregister for elections upon removing from the districts in which they were originally registered, changing the time for filing and hearing on petitions to the commission from refusals to register applicants and changing the procedure at such hearings, eliminating certain provisions for challenging party enrollments, limiting the time within which electors may change their party enrollments and restricting such changes in certain cases, making use by the commission of certain reports by utility companies optional, eliminating the requirement that checkups by mail or postman of each registered elector be conducted at least once in each four years, changing the time for comparison and correction of registers and the time for the preparation and distribution of street lists, changing the time for filing and the procedure on petitions filed with the commission to cancel registrations, changing the procedure on appeals to the courts of common pleas from decisions of the commission, imposing additional penalties, clarifying certain provisions of the act and coordinating the provisions of the act so amended.

Whereupon,

The PRESIDENT (Lieuenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now resume consideration of Senate Bill No. 1052, (House Bill No. 977), on final passage, page 3 of the Calendar, which went over in its order.

Mr. REED. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1052, (House Bill No. 977), entitled:

An Act relative to the printing for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to establish the requirements of responsible bidders to prescribe penalties for the violation of the provisions of this act and to repeal all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. OWLETT. I will, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, what is the purpose of sending this bill back to committee at this time?

Mr. SHAPIRO. The purpose, Mr. President, of sending the bill back to committee is that the bill shall not pass for the reason—

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, after numerous conferences between the Secretary of Labor and Industry of the Commonwealth with various other departments it has been ascertained by them, and we have been so notified, that this bill in its present form is unworkable, and that they have attempted to work out the problem sought to be covered by this bill through departmental regulations. They expect to be able to accomplish the purpose of this bill through departmental regulations; and at their request, joined in by the Department of Labor and Industry and the Secretary of the Department of Labor and Industry, we are therefore asking the bill to go back to committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I am not interested in the request of any department head of this government. I have called this bill up at the request of those who are mostly concerned, and those are the men and women in this Commonwealth who make their living by engaging in the printing business. I therefore ask for a roll call.

QUESTION OF PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of parliamentary inquiry.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Tioga, Mr. Owlett, will state his question of parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, this is a roll call on the motion to recommit; is that correct?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

Mr. OWLETT. And a vote "aye" is a vote to recommit?

The PRESIDENT. That is correct.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. OWLETT, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—26

Bartlett,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Gelder,	Miller,	Tallman,
Crowe,	Geltz,	Owlett,	Thomas,
Dando,	Heyburn,	Pierson,	Walker,
Deitrick,	Homsher,	Scarlett,	Wolfenden,
Ealy,	James,	Snowden,	Woodward,
Edmonds,	Letzler,

NAYS—12

Cavalcante,	Haluska,	McCreesh,	Shapiro,
DiSilvestro,	Jaspan,	McGinnis,	Sipe,
Frey,	Kilgallen,	Ruth,	Stiefel,

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

HOUSE MESSAGE

RESOLUTION RECALLING FROM THE GOVERNOR HOUSE BILL No. 1048

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced presented extract from the Journal of the House of Representatives, which was twice read as follows, considered and agreed to:

All other commercial motor vehicles and truck tractors thirty miles per hour.

All combinations of commercial motor vehicles or truck tractors and trailers or semi-trailers thirty miles per hour.

(d) (1) When the rate of speed of any vehicle is timed on any highway within a business or residence district where official speed limit signs are erected as provided in this section for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the operator of such vehicle is violating a speed provision of this act such time shall be taken by not less than two (2) peace officers one of whom shall have been stationed at each end of a measured stretch and no conviction shall be had upon the unsupported evidence of one (1) peace officer except as hereinafter provided and no such measured stretch shall be less than one-eighth (1/8) of a mile in length. Under all other conditions the rate of speed shall be timed for a distance of not less than one quarter (1/4) mile by a peace officer using a motor vehicle equipped with a speedometer tested for accuracy within a period of thirty (30) days prior to the alleged violation. An official certificate from an official speedometer testing station showing such test was made that the speedometer was adjusted for accuracy the date thereof and the degree of accuracy of such speedometer after adjustment shall be competent and prima facie evidence of the fact that such certificate was issued by an official speedometer testing station appointed by the secretary and of the accuracy of the speedometer in every proceeding where an information is brought charging a violation of this section

(2) The secretary shall have the authority to appoint official stations for testing speedometers and may prescribe regulations as to the manner in which such tests shall be made and shall issue to such stations official inspection certificate forms.

(e) In every information charging violation of this section reference shall be made to this section and subsection alleged to have been violated specifying the speed at which the defendant is alleged to have driven.

(f) The speed limitations set forth in this section shall not apply to vehicles when operated with due regard for safety under the directions of the police in the chase or apprehension of violators of the law or of persons charged with or suspected of any such violation nor to fire department or fire patrol vehicles when traveling in response to a fire alarm nor to ambulances when traveling in emergencies The exemption shall not however protect the driver of any such vehicle from the consequences of a reckless disregard of the safety of others

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days.

Section 24. Section one thousand eight of said act which was amended by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 2329) and which was amended in part by the act approved the fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 1718) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1008. Limitations on Privilege of Overtaking and Passing.

(a) The driver of a vehicle shall not drive to the left side of the center line of a highway in overtaking or passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction unless such left side is clearly visible and is free of oncoming traffic for a sufficient distance ahead to permit such overtaking or passing to be made in safety.

(b) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake or pass another vehicle proceeding in the same direction when approaching the crest of a grade nor upon a curve in the highway where the drivers view along the highway is obstructed within a distance of five hundred (500) feet ahead except on a highway having two (2) or more lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake or pass another vehicle Provided That on a highway within a business or residence district having two (2) or more marked lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake or pass another vehicle on the right.

(c) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake or pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction at any railway grade crossing nor at any intersection of highways unless such intersection or crossing is controlled by traffic signal or unless permitted so to do by a watchman or peace officer except on a highway having two (2) or more lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake or pass another vehicle Provided That on a highway within a business or residence district having two (2) or more marked lanes for movement of traffic in one direction the driver of a vehicle may overtake or pass another vehicle on the right Nothing in this subsection shall be construed to prohibit a driver overtaking or passing upon the right another vehicle which is making or about to make a left turn.

(d) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake or pass or attempt to pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction between any points indicated by the placing of official temporary warning or caution signs indicating that men are working on the highway.

(e) The driver of a vehicle shall not overtake or pass or attempt to overtake or pass any other vehicle proceeding in the same direction in any "no passing zone"

Penalty. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days.

Section 25. Section one thousand twelve of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-ninth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 2329) is hereby further amended to read as follows.

Section 1012. Signals on Starting Stopping or Turning.

(a) The driver of any vehicle upon a highway before starting stopping or turning from a direct line shall first see that such movement can be made in safety and if any pedestrian may be affected by such movement shall give a clearly audible signal by sounding the horn and whenever the operation of any other vehicle approaching or following may be affected by such movement shall give a signal as required in this section plainly visible to the driver of such other vehicle of the intention to make such movement.

(b) The signal herein required shall be given by means of the hand and arm in the manner herein specified or by an approved mechanical or electrical signal device when the secretary finds that a vehicle is so constructed or loaded as to prevent the hand and arm signal from being visible to the front and rear the signal shall be given by a device of a type which at the time of its use is approved by the secretary.

(c) Whenever the signal is given by means of the hand and arm the driver shall indicate his intention to start stop or turn by extending the hand and arm horizontally from and beyond the left side of the vehicle or if he is driving a closed vehicle by his hand and arm in such a way as to be visible through the window in the rear of the vehicle.

(d) The secretary is hereby authorized and it shall be his duty to make rules and regulations not inconsistent with this act for the efficient administration of this section excepting that he shall make no finding under subsection (b) of this section relating to mechanical or electrical signal devices affecting commercial vehicles which measure less than thirteen (13) feet from the center of the top of the steering column to the rear end of such vehicle or when the body of such vehicle extends less than twenty (20) inches to the left of the center of the top of the steering column.

(e) All mechanical or electrical signal devices shall be maintained at all times in good working order.

(f) No driver of any vehicle upon a highway shall give a signal indicating a stop start or turn unless such signal is required by this act.

Penalty. Any person violating any of the provisions of subsections (a) (b) (c) (e) or (f) of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of ten ($10) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than five (5) days.

(c) The secretary may authorize the destruction of abandoned or wrecked motor vehicles placed in storage by police authorities when it is found after investigation by the secretary that the vehicle is valueless except as junk and the whereabouts of the owner is unknown Such investigation shall be completed and authority for the destruction granted within sixty (60) days of the time such matter shall have been brought to the attention of the secretary

Penalty Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall upon summary conviction before a magistrate be sentenced to pay a fine of twenty-five ($25) dollars and costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof shall undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to make a few remarks on this bill, because this bill has been the subject of terrific pressure from groups that are interested in the provisions of it. I want to call attention, first, to the bottom of page 45 and top of page 46, to this sentence beginning on line 28 on page 45: "Auxiliary or fog lamps shall not be used in substitution of head lamps except under conditions of rain or fog rendering disadvantageous the use of head lamps."

Now, mark you this: that sentence calls upon the owner of the motor vehicle to say when head lamps are disadvantageous. The result of it will be that you who are the operator will have your fog lights of your auxiliary lights on, thinking in your mind that it is disadvantageous for you to use your head lights, and you will be coming down some highway and some police officer will stop you, with your auxiliary lights on, and hand you a card to answer to a prosecution, because in his judgement it was disadvantageous for you to use the headlights on your motor vehicle. A violation of that sentence, that provision will entail a ten dollar fine to the motorist or five days imprisonment.

Now, I want you to turn to page 58 of this conference report, section 825, which reads as follows: "It shall be unlawful for any person to operate on the highways of this Commonwealth a vehicle towing a trailer or semi-trailer designed for living quarters or carriage of persons..."—mark you this—".... or to operate any commercial motor vehicle engaged in transportation of inflammable liquids, inflammable or combustible chemicals explosives or cargoes of a combustible nature..."

I want to call your attention to this: what will that provision do to the farmer who in his little commercial truck goes down to the store and buys a case of dynamite to take to his farm to blast stumps or to blast stone in his stone quarry? In his little commercial truck he goes down to get it and then this provision provides if he does have this dynamite on his little commercial truck, it says it shall be equipped with at least one fire extinguisher. Thus the poor farmer will have to get a fire extinguisher for his little commercial truck when he goes down to town to buy himself some dynamite or explosives to blast some stumps or to blast some rock out of his stone quarry.

On page 62 of this bill—and I called this Senate's attention to this particular provision of it when it was before us before it went into conference committee—on line 4 page 62 it says, "The owner or operator of any vehicle who is notified by a peace officer that his tires or tire does not conform with the requirements of this act or are unsafe or unfit or in need of correction adjustment, or repairs shall be allowed forty-eight (48) hours within which to adjust, repair or replace such tires or tire to conform with the requirements of this act." Who is the judge of when your tires are fit and safe; who is the peace officer.

Now, if this section had read that if notified by a motor policeman, at least you might have some confidence in the motor police, because we know they are trained men and capable men and under the supervision of the state; but who is going to control the other police officers, the constables, the deputies and their deputies?

Gentlemen of this Senate, can you not see you are opening the door to one of the greatest rackets? I called attention to the Senate before that I can not see a reason for this provision in this bill, unless it was put in there by some one who is interested in the sale of tires, and for no other reason.

Who is going to permit the use of his automobile and the condition of his tires to depend upon the whim and caprice of some constable? Why do we have the section in this code that says you must have your car inspected every so often? Is that not a check on your tires, on the condition of your automobile? When you have your inspection tag on, is that not sufficient notice that your car is in good condition? Are you, yourself, not concerned whether your tires are safe when you travel? Is a constable or police officer more capable to say when you need or do not need tires on your automobile?

Then you have the other provision in this code that gives the Secretary of Revenue the power to suspend or revoke the licenses of inspection stations and it says that the Secretary of Revenue may rovoke, provided, however, that the cause for revocation was not some offense or negligence committed by one of its agents or employes.

In other words, a man can own his inspection station, he can take a trip down to Atlantic City, or go some place else and let his agent and employe do the work haphazardly, and whenever the motor police or someone catches an offense, then the owner of the inspection station can say I did not know that had been done; my employe did that. Why, you are taking the heart out of the principle behind the inspection of automobiles every so often.

I think these provisions I have indicated, Mr. President, are serious provisions of this act. We have a motor code now, and we ought not to molest it; we ought to defeat this bill and let the motor code remain as it is.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may I call the Senate's attention to a couple of the statements made by the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante?

On page 45, in one of the clauses he pointed out—I think he is roaming far afield—"Auxiliary or fog lamps shall not be used in substitution of head lamps ...." Well now, Mr. President, that is perfectly clear to anybody who drives; if it rains or there is fog, or in the opinion of the driver his fog lamps should be used, they should be used.

And he called attention also to a part of section 825, on page 58 beginning with line six, to the provision "to operate any commercial motor vehicle engaged in transportation of inflammable liquids," and so on.

The words "commercial motor vehicle" were specifically put in and it means that the commercial motor vehicle engaged in carrying inflammable liquids, inflammable or combustible chemicals, explosives, or cargoes of a combustible nature must carry a fire extinguisher.

Most of the commercial vehicles operating on the roads do carry these fire extinguishers; and as matter of fact, the illustration used by the gentleman from Fayette would not be comparable, because a farmer transporting a box of dynamite, which I believe was the illustration used, would not come under that provision; and he, himself, would not be obliged to have a fire extinguisher on his truck.

Then the gentleman from Fayette called attention to the fact that on page 62 beginning with line 4, it provides that a peace officer would have the right to check your tires, and if he found them, in his opinion, to be defective. you would be given forty-eight hours in which to adjust, repair or replace them.

Now, Mr. President, in the next paragraph it is pointed out that upon summary conviction in a case where the owner or operator does not comply with that provision he shall be fined or go to jail. The Senator from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, is well aware of the fact that if the owner or operator does not concur in the conclusion arrived at by the constable or peace officer he has his right of appeal from any summary conviction under this act.

I think he is well protected and I think this conference committee report as a whole should be adopted.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I was a member of this conference committee and did not sign the report. I did not sign the report because I felt in 1937 we had passed a law providing that these vehicles, which I call dangerous instruments, should not be driven over our highway after 1939.

In the conference committee meeting last night that provision was left just as it was when it came from the Senate committee. The House first reenacted the law, so that they could not operate these vehicles after 1939. The Senate committee amended that act and extended the period of operation until 1942. The majority of the committee compromised by saying they all agreed that it was dangerous, certainly, to have trucks which have the automobiles over the—they call it "above the cab of the vehicle"—the majority agreed to that.

Then the conference committee proceeded to make that picture worse by providing—not that immediately these vehicles shall not be operated which carry another automobile over the cab, but they changed it so that it shall be unlawful for another vehicle to be operated in this Commonwealth while it is carrying any other vehicle or object which is directly above the cab of the carrier vehicle or directly over the head of the operator.

In fact, that returned the provision of 1937, so that now it is all right to carry a second tier provided the weight is not over the head—it can be over the head of the man, but the weight must not rest over the cab. I am quite sure the gentleman from the Senate who introduced that amendment did not understand the effect of it, because what he was aiming at, as he said was that this vehicle should not be over the cab. Now it provides the weight of it should not be over the cab.

Everybody confesses these automobiles should not be on the highways, by the very fact this bill limits it to 1942; but everybody is doing the same thing we did with the fireworks and other bills—yielding to pressure, and the complaint we yielded to in 1937, that "we have an investment and please let us work out our investment;" and so we let them work out the investment for two years, and now they come back and want to work it our until 1942; and in 1942 the same pressure will be brought to bear, and they will continue to do as they have done. That is from the point of view of safety.

The other is that these people are in competition with an industry which provides employment and protection to a large group of employes and that industry itself is in trouble. It builds and maintains its own highways at an investment of a tremendous capital and is forced to compete with an industry which requires very little investment, and at the same time is liable to cause injury and make unsafe the use of the public highways to people lawfully on the highways, and sooner or later we have got to come to a point where that must be stopped.

They say, "please do not stop us until 1942." I say if they admit that much—they have had two years—this conference committee report should not be concurred in, and they should be prohibited now and not in 1942.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I am glad this issue is clearly drawn. This is an issue between the railroads and the automobile dealers and the truckers. The railroads have slipped behind for years, they have not kept up with the times. Any dealer today, if this report is not adopted, will have to have his cars shipped into Pennsylvania in a railroad car. He will have to hire four or five men to go down to a depot, hunt around to find his cars, and spend hours and hours to get the automobiles out of that car, simply because the railroads have not kept up with the times.

Under the present system, I want to say to you, Mr. President, had it not been for the automobile people, the manufacturers, the dealers, the salesmen, during this depression, I do not know what would have happened to the United States. The most courageous, the most fighting men that I know of are the automobile salesmen and the dealers, who have been losing money but keeping their fronts, their windows as a buoyancy to us all. The manufacturer throughout this depression to my mind, has kept the United States together, kept industry going.

When other people were discouraged, sitting back afraid, the automobile manufacturer went out front, the automobile dealer went into every home and today on the highways of Pennsylvania and every other state you see the grandest cars that could be imagined.

When the railroads fell down and did not meet the situation they provided for the convoy. Do you know what happens when the little dealer wants a car today? A convoy comes along and drops the car off, whereas with the railroad he has to buy four cars and have the railroad bring the four cars into a depot, and the dealer must hire a lot of men, go down there and work a day to get them out; whereas with the convoy they come along and drop one, two, or three cars off, right at the automobile dealer's door.

Now, you can find fault with any bill—fog horns, or tires—but when it comes down to brass tacks, this is a fight between the automobile people that have fought the depression, have kept America alive during this depression, while the railroads have fallen down because they have not met the situation; and I say if you want to offend every dealer back home, with his buoyancy and his courage, that has kept his front and his place of business going, if you want to offend him and every salesman he has got, that goes into every home, yo umay do it; but Isay to you they have been a bunch of boys that have been so buoyant during this depression and have kept business going and have provided the necessities to do it efficiently, and they ought to be encouraged, instead of going back to the railroads that are not keeping up with the times, that are not keeping pace with this modern industry. You can take one choice or the other.

Mr. STIEFEL. Mr. President, I confess I was hesitant before as to how I was going to vote on this bill, but the very fervency of the speech of the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, swayed me to vote "no" on this bill because two years ago I was swayed by the fervent plea of Senator McGinnis to set up a Little New Deal for the motor industry and then I saw how the Supreme Court threw it out.

By bitter experience I came to my conclusion, I learned my lesson, and I am going to vote "no" on this bill.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, there has been a picture painted here of this automobile dealer who has worked so hard. I should like to shatter that picture by saying the same automobile dealer adds seventy dollars to the price of the car which is sold f.o.b. Detroit, and then he pays only twelve dollars of that to get it in by means of this dangerous instrument over the highway and so the public is taken for a ride for fifty-eight dollars.

I would like to call to the attention of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis—if I were the orator he is I would say, come down with me to see the pictures I have seen of the railroads—and remember it was the railroads who developed this country; it was the railroads who have pioneered and spent fortunes to build up not only their systems but also this great country; and it is they who are responsible for most of our great progress.

On many occasions I have had to take the floor and protest against some of their conduct and actions, and I am equally willing to take the floor and protect them in their great industry. I say the issue is not the railroads as against the automobile industry, but it is the issue of safety. They have confessed it themselves by saying in 1942 they will take these cars off the roads. To that I say, gentleman, you told us if we gave you until 1939 you would take them off, but now they are saying please give us an extension for another three years, and then we will come back and get another extension.

I contend it is foolish to talk about the dealer who has to go to the railroads—that the railroads are not properly equipped. The railroads have close to $6,000,000 invested in special cars built to be able to lift automobiles on and off their cars, and all that is necessary is for the dealers to send their men down and drive them out. And if they need more men that creates more employment. That has been the very thing that caused our trouble; efficiency and machinery, and inventions have taken workers out of the field of work and thrown them on the relief rolls.

The dealers receive seventy dollars allowance for the shipping of that freight from Detroit to Philadelphia, and there is plenty of margin in that seventy dollars to allow a machine to be brought from Detroit to Philadelphia or Chester and still allow those poor dealers to come out ahead.

The fight is, first of all, on the question of safety, and second, on the side of the dealer, the ability to save that fifty-eight dollars so he can have an additional profit.

There is no use talking about the poor dealer who has, in the depression, pulled out the Commonwealth. They dismissed employes in the thousands; and the President of the United States made an appeal to them to reemploy those men, and it was in response to that appeal that they employed some additional help.

Secondly, I say it is silly for the federal government to be pouring money into the railroads and then having their business undermined by unwarranted competition with an unsafe adversary on the highways.

The railroads, on the other hand, should be compelled to keep out of the trucking business; and when that time comes I will vote for a bill to keep the railroads within their own confines. You have to start some place and, particularly when you have the argument of safety on the highways, I think this bill ought to be voted down.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I have been very careful to make no commitments on this bill, and I shall vote "no". I do not own any stock in the Pennsylvania Railroad or any railroad, because I am a better investor than to buy railroad stock; but, as I have said before, I have three children who are chauffeurs, and also, not long ago a friend of mine ran over and killed a child because he did not see where he was going, on account of a truck.

I think the safety element is very large in this proposition. It seems to me you might just as well take some of Governor Earle's safety signboards and run them up and down the highways like the trucks. I was impressed by Senator Cavalcante's ninety-nine feet and I confirmed that and I believe it is correct; and the amendment made in this bill brings it down to something like sixty-six feet and that does not satisfy me. I shall vote "no", with a clear conscience.

Mr. SIPE. Mr. President, dismissing the relative merits of railroads and trucks, I want to say I fear this provision in the bill that will confer upon an ignorant constable the right to take a look at your tires and eventually get you into a court of justice of the peace. Every lawyer knows that justice of the peace—J. P.—means judgment for the plaintiff; the fellow who brings the case gets the decision invariably. It is true the poor motorist whose tires have been squinted at by some racketeer constable will have the right to have his day in court, but that means expense on his part, even if an appeal from the summary conviction is won by him. I am afraid this is opening up the doors to a pretty sizeable racket.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. McGinnis, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. McGINNIS. Certainly, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman state why on page 64 of this bill they increased the load which U trucks can carry by exactly one ton, and left the others as they were in.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. Presidents, I am not familiar with the details of this bill. One ton or two tons nowadays does not make much difference in an automobile or a truck, or anything else on the highway. I can put a ton in my automobile, and I do not think it makes a particle of difference—or two tons—and it is perfectly safe.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. Gladly, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman state why the load of class U trucks was increased exactly one ton in this bill and the others were left as they were?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, as I understand the make-up of the loads carried, they are loads arrived at by the Bureau of Motor Vehicles; and I think any good trucker would readily agree that the weight given for U trucks would not be excessive or the Department of Revenue, Bureau of Motor Vehicles, would certainly never have permitted it to be in there.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman state who recommended that?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I am a member of the Senate, not of the Department of Revenue. I think it is a good idea to give the U plate the additional weight.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, why does the gentleman from Allegheny then say the Department of Highways had something to do with this, when he is not certain of it?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I never mentioned the Department of Highways, I mentioned the Department of Revenue and the Bureau of Motor Vehicles.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Both of them, Mr. President. If the gentleman from Allegheny did not know anything about these amendments, why did he state that he did?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I suggest we resort to the record, in order to have the gentleman from Fayette corrected. I said it was my understanding, Mr. President, and was not predicated upon any knowledge as to how those weights are arrived at; the weights for the various license plates have been in various acts for some time, and I think it is within the province of a good attorney to assume provisions were made for the U plate by the conference committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Indiana, Mr. Wolfenden, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Indiana tell us why the load of the class U trucks was increased exactly one ton?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I assume the Department of Revenue or the Bureau of Motor Vehicles recommended it.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, were they present in the conference committee?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. No, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Who recommended it, Mr. President?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I have no way of knowing who recommended it. I would like to know why the gentleman is so persistent about that particular thing. What does the gentleman know that makes that amendment so bad?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, is the Senator asking me that question?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, I understand a member of the conference committee is the owner of many U trucks.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, the gentleman from Fayette knows more about that than I do.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Well, Mr. President, the Senator from Indiana has asked me the question; the gentleman inferred that the Department of Revenue and other departments had something to do with that. I am told a member of the conference committee is the owner of a considerable number of U trucks.

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, for the information of the gentleman from Fayette, the amendment to fifteen thousand pounds was put in in the House long before the bill ever came to the Senate or went to the conference committee.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman from Indiana state why the speed of buses was increased from forty to forty-five miles per hour?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, I am glad to advise that a member of the conference committee is acquainted with buses, and he said it should be raised to forty-five in his opinion, because he said it would not only be better and more convenient for the traveling public but would not impair safety of traffic. He also stated most buses now travel fifty or fifty-five miles per hour.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will the gentleman state whether they inquired of the Bureau of Safety whether increasing the speed would mean greater hazard and danger to other users of the highway?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. Mr. President, we did have at a conference a gentleman who has been with the Highway Department a number of years, and he said in his opinion it did not make any difference.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Who was that gentleman, Mr. President?

Mr. WOLFENDEN. An attorney, Mr. Umstead, Mr. President.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I should like to interrogate the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Yes, Mr. President.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, as a matter of information will the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Shapiro, tell me whether there is anything in this act to limit the so-called trains on the highways, of more than two tractor trailers?

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, the conference committee amended the bill so that it leaves it in the same position as it was in the old act, and prevents the use of more than two trailers.

I understand, as I read it, leaving the act in its present condition there could not be three trailers. However, we were told at a committee meeting, by a representative of the Revenue Department, Mr. Umstead, who is not in the Highway Department but has recently been appointed counsel for the Revenue Department; he is a leading practicing lawyer from Philadelphia, I think the gentleman from Indiana misunderstood that. He told us the provision as to trailers had been abused; but he said the Department of Revenue is interpreting it so there could be two—what they call a tractor and a truck, and another truck.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, I can not see anything in the act here to prevent some three or four or half a dozen.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I think it was on page 42 when we started out—I do not know what has happened to the pages since—the amendments suggested by the gentleman from Fayette, Mr. Cavalcante, was incorporated into the Conference Committee report.

I would like to agree with the gentleman, because that might help defeat this bill; but I want to be frank about it and I think the conference committee took that provision out.

Mr. RUTH. Mr. President, Page 63, line 24.

Of course, there is a limit. On page 64, line 24, it states: "Motor buses shall not exceed a length of four hundred twenty (420) inches." Then it says, "No motor vehicle shall be operated upon a highway drawing or having attached thereto more than one other vehicle." That was the way it was in the old law and there was an amendment to it, in the Senate or House, allowing them to have more than two, and we took it out.

Mr. McGINNIS. Mr. President, I might state that the Interstate Commerce Commission allows these convoys to run in every state in this union. They have the lowest insurance rate of any vehicle on the highways; they have less accidents than any other type of truck on the highways; and if we in Pennsylvania want to shut ourselves in and be different from every other state and the Interstate Commerce Commission, and compel those trucks to go around us or haul their cars to the borders of our state and make our dealers go out and get them, well and good.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the report of the committee of conference on Senate Bill No. 1142, (House Bill No. 1423).

(During the calling of the roll.)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to know how the Senator from Lycoming, Mr. Snowden, voted.

Mr. SNOWDEN. Mr. President, I voted "aye:"

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, an were as follows, viz:

YEAS—28

Bartlett,	Edmonds,	Homsher,	Scarlett,
Chapman,	Eroe,	James,	Snowden,
Crowe,	Farrell,	Letzler,	Stevenson,
Dando,	Gelder,	McGinnis,	Tallman,

NAYS—11

Cavalcante,	Jaspan,	Ruth,	Stiefel,
DiSilvestro,	Mallery,	Shapiro,	Woodward
Frey,	McCreesh,	Sipe,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

ADOPTION OF REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON SENATE BILL No. 761

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the Report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 761.

Mr. GELTZ. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SUSPENSION OF RULE 21

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires Conference Committee Reports to be noted on the Calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the Report of the Committee of Conference to the foregoing bill.

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The report was read as follows:

Report of the Committee of Conference on Senate Bill No. 761.

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering Senate Bill No. 761, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause six of section one of the act, approved the twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (P. L. 858), entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system, and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof; establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes; defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom, and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds; imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve; excepting annuities, allowances, returns, benefits, and rights from taxation and judicial process; and providing penalties," further defining State employes.

respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

OSCAR JACOB TALLMAN
FRANKLIN SPENCER EDMONDS
JAMES A. GELTZ
(Committee on the part of the Senate)
WILLIAM E. HABBYSHAW
WRAYBURN B. HALL
JOSEPH OMINSKY
(Committee on the part of the House of Representatives)

An Act to further amend clauses six and nine of section one and Section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 858) entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve excepting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" further defining State employes and original members and making further exception to compulsory membership in the system

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 Clauses six and nine of section one and section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 858) entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contribution by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve excepting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" as last amended by the act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven (Pamphlet Laws 683) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted et cetera That the following words and phrases as used in this act unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context shall have the following meanings

* * * *

Any such State employe who shall become an original member of the association after the approval of this amendment including those who having heretofore become a new member thereof shall become an original member under the provisions hereof shall pay to the retirement association a sum equal to all the back payments which such person would have made had he or she become a member of the retirement association when the retirement system was established Such back payments may be spread over a period of years by having such regular payroll deduction of such person increased by not less than one-third of the amount thereof which deduction increase shall be credited to such back payments owing and shall be continued until the amount thereof shall be paid in full unless such member is retired under the provisions of this act before such back payments have been completed Any such deduction increase may be anticipated in full by the member at any time and shall be anticipated in full at the time of retirement before a retirement allowance is granted and if not so anticipated then the member's annuity shall be calculated on the total accumulated deductions standing to his credit and his State annuity shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the reduction which occurs in the member's annuity due to the amount of the back payments not so anticipated

Original member of the retirement association shall also mean any judge in service on the second Monday of January one thousand nine hundred thirty who shall elect to become a member of the retirement association at any time during the term for which he was then elected or appointed and any person hereafter elected or appointed a judge who at the time of his election or appointment is an original member of the retirement association or who was retired voluntarily or involuntarily as an orginal member and is at the time of his election or appointment as a judge receiving a retirement allowance as an original member

* * * *

Section 3 A State employes' retirement association is hereby organized the membership of which shall consist of all State employes as defined in paragraph six of section one of this act who by written application to the Retirement Board shall either as an original member or a new member elect to be covered by the retirement system Any State employe who becomes a State employe subsequent to the thirty-first day of December nineteen hundred twenty-four except as provided in paragraphs nine and ten of section one of this act as to judges shall during the first six months of employment as a State employe have the option of membership but after the first six months of such employment as a State employe membership as a new member shall be compulsory Provided however That neither the Governor nor the Lieutenant Governor nor the head or deputy heads of any administrative department nor the members of any independent administrative board or commission or of any departmental administrative board or commission or of any advisory board or commission nor the secretary to the Governor nor the budget secretary nor any legislative employe nor any person over the age of fifty years shall be compelled to become members of said State employes' retirement association

The head of each department board commission or other agency of the State government shall see to it that an application for membership is executed by each new State employe within said six months period and that payroll deductions are not delayed beyond said period

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the Report?

Mr. CAVALCANTE. Mr. President, will someone explain what the report is?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, it is the conference committee report on the amendment to the Employe's Retirement Fund Act, signed by all the conferees.

Mr. CAVALCANTE. That does not mean anything, Mr. President. What is the report about?

Mr. OWLETT. Mr. President, I suggest that one of the conferees explain it.

Mr. EDMONDS. What is the printer's number of the conference report, Mr. President?

The PRESIDENT. Printer's No. 377.

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, it recommends the bill in the form in which it was in No. 377. There was a lot of misunderstanding caused by the fact that it was found necessary to introduce some new sections to the existing law; and they were put in, in italics, although it was merely a restatement of the old law; and that was what caused the confusion.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Montgomery, Mr. Edmonds, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, is that not the bill in which judges were included in the retirement fund?

Mr. EDMONDS. Yes, Mr. President, that is the existing law; that was put in there by italics, because it was added after the bill had been introduced.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the report?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—28

Bartlett,	Erdman,	Letzler,	Scarlett,
Chapman,	Farrell,	Mallery,	Snowden,
Coleman,	Gelder,	McGinnis,	Stevenson,

NAYS—5

Cavalcante,	Frey,	Stiefel,	Woodward,
Ealy,

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE FOR THE INTERIM

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, on behalf of the Republican Caucus I have the honor to nominate for President pro tempore of the Senate for the interim my colleague, the Honorable Frederick T. Gelder, of Susquehanna County.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, it has been customary in the past to elect a President pro terpore for a regular session and to re-elect the same person for the interim session. Senator Gelder, our present President pro tempore, by his wisdom and experience and equanimity and his industry, has taken a great part in conducting this session to a proper conclusion.

Senator Gelder is now serving his fourth term, the latter part of that term. He was in the Senate when I came here, and during these years I have enjoyed his close personal friendship; and I indeed take great pleasure in seconding this nomination.

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President and members of the Senate, the formality of the minority party nominating a candidate for President pro tempore of the Senate is a time honored custom. It is known in advance there is no real contest when there is a minority, and therefore such nominations, as I say, are usually a formality.

At this time I should like to state that this is the first time I have had the opportunity of nominating anyone for that high and honored and honorable office, and I want to take advantage of this occasion by saying it is a privilege to be a member of the Senate, because otherwise I could not have made the motion, and secondly, while I am on my feet, I want to say I do not think, looking on this side of the House, I could pass up any man at all who would not be fit and proper for the office.

My experiences this session have been most trying and most arduous—as have the others—in a very difficult time, but I have compensation for the hard work in knowledge of the fact that I have acquired a respect and admiration for every one of the Senators on the other side.

So far as the younger men, in point of service, are concerned, although many of them are older than I in point of years, I want to pay my respects to the Republican party and say I have never seen a group of more active, more interested gentlemen in this Senate in the years I have been here. I have watched many of them and I have been agreeably surprised at the alacrity with which they have picked up formalities and the seriousness with which they took their positions. I have also been very agreeably pleased with the sociability and general good feeling they have spread throughout the halls of this Senate.

At times we have had quarrels, but I think I have shown I do not believe legislative quarrels need make personal differences in the relationship of the members, and it has been a great pleasure and a new experience for me to know so many new and agreeable people.

I do not expect to be back here again. Many people have said that, but I usually mean what I say, first, because my only reason for being here has been to give myself the opportunity to pay back to this great state and this great country what I owe for the many privileges my family—my parents before me, myself, and my children after me—will enjoy; and having paid in part that obligation because no one can ever pay in full; I feel I have done as much as I could, I have given all I have, and so I do not expect to be back here, unless there is a Special Session and if I am alive I shall then finish my duties. I shall not again be a candidate for the office, but I shall always cherish and remember in these halls I have acquired great friendships—at least my feeling toward everyone with whom I have come in contact has been that of friendliness, and I hope it is reciprocated.

I have no complaints to make; the battle is over, we have fought hard battles and now that they are over I wish all of you God-speed.

One of these men I have learned to respect and admire is the gentleman who was our leader in the last session. I do not need to tell those of you who were here of him—you know him; he is an outstanding personality in this Senate, an admirable person to know, a good statesman and excellent comrade, and it is because of that I take great pleasure in formally nominating him—knowing full well he will not be elected—to the office of President pro tempore, and at the same time I say to the President of this Senate, who will be obligated to count and direct the counting of the votes in this matter, that there will be no criticism of the Chair if the gentleman is not elected. In his absence I say to you he has expressed to me very frequently the thought he has felt you have done a very fine job in the way in which you have handled your difficult office, and for myself I say to you it has been a pleasure to become more closely associated with you, although I had the honor of being acquainted with you previously.

I am glad this session is to be ended, rectic as it has been on many occasions, with that feeling of friendship between the two of us, and in making this nomination I am saying at the same time, good night, after I vote. I want to extend to all of you my appreciation of the many courtesies you have extended to me.

Mr. President, and members of the Senate, on behalf of my Democratic colleagues I have the honor to nominate as President pro tempore of the Senate for the interim, my friend and colleague from Adams, the Honorable John S. Rice.

The PRESIDENT. On the election of the President pro tempore the Chief Clerk will call the roll.

The roll was called and was as follows.

(During the roll call.)

Mr. SHAPIRO. Mr. President, on behalf of the Honorable John S. Rice I cast my vote in favor of the Honorable Frederick T. Gelder.

FOR MR. GELDER—25.

Bartlett,	Geltz,	Owlett,	Stevenson,
Chapman,	Heyburn,	Pierson,	Tallman,
Crowe	Homsher,	Scarlett,	Thomas,
Deitrick,	James,	Shapiro,	Walker,
Ealy,	Letzler	(On behalf of	Wolfenden,
Edmonds,	Mallery,	Senator Rice)	Woodward,
Farrell,	Miller,	Snowden,

FOR MR. RICE—17.

Cavalcante,	Frey,	Jaspan,	Mundy,
Coleman,	Gelder,	Kilgallen,	Ruth,
Dent	Gilson,	McCreesh,	Sipe,
DiSilvestro	Haluska,	McGinnis,	Stiefel,
Erne,

The PRESIDENT. The Honorable Frederick T. Gelder, having received 25 votes; and the Honorable John S. Rice having received 17 votes, I declare that the Honorable Frederick T. Gelder has been duly elected President pro tempore of the Senate for the interim.

The oath of office was accordingly administered by the President (Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis).

Mr. GELDER. Mr. President, and fellow members of the State Senate. Under lowering skies outside and sometimes frowning brows within the Capitol, in January this session came into being.

It appeared as though we were going to have a session which none of us would enjoy, but with the true sportsmanship that has always been characteristic of the Senate of Pennsylvania we have had our differences of opinion, we have divided along the lines of our political principles, but we have retained a good fellowship, as the Senator from Philadelphia has said, that has made, after all, this a most interesting and pleasant session.

We have worked hard; we have fought on each side for those things that we felt were best for Pennsylvania. An appraisal of what has been done here will be made by the people as time goes on.

In accepting the position that you bestowed on me at the beginning of this session I had but one thought in mind, and that was to serve as to merit your esteem and friendship. I hope I have succeeded in doing that during the five months we have been together, and I want to say I feel it a great honor to have served as President pro tempore in such a fine body of men as compose the present Senate of Pennsylvania.

We here in Pennsylvania, with ten million people looking to us for legislation, are faced with great responsibility, and I feel in this session of the Legislature we have accomplished much. We have, perhaps, reached a high tide in some of the ideas that have been prevalent the last few years, brought on by the depression, and we are again returning to those principles which in the past have helped to make America great.

As I said a moment ago, however, an appraisal of what we have done here will be made by the people of Pennsylvania. I hope they will find we have accomplished some things that will help to restore the prosperity that should be ours in a state that has resources, in agriculture, in mineral wealth, and in all that should go to help make up a prosperous and happy people.

I want to thank you again for the kindly consideration you have given me, and I also want to express my appreciation of the hearty co-operation we have had on both sides of the Senate.

RESOLUTION

COMMENDING FREDERICK T. GELDER, PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. If there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WALKER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 29, 1939.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be tendered to the Honorable Frederick T. Gelder, President pro tempore of the Senate, for the fair and efficient manner in which he has performed the duties of his office during the session of this body about to close.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The PRESIDENT. The Senator from Westmoreland, Mr. Dent, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and members of the Senate,

I do not have a resolution to offer but I want to take this opportunity to thank you personally, Mr. President, for holding your temper when I lost mine. I want to thank you too for having a profound understanding of the energies of youth and a sometimes quickness of tongue as not emanating from a hardness of heart. I enjoyed my tilts with you and am sorry to say I came out second best all the time.

I want to thank the Republican members of the Senate who have so patiently listened to long tirades I have made against their program. I have tried to act as a Democrat and I am proud to be a Democrat, believing in its philosophy. I believe you too, all of you, are proud of membership in your party, and that is as it should be.

I want to leave the Senate—perhaps it may be my last session in the Senate, the Lord alone knows the answer to that problem—but if it is I want to say I have served with a group of men, I believe, who are sincerely interested in the welfare of the people of Pennsylvania and the welfare of Pennsylvanians generally.

It has been an honor to me, a great honor, to a lad who came from a very poor beginning, to be a member of the great body of the Senate of Pennsylvania, and no matter what may come in the future, nothing will ever take from me the glory of having served in this august body.

RESOLUTION

COMMENDING REVEREND BURLEIGH PETERS, CHAPLAIN OF THE SENATE

Mr. JAMES. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. JAMES offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 29, 1939.

Whereas, During the present legislative session each day the Senate has been opened by prayer for divine guidance invoked by the Rev. Burleigh Peters, the Senate Chaplain, and

Whereas, The harmonious and cordial relations and spirit of tolerance existing between the members of the Senate, irrespective of party affiliation, has been largely contributed to by the words of wisdom uttered by our Chaplain, as well as the Christian Spirit exemplified by him, and

Whereas, The appeals of Rev. Mr. Peters for divine guidance have been spiritual, earnest, sincere, helpful and couched in beautiful and scholarly language, and

Whereas, The same broad spirit of christianity and humanitarianism displayed by Rev. Mr. Peters as a Chaplain in the National Guard of the Commonwealth and in the American Legion, has likewise been exhibited by him in the performance of his duties as Senate Chaplain, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that its members do extend to Rev. Burleigh Peters their sincere appreciation of his conscientious, christian and helpful performance of the duties of his office as Senate Chaplain; be it further Resolved, That this resolution be spread upon the Journal of the Senate and a copy thereof be furnished to Rev. Mr. Peters by the Secretary of the Senate.

RESOLUTION

COMMENDING LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR SAMUEL S. LEWIS

Mr. TALLMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. TALLMAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 29, 1939.

Resolved, That the thanks of the Senate be hereby tendered to Lieutenant-Governor Samuel S. Lewis, President of the Senate, for the able and impartial manner in which he has performed the duties of his office during the session of the body now about to close.

CONSIDERATION OF EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS

NOTARIES PUBLIC

Mr. EDMONDS. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of nominations for appointment as Notaries Public, sent to the Senate, May 29, 1939 by His Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth.

Mr. EALY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The nominations were read as follows:

ADJOURNMENT SINE DIE

The PRESIDENT. This being the day and hour fixed by concurrent resolution for the final adjournment, and the hour of eleven-thirty, p. m., having arrived, I hereby declare the 133rd regular session of the Senate of Pennsylvania adjourned sine die.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, May 29, 1939.

The House met at 9 a. m.

The SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. Thomas George Baxter, offered the following prayer:

Our Father and our God, as we come to the close of this session, may we feel Thee bending low and laying Thy gracious hand upon our heads, and may we hear Thee whispering in our ears the forgiving word for every bitter feeling engendered, for every shortness of attainment we have experienced, for every evil thought conceived.

We have rejoiced in this opportunity of service to our fellow countrymen. That mistakes have been made only shows our humanity. Forgive them. "To err is human, to forgive is divine." Grant unto each of us the joy and blessings of forgiveness as well as being forgiven.

We thank Thee that death has not laid his icy fingers on the brow of any one of our members, or officers, and that we are still basking in the sunshine of Thy love and mercy.

God bless our homes and our dear ones from whom we have been apart. O Father, let Thy good angels brood over our hearthstones and fold all our hearts in the sweet and calm embrace of Thine infinite love. And when we go out on the ebb tide of life and reach the hill top of eternity's morning, may each have a welcome to the Father's arms and the Father's home, where the shadows never fall, where the sun never sets, where the flowers never fade, and where the rainbow never dies out of the everlasting skies, where a blessed rest awaiteth the people of God. Amen.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to express his appreciation to the Chaplain this morning for his beautiful prayer.

The Chair also desires to express his appreciation to the members of the House for the reverent way in which the members observed absolute silence just before prayer was offered by the Chaplain. It is rather an inspiration to stand here and look out upon this House and see the respectful attention of the members during that part of our proceedings each day which has to do with the Supreme Being whom all of us in some manner worship. The foundation of this government of ours in all its history and tradition is intimately linked with a belief in the Supreme Being and the relationship of that Supreme Being, in one way or another, with each of us in the manner in which we have been reared and each of us believes. Therefore, it seems to the Chair, in our proceedings each day, we should pause long enough and be willing to observe that respectful attention which this part of our procedure deserves.

The Chair desires to thank the Chaplains of the House we have had during this session for the manner in which they have helped us maintain that tradition.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of Saturday, May 27.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of Saturday, May 27, 1939, when, on motion of Mrs. FAUSET the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

CALL OF THE HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I suggest the absence of a quorum and ask for a call of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, suggests the absence of a quorum and asks for a call of the House.

The Chair will read for the information of the members Rule 11.

> "If, at any time during the session of the House, a question shall be raised by a member as to the presence of a quorum, and it shall be shown that a quorum is not present it shall be the duty of the Speaker to announce the result of the roll call and note the absentees, after which the absentees shall be again called, and those for whose absence no excuse or insufficient excuse is made, may, by order of a majority of the members present, be sent for and taken into custody by the Sergeant-At-Arms or his assistants appointed for the purpose, and brought before the bar of the House, where, unless excused by a majority of the members present, they shall be reproved by the Speaker for neglect of duty, and these proceedings shall be without debate and no motion, except to adjourn shall be in order."

The Chair would also call to the attention of the House Rule 12.

> "While the House is under a call, only members and officers of the House shall be admitted, and no member shall be permitted to leave the House, unless by a majority vote of the members present."

The Sergeant-At-Arms is instructed to close all the doors of the House, and allow no one to enter except members or officers of the House, and permit no one to leave the Hall of the House except by direction of a majority vote of the members present. Members will take their own seats.

The Chair will permit the door to the left of the rostrum to remain open to allow members of the Press to enter. The members of the Press are advised they cannot leave the Hall of the House, but will have to remain during the call.

The Chair likewise advises the members of the House, they will have to remain until the call is completed.

The Clerk will call the roll. The members will respond to their names by answering "present".

The roll was called by the Clerk.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the names of the absentees. Several members have come in since the calling of the roll, and the Chair requests those members to please rise in their places and ask to be marked present.

Hon. Ellwood J. Turner,
Speaker, House of Representatives,
Harrisburg, Pa.

My dear Congressman Turner:

It is with great and sincere appreciation that I acknowledge receipt of the very fine Resolution passed by your honorable body on the death of my husband, the late Lt.-Colonel J. A. Harvey.

It was a source of very great pleasure to Colonel to have had the opportunity of meeting with you and offering the Invocation at the opening of the House and I know he appreciated the privilege to the full.

Please express to your members my thanks and gratification for their thoughtfulness in adopting this Resolution and also for forwarding the same to me as I shall prize it always.

Very respectfully yours,

NELLIE M. HARVEY,
Mrs. Lt. Colonel J. A. Harvey.

"(6) "Common Carrier by Motor Vehicle" means any common carrier who or which holds out or undertakes the transportation of passengers or property or both or any class of passengers or property between points within this Commonwealth by motor vehicle for compensation whether or not the owner or operator of such motor vehicle or who or which provides or furnishes any motor vehicle with or without driver for transportation or for use in transportation of personsor property asaforesaid and shall include common carriers by railwater or air andexpress or forwarding public utilities in so far as such common carriers or such public utilities are engaged in such motor vehicle operations but shall not include (a) a lessor under a lease given on a bona fide sale of a motor vehicle where the lessor retains or assumes no responsibility for maintenance supervision or control of the motor vehicle so sold or (b) any person or corporation who or which provides or furnishes transportation of school children, exclusively or (c) any person or corporation who or which uses or furnishes for use dump trucks for the transportation of ashes rubbish excavated and road construction materials"; also same page, by striking out all of lines 15 to 28 inclusive as follows:

"(7) "Contract Carrier by Motor Vehicle" means any person or corporation who or which provides or furnishes transportation of passengers or property or both or any class of passengers or property between points within this Commonwealth by motor vehicle for compensation whether or not the owner or operator of such motor vehicle or who or which provides or furnishes with or without drivers any motor vehicle for such transportation or for use in such transportation other than as a common carrier by motor vehicle but shall not include (a) a lessor under a lease given on a bona fide sale of a motor vehicle where the lessor retains or assumes no responsibility for maintenance supervision or control of the motor vehicle sold [or] (b) any bona fide cooperative association transporting prop-"; also page 6, by striking out all of lines 1 to 8 inclusive as follows: "erty exclusively for the members of such association on a non-profit basis or (c) any person or corporation who or which provides or furnishes transportation of school children exclusively or (d) any person or corporation who or which uses or furnishs for use dump trucks for the transportation of materials ordinarily used or removed in building operations highway construction or maintenance or in any other construction work".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of this measure.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Indiana, Mr. Stewart, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Speaker, I yield to Mr. Woodside.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of the gentleman how these amendments affect the bill.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, these amendments change the bill to provide that certain common carriers engaged solely in carrying school children, farm products and dump trucks be exempt from the provisions of the act.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill will eliminate a great number of certificated carriers in the state of Pennsylvania. There are a great group of individuals who have paid considerable money, they adhere to the regulations, they provide proper insurance, they maintain proper employe relationship, they have been certificated to transport in dump trucks certain materials. This bill will take away the rights that those individuals have and expose them to cut-throat competition. I think it is a mistake, unless there is a more definite accurate definition of what is meant by road construction material. As the words are used in this act at the present time they denote a tremendous amount of material with the result that the certificated rights of various individuals are completely voided. Under those circumstances I think the House should non-concur and a more accurate definition as to what is meant by road construction materials be included in the act so that to some degree the operation of legitimate dump truckers may be maintained.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill left the House as a very innocent and proper piece of legislation. It comes back keyed to an entirely different purpose. I think the House should understand the inner meaning of this bill before it is passed. It cuts the heart out of the truck regulation policy.

It has another purpose. During recent months the truckers organization has concluded contracts with the Association of Road Contractors, those contracts being based upon the presumption that prevailing rates for using trucks would apply. This bill is an indirect attack upon all those contracts, and is a very useful piece of legislation to anyone who desires to undermine and destroy the truckers union.

Mr. McNALLY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

Mr. SWEENEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken.

Messrs. Lovett, Weiss and Broad asked for a verification of the roll.

SENATE BILL No. 636 RETURNED TO THE HOUSE

The SPEAKER. In accordance with the resolution adopted by this House, the Chair lays before the House, Senate Bill No. 636, Printer's No. 357, which was returned by the Senate for further consideration.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Habbyshaw vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. HABBYSHAW. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, has the majority leader unfortunately run out of holidays? Doesn't he have any more?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, we still have a few more days left. The trouble now is that we have too many bills instead of too many days, so we are getting rid of one of the bills.

Mr. ANDREWS. The same number of days?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Yes, Mr. Speaker, the same number of days.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

BILL LAID ON TABLE

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I move that Senate Bill No. 636 be laid upon the table.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to offer the report of the Committee on Conference on House Bill No. 1423.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

COMMUNICATION

The SPEAKER laid before the House a communication which was read by the Clerk as follows:

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

May 26, 1939

My dear Mr. Ward:

The President has asked me to acknowledge the receipt of the copy of Resolution No. 22 adopted by the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He appreciates your courtesy in sending him this resolution.

Very sincerely yours,

M. H. McINTYRE
Secretary to the President.

Honorable William Ward. Jr.,
Chief Clerk, House of Representatives
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

Mr. LONG. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

Mr. DeNOTE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

COMMITTEE RECORDS

The SPEAKER. Rule 31 of the House requires that all

Committee records be filed with the Chief Clerk upon final adjournment. The Committee Chairmen will therefore comply with the provisions of this rule.

The Chair will read for the information of the House Rule 31:

"Each of said committees shall keep a record or minute of all proceedings before them, which record or minute shall be open for examination by any member of the House or Senate, or upon leave granted by the respective committee to any one. The Committee records shall be filed with the Chief Clerk, upon the final adjournment of the House, to be kept for a period of two years."

So that the Chairmen may understand, all records of Committees shall be delivered to the Chief Clerk's office, and in order that we may have a complete record, the Chair has requested the Chief Clerk's office to give each Committee Chairman a receipt for the records he delivers. This will give us a complete check on all our records for this session.

The bills which were introduced and referred to Committees but not reported by the Committees should be returned. All record books, minute books and any other records kept by the Committees should be delivered to the Chief Clerk's office.

Mr. MELCHIORRE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

BILL ON THIRD READING

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 702, (Senate Bill No. 134), as follows:

An Act requiring certain aliens to register with the Department of Labor and Industry and to carry and upon proper demand to exhibit identification cards prohibiting the issuing of certain registrations and licenses to aliens under certain circumstances and prescribing penalties

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 On or before the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty and during the month of December of the year one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine and of each year thereafter every alien eighteen (18) years or over residing in this Commonwealth who is not a father or mother of a son or daughter who has served in the service of the United States during any war or who has not filed an application declaring his or her intention to become an American citizen or who having filed such application shall not have become naturalized within a period of three years thereafter except such aliens who have resided continuously in the United States since December thirty-first one thousand nine hundred and eight and who have never been convicted of any criminal offense in any court of record shall register with the Department of Labor and Industry on forms to be prescribed and furnished by the department and every such alien becoming resident of this Commonwealth after the first day of January one thousand nine hundred and forty shall in like manner register with the department within thirty days after becoming such resident Such registration shall show the name age address occupation name of employer characteristics of appearance name of wife or husband if any of such alien member names and ages of all children under eighteen (18) residing with him or her and if not his or her own the names of their parents and such other information and details as the department shall direct

Section 3 No Motor Vehicle shall be registered in the name of any alien nor shall any license to operate a motor vehicle be issued to any alien except those exempted under the provisions of section one of this act unless such alien shall exhibit an alien identification card for the current registration period

Section 4 The Department of Labor and Industry shall classify such registration in such manner as shall best serve the purpose of ready reference and shall furnish a copy thereof to the Pennsylvania Motor Police All such records shall be retained for a period of at least three years The department shall have power to make and enforce rules and regulations to carry into effect and enforce the provisions of this act

Section 5 Every alien except those exempted under the provisions of section one of this act over the age of eighteen (18) who has not declared his or her intention to become an American citizen and who fails to register as provided in this act within any of the periods required hereby shall upon summary conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than sixty (60) days or both

Every alien required to be registered who shall fail to carry his or her alien identification card or who shall fail or refuse to exhibit the same when properly required to do so shall upon summary conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than ten dollars ($10.00) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than ten (10) days or both

Section 6 A Summary proceedings under this Act must be commenced by the filing of information before a Justice of the Peace Alderman or a Magistrate which information must be filed in the name of the Commonwealth and within not less than five days nor more than ten days the magistrate Alderman or Justice of the Peace shall send by registered mail to the person charged at the address of such person a notice in writing of the filing of the information together with a copy thereof and a notice to appear within ten (10) days of the date of the written notice If the person named in the information shall not voluntarily appear within ten (10) days of the date of the written notice a warrant may then be issued and may be served by a peace officer having authority to serve warrants

b The peace officer after serving such warrant shall take the defendant before a magistrate within the municipality in which the defendant is found who shall take bail either for the defendant's appearance before the magistrate who issued the warrant or for his appearance for trial in the proper court if a summary hearing is waived

"Section 7" 8 All acts and parts of acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill has been before us for a considerable length of time. I recognize that it is useless at this stage in our proceedings to indulge in a lengthy discussion on any piece of legislation that may come before us and I assure the members I shall not infringe upon the time of this House in discussing this bill. I would like also to assure the members of this House that while I am unalterably opposed to this bill, I trust nothing I shall say will in any way lessen the respect I have for the members of the House or the respect that any of the members of the House may have for me.

I am opposed to this bill because I think it is a challenge to us in three distinct particulars. First of all, Mr. Speaker, this piece of legislation is useless.

Second, the bill is unconstitutional. Third, the bill infringes upon all that is decent and humane in our government.

As to the first challenge that the bill is a useless piece of legislation, I refer the members of this House to our sedition statute of 1919, June 26, P. L. 639, which statute was held constitutional by the Superior Court of Pennsylvania in the case of Commonwealth versus Widovich, et al as reported in 93, Pennsylvania Superior Court, 323, in the year 1928. That sedition statute defines sedition as any writing, utterance or conduct the intent of which is to cause a demonstration of violence against this state or the United States. I say to you, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if the intent of this bill is to create a weapon by which we can attack even those who attack the government, it is useless because we already have legislation which can correct anything if it arises by a writing, utterance or by conduct and how, I ask you, can any other danger arise if it does not arise by a writing, by an utterance or by conduct. Therefore, I think even the members of the House who are for this bill will agree that it will serve absolutely no useful purpose. I might sugguest to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Welsh, who spoke so eloquently on behalf of this bill the other day that before a man can get on our relief rolls or WPA he must state whether or not he is a citizen but there is nothing in this act that has anything to do with relief or WPA.

I say to you members and friends of this House that this bill is a useless piece of legislation.

Coming to the second point which has to do with its constitutionality, I thank the members of the House who were kind enough to delete section 4. I am of the opinion even with section 4 deleted, the bill is still unconstitutional and I would refer you to our Constitution which prohibits us from passing class legislation, which prohibits us from designating one class against another class. I would refer you also to the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States. When this bill was up for passage sometime ago, I called the attention of this House to the fact that the fourteenth amendment of the Constitution of the United States recognizes not only the rights of citizens but recognizes the rights of all human beings. That document says that no person shall be denied equal protection of the law. I call also to your attention that this isn't anything new in Pennsylvania. Acts of this kind have been presented, acts of this kind have been passed in the state of Pennsylvania many times before. I would request you peruse very carefully the acts of this Assembly, and call your attention more particularly to the case of Juniata Limestone Co., Ltd. versus Commissioners reported in 187 Pennsylvania Supreme Court, page 193. In that case the act of Assembly provides that all unnaturalized male persons shall be taxed one dollar before they can work.

I call your attention specifically to the language of the learned Justice of our Supreme Court who on July 21, 1898, made this pronouncement:

> "The act in question clearly belongs to a vicious species of class legislation which too often finds its way into our statute books, and we have no doubt as to its unconstitutionality on both grounds indicated by the learned president of the court below. It has already been adjudged void in the Circuit Court of the United States of the western district of Pennsylvania."

It just goes on to say further:

> "The equal protection of the law as declared by the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution secures to each person within the jurisdiction of a state exemption from any burdens or charges other than such as are equally laid upon all others under like circumstances."

The learned justice further states:

> "Unequal exactions in every form, or under any pretense, are absolutely forbidden, and of course, unequal taxation, for it is in that form that oppressive burdens are usually laid."

What is the wisdom behind this pronouncement of the learned justice of our Supreme Court as handed down July 21, 1898? What does it mean when he says, "The act in question clearly belongs to a vicious species of class legislation"? This learned justice knew that if Pennsylvania is to survive, if our country is to survive, this country must take a lesson from what has happened in other countries in the history of the past. He knew full well that America cannot live, that Pennsylvania cannot live, if it will delegate its powers in the legislature to men and women who will allow a vicious species of legislation to creep into our Commonwealth. He knew what happened in Greece, he knew what happened in Rome, he knew what happened in England, and he foresaw what is happening today in the other countries in the world. Legislation of this type is more responsible for the downfall and the decline of sovereignties than any individual ever dared to be.

I call your attention also to the third part of my argument which challenges this act on the ground that it is not humane. I said on the floor of this House, and I repeat that the question is not that the alien will be hurt, because after he gets his card and goes to work on a job and the sweat from his brow might ruin his card, I presume some provision will be made whereby he can get another card, but the act doesn't say so. I presume if that should happen, he can wipe the sweat off his card and still show to the police that he once had a card. I presume that has been taken care of, but I am not interested so much in that. I am interested in the fact that this bill originates from a species of intolerance which is more detrimental to this government than any other one thing than an alien might be required to carry.

I plead with the members of the House that this bill should not be passed and I also plead with you that this bill should not be defeated. I stand in a unique position in arguing this bill, although I represent the minority, I wonder if the very people, not members of the House, because I do not believe you are aware of the implications of this bill, but the very people who would have you pass this bill are the people who if they could would pass the same bill as to my race. Still I stand here and plead with you not ot defeat the bill. It will do us no good if the bill is defeated, it will do equal harm if the bill is passed. My position is that this bill should either be passed over in its order or it should be laid upon the table. If we do that we can then determine where this bill will engender class hatred, where it will engender religious intolerance. By so doing we will be doing something that is in keeping with the federal government. I say to you that is what we should do with this bill in order to maintain the integrity of this House, to quiet that class hared that has arisen and which this bill is engendering, so that all of us can line up behind the one thing which this Commonwealth needs, which this country needs, that which has been handed down to us throughout the ages. The only thing that can settle alien registration is the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I ask you to either lay this bill on the table or to pass it over in its order and let it die in its own infamy.

The SPEAKER. Will the House give its consent to pass this bill over? Is there objection?

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I object.

The SPEAKER. The Chair hears objection and consent is not granted.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I do not propose to engage in a lengthy discussion on this bill, but in rising to oppose the argument of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, I would like to make a few observations relative to the arguments that were advanced in opposition to it.

As I view the situation there are two things that we should take into consideration, and two things alone from a primary point of view as to whether or not this bill should receive favorable consideration.

In the first place the question arises, is there an occasion which requires this form of legislation? If that question be answered in the affirmative then the bill presently before us for consideration is a constitutional means whereby we propose to enact such legislation.

In regard to the first question, I would like to say, Mr. Speaker, that we have, it is estimated, in this country between eight and nine million aliens. Generally speaking, prior to the World War we were not seriously concerned as to how many aliens were in our midst or who they were. Since that time we have become increasingly concerned as to how many of them are here and who they are. Those aliens who flocked to our shores until comparatively recent times almost without exception came over either because they wished to improve their conditions economically, because they held a deep appreciation for the privileges afforded them by our form of government, or because they were imbued with a desire to contribute to its development. But the picture began to change within the last ten or fifteen years. With the rise in Europe of the Communist, Nazi and Facist forms of government, anti-democratic philosophies began to develop. It is a strange paradox indeed, Mr. Speaker, with which we are today confronted. It is almost unbelieveable that there are men in this day and age who value human freedom so lightly as to become part and parcel of an organized drive to destroy that which they, as a matter of common prudence, should be anxious to cherish most, namely, a democratic form of government. The heads of the aforementioned states have openly expressed their contempt for democracy and have demonstrated on more than one occasion that they meant what they said, as is evidenced by the fate of Czechoslovakia and Albania, to say nothing of the mass slaughter of human beings that has taken place in Russia.

This mad desire to blot out the accomplishments of three centuries of self sacrifice and constructive thought has reared its ugly head, not only in Europe, but right along side of us. It is no secret, Mr. Speaker, that the leaders of this movement as well as their assistants and followers are not citizens of this country. Thus it becomes highly important to us that we know how many aliens there are in this Commonwealth, who they are, and that it be brought home to them in some reasonable manner that they are welcome here only so long as they do not try to force upon us that which we not only do not want but which we flatly refuse to accept.

On the other hand, Mr. Speaker, the supporters of this bill are not mad at anybody, neither do they wish to penalize anybody just because he happens to be an alien, but a situation that needs correction has arisen in our midst because there are aliens here who are or have been responsible for bringing it about. If corrective measures cause some inconvenience to those of the alien population who are not guilty of subscribing to this subversive movement, it is a burden they should be willing to bear for the common good of us all. If they do not wish to or cannot become citizens for any reason, they they should be willing to return whence they came. Mr. Speaker, I raise this question: By what right does any foreigner come into this country and demand that he, in every respect, to the most minute detail, be accorded every consideration equal with native born or naturalized citizens? If you say he possess such rights, then you destroy the incentive to become a citizen because any differentiation between the two could be nothing more than a distinction without a difference.

So much for the first proposition. Relative to whether or not it comes within the provisions of the Constitution of our Commonwealth and the federal Constitution I would like to briefly answer first some of the arguments advanced by Mr. Brown, the gentleman from Allegheny.

I would like to pause long enough to say that there is no members of this House who enjoys my respect more completely than does gentlemen from Allegheny. I presume, Mr. Speaker, every member of this House has a right to have an opinion of his own, that is, if he has a sound basis for his opinion. Mr. Brown is very much exercised as to his own race being descriminated against. It is my opinion that most of the members of his race are very much in favor of this bill and if I am not mistaken I think Mr. Brown practically admitted that in a conversation we had in his presence.

Mr. Brown referred to the Act of 1897 which was declared unconstitutional in the case of Juniata Limestone Company vs. Commissioners. I want to contrast the Act of 1897 with the Act of 1909. In the first instance the case of the Juniata Limestone Company vs. Commissioners, the Supreme Court of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was guided by a railroad rate case. Without undertaking to review that line of cases I will simply point out that the leading one of that group was the City of San Mateo vs. Southern Pacific Railways. Briefly the facts in that particular case were these: there was a provision in the Constitution of the state of California which made a discriminatory tax possible against a railroad company. The provision in the Constitution of the state of California made this distinction between a corporation and an individual, it brought out that a corporation that had a first mortgage on its property could not claim exemption from taxation on that basis, whereas an individual could. Mr. Justice Field in writing the opinion in that particular case pointed out that a corporation is an individual under the Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution just the same as an individual. He bases his opinion on the proposition that there is a provision in the Federal Constitution that taxes must be uniform. It is true in the case of the Limestone Company vs. Commissioners that the court there pointd out that this was an oppressive measure, namely the Act of 1897. The primary reason, Mr. Speaker, that act was declared unconstitutional was because aliens were picked out as a particular class, just as the Southern Pacific Railway Company, as a corporation, was singled out and taxed to the exclusion of those who were individuals. Of course, you could not pick out aliens as a class and levy a tax upon them, that would not be uniform as regards those who are citizens of the country. The court on the question of constitutionality in its opinion made the observation, which to my mind was nothing more or less than a matter of dictum, that oppressive measures against aliens actually come in the form of tax measures. I want to point out that the particular bill under consideration is not a tax measure, it is singularly and particularly nothing more or less than a classification of aliens in our country, not with a view of attacking them but for purpose of classifying them.

I want to refer to the Act of 1909. In the Act of 1909 the Assembly undertook to classify aliens and forbid them from taking game or carrying firearms. The Supreme Court of the United States said that was a reasonable classification. It was felt at that time that the reason for that act was that there was a situation in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that made it undesirable for aliens to be running around armed. By the same token, at this particular time we have quite a lot of aliens in the Commonwealth. As one of the speakers said the other night it requires an expenditure of eight or nine million dollars a year to feed these people. We are not mad at them as I stated a while ago, we have nothing against them at all, but as between aliens and citizens naturally we must consider the citizens first. If these people want to be citizens of the country that is perfectly O. K. We have no objection at all, but we, at least the supporters of this bill, do not propose to turn the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and for that matter the United States, into a foundling asylum for people who happen to be in the unfortunate position that they live in other countries. If they want to come over here and become citizens and are eligible to become citizens, we would not object. As I said on the floor of this House the other night we have leaned over backward trying to meet the objections of those who oppose this bill. We have incorporated three or four amendments. I might go further and say, that those who supported this bill and a goodly number of those who objected to the amendments, pointed out that such amendments should not be placed in the bill, but in order to show that we were acting in good faith we permitted these amendments to be incorporated in the bill.

In the Act of 1909 the Supreme Court pointed out as follows:

> "We start with the general consideration that a state may classify with reference to the evil to be presented, and that if the class descriminated against is or reasonably might be considered to define those from whom the evil mainly is to be feared, it properly may be picked out."

There is the crux of the argument, in my opinion, relative to this particular measure. Is there an evil to be eliminated? We say there is, namely there are a lot of subversive activities going on in this country that have been brought about by people who are aliens and not citizens of this country. That is what we propose to stamp out if possible. If you recall, Mr. Speaker, about ten years ago or so ago—I do not want to be misunderstood in making this observation—we had a very unfortunate situation. The country was being overrun by Communists. It was like Mark Twain's story about the weather, every body was talking a lot about it but nobody was doing anything. Finally the federal government, with the assistance of the Department of Criminal Investigation, commonly called "G-Men." went to work and it is common knowledge to every member of this House that Communists are at a premium today in this country. I do not wish to have it intimated that I consider aliens as Communists. I simply draw that comparison between the situation that arose at that particular time and the situation that now confronts us. If we have in this country aliens who are not fit to be citizens then I say they have no business being here, and as to those aliens who are fit to be citizens, I see no reason why they should object to becoming citizens.

Mr. Speaker, I feel that I have already talked longer than I intended when I arose, but I merely wanted to outline some of the reasons why the supporters of this measure ask the members of the House to support it. I thank you.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Wood, I want to say that I have the greatest respect for Mr. Wood and I hope our mutual admiration will continue even beyond the halls of this House.

May I call his attention to the fact that the court used language like this: "Unequal exactions in every form or under any pretense". That does not mean taxation only, and there is no way by which you can construe the language of the court so to mean. Therefore, I think that he has misled this Assembly when he said it simply is a question of taxation.

In reference to the statement of the gentleman in regard to the right to carry firearms, that is only a privilege. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as has been decided many times by the Supreme Court, has the right to do certain things with privileges that it cannot do with common law rights, and if the gentleman is to justify this act as a privilege he must justify it on the proper exercise of police power of the Commonwealth when he makes that distinction. I ask the members of the House whether or not this can be justified on the question of the proper exercise of the police power.

What is police power? Police power, of course, can be brought into being at any time where there is an evil existing and where the Legislature wishes to crush that evil.

What is the definition of police power? That has been decided by our courts time and time again. Police power as defined is for the protection of the public welfare, peace, safety and morals of the people of the Commonwealth.

Where in this act can police power be brought into play? I call the gentleman's attention to the fact that perhaps some of my race are opposed to this bill, some of them favor it, but that doesn't mean anything. I think some of us here of my own race in a better position to determine what is best for them on the question of legislation. Because some of them might be for this bill does not prove anything at all, for if I recall history rightly many of my people served in the Civil War and no one would say they were justified in keeping themselves in slavery. It may well be that some of them are in favor of this bill. Perhaps many of my own people feel when you are persecuting the alien you are doing them a good act. They do not know, ladies and gentlemen of the House, and perhaps some of those who are in favor of this bill do not know, that history shows us that when within a soverign state there arises that monster of class hatred and of prejudice, whether it is directed now toward one group it will sooner or later be directed toward another group and that is the thing I am trying to obviate.

Just one other answer to the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Wood, which is found in the Constitution of the United States. There is a difference which we all recognize as to citizenship and the Constitution in the fourteenth amendment recognizes it when it says that no state can abridge the rights of a citizen and those rights are the right to vote, the right to hold office and so forth, but when it comes to equal protection of the law the Constitution says in bold language and without equivocation that no citizen has a paramount right over any human being in the equal protection of the law and no state can deny to any person that equal protection of the law.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in asking the members of this House to drop this bill from the calendar or to pass it over, I would like to point out to the gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Wood, that the purposes he seeks to accomplish by this bill are already on the statute books. The Constitution takes care of any attempt to undermine the government either by propaganda, by public utterances or by teachings in the schools, therefore it will not be necessary to pass other legislation when you have that type of legislation already on the statute books.

I believe a bill of this kind should be very repulsive to every member of this House who calls himself a free-born American. While I want it understood, that I have no sympathy for the alien who will not become a citizen, we must be careful in our zest for American patriotism that we do not take the first step in establishing a passport system similar to that used in foreign countries.

In my association with foreign born who have not become citizens, I find that in most cases the requirements to become a citizen have been raised much higher than the requirements to enter the United States. Because it was not until 1917 that literacy was made a requirement for entrance into the United States, and it has only been in the last ten years that immigration quotas have been established. However, our concern is the wide latitude this bill gives and the inconvenience and annoyance citizens of this state will be put to in proving that they are citizens because every man or woman, who bears a name that is Polish, Hungarian, French, German, or Italian, or in fact any name that is not Anglo-Saxon, can be placed in an embarrassing position at the will of any person who may have a grudge against them.

This I believe is a fine tribute to those foreigners who fought shoulder to shoulder with Washington and secured the freedom that we in this House today enjoy. Do you remember reading in your history of Pulaski—the Polish Count who offered his sword to Washington and served as a Brigader General of Dragoons? Count Pulaski, the father of our present day United States cavalry, was wounded in the Battle of Savannah. He died on American soil for American freedom. Kosciusko, the man upon whom George Washington depended, was a man educated in the military school of Warsaw, and it was his advice that Washington relied upon. The Congress of the United States conferred upon him the rank of Major General. DeZielinski? All Poles. Kovats, Slovah, DeKalb and Steuben?—Germans. DeKalb also gave his life to make possible our government of today. DePauw, a Belgian; DuPortail, DeL'Enfant, LaRadiere, Laumoy, and Fleury? All Frenchmen. And that great Frenchman, Lafayette who fitted out a ship at his own expense, served without pay or rank, wounded at Brandywine, was with Washington at Valley Forge—and commanded the Continental Troops in the defense of Virginia against Cornwallis? These are the names, who if they were in Pennsylvania today, if this bill passes, would be viewed with suspicion and no doubt placed under arrest.

Sixty-five per cent of the aliens in Pennsylvania are women. Women who have raised families. The average age of these aliens is fifty-six years. The greater number of them cannot read nor write. They cannot furnish proof of their entry into the United States. In some cases yes, and in most cases, those who are crying the loudest regarding these aliens are the ones who brought them over here on cattle boats and used them in our mills and our mines, worked them like slaves and gave them slave wages. Today, we, the sons and daughters of immigrants, who came to this country due to persecution, now want to persecute. And we call ourselves Americans!

Shall this state build a wall so big around our borders that the rest of the world will forget that this was the state in which the Declaration of Independence, assuring freedom for all, was written? We are the leaders in this form of dictatorship—yes, and we are the state in which the Fricks and the Carnegies amassed fortunes at the hands of the aliens that we now want to persecute.

You will remember the roll call in the halls of Congress, the roll of the soldiers who were sitting in the gallery. They found twenty-seven foreign-born represented in that gallery. Of those twenty-seven none had been naturalized, but they enlisted in the United States army to protect the world for democracy.

You who stand on this floor from time to time and point with pride to the fact that you were a soldier in the World War, do you remember the names of your buddies who fought side by side with you? And, if you do remember their names, you will find among them names representing every foreign country in the world, because regardless of how you try to "dress up" this bill, regardless of all the amendments you place in it, regardless of what is said on the floor of this House, if this bill is passed, every man, woman, and child, who bears a name of foreign origin, will be open to suspicion at all times.

If you believe in persecution, vote for this bill. And if you do, this state will place itself side by side with Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy. Intolerance will then come to the state of Pennsylvania, one of the original thirteen, a state founded by William Penn as a haven from persecution.

I ask the members of this House to go along with the request of Representative Brown, to pass this bill over or drop it from calendar, because it has no place on the calendar of the Legislature of the state of Pennsylvania, the state that took the lead in creating a home for those who were persecuted in foreign countries.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am going to do something that I intended not to do during this session, but I think an opportunity has arisen to call a specific matter to the attention of this House.

Personally I should be for the bill for selfish reasons, because I want to call the attention of the members of this House to one thing and that is that aliens in Pennsylvania and in America are the people who get jobs and positions that certain citizens cannot get.

I would like to call the attention of the members of the House to this fact. Let us take the Bell Telephone company, for example; no Negro though he is a citizen can get a job with that Company, although an alien can. All down the line the aliens take jobs that first class American citizens could otherwise get. Therefore if I were absolutely selfish I would take the position to drive all aliens out of America so that the people of my race could get jobs which they cannot now get.

Senator Robert Taft, speaking at the Howard University two or three months ago made this observation, that black men ought to have the opportunity to keep the bread which their hands have earned and he made this further observation, that they should have the opportunity to earn bread to eat. I am absolutely positive, my friends, that all of us who have been criticizing colored people as being shiftless and lazy and no good should take heed of this one observation.

I think this is the opportunity for me to make this observation on the floor of this House, that it is unfair to call the colored people, members of my race, shiftless and lazy and desirous of being on WPA merely to shift onto the relief rolls when at the same time custom and discrimination make it impossible for them to earn a decent living. If I were absolutely selfish, I repeat, my friends. I would be for this bill but because I am not selfiish, because I believe in tolerance, because I belong to a presecuted group, I appeal to the membership of this House if Pennsylvania and America are to succeed we must be tolerant and with that thought in mind I am in favor of the request made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown.

Mr. LLOYD H. WOOD. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I just want to make this brief observation in reply to the statement made by Mr. Rhodes.

It has only been a few weeks ago that the presence of a certain class of foreigners has become objectionable in this country, and under the Japanese Exclusion Act they were forbidden to enter the country. Therefore, I want to say, Mr. Speaker, it looks to me as though, if the situation continues as it is now, it will not be for the Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to speak but the Congress of the United States is going to speak and limit the number of foreigners that come to our shores.

Mr. KANE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I was inclined to support the request of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, and remarks of the last speaker clinched my determination in that respect. I think that is absolutely the thing that should be done if something has to be done, for the Congress of the United States which represents the whole American people to pass such laws as need to be passed, if any, in regard to the alien situation. I want to call to the attention of the House the fact that at the time this bill was intrdouced originally by the Senator, there was a good deal of propaganda around the country and many of us felt we were on the verge of war. That has subsided, fortunately and today a great many people believe that the war clouds of Europe have rolled away. I don't think the situation is as tense as it was.

Furthermore, Mr. Speaker, it seems to me under this bill, if a similar bill to this were passed, let us say, in the state of Colorado, some of us who might happen to have foreign names and were out there, and our right of citizenship was challenged and the question of whether we were aliens was brought up, we might have a very difficult time proving whether we were aliens or not.

I want to say further to the members of the House that of all the vicious propaganda the American people have undergone to their detriment in the past, the most vicious was sponsored by those with names like mine and yours, which was very detrimental to the British Empire—and which is most difficult to deny—was successful because they look like us, they talk like us but they got us into the European War. For twenty years, members of the House, we have been trying to figure out who started that war and we don't know yet, but we do know that many of our neighbors and friends sleep today beneath the fields of France on account of the very successful propaganda campaign that was carried on in this country by people who did not look like foreigners, who did not act like foreigners, but who did not talk like Americans. I remember, Mr. Speaker, at that time the feeling was so great that because I was willing to state that the German people might have some good points, people said I was a pro-German and all that sort of thing, I was not.

I want to remind the members of this House that the propaganda in these matters sometimes comes from the most unpredictable sources and it might be well to remember that it was the British we fought in 1776, it was the British we fought in 1812, it was the British who would have fought us at the time of the Civil War by recognizing the Confederate States had the army of Lee not been driven back at Gettysburg.

I want to say further that were it not for the public pressure that has been brought by organized groups, if the membership of this House would vote their own convictions their statement would be this:

"We are not sure how we feel about this thing but we are rather inclined to vote against it". The membership of this House should vote their own convictions on this question and if they are not certain, I say, Mr. Speaker, when there is a reasonable doubt as to the value of legislation, the membership of this House should not pass it. I therefore support this request and suggest that the law upon this subject, if necessary, be passed by the Congress of the United States, which has the exclusive right to determine this question, and it is the only body that has the proper machinery for keeping aliens in line. I ask the members of the House who are as uncertain as I am about the virtue of this legislation to support this request.

Mr. ROSENFELD was given consent to have the following remarks extended on the record.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House: I rise to speak against this bill which if enacted will be a plague on the Commonwealth. In speaking against it, I must ask—how many of the Representatives here have stopped to really analyze the bill, or have given any real thought to what possibilities of good and evil are contained in it?

I ask these questions for a very good reason. For unless you do think seriously along these lines, you are apt to pass over the very real dangers behind this bill. The bill seems harmless enough and many of you may think it rather unimportant, so that if it is passed by some, the rest will not fight it too strongly. But, gentlemen, I want to impress upon you the fact that this bill is a dangerous one—and the danger it presents is a serious and important one.

However, before presenting the dangers of the bill, I want you to ask yourselves a question—what good will this bill accomplish? It seems to me that the proponents of any new law have the burden of establishing that the proposed law will accomplish positive good for the people of the Commonwealth, and further, that it will not cause such harm as to counterbalance the good. It is not enough to say that a proposed law will not cause harm, and therefore why object to it. Our function is not to enact laws which are merely not harmful—our function is to enact laws which create positive good which does not exist without the proposed law, or prevent harm which does exist without the proposed law.

What good does this proposed law create? I can preceive of none—and I have heard of none. Certainly, the five dollar registration fee that each alien must pay cannot be considered as a revenue raiser—although it will be a eral hardship for many to pay it. And if it isn't a revenue raiser, I can see no positive good created by this bill.

Nor do I understand what harm it will prevent that present laws cannot adequately cope with. Are we to say that it will help enforcement of the criminal laws? But there is no basis for saying that the alien criminal needs legislation. Our ordinary criminal laws are certainly adequate—as adequate for the non-citizen as for the citizen. Furthermore, making aliens register will not make it easier to detect or convict the alien criminal. Indeed, if it did, the alien criminal would not register and would probably equip himself with false indicia of citizenship.

No—no matter how we approach the question, there seems to be no purpose affecting the general welfare. It bestows no new benefits on the people of this Commonwealth nor does it remove any dangers. It has no basis as a revenue measure, a police measure, or any other kind of measure. It fails to meet the fundamental requirement of new legislation—that it accomplish good or prevent evil for the people. In short, it has no positive features, and therefore, for this reason alone, should be voted down.

However, there are even more compelling reasons for not allowing this bill to become law. Gentlemen, this bill, seemingly so harmless, so unobjectionable, strikes at the very basis of American freedom. I want to ask you this question: How many of you would vote for a bill requiring everyone—citizen as well as non-citizen—to carry official identification papers at all times, to be shown to any police officer upon request? I dare say that all of you would bitterly oppose such a bill. Indeed, I am certain that no legislator of this Commonwealth would ever introduce one. The heritage which is so dear to all Americans—the heritage documented in our Bill of Rights —is our most cherished possession. We would refuse to be tagged with a number—we would refuse to wear "dog-licenses," or even to carry them in our pockets.

Well, gentlemen, if you vote for this bill you are indirectly voting for such universal "dog-licensing"; of all the people of Pennsylvania. I know that the Act requires only that aliens register and wear "dog-licenses"; but it can be used against everyone. Section 2 of the Act provides that the alien who registers "....shall receive an alien identification card which he or she shall carry at all times and shall exhibit upon demand by any police officer or agent of the Department of Labor and Industry displaying evidence of his authority."

Section 7 provides ".... Every alien required to be registered who shall fail to carry his or her alien registration identification card or who shall fail or refuse to exhibit the same when properly required to do so shall upon summary conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than ten dollars ($10.00) or to undergo imprisonment for not more than ten days or both."

In other words, if a policemen demands it, an alien must show his alien registration card. But suppose a policeman walks over to a citizen and demands that he show his alien registration card? What is that citizen to do? He can insist that he is not an alien. But if the police officer doesn't believe him, what good will his insistence do? He can and will be taken to jail, and then he—the citizen—has the burden of proving that he is not an alien. And this isn't always so easy to do. Perhaps the citizenship papers have been mislaid. Or, perhaps he was born in the United States, but he can't get a birth certificate, because there was no Bureau of Vital Statistics recording the births in the town he was born in at the time of his birth. Furthermore, ability to obtain proof of citizenship does not prevent arrest and detention in the first instance. Therefore, every citizen had better arm himself with some official document proving his citizenship—or run the risk of being arrested for not carrying an alien registration card.

These false arrests of citizens will be plentiful merely because of honest mistakes by policemen. But the possibilities of intentional abuse of this Act are overwhelming. And, if we are to be wise legislators, we must always examine the dangers of an abusive application of an Act. Can't you see what a remarkable strike-breaking weapon it is? Just have a "friendly" policeman demand that the picket leaders show their alien registration cards. When they fail to show them—because they are citizens, and don't need them—they are arrested. Oh, yes, they will be released eventually—after they've established their citizenship. But meanwhile—goodbye picket line—and goodbye strike. It can also be used effectively in any case where you want someone put out of the way for a short while—like a political worker in an opposing party, on election day, especially in those districts where there are many foreign-born workers; or a speaker at a rally that you want to break up; and so on. All you need is a co-operative policeman.

The power that this Act gives the individaul policeman is tremendous—he is the one to be satisfied. Let him but insist that you are an alien, and you must produce on alien registration card, or convince him that you are a citizen. And if he doesn't want to be convinced—you are under arrest. He's always on safe ground—he "thought" you were an alien.

Getlemen, I repeat—this act will make it necessary, as a matter of self-protection, for every citizen to carry some official proof of his citizenship, especially if he happens to be foreign born.

Gentlemen, here is regimentation, here is un-Americanism, here is the beginning of a system of concentration camps. Here is the beginning of a "Heil Hitler" every morning and every night—with a few thrown in during the day for good measure. I have heard it said that while there are any men in wrongful bondage, none can be safe. I believe that. And therefore I say to you that needless regulation of the alien is but the beginning of regulation of the citizen.

There is another point that I wish to make—and to stress. I take my Americanism seriously, both the letter and the spirit of it. And it is my sincere belief that regulation of law-abiding people, citizens or non-citizens, is contrary to the entire spirit of American individual liberty. We have in our Commonwealth today same aliens who are fugitives from the tyranny of their homelands. They, like us, are true lovers of democracy. They are now receiving the benefits of an American asylum—waiting until their native lands are again fit for freedom-loving people to live in. Are we to say to them, "We will allow you to remain, but only if, like our dogs, you are 'licensed' "? Is that to be the meaning of our American asylum? Is that how we are to prevent our hospitality and our traditions?

Perhaps some will argue, "Then let them become citizens". Have those who so argue stopped to think that under our present laws many of these aliens cannot become citizens—though no fault of their own, but because of technicalities, such as the cancellation of their passports by their former governments? And, furthermore, do we want to compel people to become citizens? I say no—only those who freely and voluntarily embrace citizenship do we want as citizens. And to the others, prosecuted fugitives from mad governments, who are awaiting the return of sanity and humanity to their homelands, I say so long as they obey our laws—welcome. Our federal government, which alone governs entry and deportation of aliens, admitted them. I say that Pennsylvania must not through indirect means usurp a power which it does not have, either legally or morally. We have no lagal or moral right to deport aliens—we therefore must not hound them out.

In summary, I wish to repeat, that there is neither reason nor justice in this bill. It accomplishes nothing beneficial for the people of this Commonwealth; it brings them no good, it relieves them of no evil. It is merely an attempt to reduce to shameful servility those who are aliens—to place them in a position to be pointed out and hounded. And in so doing—in the regimentation of this small group—it regiments all the people of the Commonwealth. Today, it makes it necessary to at all times carry citizenship papers or birth certificates. If this bill passes, who knows what tomorrow will bring?

Gentlemen, as Americans, our duty is to extend liberty, not to restrict it. As true Americans, (as the really liberty loving legislators that I know you all to be)—vote down this bill!

Mr. MUNLEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to call the attention of the members of the House to the fact that they are now voting on the question of the final passage of Senate Bill 134, House Bill 702, Printer's No. 376.

Mr. ANDREWS. The Chair is misinformed.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the membership of the House. The Chair is in error.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, my motion was to pass this bill over.

The SPEAKER. The Chair did not understand it as a motion to pass the bill over. The gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, asked that the bill be passed over. Mr. Wood, the gentleman from Montgomery, objected. The Chair therefore was under the impression there was no motion before the House, and the question was on the final passage of the bill.

The Chair would suggest, if the gentleman from Allegheny desires to make a motion, it be a motion to postpone or lay upon the table.

MOTION TO DROP BILL FROM CALENDAR

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be dropped from the calendar.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. AUKER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I will ask my colleagues in the House to vote down this motion.

Mr. BOYD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House?

On the question recurring.

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Homer S. Brown and Mr. Tronzo and were as follows:

So the question was determined in the negative and the motion was not agreed to.

(Following the calling of the roll and before the result was announced.)

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire how the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Denman, is recorded.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Denman, is not recorded.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. TAYLOR. Is not a member in his seat required to vote one way or the other?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Dauphin is correct. The gentleman must vote unless excused by the House.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, has any Speaker of any House ever enforced that ruling?

The SPEAKER. The Parliamentarian has precedents that go back beyond the Chair's time. The Chair knows of no time when the Chair enforced it unless the House enforced it.

Mr. ANDREWS. Has there been any occasion when the House enforced it?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is under the impression that he recalls times when it has been enforced.

POINT OF ORDER

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cambria will state his point of order.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, my point of order is that the House is practically without constitutional authority to compel a member to vote. The precedent of the National House is that the National House is without constitutional authority to compel a member to vote.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will withdraw his statement. The Chair will read rule 71 for the information of the House:

> "Every member shall be present within the Hall of the House during its sittings, unless excused by the House, or necessarily prevented, and shall vote for or against each question put, unless he has a direct personal or pecuniary interest in the determination of such question, or unless he be excused by the House."

The Chair would inquire of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Denman, whether he desires to be excused from voting.

Mr. DENMAN. Mr. Speaker, as a lawyer I recognize that this question comes solely within the jurisdiction of the federal government of the United States. For that reason I desire to be excused from voting.

The SPEAKER. Will the House excuse the gentleman from voting?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Monroe will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, has any member of this House requested the gentleman to vote at the moment?

The SPEAKER. The Chair's recollection is that no member has requested the gentleman from Westmoreland to vote. The inquiry was whether he had voted, and then the inquiry as to whether he was required to vote.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in my assumption that there is nothing before the House but to advise the House as to the result of the roll call?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that that is correct, except that before the result was announced the question arose as to how a member had voted which it seems to the Chair is a proper inquiry.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, am I correct in assuming that the only thing that occurred was the question directed to the Chair as to whether or not a member was compelled to vote?

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. And the question as to whether any member did or did not exercise that right was not raised?

The SPEAKER. The question was raised by the gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, as to whether we had a constitutional right to compel a member to vote.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. But, Mr. Speaker, the question was not raised in relation to a member either failing to vote or having exercised that privilege.

The SPEAKER. That is correct.

The Chair would inquire of the gentleman from Cambria whether he has any further questions.

Mr. ANDREWS. No, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. DENMAN. Mr. Speaker, since the majority party desires to stick its chin out on the measure—

The SPEAKER. The Chair cannot recognize the gentleman from Westmoreland for the purpose of debate. The Chair can only recognize the gentleman for the purpose of recording his vote. The Chair recognizes the gentleman for that purpose.

Mr. DENMAN. Mr. Speaker, my vote is "no."

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will be recorded as voting "no."

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. TRONZO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, This Alien Registration— or "Why-the-'ell-didn't-you-come-over-in-the-Mayflower" measure seems to have the unanimous support of most of the legislators of lineage. But in spite of that moot virtue, there is something about this measure that smells to high heaven.

This legislative brat was born in the darkness of the night, for the reason that it couldn't stand the searching glare of the morning sun; and it has been fostered, ever since, in the shadows of the infested moats of human discord, nurtured in the atmosphere of intolerance, and utter disregard for democratic institutions.

The sponsor of this "Suspect-and-Hate-your-neighbor" measure, the father of this "Hymn of Hate," apparently knew exactly what he was about when he presented this token of his limited affections to this legislative body. A check on his background, and on some of his associates back in Allegheny County would leave no doubts in your minds as to why he sired such a hideous rascal. Though he fathered it, and gave it life, and then kept it alive by forcing into its nostrils the hot-air of race superiority, this brain storm is your gorilla now. Do with it what you will. Pass it if you so desire; even brag about having done it, to your friends and tell them how you jammed it down our throats.

And then, in the none-to-distant future, some quiet day, when you find yourself in close communion with your Maker; and your Christian spirit dominates over you, away from this hysteria of hate, in quiet, peaceful meditation, you associate the kingdom of God with the Brotherhood of Man, then a sense of shame, and possibly disgust will come over you but then it will be too late.

Mr. VAN BELLE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

Mr. SEIF. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I expect to vote in favor of this bill but I was not entirely enthused about it, it being a controversial matter, until I listened to the learned and cultured gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo.

It seems to me this is a question of a practical nature. First of all the primary biological urge is the urge for self-preservation. That is true with nations as well as individuals. Back in Revolutionary War days and prior to the Civil War, this was a great broad and wide country with possibilities for all; we welcomed immigrants, but as a practical matter the situation has changed. There is no use hidding our heads in the sand like ostriches. The ability of this conutry to absorb indefinite and innumerable immigrants is getting to the breaking of tensile strength at this time.

Over in Europe we know an alien has to have a passport, he has to walk around the streets with a red light, so to speak, he has to check in at every post office, every police precinct. If it is necessary there, if it has worked out there, if it is imposed upon any alien that goes from this country to a European country, it seems only reasonable that we should have the very harmless and reasonable requirements suggested by this act. I don't mean to say we should copy Europe, but I do say the same economic situation, the same political situation that exists in Europe we feel to some extent here. The point is simply that these people have come over here, are taking away our jobs, are keeping native born and naturalized citizens from opportunities which the people in this country need and require.

The gentleman from Montgomery, Mr. Wood, has stated that we are not angry with anybody and we don't hate anybody. This is a practical matter and I think it is constitutional, because under the police power we have the right to protect our morals, safety and health, and these people who come over here are not interested in anyone but themselves and their own. It seems to me there is no occasion for us to be maudlin in supporting this bill.

Mr. REAGAN. Mr. Speaker, and ladies and gentlemen of the House, we have heard a great deal of sympathy wasted, it seems to me, on the alien but very little has been said in reference to the straitened conditions of the American citizens who have to keep them and whose jobs he takes. This is only protecting ourselves which every nation does.

Only about ten days ago we had on our desks a report from Secretary Russell to the effect that forty-four thousand aliens had been on our relief rolls during the month of March. Something ought to be done about a condition such as this. We hear a lot about the great hardship we are working on these aliens. What does this bill do? They have to register. Every citizen of the state of Pennsylvania has to register in order to vote and every time I come down here I have to register at the hotel and I imagine every other member must do the same thing. We require barbers to register and almost every form of employment to register in some shape or other, and then he has to carry a card. I believe every man in this House carrys a card of some description, his automobile card, his insurance cards, his House of Representatives card and his business card. That is not such a terrible hardship as I see it. Then he has to pay one dollar and during the time he has lived here it is doubtful whether he has ever paid any tax unless he ownes some tangible real estate. That one dollar is insignificant and of course, there are penalties, not very severe penalties it is true, but the real penalty it seems to me and which he wishes to avoid is to become an American citizen. I ask the members of the House to vote for the bill.

Mr. SWEENEY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think behind this bill is a very good thought and a very good purpose. It appears to me from reading the bill that the ones sponsoring this bill are not going to accomplish their purpose, they will only accomplish the exact opposite.

This bill requires an alien to either register or file an application for citizenship. In other words, if he has filed an application for citizenship he doesn't have to register. Now, let us look at the mind of the alien. After this bill is passed, what is he going to do? He is going to say to himself, "Am I going to pay one dollar per year or file an application for citizenship, which will have to be renewed?" If he is eligible and capable he will apply for citizenship and if he is naturalized he will not be a good citizen. We are forcing people to become citizens, giving them the right to vote and enjoy the privileges of citizenship who don't want to become citizens. I think we are going to accomplish just the opposite from what we want to accomplish. In the first place we deleted Section 4 which required that a person who did not have a card would not be able to be employed. A man can't secure a job without a card and what is his employer going to do? He is going to question him as to his citizenship, and what is every man who wants a job or even drives an automobile going to do? He is going to apply for citizenship, not because he believes in the principles of this country, but so he can drive an automobile and get a position. I think we are going to accomplish the direct opposite from what we expect to accomplish, and I feel we ought to vote against this bill.

Mr. McLANE. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

Mr. O'NEILL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Speaker I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

REASONS FOR VOTE

Mr. KANE offered the following reasons for his vote:

Mr. Speaker, I voted "aye" on Senate Bill No. 134 after supporting a motion to recommit. I believe the bill is badly drawn and of doubtful value. The able speech of Mr. Reagan has helped to convince me that the bill imposes no undue hardship on the alien as compared either with many registrations required of citizens in this country and does not compare with the burdens placed upon our citizens while abroad by foreign countries. It can be amended later if it is unworkable. I believe a federal law would be far better. We have passed and considered various laws requiring citizenship as a qualification and I see no real reason why aliens should not register.

Mr. MORAN filed the following reason for his vote:

Mr. Speaker, I voted "Aye" on Senate Bill No. 134, alien registration, because I believe this measure should be ruled on by the courts as to whether this measure is constitutional or not.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair is about to declare a recess until 2 p. m. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and declares a recess until 2 p. m.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 2 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) in the Chair.

HOUSE BILL NO. 199 TAKEN FROM TABLE

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 199, together with the communication from the Governor, which was laid upon the table be taken from the table.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker, I do not have the bill before me and I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hamilton, if he will explain the contents of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hamilton, explain the bill to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Reynolds.

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Ominsky.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker, House Bill 199 is a validating act which validates the levy which the special session of 1938 passed for first class school districts.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

The Clerk read the communication as follows:

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 199.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 5, 1939.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed a resolution of the House of Representatives and Senate recalling from the Governor House Bill No. 199, Printer's No. 57, for the purpose of further consideration.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

ARTHUR H. JAMES.

Mr. ACKERMANN. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Allegheny rise?

Mr. ACKERMANN. Mr. Speaker, for the purpose of presenting amendments.

The SPEAKER. The Chair advises the gentleman that amendments cannot be offered at this time. The vote by which the bill passed finally must first be reconsidered.

MOTION TO RECONSIDER VOTE

Mr. ACKERMANN. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. TERRY. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Ackermann, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. ACKERMANN. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

The SPEAKER. How did the gentleman from Wyoming, Mr. Terry, vote on the final passage of this bill?

Mr. TERRY. Mr. Speaker, I voted in the majority.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was not agreed to.

RESOLUTION

RETURNING HOUSE BILL NO. 199 TO GOVERNOR

Messrs. OMINSKY and HAMILTON offered the following resolution which was twice read.

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Resolved, That House Bill No. 199, Printer's No. 57, entitled "An act to confirm and validate past tax levies or assessments made by school districts of the first class and liens filed thereon, be returned to the Governor without amendment.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ACKERMANN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to speak briefly on this resolution.

I wish to say that the taxpayers of Pittsburgh felt, and rightfully so, that while the act did help Philadelphia, it should not be adopted by the school board of Pittsburgh. There was no need for this Ruth bill in Pittsburgh, because the Pittsburgh Board of Education has been operating on a balanced budget. The school board of Pittsburgh did, however, take advantage of the act by placing an extra one mill tax on the taxpayers, in spite of having a balanced budget. Consequently a taxpayers suit is now in progress in Pittsburgh. Vitally interested in this suit are the Pittsburgh Real Estate Board, the Allied Board of Trade, the Allegheny County Real Estate Owners, the Taxpayer's League, the Downtown Parking Association, Allegheny County League of Building and Loan Associations, the Home Builders Association and others. This means, Mr. Speaker, that twenty-five per cent of the total taxable value of the city of Pittsburgh, in other words, twenty-five per cent of the taxable value in Pittsburgh is concerned in this suit. The Pittsburgh Board of Public Education, on January 24, 1939, adopted the following resolution:

> "Whereas, the validity of the tax levy for 1939 has been questioned in certain proceedings now pending in the courts, and taxpayers are concerned as to their right to secure refunds in case the validity of the tax levy is not sustained,
> "Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved, that if it should hereafter be finally determined that any portion of the tax levy for 1939 is illegal and not properly collectible, then if the illegality be not removed, the Board will refund to any taxpayer who has paid his tax for the current year so much of the amount so paid as shall be in excess of the tax which could legally have been levied."

Therefore, Mr. Speaker, I ask the members of the House, in view of this plea from the citizens of Pittsburgh, the taxpayers representing twenty-five per cent of the total taxable value in the city of Pittsburgh, the ones who have to pay twenty-five per cent of the tax levied in Pittsburgh, on their behalf I plead with this House to vote "No" on this resolution.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, House Bill 199 passed finally in this House on March 21, 1939, by a vote of 203 to 0 and it passed the Senate on March 29, by a vote of 42 to 2. It was recalled from the Governor on April 5 and was laid on the table at that time. If there were any changes to be made to this bill, they should have been made previous to this time, and since this is the last legislative day we cannot jeopardize the passage of this bill now.

It seems to me the important thing to consider is that if this validating act is not passed, it may throw out of balance the budgets of both the Pittsburgh and Philadelphia school districts. Therefore I ask that this resolution be adopted.

Mr. ACKERMANN. I wish to say, Mr. Speaker, although House Bill 199 did pass this House, it was recalled from the Governor specifically for the purpose of amendment, because the sponsor of the bill knew I had these amendments to offer. I told him about them but it was not called up until the eleventh hour. Therefore I again plead with the House to vote "no" on this resolution.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I am not so much interested in the question of the school board as I am in the dangerous precedent that would be set by the passage of this act.

I am interested in the taxpayers and I am interested in the school board, and I find myself in a quandary as to what to do in this situation. It does not seem to me if the Legislature of Pennsylvania begins to pass validating acts that will wipe out suits that have been brought in our courts, we are going to have a break down of the three divisions under our democratic form of government. It does seem to me that we ought to consider carefully before we take this step.

My interest in opposing this resolution is because I believe the Legislature should not interfere with those who have gone into court, who have had their cases determined by the court and before the court can render a decision, the Legislature steps in and wipes out all of the judicial pronouncements that have been made.

There has been raised the question as to whether or not this validating act will wipe out the suit that has been filed in the city of Pittsburgh in reference to the recovery of taxes levied under the 1938 act, and that is my primary interest. I cannot believe, and I have taken this position ever since I have been in the Legislature, that any branch of government, whether it be the Executive, Legislative or Judicial, should interfere with the other branches, and my position is that the Legislature should not exercise that power in order to defeat the other arm of the government, the Judiciary.

I call the members' attention to the case reported in 57 Pennsylvania Supreme Court 433, in which the same question was raised, wherein it was thought that inasmuch as the Legislative branch of the government was distinct from the Judicial, that perhaps a validating act would not wipe out a suit that was then pending in court. Our Supreme Court had this to say on the subject. I am quoting from the case of Grim versus Weissenberg School District as follows:

> "If the Legislature has antecedent power to authorize a tax, it can cure by a retroactive law, an irregularity or want of authority in levying it, though thereby a right of action which had been vested in an individual should be divested."

It is perfectly clear that by the passage of this validating act you wipe out any right that may have accrued to the individuals who have filed this suit in Pittsburgh. This suit was filed in Pittsburgh on December 28, 1938, and now the Legislature is going to wipe out the right of those litigants to have their cases determined by the court. Again I say the Legislature should not decide this constitutional right in order to interfere with the other branch of the government, the Judicial.

Mr. YEAKEL. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

Mr. KOWALSKI. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Ackermann and Mr. Stewart and were as follows:

ADDRESS BY MR. HINDMAN

Mr. HINDMAN asked and obtained consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, there are some matters which in the course of duty are rather unpleasant and I assure you in the present instance it is not without some hesitation that I shall make some of the statements I am about to make.

During all my life, as a practitioner of medicine, I have always hesitated to criticize a member of the profession, and I assure you, Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen, that when I do so, I only do so in the best interests of the individual or group of individuals, that great group of patients with which we have come in contact.

If I were called into consultation to see an individual who we will say has a very serious condition and I did not agree with the diagnosis which has been made by the physician in charge, I would disagree with him if I felt it was to the best interest, and indeed in a great many cases, in the interest of the life of that patient. I always in such circumstances do that with as much courtesy toward the physician with whom I have consulted as it is possible but in no instance would I try to cover up a man whom I felt had made a grievous error.

Ladies and gentlemen of this House, I rise to answer a statement which was given out by the Department of Health in response to the resolution presented by Dr. Sarraf and myself the response to which was so long delayed and which we had so much difficulty in procuring. I will say, so far as Dr. Shaw, head of the Department of Health is concerned, he is a gracious, affable gentleman and I am very sorry indeed to feel that I must in this instance disagree with him professionally. I do feel, ladies and gentlemen, that the Department of Health has not been fair in the instance of which we are speaking and I will say to the members of this House that just after the budget had been made public, that very week I called up the Department of Heatlh and requested that information be given regarding the tuberculosis situation in the state of Pennsylvania, and I was assured that it would be made available the following day. This is the first time I have made a request of any department and have not received a report. I was assured by those in charge of the Department that it would be made available the following day but I have not received it.

I hold in my hand a report received from the head of the Department of Health of the state of Pennsylvania in response to our resolution. The report contains exactly 141 words. It certainly is a very cursory report and does not go into the situation at all. In the third paragraph of the report is a statement that reads:

> "With no vacant beds now available in the Pennsylvania Department of Health institutions, the completion of the building program at Mt. Alto and Hamburg, October 1, 1939, will take care of this waiting list."

I wish to thank the members of this House for the courtesy and consideration I have always received in previous talks when I was trying to give information regarding matters pertaining to health. I assure you, I have always tried to give you the facts and that is exactly what I am trying to do here.

I feel, Mr. Speaker and members of he House, that the statement made by Dr. Shaw that the tubercular cases in the state will be taken care of by October 1st is unfair, untrue, misleading and unwarranted by the facts.

I charge that Dr. Shaw has given the Governor a wrong steer regarding the tuberculosis situation. I am convinced if the administration had been given the true picture of this situation in the beginning, this long and lamentable controversy would never have occurred. His Excellency the Governor and his administration would have been spared the very unenviable and embarrassing position in which they find themselves today.

I charge that under the present administration the long and progressive line of achievements of the Department of Health, in which we have had a great deal of pride, is being reversed. We are slipping backwards. I warn the members of this House if there is any place under the sun where politics will not work it is in the Department of Health.

Let us view the achievements of the Department under the supervision and direction of former directors of the Department of Health covering a long period of years. I submit to you, ladies and gentlemen, all except one of them was under Republican administrations, and I submit to you in all fairness that I cannot be charged with injecting politics into this.

I refer to the administrations of Dr. Samuel Dixon, Dr. Theodore Appel, Dr. Edith MacBride Dexter. Ladies and gentlemen of this House, through the efforts of the Department, in conjunction with the medical men of the state, we have witnessed the elimination of small pox in the state; the all but elimination of typhoid fever and diphtheria. We have witnessed the death toll of infants and young children from gastrointestinal condition reduced to almost a minimum, as well as many other achievements which time will not permit me to mention. Oh! my friends, in the light of this wonderful history of achievement, are we going to sit idly by and fiddle while Rome burns, and permit the tuberculosis victims of the state to die from lack of attention because the Department of Health has made a mistake.

I submit to you that a great deal of missionary money is sent to foreign lands for medical missionaries. I am sure a good place to send medical missionaries would be to the Department of Health of Pennsylvania.

I submit to you that during this controversy, to my knowledge, there has not been one single denial by any medical authority as to the position which I have taken regarding this situation in previous talks nor has there been any denial by any set of medical men in Pennsylvania as to any one of my various talks at different times regarding this situation.

I have here a letter from Dr. A. M. Williams, which was written to me on April 16, 1939. I would not bother you with this letter, but I do feel in view of what has happened in this particular case it is important that I should give you this information. Dr. Williams wrote to me as follows:

"Dear Doctor:

"I want to call to your attention the case of (Mr. Albino Mitchell), age 40, of Bulger, Pa. who has been on the waiting list for entrance to a state tuberculosis sanitorium since December 1938. This man at that time definitely curable but has reached a stage of decline that he is much less a potentially curable case. I have never given much thought to the lack of beds for these cases until I found this case and one other in circumstances so grave that they should be rated emergency. These people are helpless. They endanger other healthy beings. There is only one thing that will help these poor unfortunate persons and that is adequate nursing care in a sanatorium. Useless millions have and still are being spent for worthless projects. Worthwhile projects such has housing tuberculosis patients are relegated to the back ground. In my opinion this is legal murder. I know that you as a physician will do every thing in your power to care for these patients, and I hope that a year from now or even sooner as soon as a diagnosis of tuberculosis is made there won't be such a thing as a waiting list. I will appreciate any help you give to admit Mr. Mitchell as soon as possible.

"Very truly yours,
A. M. WILLIAMS"

This Mr. Mitchell of whom the doctor speaks, died on May 3 of this year. He had been on the waiting list, and strange as it may seem, he was scheduled for admission on May 18. I took the matter up with the Department of Health. This same doctor had requested that this man be admitted and was told that he would be given a place.

Just to indicate to you the wide implications of this subject, last Thursday evening I was called down here to the entrance of this House and found a man there, one of the miners from a surrounding district who was ill, who was asthmatic, who apparently had Miners' Asthma and was sticken there with a hemorrhage of the lung. He was a tuberculosis patient, and I submit to you that the good Lord only knows how many people that man come in contact with during the day that he was overcome down here and during the preceding days, because he evidently had been affected for some time. It is of great importance, that such cases be removed from circulation in order that your families and my family and even you and I, if you please, may not be exposed to this disease. That is why I am making this plea, and the only reason why I am making this plea.

Let me recapitulate, and in so doing I stand willing and ready to disprove any and all of the reasons given for not opening the Butler Sanitorium when completed. Cold facts prove that the reasons given are nothing short of ridiculous. First, patients can be adequately cared for in the present Sanitorium; second, to occupy the Sanitorium at this time would be an unjustifiable expense; third, by October 1, all cases will be taken care of; fourth, in a recent news item purportedly emanating from the Governor's office the claim was made that this Sanitorium was located in a swamp and that thousands of dollars would be required for drainage. I did not believe this when it was called to my attention, but in order to be fair and make no mistake, I inquired into this claim and found that it was preposterous, ridiculous and without foundation. The truth of the matter being that there is an unusual strata of solid rock under this foundation.

About four weeks ago Mr. Woodside made the statement that the Butler Sanitorium was about fifty-three percent completed. I submit to you, from the reports of the General State Authority, as of May 13th of this year, the Butler Sanitorium was eighty-four point two percent complete.

Members of this House, whom are we going to accept as authority? This very brief report which has been submitted by the Department of Health, or such authorities on tuberculosis as Dr. Howard Marcy, Secretary of the Tuberculosis League of the State of Pennsylvania and physician in chief of the Tuberculosis League Hospital of Pittsburgh, a recognized authority and one who has been very active in this work for a quarter of a century, as well as many other officials of the Tuberculosis League of Pennsylvania an Institution some forty-six years old which has during the years been actively engaged in this work in the state.

I gave you Dr. Martin Marcy's figures in a previous talk. He claimed that three thousand beds are needed to take care of the tuberculars in this state, and I wish to repeat in coming to that conclusion, these five hundred and sixty-five patients they claim are on the waiting list do not represent the tubercular needs of the state of Pennsylvania. That is admitted and agreed to by all authorities on tuberculosis, including Dr. Harry Noah of the Western Pennsylvania Hospital in Pittsburgh and for many years in charge of the state Tuberculosis Clinic in that city, a man of unquestioned ability with an outstanding reputation in this line of work, and Dr. I. Hope Alexander, Director of Public Health of the city of Pittsburgh.

Dr. Alexander states very emphatically that the need is very acute in the western end of the state. We also have the statement of Dr. Edith MacBride Dexter, former Director of the Department of Health of the state, in which she made the recommendation that it would take one thousand four hundred beds or more to take care of the tubercular needs in the state at this time.

We also have a number of other authorities, the late Doctor Theodore Appel, who also recommended a sanitorium in the western end of the state and claimed during his administration we did not have enough beds to take care of this great army of sufferers which we have in this state.

I submit to you members of the House in the closing hours of this session, we can make no greater contribution to our constituents, no greater contribution to suffering humanity, do nothing more meritorious in the eyes of God, than to go on record to use our influence with the Governor of this great Commonwealth to have him recede from his previous position, open the Butler Sanitorium and do everything in our power to care for the great army of tubercular sufferers in the state of Pennsylvania. Certainly in the dying hours of this session, the members of this House could do nothing which would contribute more to a lasting monument to their memory than this very thing.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Northumberland will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STANK. Mr. Speaker, I just want to state if I had been here this morning I would have voted against Senate Bill No. 134. I thank you.

SENATE MESSAGES

CONCURRENCE IN HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 83

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate concurred in the resolution from the House of Representatives as follows:

In th House of Representatives, May 25, 1939.

Whereas The Pennsylvania State Association of Boroughs has petitioned this General Assembly to memorialize the Congress of the United States in opposition to the taxation of State and Municipal securities by the Federal Government and

Whereas The said Borough Association has expressed its objections to such taxation of municipal securities on the ground that it is vicious in principle and contrary to the fundamental principles of American Democracy which distinguishes Federal State and Local Governments maintaining the principle that the power to tax is the power to destroy and on the further ground that there can be no reciprocal taxation of Federal securities because the municipalities of Pennsylvania have no power to tax personal property and

RESOLUTIONS

SYMPATHY EXTENDED

Mr. TAYLOR offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

As this session draws to its close, word comes of the death of Lieutenant Colonel James A. Harvey, divisional commander of the 27th Corps of the Salvation Army, whose inspirational invocation marked the opening session of this House.

Colonel Harvey was fifty-seven years of age, was a native of Ohio and for twenty years acted as a corps officer of the Salvation Army before being promoted to staff work. His last promotion occurred in 1934.

Colonel Harvey was an outstanding officer of the Army whose high principles he so fully exemplified and was most successful in furthering those principles.

He left to survive him a widow and eight children, three of whom are officers in the same Army he so faithfully served.

As Chaplain of this House, the departed Salvation Army Colonel served his State with the same fidelity and the same degree of efficiency as marked his service in the cause to which he devoted his life; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House extends its deepest sympathy to the widow of its deceased former Chaplain and Salvation Army officer, and to the children who, with her, mourn his passing from the work he loved; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution shall be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to the widow of the said Lieutenant Colonel James A. Harvey.

The SPEAKER. It was in pursuance to that which I said to the members of the House yesterday during our exercises, that I first conceived the idea of asking Colonel Harvey to offer the prayer at the opening of the session of this Legislature. I felt no one else could so well typify that which I had in mind, tolerance and patriotism, as Colonel Harvey in his office as a representative of the Salvation Army. It was with deep regret that I learned this week of the death of Colonel Harvey whom I have known for a great number of years.

The SPEAKER. The Chair at this time calls the Chief Clerk of the House to the rostrum.

THE CHIEF CLERK (William Ward, Jr.) PRESIDING.

CONGRATULATING SPEAKER

Mr. WOODSIDE offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

The passion of our Speaker, for order and orderly procedure, has made us desirous to preserve order.

His friendliness has fostered and promoted friendships among the members.

His desire to expedite business, eliminate unnecessary procedure and effect economy, has made us intolerant of delay, prompt in attendance, concise in debate and less anxious to introduce measures for personal gratification.

We have found him, as Speaker, revealing an ability of which previous acquaintance had given no hint.

He has given to the title "Speaker", a new meaning and those who follow, will find strict emulation a difficult task.

Off the Chair, which he has so ably graced, he has continued to maintain that smiling friendliness, that keen desire to play the gracious host and that eager readiness to help and assist others, that won for him during previous sessions, the friendship and the respect of those who were anxious to see him elevated to the Speakership, therefore be it

Resolved, By us, the Members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that as our Speaker, the Hon. Ellwood J. Turner, has surpassed the expectation of those who knew him best and felt most confident of his fitness, that his conduct of the business of the House has shown the highest degree of efficiency and fairness, and that at the close of the session, he leaves no feeling of disappointment in the minds or hearts of those who served with him, and be it further

Resolved, That we, the members, thank him for his courteous treatment, his uniform and unfailing fairness, his constant friendliness, his ready and willing help and assistance, and as we prepare to leave, we extend our best wishes for his full success in every undertaking, his good health at all times and his complete contentment at the conclusion of every day, and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk of the House shall transmit a copy of this resolution to the Hon. Ellwood J. Turner, as an added evidence of our high esteem for him and for his conduct of the House, during the Session of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-nine.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Chief Clerk, I said to my colleague I had no remarks prepared for this occasion. When I told him the resolution was concerning the Speaker, he said, "You know enough about him; you don't need any prepared remarks."

I believe, Mr. Chief Clerk, if I were to tell all the good things I know about the Speaker, I would keep you here for the rest of this calendar day, and probably for a time that would be as long as a possible legislative day.

It was my pleasure at the beginning of this session to nominate Ellwood Jackson Turner as a candidate for Speaker of this House of Representatives, and you saw him elected. At that time I called the attention of the House to the fact that this body has had many capable and illustrious Speakers and I predicted that the man we were then electing Speaker of this House was as able, as well versed in parliamentary procedure and the government of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as any we have had, and that he would rank high among the very best Speakers of this House of Representatives. On what appears to be the last day of this session, I believe the prediction I made has definitely come true.

We all appreciate the fair way in which he has presided over this body. We all appreciate the kindly personal consideration he has given to every individual member of this body. We all appreciate the knowledge he has of this state government, and the benefit that knowledge has been to this House and to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. I know we have all come to admire and respect our Speaker.

It is with a great deal of pleasure that I now present this resolution and move its unanimous adoption with my thanks to Ellwood J. Turner, my friend and your friend, for the good work he has done in presiding over this House of Representatives.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Chief Clerk, I remember at the election of the Speaker for the 1937 session the then defeated candidate, the man who now so ably presides over this House, spread upon the record the fact that he felt the Speaker of the House belonged neither to the majority nor the minority, but rather belonged to the membership of the House and to all the people of the Commonwealth.

In rising to second the resolution offered by the gentleman from Dauphin, I cannot help but reflect upon the activities of our Speaker in furthering the ideas and ideals he had relative to the functions of the Speaker of this House. I wish to say that under the direction of our present Speaker, the minority has been accorded full opportunity for expression. In reviewing the proceedings of this House, I can recall but one instance in which debate was curtailed and that only after a prolonged and protracted debate lasting possibly five hours. The rights of the minority under the present Speaker have been held as near and dear to him as the rights of the majority. Full expression was accorded the minority. While our political philosophy might have differed from that on the other side, nevertheless the Speaker protected our right to give vent to that political philosophy just as though we were expressing thoughts that were in accord with his.

We cannot allow this moment to pass without doing our part in paying tribute to the man who has so ably led this House; who has so ably presided over this House; who has so ably protected the very foundation of the democratic institutions that are near and dear to all of us. Only by continued vigilance and protection of those democratic institutions may democratic government survive. In rising to lend my voice to second this resolution, and speaking for the minority, I wish to say that the Speaker of this House has presided over its deliberations with all the fairness, with all the honesty, with all the sincerity, and with all the consideration that could be afforded to those of us who wished to express our thoughts on pending legislation. There has been written into the annals of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania something that cannot be obliterated and something that will act as a precedent for Speakers who will come in the future.

It is with a great deal of pleasure, Mr. Chief Clerk, that I second the resolution.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Chief Clerk, the succession of Speakers has added to the dignity and prestige of parliamentary government in this Commonwealth, but it has brought to me the frustration of my chief legislative ambition. I have observed parliamentary bodies for some time; I have observed parliamentary practice with great interest, and it never seemed to me that parliamentary practice was sufficiently scientific or sufficiently diversified in obstructive tactics. So, when I came to the Legislature in 1933, I had in mind to give, what I hoped would be, a scientific exemplification of parliamentary obstruction. Lo and behold! Speaker Talbot was so fair, so considerate, bending over backward in his treatment that I just could not be mean with him.

Then came Speaker Sarig and I thought at that time, having a little difference of opinion with some of the Democratic leaders, here was my opportunity, now I would be able to evince scientific parliamentary obstruction. Speaker Sarig made me a member of his Rules Committee, and again there was nothing I could do.

Then came Speaker Furman. Every one of you knows how considerate he was and how impossible it would have been to have functioned as an obstructionist under his rulings.

Then came Speaker Turner, and, ha! ha! I thought, I got him now. He is a large and jovial man on the surface but he is going to be a tyrant; he is going to rule with an iron hand; he is going to crush us from the start. Here is my opportunity. I can trot out the old rule books, trot out all the parliamentary kinks I have been planning to spring for some twenty years. What happened? He recognized us when we were right, and even let us go speeding along very frequently when we were clearly wrong, and again I have been frustrated in my ambition to be a parliamentary pest simply because the Speaker was so fair that you could not take advantage of his good humor.

I think the succession of Speakers I have named has performed a profound service, because prior to their time procedure in this House was becoming increasingly sloppy, and on many occasions, in many respects, increasingly undignified. Each of the four Speakers I have named has added materially to the dignity of the office of Speaker, and has contributed thereby to the dignity of the proceeding of this House.

I find great cause for gratification in the fact that insofar as it has been within my power I have been glad to uphold Speaker Turner's hand in his insistence that the Legislature was a coordinate branch of Pennsylvania's government, that this House was a deliberative body, and his insistence, an insistence in which we on the floor of the House have not always cooperated, that because we were a deliberative body we should conduct our deliberations with dignity. I think the greatest contribution democracy can make is that every man in every station shall be in a position to walk the earth with dignity, and the greatest tribute that can be paid a legislative assembly is that it is a deliberative and a dignified body.

Because Speaker Turner has contributed to the dignity of the Speakership and to the dignity of this Assembly, I with pleasure second the resolution offered by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

Mr. GATES. Mr. Chief Clerk, after listening to the very earnest and sincere compliments from the minority, anything I might say would be superfluous, so I would simply ask, in voting on this resolution, that we vote by a standing vote and give the "Turner" salute.

Mr. TROUT. Mr. Chief Clerk, I can very heartily endorse what has been said about Speaker Turner in these closing hours of the Legislature.

The last few weeks have been rather arduous, and if there has been anything that has definitely determined the character of the leadership of Speaker Turner it has been the loyalty on the part of the membership in following the program outlined by him and by the leaders. Those of us who have been here before have never been quite so close to the operation of legislative procedure, and I do not believe any of us in the same length of time have devoted as many hours to hard work in an attempt to bring about legislation.

Personally I have come to this conclusion: I have learned a new philosophy of life. I have found in the years I have lived, I have wasted a great deal of time in sleep. I have now discovered that sleep is only a habit and that we can get along with much less than we are usually accustomed to have.

After we adjourn, I hope to go home and put in four or five more hours daily on extra work.

I want to say I am very much pleased to second the resolution as presented by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

Mr. SWEENEY. Mr. Chief Clerk, to me has fallen the honor of saying a few words on behalf of the Philadelphia delegation in seconding the resolution now before the House. We from Philadelphia at times have bored the House, and probably the Speaker, with our troubles, but through it all both the Speaker and the House have been exceedingly kind and courteous, and for this you both have our undying gratitude.

There have been a lot of nice things said about our Speaker, both today and on Saturday, but to my mind the Speaker has always appeared to me like he did on Saturday when he refereed the alleged boxing match between our brother from Delaware, Mr. Bretherick, and our brother from Westmoreland, Mr. Broad. Sitting here in the House, I more or less liken this House to a prize fight ring. On the Speaker's left you have the reigning champion, the Republican party; on the Speaker's right is the ex-champion and now challenger, the Democratic party; and in the center in the Speaker's chair you have the referee. It has been his duty to see that no foul blows were struck and he has performed his duty well.

When we are asked, by many people, as we undoubtedly will be after we leave the session, "What kind of Speaker did Ellwood Turner make?" we will all have to say sincerely and truthfully that he was not only a capable Speaker but that he was fair.

Mr. OMINSKY. Mr. Chief Clerk, in rising to second the resolution now before the House, there is very little I can add to the remarks already made by better orators than I.

On behalf of the Democratic members of the Philadelphia delegation I want to say very briefly, that this Legislature of 1939 has been rather fortunate in having as its presiding officer a man who brought with him to the Chair a vast legislative experience, which was reflected in his rulings as the presiding officer.

I have had the pleasure of serving with our present Speaker on many committees. We always found him, whether he was in the majority or in the minority, to be fair, and when he became Speaker of this House in 1939 he brought with him that same fairness as the presiding officer.

We of Philadelphia and the entire membership are grateful, not only for his fairness but also for his learning, for his ability and experience in legislative work which he has shown as Speaker of this House.

Mr. STOCKHAM. Mr. Chief Clerk, so many fine things have been said by those who have preceded me that it is hardly within my power to say anything that will materially enhance the thoughts that have already been expressed.

I believe the Speaker of this House is a man who has a very broad concept of public service; a man who has a sympathic approach through his long years of training in public life. He has brought into the office of Speaker of this House, as indicated by these other speakers, those qualities which have shone out because of his service in past years.

Some weeks ago I was sitting at dinner in the home of a brother-in-law. We were discussing the Speaker. He remarked that he had been a class-mate of Ellwood Turner's at the University of Pennsylvania, and that Mr. Turner was an honor man at Penn. I commented on this to the Speaker one day. He was very backward in acknowledging any such honor, stating that he simply did his best. That shows something of the attitude of the man. To have been an honor man at Penn and then to be the honor man of this Legislature, one can understand how the rendering of service brings a man naturally to the forefront in the pursuit of the work which he undertakes. He has given to us an example many, many times of Christian charity, an understanding of the rest of us, and his tolerance of thought is most broadening. In this respect he is the reflection of the real American spirit, of those things to which we need to hold so steadfastly today in all of our troubled affairs, and more so with our position in this sick world. His work among us will be remembered by us for a long while, and his work will be felt by us.

I can only express it in the terms of the simile of dropping a stone into a quiet, silvery pool, making ripples that go on and on, broadening and enlarging themselves to the length and breadth of the pool. We know not always how far our influence will be felt, but we do know when we set up an influence for good it is felt wherever it may be.

I express my very best wishes to the Speaker of the House in these closing days of the session, and gladly second the resolution of the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

Mr. RHODES. Mr. Chief Clerk, I want to preface what I have written by saying that what I am about to say is the result of very careful observation.

It is a pleasure to second the resolution commending the Speaker for his splendid services, fine attitude, tolerant spirit, courteous thoughtfulness and unmatched political acumen.

In his speech on Saturday morning he pointed out the fact that the major planks in his speakership platform were tolerance and patriotism. I take the position that there can be no true patriotism without tolerance in its broadest conception.

True love of country is not waving the American flag, but rather the unselfish service of citizens in the promotion of those finer ideals which have made America great. True patriotism makes men rise above petty prejudices; makes them too big to treat unfairly even the most humble citizen; makes them despise wrong and injustice; makes them consider all men free and equal; makes them unable to hate any man or group of men because of his color, race or religious beliefs.

Tolerance is the keystone of democracy. Where tolerance does not abide in the hearts of the people, where men fail to consider the rights and prerogatives of other men, democracy does not exist.

Because the Speaker by precept and example has been tolerant of all groups, racial and religious, I pronounce him a tolerant man, a great American patriot. I have watched him carefully with particular regard to the members of this House who are identified with my own racial group. He has been fair without being patronizing and that is all my people ask of any man.

It is with unmixed pleasure that I pay this tribute to Ellwood J. Turner, the Speaker of the House—Ellwood J. Turner, the man.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. Chief Clerk, being a new member of the House I am entirely unfamiliar with the custom that is usually followed on an occasion of this kind. I was very much surprised and gratified when I learned four minutes ago that I was to have the privilege of adding my second to this resolution.

I do not want to repeat any of the fine things that have been said by other speakers but I do want to say this: I do not know what he has done for you but his good humor has saved many situations for me. I recall very clearly on one occasion some of my colleagues and I went into his office at one o'clock in the morning, and I hoped to go out of his office with the promise of one million dollars for school districts. We walked out of there at ten minutes to two with an apple—and somehow or other we seemed to feel as though the visit had been very worthwhile.

As I sat in my chair, particularly during these last trying days, I thought of a quotation from Dr. Frank Crane, who said "Somewhere in that mighty mind of His, God Himself must have a strain of humor, otherwise He would not have taught the kitten to play with its tail, the canary to perk its head from side to side while singing, nor would He have planted capering instincts in the leaping lamb, the romping poodle, in birds and insects and children". I think God must have planted a capering instinct and certainly a sense of humor, in Speaker Turner's heart.

Like a lot of you members, I came here wondering what this experience might mean to me, whether it might mean a political future or whether I might be glad to retire and go back to business after one term. Lately I find that my speculation along political lines has been in behalf of the Speaker. I have been wondering what this experience and his previous experience might lead to for him, and I have rather come to the conclusion that we here assembled are satisfied that he might well serve us in many high offices in connection with which his name has recently been mentioned. He has one trait we dare not lose in these trying days, and to which Solomon referred when he said, "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine".

Some of you may recall the story of the Happy Man's shirt. It seems there was once a king who had become satiated with all human pleasures; could no longer be amused and was like to die. Loathe to see him replaced, his retinue of court followers desperately conferred with soothesayers and medicine men, none of whom could suggest a remedy. Finally they went to an old hermit who lived in the woods. He studied the case and finally advised that the remedy was simple. "Let the king sleep all night in a happy man's shirt and a cure will be effected". Accordingly the king directed that the palace be searched, a happy man sought and his shirt brought. However, the assignment was not as simple as expected. Not only was the palace searched but the noblemen canvassed the town and eventually the entire kingdom, without discovering a man who was willing to declare, without mental reservation or any equivocation whatsoever, that he was completely happy. Frustrated, the noblemen were riding home in their disappointment when under yonder tree they saw a bedraggled figure sitting in the sunlight and playing with the autumn leaves. Desperate, and knowing not whom else to ask the noblemen shouted, "Hey, there, are you happy?"

"Of course I am," was the reply. "Why shouldn't I be?"

"Why you're nothing but a beggar; I'll bet you don't even know where you'll get your dinner."

"Of course I don't, but it isn't dinner time yet and I've had a good breakfast."

Convinced that here at long last was a happy man, they explained to him the plight of the king, asked to borrow his shirt, promising to return it in the morning filled with gold pieces. Whereupon the beggar lay back upon the grass and laughed as though he would expire. Angered, the noblemen grabbed him.

"Come," they said, "we have no time for trifling. Take off your shirt or we will jerk it off."

Finally controlling his mirth the beggar exclaimed:

"That's what I'm laughing at. I 'aint' got no shirt."

So the king was advised that the only man in his entire realm absolutely happy was shirtless.

Eventually the king was cured once he became convinced that happiness does not depend upon the shirt in which you sleep, the bed upon which you lie, nor upon any external thing. Happiness comes from the heart within. So I agree with Solomon that "A merry heart doeth good like a medicine".

I have become convinced, like the gentleman from Lancaster, Mr. Trout, that we can get along with practically no sleep, and while I am not just satisfied that I can stand up under it, yet I am very thankful in this, my first legislative session, that I sat under a Speaker who not only had a God-given sense of humor, that most saving of all graces, a merry heart, but also a consequent sense of fairness that helped all of us in the rough spots of the session.

Mr. Chief Clerk, I am glad to second the resolution of the gentleman from Dauphin. I thank you.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Chief Clerk, I do not believe Ellwood Jackson Turner would have me epitomize his own accomplishments. I believe deep in the heart of Ellwood Jackson Turner is the thought that each and every one of us will go out from this session not with the idea of promulgating what he has said as much as what he has done.

By referring to this picture on the left, which I think is indicative of the friendship the founder of this Commonwealth had for the Indians, I can bring to your minds what may have been in Ellwood Jackson Turner's mind and what he has accomplished during this session through this story of the Indian sire who had four sons.

He wanted to test their strength and he said to them, "Sons, go up upon that mountain and each of you bring me back what you find".

So the four sons set out upon the mountain. In the afternoon one son returned. He had a spray of spruce, showing the altitude to which he had climbed. Later in the evening another son returned. He had a sprig of pine, showing the altitude he had attained. Still later in the evening another son returned. He had a piece of alpine bough, showing the altitude he had attained. Very late in the night the fourth son returned tired and worn and haggard.

The old Indian chief looked at him and said, "What did you bring back?"

He said, "Father, I brought back nothing, but where I was there were neither flowers, nor pine, nor alpine bough, nor spruce, but I climbed the mountain and I saw the sea".

He had climbed up above the area of the spruce and the pine and the alpine bough, climbed up to see the sea.

Ellwood Jackson Turner has climbed the mountain to see the sea; he has climbed above the blasts of race prejudice; he has climbed above religious intolerance, he has climbed to that part of the mountain where he surveyed the sea, where all is calm, where men are men, where all is peace. I say, Mr. Chief Clerk, in seconding this resolution:

"The son of God goes forth to war
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banners stream afar
Who follows in his train?"

Ellwood Jackson Turner, we follow in your train.

Mr. BRUNNER. Mr. Chief Clerk, to follow the eloquent speakers who have preceded me, and to be able to add to their remarks is only possible because of the nature of the man of whom we speak.

I am one of the many new members seated in this House for the first time; concluding our first session of the Legislature. I feel that I bespeak the sentiments of the new members when I say we have enjoyed our tenure of service in this House of Representatives, largely because of the efficient and courteous administration of the Speaker.

It is my considered judgment, and I am sure the judgment of the other members of the House, that the Speaker has contributed greatly to this session by his personal zeal and cooperation, and that the conduct of this body in the future will reflect his great and efficient management during this present session. I believe, should the Speaker leave our midst, that he will hitch his wagon to greater and more distant stars, and will, with commendation and glory, achieve that which he seeks.

He has been a member of this House for many years. Each succeeding session saw him assigned more responsibilities. What he accomplished is known to all of us and it is hardly necessary to observe that he performed these duties with distinction because of his zeal, perseverance, and profound knowledge of state government.

Mr. Chief Clerk, I predict a brilliant future for the Speaker. I know that his life will continue to be dedicated to public service as it has been in the past. Both his State and his party owe him much for what he has accomplished. No reward is too great for such loyal and distinguished service. I predict that when the story of the future is revealed to the membership of this House we will be able to say with pleasure and pride, "I told you so."

It is a distinct privilege to second the resolution of the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Chief Clerk, anything I might say would be superfluous. I had a very carefully prepared speech I was going to make, but speaker after speaker took part after part of it away, so there is nothing left.

We in Western Pennsylvania, particularly from Allegheny county, are deeply grateful to the Speaker for his advice. We came here completely unversed in legislative procedure, and had it not been for his guidance, I know we should have made many more blunders than we did. We therefore are very grateful to him for his guidance, and it is a pleasure for me to second the resolution.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Chief Clerk, in rising for the purpose of seconding the resolution of the gentleman from Dauphin, I wish to concur in the remarks of the gentlemen who have preceded me, laying special emphasis on those remarks with relation to the fairness and justness of the Speaker in presiding over this House. That, if you have noticed, Mr. Chief Clerk, has been especially the theme song of the minority members in seconding the resolution.

Those who are serving for the first time, perhaps cannot understand and appreciate exactly what we of the minority mean when we say he has been both just and fair. If we hesitate for just a moment and consider that all of the majesty, all of the power of this House is vested in the Speaker, a power that can destroy, a power that can obliterate, a power than can prevail so that the minority rights could never be heard nor expressed upon the floor of this House with a Speaker so minded, and if you recall the days of debate when things were going rough and tough, when nerves were tense and tempers even more so, considering all that and realizing that the Speaker permitted the minority to continue in its debate, express its viewpoints, then Mr. Chief Clerk, you can understand why we of the minority are enthusiastically endorsing and seconding the resolution of the gentleman from Dauphin.

The CHIEF CLERK. Before the vote is taken upon this resolution, through the courtesy of the House and permission of the Speaker, the Chief Clerk would like to add a small modicum of tribute to that which has already been given.

We who have stood beneath him and worked with him, have thoroughly enjoyed watching the work of the Speaker, have thoroughly enjoyed following him, amazed at his experience, his display of ability, his eloquence, his just decisions and his merry quips and jests.

There is this I would call to your attention. You perhaps noticed on Saturday during our pleasant program, when gifts were so generously bestowed by the House upon the favored few, a touch of sadness entered into the reply of the Speaker. I know you noticed it as I did. It touched me deeply because I know he felt that the gift to him was an evidence of the deep regard, the keen affection in which the members of the House hold him. Today in referring to that, I do so because I am looking into the years that are to be for him, the years that are to come, when he will sit some night in reverie deep, at the twilight hour as darkness falls and shadows deepen, with lights turned low and naught but flickering shadows him to see, for shadows flickering are discreet and will not stories tell, perhaps a tear of tender recollection will trickle down his cheek, and he will not be ashamed, as he thinks and dreams of the happy days he spent with you.

To the Speaker I am going to give this thought to carry with him, as the years may run:

"For I oft times think, the yesterdays are dearer sweeter far,
Than any days that are to be, or any days that are.
As distance lends enchantment to the far horizon line,
So memory throws its glamour round the days of Auld Lang Syne.
To-day may bring us happiness—tomorrow lure us on,
But somehow thoughts will ever turn to the happy days long gone.
And blessed be the man that sees through recollections haze,
The tenderness and sweetness of those happy bygone days."

Mr. SHAW. Mr. Chief Clerk, in seconding the resolution of the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside, Allegheny merely wishes to call attention to one fact that has been overlooked, and that is that the Speaker of the House, Mr. Ellwood Jackson Turner, was originally from Allegheny.

Mr. STEWART. Mr. Chief Clerk, all of you have forgotten one very important thing, and that is when our Speaker started this session he said to us, "We will start on time". I want to say to you that he put push and energy into this session and that is what makes things go.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted by a rising vote.

THE SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) IN THE CHAIR.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is in a position where he hardly knows what to say, having been regaled with a variety of speeches which it was rather difficult for the Speaker to take.

Some few years ago my colleagues of the Delaware County Bar gave a dinner for me on the occasion of the twenty-fifth anniversary of my admission to that bar. I did not realize how difficult it was to go through a procedure of that kind until the speeches of the evening started. I have sat here in the past and contributed from the floor many speeches on behalf and in praise of the Speakers of this House. I presume I should have been forewarned from my experience that something of a similar nature was in store for me today, when Mr. Moore informed me that there were a number of resolutions which would have to be taken up, and he presumed this was a good time to go ahead with them.

I spoke to you on Saturday from the floor. Rather hesitantly and without attempting to add anything to what I said at that time, it seems to me it would be rather amiss for me to pass this moment without saying just a few things that are in my heart.

No man could sit here and listen to such words from men who have been his friends and associates for a period of years without being deeply appreciative, and without offering to you his sincere thanks for the things you have said.

I have carried, what perhaps few of you realize, for a number of years on the floor of the House a very heavy burden of work which has taken me away from my office and from my home and has at times taxed the constitution with which my good parents endowed me. For practically a year I have been almost constantly in Harrisburg. That too has taken a great toll of my personal strength and energy, but if there has been any sacrifice on my part in the service which I hoped I was giving to the people of the Commonwealth, I have received my reward in the things you have said and done in the last forty-eight hours. My reward has come from the manner in which the members of the House have received those things I sought to do. It would have been foolish for me to think you would all agree with me, and would not at times, if I may use the expression, growl about it.

My father was very much interested in military affairs. For some thirty odd years he was a member of the National Guard of Pennsylvania. He always spoke in military terms and he said there was not a good soldier who did not kick and growl about things. I have often tried to think of the members of the House, when they came to me and kicked and complained about things, that after all they were just good soldiers, marching along trying to do their jobs here in the Legislature. If this Legislature has accomplished anything, if the Speaker has been able to accomplish anything, he can not possibly take to himself the credit for those things that have been done, because you must share in any credit that is given to this Legislature for the manner in which you have upheld the hands of the Speaker at times when things seemed irksome, when the Speaker seemed to bear down and press hard upon you, when you did not want to do the things he requested you to do.

The other day there was a motion to recommit a bill and there was some question about recommitting it. The statement was made that there had been an agreement in Committee to recommit. I stood here on the rostrum and thought when you did recommit it, when you understood the facts, how grand it was to be the presiding officer over a group of men whose word was good, and who, when an agreement had been reached, were willing to stand by that agreement, even though it hurt them. After all in this world of today we need that sort of thing very badly. We need men whose word is good; we need ladies and gentlemen, not in a snobbish sense, but in a sense of believing in fair play and sportsmanship, people who believe in service to their state and to the people.

I want to thank the membership of the House as a group for the manner in which you have helped me during this session, and I would like to add by way of parenthesis that I believe for the more efficient functioning of the Speakers' office, if duties are to devolve upon future Speakers as they have upon the Speaker in this session, there should be more help for the Speaker. In managing and directing the details of his office, it is physically impossible for the Speaker to give efficient consideration to the broad questions of policy and of legislation which the Speaker should have an opportunity to do.

I also want to thank, not only the Republican membership of the House for helping me in my task, but I want to thank the membership on the minority side. My Republican colleagues in the past have taken me to task for my friendships and associations with those on the minority side, but I think I received my reward for those friendships and associations with the minority during the session. On several occasions I had conferences with the leaders of the minority and I knew that the policies I was trying to carry out with reference to the administration of the affairs of the House were approved by those leaders. Here at the desk, from time to time as the Chair needed help and assistance, when the going was a bit rough, when it seemed as though we might get into legislative snarls, those trying times that consume hours and hours, the Chair sent for members of the minority to come to the rostrum and discuss the problems, and the Chair received from them courteous and broadminded consideration.

Then, on the majority side, the Chair wants to take this opportunity to thank the Chairmen of our Committees who served during this session. The Chair does not want to take the time now to recount the services that have been rendered by those Chairmen.

The Chair wants to thank the Vice-Chairmen of Committees, almost all of whom were men who were serving their first term in the House. The Chair thanks his Republican colleagues for their uniform friendliness and consideration of his time and efforts put into the work of the Legislature.

In conclusion, the Chair has a deep conviction that a legislative body should be a co-ordinate branch of government. The Chair has been somewhat of a student of history; he has enjoyed reading of that era extending from 1776 to 1789. He has been somewhat of a student of the Federalist Papers written by Alexander Hamilton, Monroe, Madison, Governeur Morris. One of the things that impressed itself upon his mind as a member of the Legislature was the argument relative to the establishment of a legislative branch of the government, that unless you had a balance between the three you could not have constitutional government; if the executive, judicial or legislative branch became supreme you could not have constitutional government.

As the Speaker entered into the work of the Legislature, it seemed to him that we in America had through the years lost sight of those principles of government that were laid down in our Constitution, that we had more and more surrendered to the executive branch the powers that belong to the legislative branch, until we had come to the time when the legislative branch of government in the states and in the nation had, in the minds of the people, sunk to the level where they looked only to the executive branch. This session of the Legislature has given the Speaker the unique opportunity of trying to see whether the legislative branch, established as a co-ordinate branch, could function in its proper sphere and maintain constitutional government as we know it.

The Chair wants at this time to publicly thank his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, for the manner in which he has conducted himself toward us; always endeavoring to avoid, not only the appearance, but any act that would make it appear that he was dictating to the Legislature.

The Chair thanks the leaders in the Senate who have cooperated in a way that seemed impossible from his experience in the past. They were never petty; they never thought the House was trying to assume the prerogatives of the Senate; they were willing to sit down in the spirit of cooperation as a coordinate branch of the government and work out our mutual problems.

Again let the Chair thank you. Let him say to you that his conception of that which we are doing was expressed by someone during the speeches made this afternoon, when it was said that we each in our small way in a session of the Legislature, contribute to the sum total of government for the well being of the people of Pennsylvania.

The Speaker has always liked to think of those who feel they are contributing something in service to the government, in terms of the word picture of the "Lamplighter". He always likes to precede it with the lines of the poet:

"The day is done and darkness falls from the wings of night,
As a feather is wafted down from an eagle in its flight
I see the lights of the village gleam through the rain and the mist,
And a feeling of sadness comes o'er me that my soul cannot resist".

The Chair thinks of the cottages on some little village street with their picket fences, with their hedges, with their lilac bushes, with their holly hocks, and when evening comes and darkness falls from the wings of night the lights begin to shine through the windows. The good wife is preparing the evening meal, watching for the homecoming of her beloved mate from his daily work. Down the street comes a man with a ladder and a torch. He stops here and there as he goes along and lights begin to gleam and glow and there is brightness along the street where before there was darkness and gloom. He passes down the street plodding along in his work.

The Chair likes to think of the people who serve as lamplighters. For a moment they bring something of cheer and happiness to those about them. As they pass and go down the road they may be forgotten, but the places where they have been, will be better for their passing.

REMARKS ON RESOLUTION TO BE PRINTED

Mr. ALSPACH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the printer be instructed to print special copies of the remarks of the various members of the House upon this resolution and prepare them in special form for presentation to the Speaker of this House, and his family.

I do not think the Speaker will soon forget the remarks which have been made here. I do not think the members of the House will forget them. I am sure I shall not. I think it would be a fine thing for the Speaker's family, his children, his children's children, to remember and be reminded what a worthy sire was theirs. Mr. Speaker, I so move you.

Mr. HOCKE. Mr. Speaker, I suggest that each of the members get a copy.

Mr. ALSPACH. Mr. Speaker, I will accept that amendment and move that each member be furnished a copy.

The motion as amended was unanimously agreed to.

RESOLUTIONS

CONGRATULATING MAJORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. NORMAN WOOD offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Legislation must be guided through any Legislative body. It will not proceed on its own.

Guidance necessitates leadership. Someone must be the captain of the crew. Someone must spend hours of study so as to be able to direct and advise those who are not familiar with all pending legislation.

The majority party of this House was particularly fortunate during this session of the General Assembly in having as its leader one who combined all the traits necessary to constitute efficient leadership.

Able and intelligent, modest and unassuming, likeable and trustworthy, the leader of the majority party early in the session, commanded the respect and trust of those he was chosen to lead and the close of this session finds him even more highly respected and trusted.

His party's members have felt and still feel that they could blindly follow his advice and leadership and still be right.

The members of the minority party have never had occasion to attack his honesty of purpose or the exact truthfulness of any statement made by him in debate, therefore be it

Resolved, by the members of this House that we congratulate the Hon. Robert E. Woodside upon the enviable record he has made as a leader during this session and at its closing we wish him every success that a continuance of activity in public life can bring to him, and be it further Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Hon. Robert E. Woodside by the Chief Clerk of this House.

CONGRATULATING MINORITY FLOOR LEADER

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise representing the minority, calling their attention to the fact that we of the minority, or pirate crew, if you will, have a leader in whom we have taken great pride. We believe his ability cannot be matched. We believe he has led us ably in what we now honestly believe has been a victory for the minority party. In addition to that we believe has has seen to it that the majority has not had one dull moment during the time this House has been in session.

With your approval, Mr. Speaker, I offer the following resolution, and request its immediate adoption.

The SPEAKER. The Chair might add to what the gentleman from Monroe has said: neither has the Speaker had a dull moment.

Mr. ACHTERMAN offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Even a minority needs a leader. Perhaps a minority is more in need of a leader than is a majority.

Better legislation always comes from strong opposition which acts as a brake upon the sometimes ruthless activity of a majority. Nothing has escaped the watchful eye of the minority leader of this session nor has he once failed to pull the brakes or raise his voice in endeavoring to promote the interests of his party and the principles for which it stands, therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of this House hereby extend to the Hon. Herbert B. Cohen, their congratulations upon his work in this session, and upon the ability displayed at all times, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution shall be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of this House to the said Hon. Herbert B. Cohen.

THANKING CHIEF CLERK AND STAFF

Mr. WINNER offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

The work of this House during the session now coming to an end has been greatly facilitated by the unusual efficiency of the officers and clerks who have in charge the routine work of the House and the preparation of its records.

The various duties necessary to be performed by the officers and clerks elected and appointed for this session have been performed with speed and accuracy.

Every officer and clerk has given fully of his time and efforts to the end that the business of the House should not be interrupted or retarded; therefore be it

Resolved, by the Members of this House of Representatives, That they hereby extend their thanks to the Chief Clerk of the House, the Hon. William Ward, Jr., and through him to the officers and clerks who have so diligently labored under and with him for the part they have contributed toward shortening the days of the session and making the work of the members easier.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would like to take this opportunity to thank the Chief Clerk and the members of his staff for their loyal support. The Chief Clerk came new to his duties, except that he was in the past a member of this House. There has been no time that the Speaker has asked and met with him in consideration of the affairs of the House that he has not given the most willing cooperation to the Speaker. The Speaker is deeply grateful to the Chief Clerk whom he has known for a great many years.

THANKING LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU AND STAFF

Mr. BRETHERICK offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

At the close of another Session of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, this House recognizes its dependance upon the work of the Legislative Reference Bureau.

Without its skilled and efficient help, the work of the House would have been retarded and that of the Members would have been increased and made more difficult.

For the past three weeks, the Bureau has been greatly handicapped by reason of the illness of S. Edward Hannestad, the Assistant Director, which added greatly to the work of those who have carried on during his absence.

More than three thousand bills and resolutions have been prepared for Members and for the various departments of the State Government, and during the closing days of the Session, countless amendments have been quickly prepared for measures passing through the different stages of legislative procedure, entailing constant work and endless hours of close application; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the Members of the House, extend our thanks for, and our appreciation of, the work done by the Bureau, to the new Director, the Honorable Robert S. Frey, and commend him for the efficient manner in which he has taken hold of the difficult task to which he fell heir and for the completely satisfactory character of the work returned by the Bureau to the House and its Members; and be it further

Resolved, That to the Assistant Director of the Bureau, S. Edward Hannestad, we extend our most sincere wishes for a speedy and complete recovery, so that he may quickly return to the Bureau and continue his brilliant service to the Commonwealth; and to the other members of the staff, and to the stenographers who labored during days and nights, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays during the Session, in order to help and accommodate us, we also extend our thanks and our gratitude for their faithful and unselfish service; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to the Director of the said Legislative Reference Bureau as an evidence of our appreciation of the character of the work performed by the staff of the Bureau under his direction.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would ask the indulgence of the House that he may make just one remark for the record at this time.

In this resolution is included the Assistant Director, Mr. S. Edward Hannestad. Perhaps the members of the House do not know the great difficulties under which Mr. Hannestad has labored during the last few months. He has been extremely ill at times, and the Speaker has seen him come into the office on Sunday for a conference when we knew he was in great distress and was endeavoring to carry on his work. He is a brilliant man, a man who contributes a great deal to the work of the Legislature, and the Bureau. It has been a matter of deep regret to many of us that his health has been such that he has been forced to work under such difficulties.

The Chair wants to express on the record at this time not only that which is said in the resolution, but that which he is certain the members of the House feel, we wish to thank Mr. Hannestad and hope that he may have an early recovery and a complete return to health.

THANKING PARLIAMENTARIAN

Mr. ANDREWS, offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

The rules of this House and the rules pertaining to parliamentary procedure, are at times as vague and elusive as the general law of the land and demand the interpretation of an expert.

The proper interpretation rests upon precedent, and one who advises a legislative body must be thoroughly acquainted with the decisions made and sustained during countless legislative years.

This House has such an expert and to him is due much credit for the smooth running of the work of the House.

He was the first person to give to the parliamentary law governing this House, the air of a science.

He found it a skeleton and after years of study and research and practice, has clothed it with reason, and by his ability, has made it a living thing.

His absolute devotion to the science he has mastered, has resulted in such complete fairness, that politics has not entered in as one of the reasons for his successive elections, therefore be it

Resolfed, By the Members of the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, that we extend to our parliamentarian, S. Edward Moore, our sincere thanks for the help he has been to us during the Session now closing and congratulate him upon the manner in which he has fulfilled the duties of his most important position and that the Chief Clerk of the House is directed to transmit a copy of this resolution to him immediately upon the adjournment of this House

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I want to say just a brief word in connection with this resolution.

In 1935 the Democrats took charge of the House. They were a trifle new and when this House faced the question of organization it engaged as its legislative technician and parliamentarian S. Edward Moore. I do not think any greater tribute could be paid to a public servant, an expert technician, than has been paid to Eddie Moore. He has not been a partisan, he has been a scientist; he is the type of person whose absolute loyalty can never be questioned. The humblest member of this House facing a problem he does not know to handle, need only go to Eddie Moore to find out how the thing should be done. As the Speaker has truthfully said, only those who have been in touch with the conduct of the House know the value of the technical service, the value of the parliamentary knowledge which Eddie Moore has brought both to the Republican and the Democratic organizations in this state.

The SPEAKER. The Chair will only say he is reminded of the story told by the late Judge Johnson of my county about a fellow who was noted for his profanity. His reputation was county wide, no one had ever equaled his expressions. One day he was going up a hill in the town with a load of potatoes, the tail board of his wagon fell down and the potatoes rolled out and down the hill. He stood there looking at them. The whole village came down and gathered around expecting to hear a great address in profanity. To their great surprise nothing came forth.

Finally one of them said, "Zeke, what is the matter?"

Zeke said, "I cannot do it justice".

So the Speaker feels about the Parliamentarian of this House, he cannot do him justice.

Mr. S. EDWARD MOORE. The Speaker, this is an unexpected resolution, not being on the program.

It is very difficult at a time like this to find words to express one's appreciation for the very kind thoughts contained in the resolution. I thank the members of the House and because of the lateness of the hour will just take a bow.

THANKING PRESS

Mr. WILSON offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939

So long as newspaper correspondents of the Nation are as fair and unbiased in reports of public affairs as have been the newspaper men in attendance at this Session of the General Assembly, the freedom of the press in the United States will not be threatened with suppression.

The Members of this House have been singularly free of newspaper attacks and in every way and on every occasion, the representatives of the press have been courteous and gentlemanly and fair, therefore be it

Resolved, By the Members of this House, that we extend to the gentlemen of the press, who have been with us during this Session, our most sincere thanks for their constant fairness and for their untainted reports of our proceedings, and we congratulate them upon maintaining the high principles which should ever be practiced and upheld by the men of their privileged profession, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution shall be transmitted by the Chief Clerk of the House to the President of their association.

THANKING CHAPLAIN

Mr. JOHNSON offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows.

In the House of Representatives, May 29 1939.

There existed in the minds of the founders of our Commonwealth, a firm conviction of the existence of a divine power that guided the destinies of nations and peoples.

Those of our forefathers who first promulgated the rules of procedure for this legislature, provided that each day's work should be opened with a prayer to that Divinity which shapes our end.

Since April 6, 1939, the day's work in this House has been begun by the eloquent prayers of our Chaplain, the Rev. Thomas George Baxter, and the Members of the House feel grateful for the help and inspiration that they have brought, therefore be it

Resolved, That the Members of this House, appreciative of the services of the Chaplain, and the long hours that he spent in preparing his inspirational utterances extend to him our deepest and most sincere thanks and direct the Chief Clerk of the House to transmit to him a copy of this resolution.

CONGRATULATING MEMBERS

Mr. REUBEN E. COHEN offered a resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Whereas It is the province and duty of this Honorable Body to obey, and defend the Constitution of the United States of America, and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania; and

Whereas The safety of womanhood is a paramount consideration under both of these sacred documents; and

Whereas The Members of this Honorable Body, at least defend, if not obey, the women of this Commonwealth; and

Whereas When the House adjourned on Friday morning, last, at 3:00 A. M., two stalwarts of this Honorable Body, to wit: the Honorable Elmer Kilroy and the Honorable Harry Goll exercised their constitutional and manly prerogative to defend said womanhood; and

Whereas At the termination of this brief, brusque and brutal defense, the Honorable David Denman was found climbing a tree on Capitol Hill, being certain that the squirrels had already gone to bed; and falling from said tree, thereby injuring his nose now therefore be it

Resolved That the House extend its thanks to the Honorable David Denman, who in the use of his mature, though hurried deliberation, did not add to the burden of our colleagues and defenders of womanhood, in their masterly dispatch of the visiting firemen from Kansas.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. CORDIER. Mr. Speaker, after all the dignified resolutions felicitating the Speaker and the other officers and employes of this House, and after all the oratorical heights to which the members of the other counties rose in praise of yourself, I might add that we from Lackawanna also think you have been a great Speaker. We know that you have presided over this body with charm, poise and dignity; that you stand out as a shining light and shining example for those who may follow you.

Those resolutions were presented in such a sincere and dignified manner that I hesitated to rise to speak on this one. However, Mr. Speaker, I was on the scene as a spectator, and you may use me as a witness if you wish—

The SPEAKER. Which tree were you on?

Mr. CORDIER. I am coming to that, Mr. Speaker.

I remained on the ground until the battle was over and the pieces were picked up. However I did not get any wound stripes. I want to congratulate the gentleman from Beaver and the gentleman from Philadelphia for their sterling defense of maidenhood and womanhood, and for upholding the highest traditions of this House in their respect and admiration for the fair sex. I think that is one of the greatest things that has come out of this session of the Legislature. We have perhaps been condemned and criticized for some of the things we have done here in Harrisburg, but this is one thing that occurred in this session of which the membership of the Legislature can always be proud.

I was on the scene when this incident occurred, Mr. Speaker, and I was also on the scene when Mr. Denman fell from the tree. After the battle was over I walked towards the capitol, and I believe there was another gentleman with me, I am not positive, but I think it was the able gentleman from Cambria, Mr. Andrews, and in Mr. Denman's defense I must say he was not alone in falling from the tree. In fact, if my memory serves me right, I think the minority floor leader also fell from the tree as well as the majority floor leader, and there were a lot of other members of the House who fell from the tree.

I turned to the gentleman from Cambria and said, "What is happening here"?

Said he, "Cohen and Woodside are just having another falling out".

I said, "How about the other fellows who fell down"?

He said, "They just want to make sure they are falling down on the right side".

So, Mr. Speaker, I think that this resolution ought to be amended.

Mr. BRETHERICK. He was not on the scene, Mr. Speaker. I was just wondering whether the Chinese detective was up that same tree.

Mr. CORDIER. I think the gentleman from Delaware is well qualified to answer that question himself.

Mr. Speaker, I think this resolution ought to be amended to give due credit to the gentleman from Westmoreland because of the fact that he fell out on the right side.

The SPEAKER. The Chair believes there might be something said in mitigation of the action of the gentleman from Westmoreland, Mr. Denman. Perhaps he has been mixed up with so many "nuts" in this session that he was looking for squirrels in the tree.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

It was unanimously adopted.

FILES OF MEMBERS

Mr. HABBYSHAW offered a resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Resolved That the Bureau of Publications, through the Department of Property and Supplies, be directed to mail files of bills and journals on desks of Members desiring same to places designated by them, all files being received by them through the Office of the Chief Clerk.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL No. 445

Mr. DAVID P. REESE. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate and that a Committee of Conference be appointed.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, at what time in the procedure of non-concurrence in House Bill No. 445 is it appropriate for the House to give specific instructions to the committee to be appointed to confer with a similar committee on the part of the Senate?

The SPEAKER. The Chair would advise the gentleman from York that the proper time for the House to give instructions to the committee on conference is at the time the committee is appointed, but such instructions should be in writing in order that there may be no misunderstanding.

The Chair suggests to the gentleman from York, when the message comes back with the Committee on Conference appointed on the part of the Senate that would be the suitable and proper time to submit directions to the committee.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

It was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints as a Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 445, Messrs. David P. Reese, Fiss and Herbert B. Cohen.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMUNICATION

The SPEAKER laid before the House the following communication which was read by the Clerk:

House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Mr. Speaker and Members of the House:

On behalf of my Boys and myself, we wish to thank you all for the honor of working here and also our appreciation for gifts we received on May 27th, 1939, for our service. Thanking you from my heart and with the same expression of appreciation from my boys, I remain,

Your Chief Page,
BENJAMIN H. FOLTZ.

I want to thank my boys for their splendid co-operation with each other as well as with me during this session.

Chief Page
House of Representatives.

The CHIEF PAGE. Mr. Speaker, I have traveled all over the United States, I have met all classes of people and I would like to say this is the first time I have been among such a swell bunch of sports.

The SPEAKER. The Chair thanks the Chief Page even though he does think he is exaggerating.

ADDRESS BY MR. MATTHEW J. WELSH

Mr. MATTHEW J. WELSH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, Comrades and fellow Americans this is the eve of Memorial Day, this is a solemn and sacred occasion, an occasion on which Americans gather together to pay fitting tribute to those who so willingly sacrificed themselves and shortened their lives that we might live. Remember this great Nation of ours was brought into existence through the blood and tears of countless thousands. Let us hope that neither have been shed in vain. After eight long weary years of suffering, after eight long weary years of blood-shed that brave band of Revolutionary Heroes battled from Lexington to Yorktown that we might be free. They crossed the Delaware river on that stormy night and afterwards left their bloody footprints in the snows of Valley Forge. When hope was almost gone there came to the aid of the Colonists the gallant young Lafayette of France, came from our sister Republic across the seas with whom our dough-boys were recently fighting side by side and if there ever was a debt of gratitude, this nation owed to France, it was more than paid and repaid from that memorable moment when Pershing stood before his tomb and said, "Lafayette we are here".

The ragged Continentals, those Revolutionary heroes were finally victorious under the leadership of him whom we call our first beloved, George Washington, he whose deathless valor and the splendor of his immortal genius is one of the brightest gems in Columbia's crown of glory.

True this nation was not built in a day, great differences existed between the North and the South. The slavery question remained unsettled, but those differences were thrashed out on the fiery field of battle, where brave men fought brave men squarely, and in that Civil War was melted the crucible which to a great extent welded this Nation into a whole. And when they met at Appomatox Court House, no grander words ever fell from victorious warrior's lips than those that were uttered by Grant when he beckoned back the sword to Lee and said, "Let us have peace". There was still considerable animosity between the North and South, but that animosity to a great extent was obliterated during the war with Spain, when the sons of the Blue and the sons of the Gray mingled their blood together in the far off islands of the sea forever cementing the ties that bind our beloved North to our sunny South, our Eastern shores to our golden West. And going forth in all these great conflicts were found not only Americans of native birth, but Americans who first saw the light of day in other lands, for remember we are a nation of many nations. And fighting side by side were found Americans of German extraction going with the boys who hailed from shady vales of France and those who came from sunny Italy, from the rugged hills of Poland, from along the banks of the blue Danube and the land of Killarney's lovely lakes, vieing with one another as to who should go farthest in defense of Old Glory. When our boys followed that flag, they followed the grandest flag in all the world, the flag that has never known defeat. To praise the Stars and Stripes were much like adding splendor to the sunrise, or fragrance to the breath of morn. She needs no encomium, star crowned she stands, the glory of America and the admiration of liberty loving mankind throughout the world. It is your duty, and it is my duty to keep its stripes unsullied, while its stars shine on with ever increasing luster. Not all who went to war returned. The greatest sacrifices were not those of the soldier alone. It takes a brave man to face the canon's mouth, but the hissing bullets and screaming shells were but music to the soldier's ears compared to the suffering of the gray haired mother left behind. She it was who shed tears intermingled with joy and sorrow, tears of sorrow that she may never see her soldier boy again, tears of joy that she bore a son who was ready to fight for her and home and country, and if necessary spill his life's blood on the altar of freedom. We hope this Nation shall never again be involved in war, but should any of those amongst you answer to the bugle's call, forget not your mother. Pen her a line and when you return she will be proud of you and if you never return, she will cherish your letters as amongst her most priceless possesions. Not all who went to war returned. To those of you who lost loved ones in the war, let me say, that sooner or later we shall all have passed away. So there is great consolation in knowing that there is no nobler, no grander death than to have laid down one's life for one's country. When we contemplate our history, realize the grandeur of our country and know the blessing of what should be and shall be a peoples government, it behooves us to banish any petty animosities from this fair land of ours, be considerate of the rights of one another, and live a more united nation.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would say the gentleman from Fayette reminds him of old wine. It takes a long time to make it but when you get it it is good. The Chair has served for some time with the gentleman from Fayette and has heard him many times threaten to make a speech on the floor of the House, but does not recall his making good his threat at any other time.

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Speaker, the honorable gentleman from Fayette made that speech for Mr. Al Tronzo of Allegheny.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has heard a great many speeches made by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo and hopes this one has a better effect upon the members.

ADDRESS BY MR. JACOB L. MOSER

Mr. MOSER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the latter part of January, the chief monitor on the Republican side of the House bestowed upon me the honor of being the monitor for zone Z. Since that time there has been a group of twenty members in that zone, seventeen of them having a one hundred per cent record of attendance in its caucuses and at the regular session. Three of those members have a ninety-nine per cent record for attendance. At this time I want to congratulate the boys in zone Z for their splendid attendance and for the cooperation they have given me as their monitor. I challenge any one of the other zones on the Republican side to match that record, and I hope that each and every one of the members in zone Z will be back here in 1941.

The SPEAKER. The Chair has given out many certificates during the year and wishes to assure the gentleman from Lehigh he will have certificates ready for his one hundred percenters in a short time.

Next year if they get another ribbon or certificate they will undoubtedly be entitled to see the State Capitol.

ADDRESS BY MR. SKALE

Mr. SKALE asked and obtained consent to address the House.

It seems to me we have been taking a little bit of stock in the last few days about some of the individual members here, so I have decided also to take a little bit of stock but not about any individual member of this House.

It seems there was a great amount of gloom in Mudville after the mighty Casey struck out.

But now as the session of the first legislative year of the James administration draws to a close the gloom is so thick in the Republican cheering section that it can be cut with a knife because the score is no runs, no hits and so many errors that the scorekeeper lost count.

The Old Deal in its attempt to make a comeback has only been able to hit foul balls.

About a year ago the political horizon shone bright with the promises of candidate James.

The people were told to do away with the New Deal and give the Old Dealers another chance and see how they profited by their past mistakes.

The Republican party presented a platform of promises which the people of Pennsylvania swallowed and returned the Old Deal to power once more.

We find, as we look at the legislative record in this session that the Old Deal is a carbon copy of the Old Deal of 1933 and years prior thereto.

We find an unbroken record of broken promises.

The people voted for the James administration because it promised specifically to reduce taxes. I quote in part from a speech made by Governor James when he promised "to conduct a thrifty and economical government which will enable us to reduce taxes, not impose new ones . . to cut taxes without reducing relief or W.P.A."

What has been done on this score? There was recommended and re-enacted the emergency taxes—the same levies imposed by the previous Democratic administration. The bills were passed and signed by the Governor, but no reduction in taxes was made.

Instead we find a budget handed to us by Governor James which is far out of balance.

It is practically assured that an increase in taxes will be necessary and that a special session for next year is certain at which time new taxes will be imposed.

The Old Deal in Pennsylvania today, as in former years, is much more expensive to the people.

The Republican platform promised to the people "We are going to humanize relief".

"We pledge ample relief to the unemployed, free from party favoritism".

During the Campaign Governor James said "Nobody is going to starve while I am Governor".

But that was when James was a candidate.

Then a bill was introduced known as the Van Allsburg Relief Bill which returns relief to control of the counties. thereby throwing relief directly into ward politics.

This is the James version of humanized relief.

This is the James way of taking relief out of politics.

Redefining the James promises that no one is going to starve while he is Governor should be "No Republican is going to starve while I am Governor of Pennsylvania".

Then the Governor promised he would "issue a clemency proclamation calling back our industries which have been driven out of the State who have been driven out of the state into taxation exile—enough tax reductions to permit you to operate at a profit".

But business has received nothing from the James administration except more promises.

Business has not received a cent of tax reduction. Business has not been given a balanced state budget instead business faces higher taxes.

The Republican party promised to "defend the right of labor to organize and to negotiate with employers. The workers must have the protection of workmen's and unemployment compensation"—

POINT OF INFORMATION

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Philadelphia will state his point of information.

Mr. FALKENSTEIN. Mr. Speaker, I believe on the last night of the session we are generally herein harmony and good friendship and politics and everything else is forgotten.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion that the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Falkenstein, is out of order. The gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale, is not talking politics, he is talking nonsence. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. SKALE. Continuing on that part of the promises of the Republican party, I continue with this part of the Republican platform. It was promised that the workers must have the protection of workmen's unemployment compensation.

Now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, becoming a little serious, it is not necessary to refer to the vicious amendment introduced to the State Labor Relations Act and the Anti-Labor Injunction Law. However, I refer specifically to the bill destroying the liberal 1937 workmen's compensation act passed by this administration with the approval of the Governor which again places Pennsylvania away down on the list of the states affording protection to the employes. It undoubtedly returns this state to the dark days before the rights of the working man received recognition and proper and adequate protection.

The Republican party promised to restore and develop the principles of home rule in the administration of government.

The biggest home rule issue is the Philadelphia City Charter which was killed in the Republican controlled Committee on Cities and received final burial services the other day.

The dictators who ordered its execution were the respectable looking Joseph N. Pew, Jr., and Jay Cooke.

These dictators said they won't permit a cure for the ills of Philadelphia, the birth place of the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution.

This House also passed a bill removing the Director of Public Safety in Philadelphia and placing control of the police of Philadelphia in the hand of the Governor. Is this the home rule promised to the people of Pennsylvania? If this type of legislation is continued, as the Philadelphia Inquirer said editorially, "Philadelphia will become a suburb of Harrisburg".

Such is the return to sound government promised for Pennsylvania by the Republican party.

The Governor was all set to make history in Pennsylvania.

Yes, Arthur H. James will go down in Pennsylvania history as a Governor of great promises but of no fulfillment.

ADDRESS BY MR. ANDREWS

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have listened to what the gentleman from Philadelphia said happened. Unfortunately all that happened, happened principally in his absence.

The SPEAKER. Sometimes you cannot see the trees for the forest. Therefore, perhaps the gentleman in his absence was viewing us from afar.

ADDRESS BY MR. MORAN

Mr. MORAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have a letter here to Oswald that I want to read.

Dear Oswald:—I have been watchin the papers ever since inauguration day to find out how this new governor was goin to run this state without no taxes. He done a lot of talkin last fall about how the state had went to the dogs under the Democrats and he promised to clean up the mess at Harrisburg the same as Pinchot promised to do every time he was runnin for office except when he was runnin for office and Steve Stahlnecker was runnin things at Harrisburg.

Well this here Governor got to talkin like Pinchot. Maybe it was Steve Stahlnecker that got him to talkin like that because Steve wants another job lookin after the utilities and messes and such things. He told us they was too many taxes under the Democrats and they would get rid of them if he was elected. Well he started right in to rootin things out. Any thing that the Democrats done was wrong so that they had to be rooted out right away. One of the things that had to be rooted out was the new highway under the mountains. Another thing was the new Thompson way of building school houses so as to get the New Dealers to send the money up here from Washington to build the school houses and then let us rent them like the Buildin and Loan Association does for peoples houses in town till they get paid for all by themselves and people keep living in them all the time they are paying for them. Well this plan wasnt no good so it had to be rooted out. Then another thing he was down on was flood control. The Democrats got scared in 1936 when the Susquehanna got on the rampage and nearly washed the capitol away and they decided to get some dams up in the mountains to keep the water away from Harrisburg when the next flood come along. This Governor said this high water was all bunk and the Republicans was in power for forty years without havin no bad floods like that and if the people would keep them in power some more there wouldnt be no more floods for forty years more so he throwed the Democratic engineers out the window and the flood control plans too. Well then he got down to the Democratic taxes and was getting ready for the bon fire. When somebody jabbed him in the ribs and said look here Governor you got a budget message to send to the legislature because them fellows dont know nothing about how much money you are goin to have to take away from the people unless you tell them what to do and then he got after his budget rassler to find out how to get around this job. Well the budget man give him a lot of figures and he looked them over and got sick in his stomack and had to get Colonel Estes to take him down to the sea shore for a little salt air. Him and the Colonel looked over the figgers and poked around all over the sea shore for alibis and then come back home with the engines in reverse. The budget was the biggest we ever seen and it was away out of balance so he had to choke up and send it to the legislature with a clerk because he was too tender hearted to appear in public at party funerals and wakes with a presidential bee in his bonnet. Some Democrat might have said something sour or maybe Herb Cohen would read one of his campaign speeches about taxes and such things.

Well then while his engines was in reverse he got a report from the new tunnel road and decided that if they was goin to build a road like that and it wasnt goint to cost nobody nothin he might as well get behind it because some day somebody might die and he could get control of the commission or he might get the legislature to pack it for him and it would come in handy to have a lot of Republicans workin for you when the delegation was elected for the National convention because nobody knows when Pinchot will bob up again and try to get to be President with the Pennsylvania delegates.

Than the Pittsburgh fellows come in to see him about the flood business and he gets into reverse on that and now it looks like he will have to do something about the Thompson school house plan if he wants to get some money from Washington to keep the state a goin. He let Jim Davis vote agin the W.P.A. appropriation and now 100,000 men got laid off on April 1 and with him throwin $41,000,000 out the window for them school houses it looks like we will have to scare up a first class war to get men to work making shells and things or else there wont be enough relief money to last a year and that will mean a special session and special taxes and hunger marchers and no presidential delegates or nothin. He wants the New Deal to send more Pennsylvania money back here for WPA or somethin but him and Jim Davis is agin the money when Congress and Hopkins or the President or someone down there tries to do somethin about it.

I see in the papers now that the Governor is tellin people to pull in their belts and economize so that the state can get along with the taxes the Democrats invented. We thought we was goin to have one of them scientific tax systems. You know, one of the systems that experts cook up so that the other fellow pays the taxes. Well tham schemes dont get the money and this time they had to get the money so they left the taxes on the fellows that had the money so the budget would get balanced. You know the Governor wouldnt have no chance as a budget balancer agin Alf Landon in the convention unless he had a balanced budget so you see the fellows that put up that wad of money last fall to get rid of the Democratic taxes got gipped so now they have got to pull in their belts and economize just like the rest of us. I guess it aint so bad to pull in your belts if you have a wad like Joe Pew or a salary of $18,000 a year but us farmers had to take our belts for backin straps on our incomes and we aint got none to pull in. We aint got nothin inside us to pull in neither even if we did have belts pulled up to the eighth hole. We aint even got no suspenders since Bob Patterson quit sellin them to go into the Milk Control Business.

Now this milk business and this suspender business brings us right back to the old subject; the nuisance inspectors and the Chick Sale institutions all over this state. The milk inspectors say they aint safe for sanitary milk production and over here the milk inspector and the Chick Sale salesman for the WPA is in cahouts. The milk inspector comes along and knocks off a farmers antique deluxe model of the gay nineties with graduated age control and size control with roof ventilators, newspaper shelves catalogue boxes and (smoking supplies for Senator Sipe) and then sends out the high pressure salesman from the WPA to high jack a farmer into buying a regulation one holer.

You have got to give this WPA salesman credit for one thing. He dont like to sell this model because it aint a New Deal invention at all. He says it was invented in the administration of Herbert Hoover and is a misfit all around. In the first place he says it aint big enough for a real abundant life or a real abundant person neither. What self respectin woman wants to be seen stickin half way out side of the place while holdin little Mary or Johnny in the right place so they wont fall in or out with the rain droppin down on rainy days on the part that is stickin out of the door or the boys gettin the apple throwin fever along about the middle of the summer. It aint no position for a woman to be in in the winter time neither with penumaonia creepin up on you all the time. This salesman says the government ought to take a lesson from Jim Jones chicken house. He cut a little hole for the little chickens and a big hole for the big chickens and then the little chickens knowed which hole to use. Another thing he says is wrong is they have to put the seat in cattebias and a long legged man has to set kitty fashioned and it aint comfortable. What doctor would be satisfied with such an experience when a man gets in there on a real cold day with a sheep line coat two pairs of overalls and the winter flannels to contend with; a self closing lid a proddin him in the back and his knees jammed agin the door tryin to make the pills work. Any doctor knows it aint healthy.

This down draft ventillation aint so hot in the winter time when the snow is blowin at sixty mile an hour. It might be alright in California where Hoover lives but here in Pennsylvania the old star in the door was better than the long slot under the roof. When it got cold enough and you didnt need the light to read or figger up the prices in the catalog you could stuff some paper in the star to make the old house kozy like but if you started to stuffin up the long slot in these places you wouldn't have none left for other purposes so all you can do is to set there and shiver and take it.

I dont know why Congress aint done nothin about this. Carter Glass and Jack Garners friends could accommodate the President this much and not let the new Dealers of the United States use Herbert Hoover outdoor utilities for well on to six years without no improvements. I think this James Administration can do somethin about it because they promised to do something for the dairy farmers in the campaign. Here ninety thousand milk producers in Pennsylvania want to produce good clean milk and they want to be clean and sanitary but they dont want to set kitty fashioned and they dont want down draft ventillation. They want enough room so that their knees wont be jammed agin the door and the women wont stick half way out when Johnny needs help. You know very well that the Governor wouldnt be satisfied with one of these one holers because there wouldt be no place for Colonel Estes so I think the whole proposition is up to you Republicans to do something about it.

Hopelessly yours,

HIRAM.

ADDRESS BY MR. CORDIER

Mr. CORDIER asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, we on this side feel Governor James needs no defense. We have in this session listened to many speeches from the other side attacking him for some of his proposals and the things he has not accomplished. We feel that in the final analysis the people will test what he has done and decide whether it has been good or bad for the citizens of the Commonwealth.

I listened with a great deal of pleasure to the speeches of the gentleman from Philadelphia and the gentleman from Allegheny and I am reminded of an article that appeared in the press after this session was well on its way. The statement was made by an esteemed member of the Senate, Senator Jacobs of Cumberland, a fine Democrat, in which he said from his observation as a new member, ninety-nine per cent of the statements and speeches made on the floor of the General Assembly are insincere. In view of Senator Jacob's statement, I offer in evidence as further proof of the fact that he was not far afield, the speeches of the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale, and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran.

The SPEAKER. The Chair would say to his Republican colleague, we always feel when these political speeches are made, a certain amount of fleas are good for the dog.

ADDRESS BY MR. TAYLOR

Mr. TAYLOR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, now that we have heard from the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Skale, and the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Moran as to what is wrong with the country and the state and how to correct everything that is wrong with the James administration and so forth, I want to call your attention to the gray haired gentleman sitting in the center of the House to the rear of the hall. I would ask him to stand up. I want him to show you the largest five cent cigar I have seen since the Earle administration went out of office.

ADDRESS BY MR. TRONZO

Mr. TRONZO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I want to add to the remarks made by the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Taylor. I wonder whether or not the James administration is going to go up in smoke just like that cigar.

ADDRESS BY MR. TAYLOR

Mr. TAYLOR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reply to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Tronzo, I would say that that cigar will go up in smoke just as the Earle administration did.

ADDRESS BY MR. HOCKE

Mr. HOCKE asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, before I start, I am very happy that my wife is not in the audience because I know her attitude toward these allegedly funny stories would not have heightened her respect for this membership. I feel sorry for the ladies in the audience and for the lady members.

We hear so much about the agricultural members that many of the House members seem to have a very vague idea, or knowledge of York County, and its relative importance to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania—historically, commercially and agriculturally.

Just twenty-eight miles south of this Capitol building there is a small circular area called Continental Square. It is the hub of the city and county of York. Two of the nation's most important vehicular transportation systems, Route No. 30, "The Lincoln Highway," and Route No. 111, "The Susquehanna Trail," intersect at that point.

Continental Square is not so named because it makes a euphonious combination of words, but because of what transpired there over one hundred fifty years ago when Continental Congress met in the Court House on the square for a period of nine months because, Philadelphia could no longer give the Congress the protection it needed.

So York can rightfully claim some share of the glory of being the Cradle of Liberty that Philadelphia is wont to usurp for itself.

I must admit that York was not sufficiently farsighted to preserve the original Court House as a shrine for posterity.

This oversight may be ascribed to the continuing character of the people who built and developed York. They have always been a highly practical group, more concerned with meeting each day's tasks and problems as they arose, not bothering much about the dead past or the improbabilities and uncertain predictions as to the future.

Such a philosophy of life builds slowly, but it builds well and strong. It shuns visionary planning and hectic advance but thereby also prevents disillusionment and oft times disaster.

Following such a steady tempo, Yorkers have built a small compact industrial city and county, that has become the envy of most other communities. Steadily and persistently, using their own genius and capital, they have built an industrial center of nearly three hundred industries, several, the largest of their type in the world. Ony Philadelphia and Pittsburgh have more diversified industries.

By way of illustration: York makes the biggest ice machines and air conditioning installations, the largest hydraulic turbines, more artificial teeth than the rest of the world combined, the biggest bank vaults, the greatest number of tire chains, the largest mixing machinery, and believe it or not we have the largest pretzel factory and a horse whip and fly net factory, a large Bakelite factory, a shoe merchant with fifty-one stores and a shoe factory with one hundred and twelve stores.

These have not been the outgrowth of the development of rich natural resources, for York has none except lime stone. They are the result of the forces of private initiative and incentive based on the possible rewards flowing from successful enterprise.

The same sort of character and enterprise is found in the farmers of the county. This is proved by the large number of prizes 1,256 awarded to York Countians at the Farm Show. Just outside of Hanover are the Sheppard Farms with its famous horses. This has been a good combination of industry and agriculture; in fact, so good that a writer in the Saturday Evening Post designated York and York county one of the best examples of a balanced economy in the entire United States.

This thrifty and intelligent conservatism is reflected in the banking institutions, of which there are ten in the city. After the bank holidays, all reopened without restriction.

While Yorkers are thrifty, they are not niggardly, for they provide well for the necessary public and private institutions. The city has over seventy churches, a new library, a most modern Y.M.C.A., a top-notch new hospital, modern school buildings and all the necessary civic and charitable groups. We also have one of the finest fair grounds in the Country of which our Lieutenant Governor is President.

Both the city and county are in fine financial condition. A recent small bond issue of the city sold at the best figure ever given any Pennsylvania municipality. The bonds of the county are rated equally high by financial institutions.

Perhaps the history and development of York can be matched by a few other communities. The hard cold fact is that such enduringly solid cities have not been the result of governmental largess nor political forced feeding. They are monuments to the American way of allowing the genius of private citizens to function without too much help or hindrance from a paternalistic government.

York, in common with all other cities, suffered from the depression and is heroically struggling to stay on its feet, and its hopes are again being reborn that business and agriculture may build again as they have built before—a lasting way out of the depression by lifting from their shoulders the heavy hand of the tax gatherer and bureaucratic regulatory control of boards and commissions.

SENATE MESSAGES

HOUSE BILL CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 496.

An Act to amend section four of the act approved the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirteen (Pamphlet Laws one thousand twenty-four) entitled "An act to protect the public health and welfare by regulating the employment of females in certain establishments with respect to their hours of labor and the conditions of their employment by establishing certain sanitary regulations in the establishments in which they work by requiring certain abstracts and notices to be posted by providing for the enforcement of this act by the Commissioner of Labor and Industry and others by prescribing penalties for violations thereof by defining the procedure in prosecutions and by repealing all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions thereof" by extending the night restrictions on employment in manufacturing establishments in certain cases

With the information that the Senate has passed the same without amendment.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1580

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has insisted upon its amendments, nonconcurred in by the House of Representatives, to House Bill No. 1580, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals

And has appointed Messrs. Ealy, Owlett and Shapiro, a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (already appointed) on the subject of the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL No. 761

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists on its non-concurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill No. 761, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause six and nine of section one and Section three of the act approved the twenty-seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws 858) entitled "An act establishing a State employes' retirement system and creating a retirement board for the administration thereof establishing certain funds from contributions by the Commonwealth and contributing State employes defining the uses and purposes thereof and the manner of payments therefrom and providing for the guaranty by the Commonwealth of certain of said funds imposing powers and duties upon the heads of departments in which State employes serve excepting annuities allowances returns benefits and rights from taxation and judicial process and providing penalties" further defining State employes and original members and making further exception to compulsory membership in the system.

And has appointed Messrs. Tallman, Beltz and Ruth, a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (already appointed) on the subject of the differences existing between the two houses in relation to said bill.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection the Chair is about to declare a recess until 10:30 p. m. Is there objection? The Chair hears none and declares a recess until 10:30 p. m.

AFTER RECESS

The House reconvened at 10:30 p. m.

The SPEAKER (Ellwood J. Turner) in the Chair.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1552

Mr. NORMAN WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to submit the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1552.

The SPEAKER. The report will lie over for printing under the rules.

Mr. FURMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to be recorded present on the call of the House.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 335.

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the general maintenance of and the purchase of apparatus and equipment for the University of Pittsburgh and for the maintenance of teaching facilities in hospitals for students in the School of Medicine

With information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 2, by striking out all of lines 6 to 9 inclusive as follows: "including maintenance of teaching facilities in hospitals for students in the School of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh including the Maternity Dispensary and other dispensaries" and inserting in lieu thereof the following: "and the further sum of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000) or so much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated to the Trustees of the University of Pittsburgh for the maintenance of teaching facilities in the School of Medicine of the University of Pittsburgh".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

Rose, Turner, Speaker,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative the question was determined in the affirmative, and the amendments were concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

ADDRESS BY MR. JOHN N. HOFFMAN

Mr. JOHN N. HOFFMAN asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I feel I would be causing quite a disappointment to myself if I did not in this closing hour of the session of the Legislature take the opportunity of expressing my appreciation for many courtesies that have been extended to me as a new member of this House.

Since Saturday it seems to me I have been living in a new atmosphere, created by the spirit that was made possible through the exchange of expressions and gifts on that day. The thing that strikes me forcibly is the spirit that was prevalent on those occasions. I feel that the element of expression of human values has been so important that I cannot let the opportunity go by to say to the members of this House, and to the Speaker, that it has been my good fortune to be permitted to fellowship with as fine a body of men and ladies, making up this General Assembly, as I have ever met. I have a new vision of things, quite contrary to that which I had before I came to the House. I am sure that my outlook on things that concern our human relationship has stimulated within me a higher motive than I had when I came here. After all, we are not down here to engage in things that are entirely political. If we have measured up to the standards that are created through human values, and through that medium have made it possible to cast better reflections upon the value of our relationship to each other, we have at least accomplished something.

We are at a time when we face an end, and in a situation of that kind it strikes me there is always more or less of a tinge of sadness in the things that we contemplate when they end. We are coming to the point where this General Assembly will come to a close, and I know, and I want for myself to make it clear and plain, that whatever has transpired on the floor of this House, what friendships have been formed, what fellowships have been created, what spirits have been created within the soul, they have developed a healthier aspiration making it possible to reach out and help the other fellow. I can't help but feel impressed as I recall the words of the poet: "I want to live in a House by the side of the road and be a friend to man". After all that is a high aspiration I believe of the human soul.

I was deeply touched on Saturday by the eloquent words delivered by our Speaker. While I have not had the pleasure of knowing Speaker Turner as intimately as some of the older members of the House, I could not help but be impressed with the soul stirring message that emanated from his lips. I think he has led me personally to a higher conception of the value of life. I think he has given me personally a new outlook on the things that pertain to our human happiness and relations one with the other. If I have accomplished nothing else, if I have gained nothing else, coming here as a member of this General Assembly, I have had my outlook on life intensified by a lofty spirit that enables me to catch a new vision of the things that are worth while. Afer all, fellow members of the House, none of us live unto ourselves, each of us is daily building things that may be insignificant to others, but in the great eternal value of the things that make for life and for eternity we do build, and I am glad to know that we are building a character that makes for the things that are eternal and leave behind us in the sands of time, footprints that man may see and follow, as we by divine inspiration move out into the direction of the things that are true and noble and worth while.

I am glad tonight that I am a member of this Assembly. I am glad it was my privilege in a small way to make my contribution to the things that are worth while, and to consider from a human standpoint the best interests of our people as a whole. I am stirred as I contemplate the fact that we have had deeply impressed upon our hearts the noble principles of our American democracy and the things that America holds dear. Standing as I do tonight upon the threshold of memory, it is those principles that make me feel more deeply that America still is safe.

I want to take this occasion personally to express my deep and profound appreciation for the courtesies that have been extended to me by the Speaker of this House. I have had no greater evidence of the divine principle manifested by the spirit of affection that has emanated from the lips of the Speaker of this House.

Very seldom do we have the opportunity, on an occasion of this kind, to speak our hearts. I want the members of this House to feel they have helped me and that I shall go away carrying in my heart the memory of the fellowship and affection that makes me feel that life after all is worth living.

I want to extend to the floor leader of this House my respect and my admiration and I thank him for his counsel to me and for his willingness to assist one who is untried in the game of political life. I want to say to the members of the House, each one, that I am glad for your fellowship. Within the memories of my life I shall bear and cherish these thoughts and affections, and I want you to feel that when we separate I shall still remember you in the spirit of that which lives. We come to the time, my friends, when we will have to say farewell. Sometime along life's way we will meet the great end, and until that time I extend to you my cordial well wishes and a fervent prayer that God will be with us all until we meet again. I thank you.

RESOLUTION

INSTRUCTIONS TO HOUSE CONFEREES ON HOUSE BILL No. 445

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I wish to offer the following resolution carrying specific instructions to the Committee on Conference on House Bill 445, Printers No. 996.

The resolution was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Resolved, That the conferees, appointed by the Speaker of the House, to meet with conferees appointed on the part of the Senate to draft a conference report on House Bill No. 445, Printer's No. 996, are hereby instructed to insist upon the deletion of the words "the Secretary of the Commonwealth", from Section 7, line 20 , page 15, of said bill.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the import of the resolution which has just been offered is to effectuate an amendment to the bill as passed by the Senate, and to remove from page fifteen thereof the inclusion of the Secretary of the Commonwealth as a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue.

The Board of Finance and Revenue as now constituted, includes the State Treasurer, the Auditor General, the Attorney General and the Secretary of Revenue. Presently that board is composed of two Democrats and two Republicans. The effect of this amendment would be to give the Republican Party, by the inclusion of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, three members on the board and two Democrats. If that only meant giving to the Republican Party the twenty-eight jobs or so that are involved, I would not take up the time of this House at this late date trying to save for the by-partisan board twenty-eight jobs. That is not my concern. My concern is the fact that the fiscal policies, the nonpartisan parts of that board, are definitely being placed in jeopardy. You men have reenacted the tax laws that have been in existance in the Commonwealth since 1935. The board acts as the board of review to determine whether or no assessments made by the Bureau of Corporations of the Department of Revenue are proper tax assessments. To put in the Secretary of the Commonwealth with no tax or fiscal background is to confuse the board in its operation. Never in the history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was this done. Even in 1935, when the State Treasurer and the Auditor General were Republicans, no attempt to stuff the board was made. You are dealing in this board directly with your budget. Upon the manner in which this board exercises its functions depends whether or not to a very great extent anticipated taxes you have levied will be forthcoming. To inject into this board an attempt to control the fiscal policies is to jeopardize your anticipated income, and I say this with a great deal of restraint. I say to the members of this House the only way administrative government is going to gain the confidence of the people is to have administrative government function efficiently. The Secretary of the Commonwealth is in no way equipped either with personnel or a taxation background. The Secretary of the Commonwealth has no fiscal duties to perform in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and to insert the Secretary of the Commonwealth into the administrative code and to make that individual a member of the board dealing with highly technical problems is to confuse that board in the exercise of its duties. I say to you men, and I am handing this to you as a warning, in an effort to get good administrative government, don't put the Secretary of the Commonwealth on the Board of Finance and Revenue. If you men are so much interested and I don't believe you are, in the twenty-eight jobs concerned, there is not that much at stake that you are willing to ruin the entire fiscal policy of the Commonwealth. You are not so much interested in a small appropriation that you are willing to jeopardize the appropriations to our hospitals, our homes and our educational institutions. You are not, for twenty-eight jobs, going to sell down the river the anticipated income that you men have provided and placed upon the statute books. You are not so much interested in the twenty-eight jobs that you are going to allow preference to be injected into the fiscal policy of the Commonwealth so that favored corporations may come to the Board of Finance and Revenue and get tax exemptions beyond their justification. You are not so much interested in twenty-eight jobs that you are going to allow this board to be utilized as a political lever with which political favors will be given to the taxpayers, because, mark you, every time you give a political favor to a taxpayer, it means that some other taxpayer has to pay more taxes. It means that by going in and taking unwarranted control of the Board of Finance and Revenue, the problems that will confront us in the next special session are going to be greatly enlarged. I plead with you that the Secretary of the Commonwealth be not made a member of this board. The office does not connote an acquaintance with the fiscal policies of this state. The office carries with it no fiscal background. The inclusion of the Secretary of the Commonwealth is an attempt to utilize the Board of Finance and Revenue for subversive activities that will strike at the very foundation of this Commonwealth, activities that will disrupt the entire fiscal policy and cast reflection on the Republican Party.

I say to you for your own good, for the good of the Republican party, do not place yourselves in a position whereby the Board of Finance and Review will possibly be prostituted. Do not place the Republican party in a position whereby the functions of this board might be the subject of mal-administration. For your own good leave this bill as it was and delete from it the Secretary of the Commonwealth. I am asking that of you, gentlemen, fully cognizant of the fact that at this late hour we possibly are not capable of intense deliberation, but I hope you men will still be vigilant and protect not only your own party, but the people of the Commonwealth, and delete the Secretary of the Commonwealth from this bill, by passing the resolution just presented so instructing your conferees of the House.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the procedure which has been taken is very unusual, although a parliamentarily correct and possible procedure. It is a procedure whereby the conferees are directed to do a particular thing, binding the conferees of the House although not necessary the conferees of the Senate. It would therefore be possible, by the adoption of this resolution to tie up the conferees and make it impossible for them to reach an agreement. The matter is still in conference and I think this resolution should be voted down, regardless of what is contained in the resolution.

The purpose of this resolution is to make it impossible for the conferees to decide on the adoption of the Senate amendments which makes the Secretary of the Commonwealth a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue. The Secretary of the Commonwealth at the present time is a very able lawyer, one who has served in the Department of Justice, one who knows a great deal about this Commonwealth and about the legal phases involved in the Board of Finance and Revenue, as well as its various problems. It seems to me there is no sound reason why the Secretary of the Commonwealth should not serve on this Board, and I ask the members of the House to vote "no" on this resolution.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I understand the gentleman said there was no reason why the Secretary of the Commonwealth should not be included as a member of the Board of Finance and Review. Will the gentleman please give me one sound reason why the Secretary of the Commonwealth should be included?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I have already given one reason why the present Secretary of the Commonwealth would be an asset to the Board of Finance and Review. It is an even board now and I know of very few boards or commissions in the state government or anywhere else on which they have an even number. It seems to me it is almost a universal rule of procedure, wherever possible, that boards, commissions and committees are composed of uneven numbers.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Dauphin indicate to the House any time in the past history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania when the Secretary of the Commonwealth served as a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue, even when an expert lawyer such as Mr. Beamish was Secretary of the Commonwealth?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, we are progressive, and I really think this is an improvement.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand by that answer that at no time in the past history of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the Secretary of the Commonwealth sat as a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, not as for back as my memory goes, which is not so very far.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please inform the membership of the House whether or not the Board of Finance and Revenue functioned properly during the first year of the Earle administration, when the State Treasurer and the Auditor General were Republicans, and the Attorney General and the Secretary of Revenue were Democrats.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, I have heard arguments on both sides of that question. I have heard at times that the Board of Finance and Revenue functioned very well, and I have heard criticism of it at other times.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, as a matter of fact by the inclusion of the Secretary of Commonwealth as a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue the majority party will then be in position to effectuate tax rebates to its favored corporations.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the Republican party has no favored corporations.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand by that that the tax rebates will be given to all the corporations in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, all corporations who are honestly entitled to it.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that any corporation that is justifiably entitled to a tax rebate would not receive that rebate from the Board of Finance and Revenue as it is presently constituted?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I don't know that, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, apparently it is the avowed purpose of the majority party to include in this bill the Secretary of the Commonwealth as a member of the Board of Finance and Revenue. I think it is a mistake. It is a mistake that you men will rue. It is a mistake that is going to bring upon the Republican party the same condemnation that existed in previous times. I cannot see why the Republican party whose emblem is the elephant that is supposed never to forget should also assume the attributes of the baboon and learn nothing. The experience of the Board of Finance and Revenue is one that for years has been a crying shame, and for the Republican party to again turn the Board of Finance and Revenue back to individuals who will continue in preferential tax rebates to favored corporations is to expose the membership of that party to the condemnation that it justifiably has received in the past and which it will justifiably receive in the future. I am appealing to the rank and file of the Republican party to save themselves in the interest of good government. I am telling you that no agency of the Commonwealth has the possibility of being utilized for mal-administration more than does the Board of Finance and Revenue. If you men tonight include the Secretary of the Commonwealth on this Board, so that in the future preferential tax rebates may be given to the favored corporations in the state of Pennsylvania, I predict, as sure as day follows night, the defeat of the Republican party.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the argument of the gentleman from York must be based upon the assumption that the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, and the Secretary of Revenue are people who cannot be trusted and would not honestly administer their office. I say to the members of the House the people who now hold those offices are above reproach, they can be trusted as honest, efficient people, they will honestly administer the law, and act upon the matters which will be brought before the Board of Finance and of Revenue according to their consciences. For that reason I think the objections raised by the gentleman are unsound.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I think the gentleman from Dauphin has used as a basis the assumption that the Secretary of the Commonwealth, the Secretary of Revenue and the Attorney General will sit upon the board, but they do not. They delegate that authority to appointees. I say to the gentleman from Dauphin if I knew as a fact that the Attorney General and the Secretary of the Commonwealth were personally going to sit and hear these cases I possibly would not make these objections. But the gentleman from Dauphin well knows that they do not sit and for that reason I am saying in an agency as important as this is, the best type of administration can be gotten from a bi-partisan group, a representation of those interested in protecting all the people, and by including the Secretary of the Commonwealth on this board you are doing nothing more than padding the board, and if you are padding or stuffing the board you are only padding and stuffing it for your own ulterior purposes. I do not believe that is for the best interests of all the taxpayers of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. That is why I oppose the stuffing and padding.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Herbert B. Cohen and Mr. Ominsky and were as follows:

RESOLUTION

RECALLING HOUSE BILL No. 1048 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. LICHTENWALTER offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, May 29, 1939.

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 1048, Printer's No. 946, entitled "An Act to further amend clause (a) of section four hundred and seven of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (Pamphlet Laws fifteen 1933-34) entitled as amended 'An act to regulate and restrain the sale manufacture possession transportation importation traffic in and use of alcohol and alcoholic and malt or brewed beverages conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board and its agents the Department of Public Instruction other officers of the State Government courts and district attorneys authorizing the establishment and operation of State stores for the sale of such beverages not for consumption on the premises and the granting of licenses subject to local option to sell such beverages for consumption on and off the premises forbidding importation or bringing of such beverages into the State except as herein provided prohibiting certain sales or practices in connection with and transactions in such beverages by licensees and others providing for the forfeiture of certain property making disposition of the receipts from State stores and of fees and imposing penalties' changing the fees for hotel and restaurant liquor licenses in certain cases," be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

SENATE MESSAGE

AMENDED HOUSE BILL NON-CONCURRED IN BY SENATE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the House to House Bill numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1232.

An Act regulating the appointment promotion suspension reduction and reinstatement of employes (except superintendent of police and assistant superintendent of police) in bureaus of police detectives signal operators assistant signal operators police telephone operators police radio operators and assistant radio operators police women and police matrons in cities of the second class defining the powers and duties of civil service commissions for such purpose in said cities and repealing inconsistent legislation.

HOUSE RECEDES FROM AMENDMENTS TO HOUSE BILL NO. 1232

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House recede from its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate to House Bill No. 1232.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Fleming.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FLEMING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is it correct that one of the questions upon which this controversy hinges is the paragraph of the bill which allows a policeman who has been convicted of a crime to go back on the police force at the discretion of the Trial board of the Department of Safety?

Mr. FLEMING. That may be partly true. It was explained, to the satisfaction of the Attorney General and the Attorney for the police organization that it was only in case of assault and battery and nonsupport cases. I understand it has been enforced in other respects in the state.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, does the act say "convicted of a crime" as it originally left the House?

Mr. FLEMING. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, then how can the Attorney General or anybody else construe the question of being convicted of a crime to mean assault and battery or non-support?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, I wondered at that myself.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman from Allegheny, as sponsor of this bill, in favor of leaving that amendment in the bill which allows a policeman to be reinstated even though he has been convicted of a crime?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, after the explanation given to me by the attorneys for the policemen I am in favor of it.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that the gentleman would rather see that provision in there than to see the bill fall?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker, that possibly would have some bearing on it.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in all fairness I realize that Mr. Fleming has taken the position, rather than see the bill fall he would leave this obnoxious provision in the bill. While I do not want to oppose this bill, and while I feel the bill is of great importance, particularly to the city of Pittsburgh, I cannot for the life of me see why we should pass a bill and concur in an amendment that specifically says a police officer who has been convicted of a crime may be reinstated. If I understand the law a crime might mean anything from murder to assault and battery. It does seem to me that before we can concur we ought to plead a little more with the Senate. I think this provision in this bill will not only degrade the police force of the city of Pittsburgh but there will be something in the bill which I do not think you can find anywhere in America. Before we take this step I am wondering whether or not Mr. Fleming and the members of the House cannot prevail upon the Senate to take this obnoxious, this unnecessary, this senseless provision out of this bill. I ask Mr. Fleming if he will not withhold his motion and let us try to prevail upon the Senate further?

Mr. FLEMING. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I can recognize, as Mr. Brown states, that this is a bad section to some extent, but on the other hand the bill has so many fine qualities that I feel we must take something we do not like in order to get something that will prove to be of benefit to the city of Pittsburgh, and we should accept the Senate amendments.

I would call to the attention of the other members of the House that on May 14 when the bill passed in its original form, there were only thirty-seven negative votes against it. I would also call attention to the fact there were thirty-one votes for it at that time in the Senate. There has been some controversy about it over there. I wish again to direct his attention to the fact that the Senate has insisted upon its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the House.

The SPEAKER. The Chair desires to advise the gentleman, that while the Chair might be in sympathy with the feeling of the gentleman, he cannot criticize what has happened in the Senate.

Mr. FLEMING. I apologize Mr. Speaker, and ask that the members vote for this motion.

Mr. HOMER S. BROWN. Mr. Speaker, and members of the House, I do not want to be misunderstood, and I don't want the gentleman from Allegheny to be misunderstood, but I live in the city of Pittsburgh and many others of us live there. I believe if we hold up this motion for awhile, we can straighten this matter out. I do not believe any part of the bill is so important to the city of Pittsburgh as to say to a policeman who is there to protect the people, "Mr. Policeman, although you have been convicted of a crime you can still walk beats." I think there is nothing in the bill, from the very beginning to the end, that is as important as that provision. If you will allow that provision to remain you will demoralize, as well as degrade and bring the police force of the city of Pittsburgh into ill repute. We ought to delay action on this motion until we are absolutely certain the bill will fall unless that provision remains in it. I suggest that we tarry a while and see if we cannot reason with those who seem now to be so unreasonable.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I believe this House in the past has seen pressure lobbyists working. Never in my three sessions have I seen better or more lobbying done than by those who are interested in having the amendment placed by this House in this bill taken out. I believe the bill as it now stands, instead of helping the trucking industry throughout the state of Pennsylvania, will in time disgust the people who are being driven off the highways by large trucks. This House went on record in favor of at least detouring the large trucks from certain highways on Sundays. I sincerely believe if a lobby of motorists could have been in this House their lobby would have been greater and louder than those of the truckers association. I must compliment the lobbies maintained by the truckers as being the most efficient, as being on the job of acting as guards for those who took some interest in the bill so that they would not change their minds. They should at least receive a big increase from the companies they represent because the lobbyists for the truckers of the state of Pennsylvania certainly have done a good job. I believe, due to their not giving any concession to the man who wants to drive out with his family and see the country on Sunday that lobbying will only work backwards and eventually the voices of the people will be heard and at least they will be given their side of the road that they are not getting today from the big trucking interests of the state of Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Van Allsburg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, on Page 4 of House Bill No. 867, Printer's No. 878, is the gentleman satisfied—

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman does not have the last Printer's number. It is 1001.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. I also have that, Mr. Speaker, but I am referring to the bill as it was before it went to conference. On Page 4, there is a definition of special assistance and general assistance. What does the conference report now do relative to the definition of special assistance and general assistance?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, we cut out the definition of special assistance.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman satisfied with that?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, the conference report deletes the separation of funds as provided for in the original bill. Is the gentleman satisfied with that?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Separation of funds, yes sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, in the original bill there was nothing by which the Secretary of Revenue could recommend and the Governor could discharge employes of the Department of Public Assistance. Is the gentleman satisfied with that change?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman satisfied with the Senate amendments which the conference report adopts, which permits the county boards to recommend to the Governor to discharge employes of the Department of Public Assistance, which was not provided for in the original bill?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. I am, Mr. Speaker, as a result of the conference.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman satisfied to give way on that as he originally introduced the bill?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, the bill as it now reads does not go as far as I intended.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, my question was is the gentleman satisfied with that?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, well, under the circumstances I am satisfied.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, under the Senate amendments which the conference committee has adopted, is the gentleman satisfied with the lax method of appointment or the selection of the heads of the various county boards, contrary to the usual civil service standards which his party so strongly advocated?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. I am satisfied under the circumstances, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman whether the circumstances were a bit strained in order to become satisfied?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I cannot say they were strained.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, in the conference report there is removed the appeal board which was to sit on cases where employes are dismissed, which appeal board was originally included in the bill. Is the gentleman satisfied with that?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I am satisfied with that in the same way evidently that the minority was when they voted for the civil service system that sets up civil service for the Liquor Control Board, where they have a similar provision.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, under the gentleman's bill and as deleted by the conference report, is the gentleman satisfied with taking away the appeal board in relation to awards to relief recipients?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I am satisfied with the whole bill.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I am asking the gentleman about that particular phase of the bill.

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, isn't that part of the bill?

Mr. ACHTERMAN. It is, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. I am satisfied with the whole bill, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman satisfied with having removed from his bill, as the conference report does, the power of the local boards to designate the qualifications of their employes, particularly that phase where they must be twenty-five years of age and upwards, they must be practical, fair-minded persons, of good character, they must be citizens of the United States, they must be qualified to vote in the county in which they are being employed, they must be residents of Pennsylvania, they must have been such for a period of not less than three years. Is the gentleman satisfied with that removal?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I am satisfied in the sense that it is the best bill that I could wiggle out under the circumstances. This is a compromise measure. We understand that; I think everybody does.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. We will come to that. Is the gentleman satisfied with the deletion from the bill of the provision which would originally have given the local boards the power to employe their own employes without referring them to Harrisburg?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. I am, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman satisfied with the deletion which takes away from the local boards the power to fix salaries of the employes?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I would like to say to the learned gentleman as I have said before, I am satisfied with this bill in its present form, as a compromise bill, the best we could get under the circumstances. I refuse to answer any further in detail because it looks to me as though the gentleman were only stalling for time. I am satisfied with the bill.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. May I ask the gentleman from Erie whether or not he is satisfied with the change that the conference committee and originally the Senate made in relation to awards to the blind?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, we are unable to do anything else on account of the ruling of the Federal Social Security Board.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Just one more question, how much of the original bill is left?

Mr. VAN ALLSBURG. Mr. Speaker, I will be very glad to answer that question. While this bill does not contain all I was hoping for, and the gentleman understands that full well because he was a member of the Committee, I was motivated in helping to shape this bill on the basis of the fact that the greatest difficulty in this whole problem of relief is to determine the eligibility of the people for relief. I believe under the present law, considering the nature of the examination questions that are given in the civil service examinations, and considering the fact that so many of the people who were successful were the social type of worker, they were the only ones that were successful almost exclusively, so that the young and inexperienced coming from high schools and colleges without any experience in life and business, are not going to work efficiently. There is an abundance of proof to show that they are not doing their work efficiently. The attorneys who represent the Department of Public Assistance say so, just as an attorney in Erie said recently when he discovered that a lady who had been on relief for some time had received seven hundred and eighty dollars in assistance and that she had money in both banks in the community. The attorney representing the department said a shake up was necessary in the Department of Assistance, that these young people were not efficient in doing this work. That is the crux of the whole problem.

In addition to that I want to say they are looking upon this matter of relief as a permanent operation. They are more interested, many of them, in keeping up the relief rolls than they are in lowering the rolls. I believe civil service has no place in that department, and it was my object to accomplish that very thing. I believe, according to the amendments that have been inserted in the bill by the Senate, that it will go a long way to help us in accomplishing what I intended to accomplish.

Mr. ACHTERMAN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the gentleman is correct in one statement, that I served on the Conference Committee. If he will get the conference report he will see that I certainly did not recommend or was a party to the report that is now before the House.

I originally started out with the thought that perhaps I could be of some assistance in solving the present problem in the Commonwealth. I frankly confess that I was gullible and the Conference Report that is now before the House should disillusion anybody who had the belief that there was ever any real honest, sincere desire to solve the relief problem.

As the Van Allsburg Bill was originally introduced it was introduced with the purpose of endeavoring to solve, and perhaps to simplify and certainly to scrutinize relief awards. It was intended to cut down the relief rolls. I felt originally that was what the majority party sincerely desired to do. Now all of the motives, all of the high desires expressed by the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Van Allsburg, have disappeared from the bill, and we no longer find anything there that he originally set out to accomplish, save only one thing and that is to rip out of their jobs the employes of the Department of Public Assistance. It very frankly is an effort to get political patronage for some of the followers of the Republican Party. It is no longer a relief bill, members of the House, it is a pure, simple and unadulterated ripper.

May I call your attention to one thing that is obviously unfair in this Conference Report. You heard discussed and debated at length this morning the Alien Registration Bill. You were told by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Brown, the fear he had in the adoption of such a bill was the danger of class hatred and class distinction. I presume he did not know he would be quickly faced with that very thing. You will find in this bill that you are now raising that ugly menace to orderly society. You are proposing to the aliens that unless they have filed their intention to become citizens within two years preceding the first day of January 1940 they will be ineligible for relief. May I ask you what you propose doing with those aliens now in our state, who have a residence here, who are without work, and without means of supporting themselves? Do you propose to create a class that will be forced into crime in order to support and maintain themselves? True they came to these shores perhaps of their own volition, but more likely by exploitation. They have contributed their part to the building of this Commonwealth. They now find themselves caught, like many of our citizens, in circumstances in which they are unable to make a living. They are now looking to the country and to the states they helped build to come to their relief in their hour of need. You are raising an ugly standard by telling them, "We will not aid you, we will not assist you." What substitute do you propose to furnish? Do you expect to permit them to starve in your midst? Those are problems that you are going to answer; the burden is yours. The deaths you may cause will be yours, the criminals you may create by this act will be yours. The debt that you are going to place upon society will be yours. Your "aye" votes will create that condition, and the obligation, criticism and censure that will follow will likewise be justly yours. You had a great desire for the protection of labor, but your desire folded up with the passage of the Pierson bill the other day, the intent of which is to see that you are going to have forced labor with no assurance of the wage you are going to pay that forced labor. Mr. Speaker, I ask the members of this House to vote this bill down.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the minority floor leader, the gentleman from York, Mr. Cohen.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from York permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, when this bill was pending in the House there was some difference of opinion relative to the section dealing with relief assistance for the blind. The minority proposed certain amendments at that time which were rejected by the majority, and I am asking the gentleman, as the minority floor leader, whether the suggestion made by the minority and rejected by the majority have been included in this Conference Report, simply with reference to the blind.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might state the position the minority took relative to relief to the blind and relative to obviating pensions to the blind and substituting relief in its place has not been acquiesced in by the conferees. The bill as it now reads is in accord with the position taken by the Democratic Party when the bill was before the House for enactment.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I understand then as far as the sections that deal with the blind are concerned, the minority is satisfied with this Conference Report?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I might say the gentleman is correct. The lamentable thing about the report is that the only thing that is good about it is the sections pertaining to the blind.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, when this bill was pending in the House, contrary to the general position of the minority, in the midst of whom I sat, I supported the measure. I supported the measure because it definitely de-centralized relief, it definitely and decisively placed the responsibility for local administration of relief upon the local boards. I said at that time, Mr. Speaker, that the trained social workers in their assembled might have been able to lick the Democratic Party, and I expressed the fear that those same trained social workers in their assembled might would be able to lick the Republican Party.

As I read this bill and note the destruction of what was the heart of the bill, local control, and see once again re-established centralized relief, a continuation of the very system against which the Van Allsburg Bill was a protest, I see that the learned gentleman on the majority side, while they have been able to cope with and crack the minority have been utterly helpless before the twiddle-twaddles and clutter-wits of the embattled social worker army. If we are to surrender the heart of our proposition, what is the use of legislation? If we do not establish the supremacy of the local boards, ministering to local relief needs, if we are still tied to the rules and regulations and the procedure, if you please, promulgated at Harrisburg, we have gained absolutely nothing.

As the minority leader said, the only thing worth while in this bill is the amendment relating to treatment of the blind, which received absolutely no hearing upon that side, but which amendment seems to have gained authority when proposed on the other side of this Legislature. So while I marched as I say, at variance with my party along that line up to the final argument in support of the Van Allsburg bill, I did not suspect that I was supporting a bill to be thrown out at the end of the journey. I say to the Republican members of this House, there is no resemblance in the spirit of this Conference Committee report, not the slightest resemblance to the original Van Allsburg bill.

Gentlemen of the House, you may shift your position, you may be satisfied with this pusillanimous promise, but for me I say it is wrong. I say you have sold out your position. If you want to turn yourselves over to the dilly-dallying tiddle-winks of the trained social workers and centralize relief control, that is your funeral. If you have gone thus far and are making such a lamentable failure, why in the world did you take so long to do it?

Mr. LEVY. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I had hoped when this bill left the House and went to the Senate it would be improved upon in very important details. We find that House Bill No. 867 through some influence has been amended to take the blind of Pennsylvania out of the needs class, and whether important pressure has been brought upon the Republican Party or not, nevertheless the blind of Pennsylvania have once more been assured of a pension as promised them by your party. However, the reinstatement of the pension for the blind submerges itself into very small significance when we find that the Conference Committee in attempting to pass on Civil Service merit has substituted for it a very weak sister.

I read from page 8, line 18,

> "Provided, however, that the county boards may recommend to the Governor that any person employed by it be suspended or removed without regard to the laws regulating employment in the Department of Public Assistance."

I say to the sponsor of this measure, who was a member of that Conference Committee, and I say to every member of that committee who signed this very interesting report that if they were sincere about ripping Civil Service from the relief system, if they felt that Civil Service in relief was not the right thing, they should have adhered to the original stand they took in the original measure as it passed the House. Instead you are attempting to tell the people of Pennsylvania you have amended this bill so as to take out a ripper. The fact remains that the ripper has not been taken out at all. The fact remains that the county boards appointed solely by the Governor now have the power to recommend dismissals for reasons best known to the leadership of the Republican Party, and the Governor in turn has the power to fire those employes.

I say to the Republican membership the ripper of Civil Service is still in the bill. You are not fooling anyone. The provision granting relief assistance, as it passed this House, is nevertheless also maintained in this measure, and I tell the Republican leadership now that we of the minority are going to watch very closely in the next few months the expenditures of the Department of Assistance because it was my stand, and my statement in prior debates on this bill, that the only reason the committee and the members on the Republican side inserted in this bill the power to grant a county board the right to fix minimum grants is because you intend to minimize grants. In the words of the sponsor of this bill, when the bill was on the floor for final passage once before, "We must make relief less attractive and less enticing," and you are doing that by giving a man $3.80 a week, from which he must pay at least three dollars a week for a room.

I say to the sponsor of this bill, and I say to the Republican leadership, you are not going to fool the people of Pennsylvania. House Bill 867 is coming back some day to haunt the proponents of a measure as vicious as this is.

Mr. REYNOLDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise to speak on this bill because the district from which I come has about 40 per cent relief recipients. I have heard so much from the other side of the House about chiseling by people who are on relief, they are all in disrepute, and I want to rectify that in the closing hours of this session.

As to those who are on relief in the district from which I come, I will say they would all go to work if they could get it. They desire work, so much so that just a few days ago, there was an advertisement in the paper for a lady to work as a scrub woman in the Department of Education. Out of my district over eighteen hundred women went down there and made application for that one job which only paid twelve dollars and fifty cents a week. I might cite instance after instance just like that.

This Van Allsburg Bill is going to do one thing, it is going to put the people of my neighboorhood into economic slavery under the domination of the Republican committeemen. The Republican Committeemen in my district are getting ready now and are going around taking the names of all the reliefers and telling them if they don't vote and register the way they want them to vote and register they will not get relief. Here is how the Van Allsburg bill allows them to do it. Take the bill on page 11, it says:

> "To make available for inspection and examination during office hours to any taxpayer in such manner as the County Board of Assistance may prescribe the names, addresses and amount of assistance granted to all persons then receiving general assistance."

I think that is a very vicious paragraph to put in the bill. If these people were beggars, if they were lazy, that might be alright, but they are honest and honorable people, some of whom at one time in their lives were in good circumstances, owning their own homes, educating their children by the sweat of their brow. Then the depression came along, banks failed, building and loans failed and they lost all they had. Now relief is the only assistance they have and to so advertise them to the public is a shame, and we should bow our heads in shame if we are going to expose these relief recipients to public ridicule. I am not ashamed to say that I represent a large relief constituency, because I know the majority of my people are honest and honorable. I live with them; I esteem them. Because five or ten per cent of the people who are on relief are chiselers is no reason for us to conclude that all persons on relief are not entitled to relief. I do not believe because one or two of the workers or visitors are young and inefficient, we should say that all of the young people who are out of college, out of high school, are inefficient. If that be true we should close all our high schools and colleges.

It is not fair for us, as Mr. Holland said the other night, who eat nice juicy stakes smothered with mushrooms, to come to the House and criticize those unfortunate people back home who, as I said before, because of no fault of their own, are forced to live under these conditions.

I hope we will defeat this entire bill. I say to the Republican Party, or any other party that is not willing to give to the poor people of this Commonwealth an opportunity to at least have a decent existence, to make a fair living they will have to answer for it. I ask that we consider this very seriously before we vote on it, and say to the people of Pennsylvania, the underprivileged group, "We are with you, if you will give us a chance we will work out your salvation." Until we do that we have not done our duty.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

REPORT OF COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE ON HOUSE BILL No. 1580

Mr. NORMAN WOOD. Mr. Speaker, I desire to call up at this time the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1580, Printer's No. 999.

The report was read by the Clerk as follows:

To the Members of the Senate and House of Representatives:

We, the undersigned, Committee of Conference on the part of the Senate and House of Representatives for the purpose of considering House Bill No. 1580 entitled:

"An Act making an appropriation to the Department of Welfare for the maintenance of certain hospitals"

respectfully submit the following bill as our report:

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. HARKINS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to thank the members of the Conference Committee for taking notice of the fact that the House Committee slighted the hospital in the district which I represent to a small extent. The amount is now restored to the amount which was recommended in the appropriation bill of two years ago.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

The SPEAKER. The report of the Conference Committee is the same as Printer's No. 996. Therefore the report of the Conference Committee is printed.

On the question,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill contains the inclusion of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, it also is unconstitutional and no lesser authority than the Deputy Attorney General who is sitting in this House now, conversing with the Secretary of the Hospital Association, knows that it is unconstitutional, or should know that the purpose of this bill has been changed during its passage through the House and Senate.

I am raising that question because the Constitution specifically provides that the purpose of a bill should not be changed during its passage. The bill as originally introduced was introduced for one particular purpose, and that purpose was set forth in the bill introduced in the House. When it got into the Senate, and only the rules of the House restrict me from telling you what I think of the Senate, when it got over there they changed the purpose of the bill and thereby ipso facto, and pronto, abinitio it comes unconstitutional. The learned majority leader will argue that it is not. He will say that it is still an amendment to the Administrative Code. That is the subject matter but the purpose of the amendment as it was originally introduced was for one particular thing, and that was to make a change in the time for the submission of the state budget. You know the Governor had difficulty with his figures and he needed extra time. He thought it wasn't nice that he should be violating the Administrative Code and so there was introduced an act that would change the time for the submission of the state budget. After the act was introduced the Senate started to abolish and transfer certain departments, administrative bodies and all that stuff with the result that they changed the purpose of the act.

I do not propose to raise a constitutional question at this late hour because my previous experience with a group of laymen concerning constitutional questions has not been very successful. I am calling it to the attention of the members of the House because I for one propose to save the Republican party from indulging in such infamy. I am going to raise the question of constitutionality in a court of learned jurisdiction without any reflection upon the majority members of the House—I mean without any more reflection than necessary. When that question has been raised I feel sure the court that has the last guess on this subject will guess with me.

Nevertheless I will ask the learned membership on this side of the House to vote in opposition to this unconstitutional bill, this bill that violates the fundamental body of our law, this bill that violates the Constitution which you men have taken an oath to support which says that the purpose of a bill shall not be changed during its passage through either House.

Therefore, I ask all of you to vote against this bill, because I know the Governor, having taken the same Constitutional oath you men have taken, will surely veto this measure.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in all seriousness I ask you gentlemen to suspend the rule that prohibits our floor leader from telling us what he thinks of the Senate.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, very briefly I wish to say for the second and I hope the last time, that the minority floor leader is wrong.

He well knows that this bill started out as an amendment to the legislative code. He should know and I think he does, that practically all the provisions contained in this bill are provisions which have already been passed by the House of Representatives, and most of which are already on the Governor's desk. He knows that it is more convenient to have all the amendments to the legislative code in one bill rather than in several bills. I know that the gentleman, when he was the majority floor leader in the last session, has the same opinion as I have. I know the gentleman is fully aware that this bill is not unconstitutional.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Woodside.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WOODSIDE. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, Mr. Justice Woodside, is it not a fact when this bill was introduced into the House by the Honorable David P. Reese, Jr., a member of this House from Dauphin County, and also a member of the minor judiciary, it only amended the time during which the Governor might submit his budget message?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, that was the original amendment of the legislative code contained in the bill. We know that Governor Earle had trouble in getting his budget message in in time and the same was true of all governors since the administrative code was adopted.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, is it not a fact that the purpose of the introduction of this bill was to extend the time during which the Governor might submit his message pertaining to the budget to the members of the General Assembly?

Mr. WOODSIDE. The purpose, Mr. Speaker, was to amend the legislative code by extending the time when the Governor should submit his budget message.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, was not the only purpose of the bill as set forth by the bill itself to make an amendment to the administrative code, which extended the time in which the Governor might submit his budget message?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, the only purpose of the bill was to amend the administrative code, and the only purpose of the bill today is to amend the code. The purpose has not changed and the gentleman knows it.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Was that not, Mr. Chief Justice Woodside—

The SPEAKER. Will Magistrate Cohen yield?

Has the gentleman from Dauphin completed his answer?

Mr. WOODSIDE. What was the last question?

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from York will proceed.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to inquire of Mr. Justice of the Peace Woodside—

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, there is no peace in this place as long as you are around here.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. ———whether the purpose as introduced, or the subject matter as introduced only pertained to the extension of the time that I have innumerably mentioned before?

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, as I have innumerably answered before the purpose of the bill is to amend the administrative code. I would say that I remember very distinctly in 1935 and 1937 there was passed by the then majority, and now minority of the House of Representatives, over our objection, bills in which the legislative purpose started out to do one thing and ended up by doing exactly the opposite thing.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Unfortunately, Mr. Justice Woodside, those bills were declared unconstitutional and I am now trying to protect you from that same pitfall.

Mr. WOODSIDE. Mr. Speaker, in answer to the gentleman I would say that those bills were not declared unconstitutional because there was no test made of them.

Mr. HERBERT B. COHEN. Mr. Speaker, may I respectfully request that the reporter underscore the last answer of the gentleman from Dauphin because I believe he has apparently confessed that the Earle administration did pass some bills that were not subsequently declared unconstitutional.

On the question recurring,

Will the House adopt the report of the Committee of Conference?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:
